Inasmuch as immediate delivery of the lumber for Project 22102 is necessary, permission is respectfully requested to award a contract for this item to the low bidder promising immediate delivery, the Barney & Carey Company. The total award will be $937.

Your permission is also requested to award a contract for furnishing lumber for Project 21992 to the low bidder, Blacker & Shepard Company. The total award will be $900.20.

Inasmuch as the awards do not exceed $1,000 formal contracts will not be necessary.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN A. BREEN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, April 28, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Your permission is respectfully requested to award a contract, without publicly advertising, to the Haller Engineering Associates, Inc., for furnishing fuel testing services to the Supply Department for the period from May 1, 1941, to April 30, 1942. The prices upon which the proposed contract is based are as follows:

For each sample of semi-bituminous coal collected and tested, $13.50.

For each sample of semi-bituminous coal collected, tested and sized, $16.50.

For each sample of anthracite coal collected and tested, $10.

For each sample of anthracite coal collected, tested and sized, $13.

For each sample of heavy fuel oil collected and tested, $10.

For each sample of medium fuel oil collected and tested, $10.

For each sample of light fuel oil collected and tested, $10.

For each sample of range oil collected and tested, $10.

Samples of all coal and oil to be tested shall be collected and prepared strictly in accordance with the methods of procedure adopted by the American Society for Testing Materials.

The approximate amount of the contract will be six thousand dollars. Inasmuch as the Haller Engineering Associates, Inc., have been rendering fuel testing services to this department for the past three years and as the prices set forth are the lowest quoted for this particular type of professional work, it is my opinion that no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising.

Yours respectfully,

JOHN A. BREEN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, May 1, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Permission is respectfully requested to award a contract to the White Motor Company, 930 Commonwealth avenue, Boston, for the following:

One 5-ton White Super-power wrecker, Model WA126, delivered price, excluding Federal tax, $6,175 (for the Sumner Traffic Tunnel).

Inasmuch as the White Motor Company is the direct agent of the manufacturer nothing would be gained by publicly advertising.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN A. BREEN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, May 1, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Permission is respectfully requested to award a contract to the White Motor Company, 930 Commonwealth avenue, Boston, for the following:

LAND-TAKING IN DORCHESTER.

The Mayor has approved the order of the Board of Street Commissioners for the taking of land for sewerage works to be constructed as follows:

The right and easement is taken to lay and maintain sewerage works in the following described lands, exclusive of any interest in trees, buildings or other structures standing thereon, reserving to the owners thereof the right to use the lands for any purpose except such as may injure or obstruct said works, and except for placing or maintaining any structure on said lands not authorized in writing by the Mayor of said city; trees, buildings or other structures standing upon or affixed to the land in which an easement is hereby taken are to be removed therefrom within sixty days following a notice of the city's intention to enter upon said taking for the purpose of constructing said sewerage works. Said lands are in that part of Boston formerly Dorchester and are bounded as follows:

A parcel of land, owners unknown, being part of the private way known as Owen street, bounded:

Southwesterly by Tiverton road, seventeen and 1-100 feet; northwesterly by easement taken by the City of Boston for sewerage purposes July 11, 1922, two hundred thirty-nine and 87-100 feet; southwesterly by the same, six feet; southeasterly by the same, two hundred forty and 9-100 feet; southwesterly by Tiverton road, seventeen and 1-100 feet; northwesterly by the northwesterly line of Owen street, two hundred sixty-two and 29-100 feet; northeasterly by Morton street, forty feet; and southeasterly by the southeasterly line of Owen street, two hundred sixty and 79-100 feet, containing nine thousand and twenty-two square feet, more or less.

The sewerage works to be constructed are as follows: Two hundred and thirty-five linear feet of 12-inch pipe surface drain.

No betterments are to be assessed for the making of the aforesaid improvement.

Voted, That this Board determines that no person sustains damages in his estate by the taking of an easement for sewerage purposes in Owen street, Dorchester district, under the order of the Board of May 6, 1941, and awards no damages therefor.

CLAIMS ALLOWED.

The Mayor, upon recommendation of the Corporation Counsel, has approved the following claims:

John J. Norton, 29 Cushing avenue, Dorchester, to be reimbursed, in the sum of $55, as the result of an accident which occurred on December 5, 1940, when motor apparatus belonging to the Fire Department, which he was operating, collided with a parked automobile owned by one Albert DeBenedetto.

William J. Lyons, 22 Logan street, Roxbury, to be reimbursed, in the sum of $21.95, for accident which occurred on September 6, 1940, when motor vehicle belonging to the Sanitary Division, Public Works Department, which he was operating, backed into a lamp-post owned by the Boston Consolidated Gas Company.

CIRCULAR LETTER NO. 5.

CITY OF BOSTON,
MAYOR'S OFFICE, April 22, 1941.

To All City and County Officials.

Subject: Step-Rate Increases for Employees in the Military or Naval Service.

Department heads and officials are hereby instructed to include in their recommendations for step rates not only those employees automatically entitled to such increases after twelve months' continuous service, but also the names of all city and county employees now in the military or naval service of the United States Government by reason of induction under the Selective Service Act, voluntary enlistment, call to service in the reserve force or National Guard, and all other forms of military or naval service, as though the services of these employees had been continuous during the past year. The effect of this instruction will be to insure that such employees will return to the service of the city at a salary base the same as though their service to the municipality had been unbroken.

Arrangements will be made by the personnel and financial departments of the city to the end that those now in the service and entitled to step-rate increases effective at some date prior to their temporary separation from the service will be forwarded their checks covering these step-rates from the date for which they are entitled to it to the time of their entry into the military or naval service.

Respectfully,

MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS. (STATE SERVICE.)

NOTE.—Applicants are advised to file applications early. In event of a tie on the eligible list, the applicant who filed his application first will be given precedence. The lists established as a result of these examinations will be used to fill all vacancies in these classifications in various State departments.

APPLE INSPECTOR (MALE), DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, JUNE 14, 1941.

Last date for filing applications, Monday June 2, 1941, at 5 o'clock p. m.

Salary: $6 a day.

Vacancies: The character of this inspection work is seasonal and temporary, and depends entirely upon the program of the Federal Government in purchasing surplus apples from our Massachusetts fruit growers. There is no assurance that this program will continue for any definite length of time, or repeated during another year.

Duties: Inspection of apples under the Federal Surplus Commodities Purchasing Program. The inspector should be familiar with damage to apples caused by russetting, sunburn, spray burn, limbrubs, hail, drought spots, scars, disease, insects or other mechanical damage; and with the color requirements for the Federal grades of apples and the tolerances and conditions after storage or transit.

NOTE.—After certification, appointees will be required to pass the Federal license requirements.

Subjects and Weights: Training and experience, 2; practical questions, 3; total, 5. In marking experience, no credit is given for provisional employment.

Passing Requirements: At least 70 per cent in each subject of the examination in order to become eligible.

Physical fitness to be determined by physical examination.

DIRECTOR OF INSURANCE AGENTS' EXAMINATIONS, DEPARTMENT OF BANKING AND INSURANCE, JUNE 14, 1941.

Last date for filing applications, Monday June 2, 1941, at 5 o'clock p. m.

This examination is open to both males and females.

Salary: The entrance salary is $2,400 a year; the maximum salary is $2,940 a year.

Vacancy: At present there is one vacancy for a male.

Duties: The supervision of examinations for insurance agents, brokers and adjusters. This includes the preparation of examination material, the conduct of the examination and the marking and classifying of the papers. The duties also include the preparation of the pay roll (covering one hundred sixty to one hundred seventy employees); the supervision and distribution of all incoming mail; the supervision of the records pertaining to the admission of insurance companies domiciled in other states and countries; the recording of certain activities of such companies within this Commonwealth; and, under the direction of the Commissioner, the preparation of the budget and general supervision of expenditures.

Subjects and Weights: Training and experience, 2; practical questions, 3; total, 5. In marking experience, no credit is given for provisional employment.

Passing Requirements: At least 70 per cent in each subject of the examination in order to become eligible.

Physical fitness to be determined by physical examination.

PRINCIPAL STATISTICAL MACHINE OPERATOR (MALE), DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WELFARE, JUNE 27, 1941.

Last day for filing applications, Friday, June 13, 1941, at 5 p. m.

Salary: The entrance salary is $1,800 a year; the maximum salary is $2,160 a year.

Vacancy: At present there is one vacancy for a Military Substitute due to induction into military service of the permanent employee.

Duties: To be in direct charge of all tabulating, posting and statistical machines in the Bureau of Accounts, State Welfare Department. These pieces of equipment include: (a) An alphabetical accounting machine with 80-column control, Carroll Carriage (automatic), cutting device, etc.; (b) a Sorter; (c) and (d) two alphabetical punch machines; (e) transfer posting machine, adding machines, calculators, typewriters, etc. To supervise the work of from three to five machine operators and clerks in the tabulating section; to prepare tabulating cards for Old Age Assistance and Aid to Dependent Children recipients and to tabulate complete records of all grants in accordance with Federal, State, and local participation by the cities and towns of the State.

Applicants must understand the rewiring and manual changing of all tabulating equipment in connection with setting up five plug-boards and other mechanical appliances.

Subjects and Weights: Training and experience, 2; practical questions, 3; total, 5. In marking experience, no credit is given for provisional employment.

Passing Requirements: At least 70 per cent in each subject of the examination in order to become eligible.

Physical fitness to be determined by physical examination.

Applicants should be familiar with the shellfish trade in general.

NOTE.—Experience in collecting samples for analysis and in making sanitary inspections of shellfish shucking plants is desirable.

Subjects and Weights: Training and experience, 2; practical questions, 3; total, 5. In marking experience, no credit is given for provisional employment.

Passing Requirements: At least 70 per cent in each subject of the examination in order to become eligible.

Physical fitness to be determined by physical examination.

AMENDED DAMAGES.

The Mayor has approved the following vote of the Board of Street Commissioners:

Voted, That the order of the Street Commissioners and Mayor of August 24, 1938, determining that no person sustains damages by the making of the public improvement, consisting of the laying out of Hillock street, be, and the same hereby is, amended, by striking out in the first and second lines of said order the words: "that no person sustains in his estate," and by striking out in the last line of said order the word: "no." That said order be further amended by adding thereto Anne H. Yapp, $250. That the amount $250, be, and the same hereby is, awarded to Anne H. Yapp for the damages sustained by the making of the said improvement.

CIRCULAR LETTER NO. 3.

CITY OF BOSTON,
MAYOR'S OFFICE, May 9, 1941.

To the Heads of City and County Departments.

GENTLEMEN,—Chapter 263 of the Acts of 1938 provides that every officer and board in charge of a department of the city or county shall on or before the sixth day of June in each year prepare and furnish to the City Auditor a list of the officials and employees under said officer or board and paid by the city or county on the first day of June preceding, giving the name, residence by street and ward, designation, compensation, and date of election or appointment of each of said officials and employees and the date when each first entered the employ of the city or county.

In order to facilitate compliance with the provisions of this law, uniform blanks have been prepared to be used by every department making the return required. A supply of these blanks may be obtained at the office of the City Auditor.

The preparation of these lists is a matter of considerable importance and should command your presonal attention.

Respectfully,

MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

CIRCULAR LETTER NO. 4.

CITY OF BOSTON,
MAYOR'S OFFICE, May 9, 1941.

To All Department Heads.

GENTLEMEN,—Department heads may excuse from work on Saturday, May 31, 1941, and on Saturdays during June, July and August and the first Saturday in September, persons employed in their departments on an annual salary basis, provided that such excuse from work is consistent with the efficient and economical conduct of the city's business and provided also that the provisions of section 10 of chapter 3 of the Revised Ordinances of 1925 are complied with.

Department heads may excuse from work on Saturday, May 31 and on Saturdays during June, July and August and the first Saturday in September, persons employed in their departments by the day who have performed overtime work on account of which they may be given such time off, provided that the giving of such time off is consistent with the proper functioning of the department. Apart from a proper allowance for overtime, department heads may not excuse from work for the entire day such employees.

Respectfully,

MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

POLICE DEPARTMENT (STATISTICS FOR 1938).

Number of police force, December 1, 1938, was 2,229, viz., the superintendent, 4 deputy superintendents, 30 captains, 66 lieutenants, 4 lieutenant-inspectors, 187 sergeants and 1,937 patrolmen, distributed in 19 divisions and a traffic division. Signal service men, 16; clerks, janitors, etc., 163.

Total number of arrests in year ending November 30, 1938, 97,187 or 1,239 more than in previous year; persons arrested on warrants, 14,745; without warrants, 52,490; summoned by the courts, 29,952; of those arrested, 6,931 were discharged and all others held for trial; foreign-born persons arrested, 12,116 or 12.46 per cent of total; boys under 17 years of age, 2,787; women and girls, all ages, 8,485; non-residents, 27,441, or 28.23 per cent of all arrested.

Drunkenness the cause of 40,815 arrests, an average of 111 per day or 42 per cent of total. This is 4,919 less than the number of such arrests in 1937 and 1,368 less than the average for the past five years. The prosecutions for homicide numbered 142; arrests for refusing to support family, 1,015; violation of automobile law, 15,544; violation of liquor law (State), 137; violation of City ordinances, 269; violation of street traffic regulations, 15,477; suspected persons, 5,400.

Sick and injured persons assisted, 9,410; insane persons taken in charge, 494; lost children restored to homes, 1,533; persons imprisoned, 7,017; persons fined, 17,957, the fines amounting to $157-817; stolen property recovered, $447-021.50; licenses issued, 21,356 (including 12,621 for dogs and 5,334 for vehicles and drivers), for which $67,209 was received. Of 2,629 applications for licenses to carry loaded revolvers, 2,431 were granted.

Accidents from all causes in the streets, parks and squares caused death of 122 and injury to 7,289. Automobile accidents killed 76 and injured 4,431. The automobile fatalities were 62.3 per cent of the 122 deaths.

Annual salaries: Commissioner, $8,000; superintendent, $7,000; deputy superintendents, 4 at $4.500 each; captains, $4,000; lieutenants and lieutenant-inspectors, $2,700; sergeants, $2,500; patrolmen, $1,600 the first year, with $100 yearly increase until maximum of $2,100 is reached. The Traffic Division numbered a force of 211 in 1938.

In 1938, the Police Charitable Fund amounted to $207,550 and $7,900 was paid to 54 beneficiaries during said year.

METROPOLITAN DISTRICT, 1938.

Total valuation of the 43 cities and towns in the Metropolitan District in 1938 was $3,499,398,193 and the property tax on the same was $130,474,309. The average tax rate was $33.28. Strictly speaking, tax rates cannot be averaged. A rate of $37.28 would be required to raise $130,474,309 on a valuation of $3,499,398,198. Of the total valuation, 44.37 per cent applied to property in Boston.

The total valuation of the 13 cities in the district was $1,126.838,735 with a total property tax of $42,494,084, requiring a tax rate of $37.71.

Boston's tax rate of $41.30 was exceeded by Chelsea ($46.20), Revere ($47.00), Saugus ($46.00) and Somerville ($43.90).

REVENUE BOND ACTS.

The 1936 issue of the "Municipal Index" contains a detailed study of the revenue bond acts in the thirty-three states which have enabling acts, and reports of all forty-eight states, showing what advantage has been taken of these acts by cities to finance the construction, operation and maintenance of sewerage systems and sewage treatment plants by service charges.

The table shows the status of revenue bond acts and other enabling acts in the different states, the dates when the acts became effective, and whether or not cities have taken advantage of the opportunity offered for financing bonds by service charges. In the case of states with no enabling acts, the table shows whether cities are charging sewer rentals under some other authority.

According to the findings of the National Safety Council motor traffic deaths in 1935 totaled 36,400, compared with 1934's record of 36,000.

The only decrease was among school children up to fifteen years of age. Motor vehicle accidents to children have increased much less than those of adults since 1922, when safety education began on a national scale. October, November and December were the reddest months. Two-thirds of the accidents were in places under 10,000 population; more than 40 per cent of the victims pedestrians.

Thirteen states decreased traffic deaths 7 per cent or more: Delaware, Illinois, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Montana, North Dakota, Oregon, Rhode Island, Utah, Vermont, Wyoming and Washington.

BUDGETARY CONTROL.

Prior to installing the present system of budgetary control, effective as of January 1, 1939, the city of Newark had no centralized accounting control over its budget commitments. The city's general ledger contained accounts for the various budget appropriations, and reflected disbursements out of the appropriations. However, commitments for work and material were not recorded in the city's accounts until after bills submitted by the vendors had been approved for payment by the Board of Commissioners. Consequently, financial reports could only show the amount of appropriated moneys that had not been disbursed out of any account. No recognition could be given in these reports to the unpaid purchase commitments, since the amount was not known. The American City.

TAUNTON'S ASPHALT PLANT.

One of the functions of a city public works or street department is to operate as effectively as possible in the construction and maintenance of its streets and sidewalks and to produce the necessary materials for paving at the lowest possible cost. In some cities this is effected by the purchase of all paving materials in either the raw or the mixed stage. Taunton has used a city-owned 100-ton asphalt plant for street paving and maintenance and for sidewalk construction for ten years. Located in the city yard with the equipment repair shop and garage, the plant is housed in a 60 by 90 foot building with a 30 by 100 foot wing, which was formerly used as a foundry. The American City.

BOSTON AS A TOWN.

From its foundation until 1755, or a period of 125 years, Boston was not only the most outstanding but the most populous town in the American colonies. In 1760, Philadelphia's population was ahead, viz., 18,756, Boston's then being 15,631 and New York's about 14,000. In the last year of town government, viz., 1821, Boston's population was about 45,000 and its public debt $100,000, all incurred for new county buildings.

The history of Boston as a town during a period of nearly two centuries surpasses in civic interest that of Boston as a city because of the untiring zeal and successful efforts of its townsmen to realize more of true democracy than had ever been attained before. Their obligations were held as sacred as their liberties.

WATER-SUPPLY DEVELOPMENT IN THE UNITED STATES.

In 1652 Boston introduced the first American public water supply. The first mechanical pumps were used in 1761 at Bethlehem, Pa., where Hans Christiansen, an American pioneer water-supply engineer, made his pumps work "after severe struggles." In 1850 there were only 100 water plants in the United States, and as late as 1875 only 243. In 1933 there were more than 11,000 public water supplies, some serving more than one community.

TO PROTECT MINORS.

Buffalo is considering an ordinance, similar to the one in effect in New York City, for the protection of minors in theaters. It permits children, unaccompanied by adults, only in theaters licensed as to adequate sanitary and safety provisions, sets aside a certain section for them and requires the presence of a licensed matron.

SQUARE DEAL IN ASSESSMENTS FOR TAXATION.

Many cities are finding it greatly to their advantage to have their tax valuations periodically overhauled. The first criterion of any assessment is equity. For every citizen who wants through "pull" or however else to get off easy, there are twenty, nay a hundred who want a fair and square deal for all.

The appraisal of city real estate is a highly technical affair.

Few things are more important than the equalization of assessments. Particularly in cities that are cramped by an inflexible debt or tax limit, an honest, full value assessment may be a great boon. Without the slightest raise in the tax rate a substantially greater tax yield may be had.

BOSTON'S POPULATION ON APRIL 1, 1930, BY WARDS.

Ward 1, 61,454; Ward 2, 31,663; Ward 3, 66,219; Ward 4, 31,010; Ward 5, 30,571; Ward 6, 34,689; Ward 7, 32,482; Ward 8, 31,943; Ward 9, 30,362; Ward 10, 29,694; Ward 11, 29,938; Ward 12, 36,123; Ward 13, 29,019; Ward 14, 55,914; Ward 15, 27,729; Ward 16, 31,329; Ward 17, 30,-099; Ward 18, 41,152; Ward 19, 27,519; Ward 20, 31,540; Ward 21, 29,752; Ward 22, 30,987.

Total population by U. S. Census, 781,188.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, May 12, 1941.

Regular meeting of the City Council in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at 2 p. m., President GALVIN in the chair. Absent, Coun. Hurley and Kelly.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the Flag.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE MAYOR.

Subject to confirmation by the Council, the Mayor submitted the following appointments, viz.:

Constables for term of one year, beginning with first day of May, 1941, with authority to serve civil process upon the filing of the necessary bond: J. Charles Karcher, 14 Glenside avenue, Ward 11; James F. Mahoney, 10 Catawba street, Ward 12; Salvatore Grassa, 791 Saratoga street, Ward 1.

Weighers of Goods: Raymond A. Bacon, 32 Montvale street, Roslindale, Mass.; Charles Nason, Border street, West Newton, Mass.

Weigher of Coal: Edna Levine, 14 Hildreth street, Dorchester, Mass.

Severally laid over a week under the law.

CONSTRUCTION OF HILLSIDE STREET, WARD 10.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 12, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the Commissioner of Public Works relative to your order of April 28, 1941, concerning repaving with smooth pavement, under the W. P. A. plan of construction, Hillside street, Ward 10.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
May 10, 1941.

William T. Doyle,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir,—This is in reference to the following order that was passed in the City Council, April 28, 1941:

"Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to repave with smooth pavement, under the W. P. A. plan of construction, Hillside street, Ward 10."

In the event that it is determined necessary to resurface the above-referenced street, it is my intention to have the project submitted to the W. P. A. authorities providing for the reconstruction work to be done during the current year.

Very truly yours,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Placed on file.

PLAY AREA, WINTHROP SQUARE PARK.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 12, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the chairman of the Park Department relative to your order of April 28, 1941, concerning the converting the Winthrop Square Park into a play area for children.

Respectfully,
[MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Park Department, May 8, 1941.

William T. Doyle,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir,—I have your memorandum of May 2, with inclosure, order from the City Council that the Park Department convert the Winthrop Square Park into a playground for children.

Please be informed that this would meet with all kinds of objections from the residents of Charlestown. It has always been the intention to maintain the area as a park with the Soldiers Monument in the center. I do not think it would be advisable to even consider turning this area into a play area,—in fact, I am having the grounds fixed up at the present time and put down to grass.

Very truly yours,
WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

Placed on file.

CEMENT SHELTER, DEWEY BEACH, WARD 2.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 12, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the chairman of the Park Department relative to your order of April 28, 1941, concerning the construction of an all cement shelter at Dewey Beach, Ward 2.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Park Department, May 8, 1941.

William T. Doyle,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir,—I have your memorandum of May 2, with inclosure, order from the City Council that an all cement shelter be constructed at Dewey Beach, Charlestown.

I can make up a project to this effect, submit it to the authorities and no doubt it will be approved. After it is approved I cannot start it, due to the fact no skilled help can be obtained from the W. P. A. at the present time.

There is no way this department can comply with this request, except through a W. P. A. project.

Very truly yours,
WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

IMPROVEMENT OF SAVIN HILL PLAYGROUND.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 12, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the chairman of the Park Department relative to your order of April 28, 1941, concerning the seeding and sodding of the Savin Hill Playground.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Park Department, May 8, 1941.

William T. Doyle,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir,—I have your memorandum of May 2, with inclosure, order from the City Council regarding the seeding and sodding of the Savin Hill Playground.

This is a W. P. A. project I have been trying to clean up for some little time. It will be too late to do any seeding when the W. P. A. grading job is done. I feel sure all I can do with it this spring is to grade it and roll it. I will order a roller in there immediately.

Very truly yours,
WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

Placed on file.

CAR SERVICE, DORCHESTER AND ROXBURY.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 12, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the President and General Manager of the Boston Elevated Railway Company relative to your order of March 31, 1941, concerning making arrangements for better and more frequent service on the Ashmont-Morton Street bus line and on the Washington Street-Dudley Street car line.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

Boston Elevated Railway,
April 28, 1941.

Mr. William T. Doyle,
Chief Clerk-Secretary, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir,—Since the receipt of your letter of April 3, with copy of order of the City Council requesting more frequent service on the Morton-Fairmount Streets to Ashmont Station bus line and on the Ashmont to Dudley Street via Washington Street car line, we have had counts taken which show the service to be adequate to meet the present riding requirements.

Riding on both lines will, however, be watched and service adjustments made if necessary.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD DANA,
President and General Manager.

SERVICE IN HUNTINGTON AVENUE SUBWAY.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 12, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the President and General Manager of the Boston Elevated Railway Company relative to your order of April 7, 1941, concerning providing adequate car service in the new Huntington Avenue Subway by placing more cars in service.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

Boston Elevated Railway,
May 7, 1941.

Mr. William T. Doyle,
Chief Clerk-Secretary, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir,—In reply to your letter of April 12, with order of the City Council concerning car service in the new Huntington Avenue Subway, I would say that since the new subway was opened the riding has been carefully observed and adjustments made to meet the riding requirements, with the following results:

Scheduled trips from Arborway before subway opened, 208; at present, 243; scheduled trips from Francis street before subway opened, 146; at present, 131. Total trips before subway opened, 354; at present, 374. Increase, 20.

Recent counts show that service operated is adequate to meet present riding requirements, but it will be watched and adjustments made from time to time as found to be necessary.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD DANA,
President and General Manager.

FUNDING OF OVERLAY DEFICITS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 12, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—Chapter 225 of the Acts of 1941 authorizes the borrowing of an amount not in excess of $3,000,000 to be used to meet deficits arising through the granting of abatements of taxes, assessed in years prior to 1938, in excess of the overlay included in the tax levies of the years of assessment. This legislation represents an extension of the authorization originally granted in chapter 235 of the Acts of 1938. The experience of the city under this original act indicates that the amount of funding authorized was not sufficient to cover the overlay deficits occasioned largely by the action of the Board of Tax Appeals in granting reductions in valuations established prior to the current administration.

As of April 30, 1941, overlay deficits totalling $994,579.28, relating to the years 1931 to 1937, inclusive, were reflected on the books of the city. To reimburse the city treasury for this accumulated loss of revenue and to provide a reserve for subsequent deficits as they may arise during the balance of the current year I submit an order providing for an appropriation of $2,000,000. I respectfully recommend adoption of this order by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

Ordered, That under the provisions of chapter 225 of the Acts of 1941 the sum of two million dollars be, and hereby is, appropriated, to be used for the funding of overlay deficits, and that the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, upon request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount.

Referred to Committee on Finance.

STOCKHOLDERS OF BOSTON ELEVATED.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 12, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the members of the Finance Commission relative to your orders of April 14, 1941, concerning submitting to the City Council a list of the stockholders of the Boston Elevated Railway and the amounts of stock held by each, and also the names and addresses of the stockholders and amounts held by each at the time legislation was passed guaranteeing dividends by the State.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
The Finance Commission, May 8, 1941.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,
Mayor of Boston.

Honorable Sir,—On April 14, 1941, the City Council adopted two orders by which the Finance Commission was requested, "through his Honor the Mayor,"

(1) to inform the Boston City Council as to the names and addresses of the stockholders of the Boston Elevated Railway Company and the amounts of stock held by each;

(2) to submit the list of names and addresses of the stockholders and amounts held by each at the time legislation was passed guaranteeing dividends by the State.

The commission did not have this information in its possession. Therefore, on April 21, 1941, the commission sent the following letter to the Secretary of the Board of Directors of the Boston Elevated Railway Company:

The Finance Commission of the City of Boston incloses herewith order passed by the City Council of the City of Boston, under date of April 14, 1941, requesting that this commission submit to the City Council a list of the stockholders of the Boston Elevated Railway, their addresses, and the number of shares held by each, both as of May 22, 1918, and at present.

This order is transmitted to you with the suggestion that it be complied with, unless in your opinion and that of the Board of Directors of the Boston Elevated Railway, there is some valid and substantial reason why the information should not be furnished.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

In reply to this letter Mr. John H. Moran, vice president and treasurer of the Boston Elevated Railway, called upon the chairman of the Finance Commission at his private office on Tuesday, May 6, and deposited with the chairman two volumes, approximately 11 inches by 19 inches in size, one of which contains the list of stockholders at the time of the annual meeting for the year 1941, which was held in March, and the other containing the list of stockholders as of May 24, 1918. The list of stockholders as of the 1941 meeting is spread over slightly more than two hundred pages with approximately thirty names and addresses on a page. The 1918 list is spread over approximately one hundred seventy-five pages with approximately thirty-six names and addresses on a page.

It was explained by Mr. Moran to the chairman of the Finance Commission that these volumes constitute the official records of the Elevated Company and are not duplicates, that duplication would be expensive and slow, and that therefore he had intrusted to the chairman of the Finance Commission the original records upon the definite understanding that they would be safely kept and would be returned to the Boston Elevated Railway Company.

The commission is unwilling to accept the responsibility of being the custodian of these original records, on the foregoing conditions. Therefore, the commission has returned the records to the vice president and treasurer of the Elevated Company.

The commission assumes, however, that inasmuch as the Board of Directors was informed by the commission's letter of April 21, 1941, set forth above, that the commission was requesting the list for the benefit of the City Council, it will be accessible to the Council if request for it be made directly to the Boston Elevated Railway Company.

Respectfully submitted,

Charles M. Storey, Chairman,
James E. Maguire,
David Lasker,
James H. Flanagan,
Elias F. Shamon,
The Finance Commission.

Placed on file.

DATE OF ANNUAL RENTAL PAYMENTS OF HUNTINGTON AVENUE SUBWAY.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 9, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith an explanatory communication from the chairman of the Transit Commission and a copy of chapter 148 of the Acts of 1941 changing the date of the annual rental payments for the use of the Huntington Avenue Subway by the Boston Elevated Railway Company.

I recommend the passage of the accompanying order accepting the act.

Respectfully,
Maurice J. Tobin, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Transit Department, May 6, 1941.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—This department is in receipt of notice from the Secretary of the Commonwealth that chapter 148 of the Acts of the year 1941, entitled "An Act providing for modification of the terms and conditions under which the Boston Elevated Railway Company has been granted the use of certain subway premises and equipment, and making certain changes relative to payments in connection with such use" was approved by his Excellency the Governor on March 31, 1941.

This act is an amendment of section 7 of Part II of chapter 366 of the Acts of 1933, as affected by chapter 159 of the Acts of 1937, and by chapter 395 of the Acts of 1938, and as amended by section 1 of chapter 398 of the Acts of 1938.

Chapter 366 of the Acts of 1933, above referred to, authorizing the construction and equipment of the Huntington Avenue Subway, provided for annual rental payments by the Boston Elevated Railway Company on the twenty-fifth day of July, and the contract between the City and the Company for the sole and exclusive use by the company of the premises and equipment of the Huntington Avenue Subway contained the same provision. At the time of the execution of this contract the City of Boston tax year was April first.

In view of the change in the Boston tax rate year from April first to January first it became necessary to move forward the annual date of rental payment by the Boston Elevated Railway Company to the twenty-fifth day of April in each year to and including the year 1941 and to the twenty-fifth day of January in each year thereafter.

The acceptance of this act, chapter 148 of the Acts of 1941, constitutes an agreement on the part of the City and the Boston Elevated Railway Company to execute a contract modifying, in accordance with the provisions of this act, the existing contract between the City and the Company for the use by the company of the premises and equipment of the Huntington Avenue Subway only in regard to the date of rental payments.

The first requirement of the act relating to its effectiveness provides for its acceptance both by vote of the City Council and by approval of your Honor and by the filing of a certificate of such acceptance and approval with the State Secretary during the current year.

The department respectfully forwards herewith a photostatic copy of the act.

Respectfully yours,
T. F. SULLIVAN, Chairman.

Ordered, That chapter one hundred and forty-eight of the Acts of the year nineteen hundred and forty-one, "An Act Providing for Modification of the Terms and Conditions Under Which the Boston Elevated Railway Company Has Been Granted the Use of Certain Subway Premises and Equipment, and Making Certain Changes Relative to Payments in Connection With Such Use" be, and is hereby, accepted.

Referred to Executive Committee.

APPROPRIATION FOR ZONING BOARD.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 9, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—Each year it is customary to appropriate the sum of $1,500 to carry on the routine work of the Board of Zoning Adjustment of the City of Boston constituted under section 20, chapter 488, of the Acts of 1924, commonly known as the Boston Zoning Law. The money is expended for verbatim records of public hearings, blueprints, postage, automobile hire for inspection trips, personal services, including engineering, drafting, secretarial and clerical work, and miscellaneous expenses.

The Board of Zoning Adjustment, through its chairman, Frederic H. Fay, has requested an appropriation for 1941, and in compliance with this request I submit the attached order providing for the appropriation of $1,500 from the Contingent Fund, and recommend adoption by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

Ordered, That the sum of fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500) be, and hereby is, appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Board of Zoning Adjustment, for the operating expenses of this Board for the year 1941, said sum to be charged to the Contingent Fund.

Referred to Executive Committee.

SAFETY ISLANDS, WARD 2.

The following were received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 12, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the Commissioner of Public Works relative to your order of April 28, 1941, concerning the construction of a safety island on Cambridge street, Ward 2, in the vicinity of Sullivan square.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
May 10, 1941.

William T. Doyle,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir,—This is in reference to the following order that was passed in the City Council April 28, 1941:

"Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to construct a safety island on Cambridge street, Ward 2, in the vicinity of Sullivan square."

A plan was recently prepared in connection with the installation of the above-referenced safety island by the Traffic Department.

I anticipate that the island will be installed during the current year under a W. P. A. project.

Very truly yours,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

"Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to construct a safety island at Warren and Park streets, Ward 2."

A plan was prepared by the Traffic Department several months ago in connection with the proposed installation of a safety island at the above-referenced intersection.

It is my intention to have the island installed during the current year with the aid of the Works Project Administration.

Very truly yours,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Placed on file.

RESURFACING WARD 11 STREETS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 12, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the Commissioner of Public Works relative to your order of April 28, 1941, concerning resurfacing with smooth pavement the following streets in Ward 11: Spalding street, Rosemary street.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
May 10, 1941.

William T. Doyle,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir,—This is in reference to the following order that was passed in the City Council April 28, 1941:

"Ordered, That the Public Works Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to resurface with smooth pavement the following streets in Ward 11: Spalding street, Rosemary street."

In the event that the department engineers determine that the resurfacing of the above-referenced streets is necessary, the work will be done during the current year as a W. P. A. project, unless the W. P. A. street construction program is curtailed to such an extent as to make it impossible to complete the street work that the department anticipates doing, during the current year.

Very truly yours,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Placed on file.

RESIGNATION FROM COMMITTEE BY COUNCILOR WARD.

The following was received:

May 12, 1941.

To the President.

I desire at this time to resign from the Committee on Licenses, to take effect immediately.

PRECINCT CHANGES IN WARDS 2, 7, 9 AND 10.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Election Department, May 7, 1941.

Wilfred J. Doyle, Esq.,
City Clerk, Boston.

The following are votes of the Board of Election Commissioners taken under date of May 7, 1941:

Voted, To re-establish Precincts 2 and 4 in Ward 2 and Precinct 1 in Ward 10, which were discontinued in accordance with the vote of May 22, 1939, because of land-takings by the Federal Government in connection with the construction of Housing Projects.

Voted, To change the lines of several precincts in Wards 7 and 9, also, because of land-taking by the Federal Government in connection with the construction of Housing Projects. These changes are set forth in the description accompanying this letter.

These changes will make a total of 389 precincts in the City of Boston.

The changes are to become effective for the Police Listing of January 1, 1942.

Very truly yours,
BOARD OF ELECTION COMMISSIONERS,
FREDERIC E. DOWLING,
Commissioner and Secretary.

SALE OF WEST ROXBURY LAND.

President GALVIN also called up, under unfinished business, No. 2 on the calendar, viz.:

2. Order for the sale to the United States of America, for the sum of $40,000, of a parcel of land on Spring street, West Roxbury, containing approximately thirty acres.

On April 28, 1941, the foregoing order was read once and passed, yeas 19, nays 0.

The order was given its second and final reading and passage, yeas 17, nays 0.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC LANDS.

Coun. RUSSO, for the Committee on Public Lands, submitted the following:

Report on message of Mayor and order (referred April 28) granting easement to Massachusetts Memorial Hospitals, land on East Newton street — that same ought to pass.

Report accepted; said order read once and passed, yeas 17, nays 0.

ANTI-CONVOY RESOLUTION.

Coun. RUSSO offered the following:

Whereas, The execution of contemplated plans of the United States Government to convoy ships to, and in, European waters, will no doubt result in the loss of many ships and men; and

Whereas, The President of the United States has stated that convoy means shooting and shooting means war; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Boston City Council hereby desires to go on record as strenuously opposed to the convoy of any ships; and urges the Congress and President of the United States to concur with the wish of the great majority of the American people to remain out of war, and maintain peace.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a statement.

President GALVIN—Objection is made and the resolution has been referred to the Committee on Rules.

RESIDENCE OF CITY EMPLOYEES.

Coun. RUSSO offered the following:

Ordered, that his Honor the Mayor be requested to consider the advisability of issuing instructions to the head of each city department to compel all employees of the city to take up residence in the City of Boston prior to September 1 of this year.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

RESURFACING OF WARD 3 STREETS.

Coun. RUSSO offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to resurface with smooth paving Fleet street, Ward 3.

Ordered, That the Public Works Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to resurface with smooth paving and construct sidewalks, on Somerset street and Ashburton place, to Howard street, Ward 3.

Severally passed under suspension of the rule.

PARTICIPATION BY DRAFTEES IN MEMORIAL DAY SERVICES.

Coun. SCANNELL offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested, in cooperation with the American Legion, to arrange for the participation by selectees now in training, who are on leave over the week-end of May 30, in the Memorial Day services conducted throughout the city.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

TRAFFIC LIGHTS, BRIGHAM CIRCLE.

Coun. CAREY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Traffic Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to make arrangements immediately for the installation of traffic lights at Brigham Circle, in Ward 10.

Coun. CAREY—Mr. President, an order similar to this one has been introduced by me several times before as a member of this Council, and on each occasion, as is customary with all such orders, the "stock" reply has been received that "there are no funds available." Now, Mr. President, the time has come when funds must be found in order that the lives of innocent children and others might be protected in the Brigham Circle area on Huntington avenue. The Huntington Avenue Subway was opened recently, and at the present time the Jamaica Plain line car tracks are being removed from the surface of Boylston street and from Huntington avenue to the exit from the subway near Opera place. Furthermore, an underpass is being constructed at the intersection of Huntington and Massachusetts avenues. Both of these improvements are bound to attract considerable more vehicular traffic to the already heavily traveled Huntington avenue. Huntington avenue connects at the Brookline line with the Worcester turnpike, and it is also the main connecting artery with downtown Boston for those commuting by automobile who live in a large part of Jamaica Plain, with West Roxbury, and with the Shore Line road to New York. Also, plans are being considered by the City of Boston Traffic Department and Public Works Department, to which I do not subscribe, to narrow the width of the sidewalks on both sides of Huntington avenue in the vicinity of Brigham Circle, and thereby provide freer and speedier movement of vehicular traffic. Now, Mr. President, all of these plans that I have just mentioned are for the purpose of speeding up the movement of vehicular traffic along Huntington avenue. Well, Mr. President, the motor vehicle has perhaps got to be taken care of, but I demand that the innocent and unprotected pedestrian be taken care of, too. There are two grade schools on Huntington avenue in close proximity to Brigham Circle, and the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital is located right there. Also, close by, in the immediate vicinity, is the Mission School and the Mission Church, to which latter place hundreds of parishioners in the Francis street, Fenwood road, St. Albans road, Kempton street, and Huntington avenue sections tread daily in going to Holy Mass and for the purpose of making visits. During the past week six different cases have been called to my attention where serious, and perhaps fatal, injury by automobile was avoided only through a miracle. The hazard to life and limb on Huntington avenue, in the neighborhood of Brigham Circle, is already unbearable, and during the next few months, with the completion of the plans above enumerated, conditions there are bound to become decidedly more dangerous. Affording proper protection to pedestrians there has been delayed long enough, Mr. President, and I therefore demand that immediate action be taken, and if his Honor the Mayor, the Traffic and Public Works Departments cannot find it possible and feasible to construct an underpass there, which I have also previously suggested, then let us have these traffic lights without further delay.

Coun. GOTTLIEB—Mr. President, speaking on the order offered by the councilor from Ward 10, I want to say that I fully sympathize with him in his efforts to care for the needs of the district along the line of better traffic control. Out in Ward 14 we have a similar dangerous situation, with traffic moving along Blue Hill avenue without proper protection to pedestrians through traffic lights. In fact, it is suicidal to cross some sections of Blue Hill avenue today. Two years ago the Traffic Commissioner made a survey of different dangerous intersections in the City of Boston, and at that time stated that practically $100,000 would have to be spent to eliminate the dangerous crossings in the City of Boston. I wonder for how long we will have to demand these necessary traffic lights? It seems to me far more important to have traffic lights, to protect men, women and children in our city, than even to have streets cleaned or repaired in the City of Boston; and I hope that the Mayor and the Traffic Commissioner will see fit to go along not only on the order submitted by Councilor Carey, but will have in mind the various dangerous crossings throughout our city where the present dangerous conditions should be eliminated at once.

Coun. SHATTUCK—Mr. President, the traffic danger on Huntington avenue has been increased through the extension of the subway, with the consequence that automobiles now run along there at higher speed, causing a greater need for traffic lights. That condition has been brought about, of course, through the extension of the Huntington Avenue Subway, with the consequent improving of rapid transit there, and the speeding up of automobiles on the street. The solution of this problem, of course, demands traffic lights.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

PRINTING OF "BOSTON'S STREETS."

President GALVIN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Superintendent of Printing be authorized and directed to print a new edition of one thousand copies, bound in boards, of the book entitled "Boston's Streets," with the precinct changes, if any, made by the Election Commissioners to December 31, 1941, and the list of streets, etc., added to and corrected by the Board of Street Commissioners up to the date of publication; said copies to be distributed under the direction of the Committee on Printing; and the expense to be charged to the Contingent Fund.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

TIME OFF FOR NEW STATE GUARD.

Coun. GALVIN offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to instruct all department heads to grant the same privileges, in so far as time off and vacations are concerned, to the new State Guard as were granted to the National Guard.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

APPROVAL OF GEYER ANTI-POLL TAX BILL.

Coun. D. F. SULLIVAN offered the following:

Resolved, That the City Council of Boston hereby goes on record as approving the principle of the Geyer Anti-Poll Tax Bill now before Congress, which bill is designed to abolish the requirement of the payment of a poll tax as a prerequisite for voting.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

MATRONS AT FRANKLIN PARK.

Coun. GOTTLIEB offered the following:

Ordered, That the chairman of the Park Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to immediately furnish a matron at Franklin Park for the convenience of the women members of the Franklin Park Golf Course.

Coun. GOTTLIEB—Mr. President, the City of Boston maintains two public golf courses, one at Franklin Park and the other in Hyde Park, and I am informed that there are two matrons furnished at the George Wright Golf Course for the convenience of the women who play on that course. Out in Franklin Park the poorer citizens are accommodated, those who cannot afford to pay the rate charged on the George Wright course, but it seems to me there should be at least one matron at Franklin Park to take charge of the showers, towels, and so forth. I think it is fair to state that the Franklin Park Golf Course over a period of years has yielded a substantial profit to the City of Boston, and I feel that the people using that course should receive the services of one matron at once. I trust that the order will pass, and that immediate action will be taken.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

TENNIS COURTS, ROBERTS FIELD, WARD 17.

Coun. WICKES offered the following:

Ordered, That the Park Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to immediately place the tennis courts on Roberts Field, Ward 17, in proper condition.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

MUNICIPAL BUILDING, DORCHESTER.

Coun. WICKES offered the following:

Ordered, That the Superintendent of Public Buildings be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to submit to the W. P. A. authorities a project for the erection of a municipal building in some central location in Dorchester, the expense of same to be taken care of by an outright Federal grant.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

OPPOSITION TO PROPORTIONAL REPRESENTATION.

Coun. GOODE offered the following:

Resolved, That the Boston City Council hereby records its opposition to the proportional representation form of voting for the City of Boston on the grounds that it results in "group anarchy" dictatorship, and is in direct contrast to the principle of majority rule.

Coun. GOODE—Mr. President, I have offered this resolution to counteract the influence of organized groups who are intent on bringing the proportional representation form of voting to the City of Boston. Elections in New York under the proportional representation law have failed to measure up to the claims of its supporters. It was intended to give minorities a fair chance of representation, and to prevent a powerful city machine from dominating the City Council. It was also expected to make possible the election of a higher type of public servant. The first City Council elected under the plan in New York certainly did not fulfill expectations. From start to finish the body engaged in continuous wrangles; its dignity and efficiency remained at a low ebb. The system in my opinion is no bar to electing a machine controlled by a political gang. The present administration has been a great success, but if a Council were elected under the proportional plan and they had a two-thirds majority they might override the Mayor's veto. Under such a plan large sections of the city would be without any kind of representation. This would probably be the case in my own ward, which today is the largest in area in the city. City Councilor Chase is to be congratulated for the stand he took in the Legislature last week against the idea. His statement, that the speaker who sponsored the bill was unable to explain it to the satisfaction of the Legislature, is the truth. For that reason, I am going to request Mayor Tobin to extend an invitation to Professor Ferdinand A. Hermens of Notre Dame University, outstanding authority on voting methods, to come to Boston at the expense of the City of Boston to explain the plan to the voters of Boston, the City Council and the members of the Massachusetts Legislature, that all may be adequately informed on this important question. This is a non-partisan question, far above party lines, but it is my conviction that when the people of Boston are better informed on the question they will bury it in a referendum.

Coun. SHATTUCK—Mr. President, there is before us no question of accepting or not accepting proportional representation. The only question at the present time, in City Hall or in the Legislature, is whether action will be taken which will enable the citizens of Boston to have a chance to vote on the question, and the citizens will have a chance to consider both sides of the question, under a referendum, before acting. I don't suppose the gentleman from Hyde Park (Coun. Goode) would object to the citizens of Boston voting on the question as to whether they will have or will not have proportional representation?

Coun. GOODE—Mr. President, I am not against having the matter go to the voters of the city, but as a member of the City Council I would certainly wish to have my constituents thoroughly informed as to what this matter really means and I would like to look into it more thoroughly myself. Naturally, some of my constituents have said to me, "What do you know about this thing? What do you know about this and that?" Certainly they should have and we should have information that will enable us to act intelligently. Personally, I do not feel that this represents a proper principle of democratic government.

Coun. SHATTUCK—The gentleman says in his resolution that he is opposed to the proportional representation form of voting on the ground that it results in "group anarchy, dictatorship." I wonder if there is any better way of finding out how it will work than to see how it has worked in other places. I spent a month in Ireland two years ago, travelling around the cities and towns of the country, and I found it exceedingly well governed. They have proportional representation there, and they have it in Cincinnati, which is generally regarded as the best governed city in the United States. It is a city which for some years past has been governed by proportional representation. If the gentleman thinks that proportional representation will lead to anarchy, I would like to have him explain just how he thinks it will lead to anarchy.

Coun. TAYLOR—Mr. President, if the gentleman will yield for a question, taking our present system, with the powers we have, I would like to have him tell us what advantages there would be to the City of Boston in having the City Councilors elected by proportional representation.

Coun. SHATTUCK—Mr. President, the bill before the Legislature, as I understand it, would not change Boston's form of government, but would simply affect the method of election. There is no provision which would allow the councilors of the city to override a veto of the Mayor by a two-thirds vote. But in the election of councilors-at-large, I think there would be many advantages, because I think when councilors are elected as we are, by wards, they do not take into consideration the interests of the whole city outside of their particular wards. That is almost a necessity of the present system, because the people of a particular ward are the people who elect us, and naturally we take a rather narrow view. If we were elected at large, we would take a broader view. Also, although they speak about the greater difficulty of campaigning under the proportional representation system, the burden really would not be great, because all that would be necessary to make the quota would be a tenth of the vote that you would ordinarily get in a city-wide election. On the first choice, for instance, the quota would be about one-tenth of the city vote, which would be very different under proportional representation from the requirement of a majority of the votes throughout the city.

Coun. CHASE--Mr. President, will the gentleman yield for a question?

Coun. SHATTUCK—I will not yield at the moment. Proportional representation would also permit minority representation. Many years ago we had two representative bodies in the City of Boston, a Common Council and a Board of Aldermen. Three Common Councilors were elected from each of the twenty-five wards of the city, making seventy-five in all, and there was a Board of Aldermen of twelve members. I remember the membership of the Common Council very well because I was thinking at one time of running for the Common Council, but was advised to wait until the next time. I did, and there was no next time, because there was no continuance of the Common Council. That was in 1909. At that time there was a Board of Aldermen of thirteen members, elected at large, but each voter could vote for only seven, which made an approach to minority representation in a way, at that time. Of course, under proportional representation you do have minority representation substantially in proportion to the majority and minority within the particular election district.

Coun. TAYLOR—Mr. President, I don't think the councilor has fully answered my question. In all the cities you speak of, where proportional representation is in effect, the City Council in those particular communities have more power than the Boston City Council, do they not, having in mind the fact that the only power of any consequence we have is to reduce the appropriation items presented by the Mayor?

Coun. SHATTUCK—Mr. President, I think we have more power than is generally recognized. I think, in other words, that we really have more power than we exercise. We have an absolute negative power that is seldom exercised, that we should exercise more than we do.

Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, I listened with interest to the wording of the resolution introduced by the gentleman from Ward 18, and I noticed that he does not oppose the idea of presenting the matter by referendum to the people of Boston, as a representative councilor. That might be very well, if the bill presented in the Massachusetts Legislature was being presented and honestly treated on its merits, but it must be obvious to all that it has been accompanied throughout with obvious subterfuge and political trickery. Certainly, the members of the Massachusetts Legislature in the past several weeks have clearly shown that they are trying to drive the Caseys, the Flahertys, the McCormacks and the Healeys out of Massachusetts politics. They have been trying to disfranchise in large part the Democratic electorate of Massachusetts by depriving them of representation in the United States House of Representatives, violating the right of Massachusetts voters to exercise majority rule by cracking the whip on members of the Massachusetts Legislature in an attempt to take away the right of representation in Congress of a large section of our people through political trickery. Of what use would a referendum be in this matter of proportional representation when the people would not even know what they were voting upon? The Massachusetts Legislature in the last several weeks has out-Hitlered Hitler. The Republican members of the Legislature have gone ahead and acted regardless of the political rights of the Democratic party and regardless of the rights of the City of Boston. Like Hitler, in Germany, they have told members of the Legislature how they should vote. Representatives from Haverhill, Attleboro and other places have gone ahead and acted entirely irrespective of the rights of the people of Boston, practically hiding the action of our Legislature under the principle of the Australian ballot, which was never intended to apply to the proceedings of a legislative body, but simply to the votes of our citizens on election day. While we are supposed to know how our representatives vote on questions coming before them, there is no way of knowing how they have been voting the last few weeks as far as the Massachusetts Legislature is concerned. They have out-Tammanyed Tammany Hall, have outdone "Boss" Pendergast, on Beacon Hill. They have observed no decency there whatsoever. Speaker Herter got up there the other day and plied the whip over the backs of members of the Massachusetts Legislature, and got them to vote on this proportional representation measure, despite the fact that the Republican leader in the Boston City Council opposed it, despite the fact that other leaders in the state opposed it, despite the opposition of prominent representatives in both political parties. It was simply railroaded through, an outrageous and un-American proceeding. They have set out to ruin the political ambitions and aspirations of the boys of Democratic persuasion. I repeat, they have out-Hitlered Hitler. I do not think that any more un-Democratic or high-handed group has ever attempted to put anything over on Beacon Hill. It has been put over by the same crowd who have come in here from year to year and have tried to interfere with the business administration of the City of Boston, who have tried to cut down the expenses of the city in the interest of wealthy taxpayers, and to the injury of many of our poor whose jobs they would take away and whose help at the hands of the city, so necessary in a time like this, they would curtail. We have continually seen here, when our budgets have been under consideration, representatives of the same interests, asking that men's jobs be taken away from them, and asking for the rejection of worthy propositions looking to the welfare of our citizens, simply in the interests of certain wealthy groups. They tell you that this will mean better representatives. What will it really mean, Mr. President and gentlemen? It will mean the election of the men who have the money to get elected, or who can get the money necessary to elect them from people who will later expect those so elected to do something in their interests. The boys from East Boston, from South Boston, from Brighton, from the various poorer sections of the city, will no longer be able to represent the people of their districts in City Hall, because they will not have sufficient money to conduct a campaign, and if a poor man should happen to be elected, under the conditions that will prevail, it will simply mean that he will owe his election to people or to a group who will expect to control his votes here later on. Mr. President, this bill is an absolute insult to the electorate of Boston. If it should go through, you will not find here men like Joe Russo or Bill Carey, or other members, men from South Boston, East Boston, Charlestown, or other poor sections of our city, men trying hard to represent and take care of the interests of their constituents, but men who would not be able with their own means to finance a campaign in the twenty-two wards of Boston; men who could only do so with the assistance of others, and who could then be hardly expected to represent the interests of the entire city as against the interest of their sponsors. Well, when it comes to a representative here trying to look after the whole City of Boston, you will find a man trying to do an impossible job. I don't care who the man is, or how much he desires to help the people of Boston, if he is elected at large he cannot do such a job as men now here from individual wards are doing every day to help the people of their wards. Such men as we now have here in this Body—poor, honest men, thoroughly devoted to the interests of their constituents and working for them every day, men desirous of rendering public service — will not be able to be elected. They will not be able to finance such a city-wide campaign as would be necessary. This Council has its shortcomings, of course, but I dare say that you would never again have Council members so devoted to the poor and needy among their constituents, people with whom they have personal contact and with whose needs they are familiar. That can be seen when you survey the character of the measures that are continually being passed here, and when you have a chance to see the character of the service that is being given by the different members of this Body to those whom they represent. The members of this Council have always — and I say this without hesitancy and without fear of contradiction from any representative from any other part of Massachusetts, from North Adams, Attleboro or any other section — done a conscientious, self-sacrificing, honest job, certainly during the years since I have been connected with the Body; and I ask you, Henry Shattuck, if you have ever in the House of Representatives of Massachusetts seen any such self-sacrificing group of men as those who sit in this Body today?

President GALVIN—The question is out of order.

Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, they speak of the merits of the bill and of the economy that would result from having a smaller body. Of course, when you cut down the membership of the body you are simply further removing government from the people, which you are decidedly doing when you take away the personal representation that the citizens of our various wards now have under the present system. This is simply another attempt to remove representatives farther from the people, and it will also deprive the ordinary man in this city, the boys who are fighting their way up, of a chance to enter public life in this city. Those who have had the opportunity in earlier days to enter public life have gone from here to high places in the city, the state and the nation. But it is now proposed to deprive them of that possibility. I suppose, however, that it will be railroaded through the House and Senate, and that we cannot help ourselves. That is the sort of spirit that we now see displayed in the Massachusetts Legislature. The way in which the bill is being railroaded indicates the type of bill it is. They talk about the great advantages of proportional representation. Well, we have been watching the situation in Cambridge under the Plan E proposal. The people of Cambridge now have a bill before the Massachusetts Court to get rid of Plan E. Wherever this sort of thing has been tried it has been a failure. They tried it out in Kalamazoo, and there was a popular crusade against it. They talk about how successful it has been in Cincinnati, but it has been successful there only because it has been administered by people who would have had the same degree of success under the ordinary ward representation. Plan E has nothing whatever to recommend it, and proportional representation has nothing to recommend it. I want to congratulate the gentleman from Ward 4 (Coun. Chase). He had occasion to see the subterfuges that were being resorted to, and the trickery accompanying the progress of this bill, and he recognized it for what it is, a political threat. It has nothing to recommend it to the voters of Boston.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, I am not going to indulge in any personalities or in party politics. But this proportional representation plan on Beacon Hill was brought up when the gentleman from East Boston (Coun. Coffey) and myself were members of the Legislature and when an explanation of proportional representation was then attempted, as it has been recently attempted. That was two years ago. At that time the Speaker of the House, the same speaker who is presiding today, Mr. Herter, took the floor and spent a whole hour trying to explain the bill for our benefit. After that hour the members of the Legislature, the House of Representatives, looked at each other and started to ask questions. And the questions were such as this,—"What did he say?" "What does it all mean? I am still vague about this thing." We went up and asked Speaker Herter what it was all about, and by the time the explanation was over we were more at sea than we were before. I might take issue with the gentleman from Brighton (Coun. M. H. Sullivan) in regard to the Democratic way of getting bills through the Legislature. I still say that there are men up there who don't have to be railroaded on anything. Of course, where patronage enters into the question, a bill might be railroaded. But I do know from my experience up there that the members do try honestly to understand the matters that come before them, and I wish also to say that the members were not able to understand two years ago the explanations of this bill, any more than I think some of them understand them today. I am proud to say that as a member of that body I was one of the Boston Representatives who took the floor and argued against the bill when I was a member of the House, but I wish also to say that a member of the body who had served in the City Council spoke for it. And why? I remember well why he spoke for it, if he said what he thought. He said that there were down here a lot of deadheads, stupid fellows, men with whom he had served. I had never served with members of the Boston City Council at that time. But I do know this much, that if the bill is enacted into law I would not want to run for membership in the Boston City Council, because I don't believe I would have sufficient money to conduct a city-wide campaign. Of course, influential men could run, and others could get the support of influential men. But we all know what that might mean. At that time I had not run for the City Council, but when the gentleman from Charlestown took the position he did at that time, casting reflections on his former fellow members of the City Council, because of their comparative lack of knowledge or education, I said to the gentleman from Charlestown that I took issue with him, that I was willing to compare my qualifications with his, although I had not at that time had such educational advantages as he had had. He went to one of the leading universities in this country and in the world, and he intimated that gentlemen like himself were the only ones who were qualified to serve in the City Council. Well, the people of his district saw fit to defeat him when he ran for re-election, so apparently they did not consider that he was qualified to represent them. Well, at that time I voted against the bill for proportional representation, and I left my action to the people of Boston. Nothing happened to me. I did not think that the people of my district would approve of the bill, and because I did not think so, I was willing to leave it to the electorate. Perhaps I was stupid, but I was willing to leave my action to the judgment of the people when I voted against it. After all, gentlemen, you are elected to the City Council, as you are elected to the Legislature, to do your own thinking, and it is up to you to do your thinking on matters presented to you which affect the people of your district. At that time I did not think that bill would benefit either the district or the people. So I voted against it. And then we had the proposition for biennial elections, and I voted against that, and nothing happened to me on that. I have told you that I heard Speaker Herter, when I was in the Legislature, trying to explain this proportional representation bill, and I have told you the effect that his explanation had on the members of the Legislature. I did not hear the able speaker speak recently upon that bill. He is, however, one of the most able men serving in the Legislature of the State of Massachusetts, but it was evident, with all his education and ability, that after he got through his explanation, the members of the Legislature did not know what it was all about. That was the reason why he took such a terrible licking on the matter two years ago, and I can't for the life of me understand how it went through the House this year. Perhaps there was a little pressure, as the gentleman from Brighton has said. But that same thing might have been true two years ago. Perhaps the members have not this year the fighting spirit that we have in the City Council, although evidently many members of the Legislature don't think a lot of us down here. That may be the fact; I don't know. But, as the representative from East Boston (Coun. Coffey) has told you, there were enough of us up there two years ago to defeat it. And I might also say, in regard to biennial sessions, that I don't think the people understood that question. It is frequently difficult for people to understand these questions, when members of the legislative body passing the bills frequently do not understand them. Under the present system I, as the councilor from Ward 7, represent my own ward, and I try to do that, as other members of this Body also try to represent their wards, decently and faithfully. Where we represent our own wards, we know something about their needs, individually, and we know the people of the wards. We have here twenty-two members of the Council, each representing his own particular ward, his own particular section. If we have a body of nine members, elected at large, will there be the same individual knowledge of the needs and constituencies of each ward? Could that be good representation of our citizens in the city government? I certainly do not believe it. I certainly do not believe that a councilor under such circumstances could have the special knowledge of the needs and requirements of each ward and its residents that the representative of each ward now possesses. And you can see the pressure that could then easily be brought to bear on the Mayor of the city. Five out of the nine members could get together and say, "Mr. Mayor, give us this or that, or you will not get this." But in a Council of twenty-two men, it would be much harder to get twelve men to say, "Give us this or that, or you will not get this." I have never seen anything of that sort done since I have served in the City Council, but I am afraid if proportional representation went through and there were an election of members to the City Council at large under such a bill, that is what we would be faced with. As the gentleman from Brighton has well said, there is something to the job besides simply serving in the Body. That is just a small part of our job here in the government. Of course, we in this Body, besides serving our constituents in the various wards, would also, like representatives in the State Senate or House of Representatives, gladly do our duty for the city, the state and the nation as a whole. But, as representing individual wards in the City of Boston, we are thrown more directly in contact with the needs of the people of those wards, and do our best for the social benefit of the unfortunate. We are in that way able to do what you might call a more specialized job. I certainly trust that this resolution will pass, Mr. President.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, this week the House indicated their intention to give the citizens of Boston an opportunity to vote on the question as to whether or not they wanted proportional representation in Boston. The House did this despite the fact that the Boston Republican members of the House were equally divided on this matter and the Democratic members were unanimously opposed to it. I frankly felt that the overwhelming majority of those members that favored this pernicious legislation did not even understand this problem, so they could intelligently explain the proposed legislation. I feel that most of the members who voted yes on this question would not have voted that way but for the activities of certain people. With this in mind, I cannot agree with them, but their vote on the question was prompted as a result of deliberation which logically caused them to come to this conclusion. I am a firm believer of our representative form of government, and I know that the citizens of the state expect that representatives should exercise common sense in passing on any matter which might eventually become law. Is it not logical to state that a lawmaker should first thoroughly understand this proposition before him and be able to logically explain it before he is willing to have it thrust before the public? I am sure that there is no popular demand for proportional representation in Boston. As a matter of fact, the public does not even understand the subject and I do not believe the public will ever understand it, because if their lawmakers cannot understand it and are unable to logically explain, the problem remains one for only a crackpot braintruster to solve. In my opinion, this matter of proportional representation is one which is being attempted to be put over on the public by certain members of the American Bankers Association, because the average commoner would never be given a chance to hold office under it. Only a wealthy man, or one financed by the wealthy, could ever hope to be elected under this confusing system. I believe that this proportional representation question for municipal governments is only an entering wedge in our form of government. The proponents of this plan have on many occasions inferred that they would like to have this system of election eventually apply also to our state and federal elections. I understand that William Howard Taft, former President of the United States and former Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, said, with reference to proportional representation, that the group system means lack of success in popular government. Furthermore, I understand that Professor Hermens, member of the Political Science Faculty of Notre Dame University, has said that proportional representation was introduced in Italy in 1919, and it took just a little over three years before it had disintegrated the political life of the country to such an extent that the situation was ripe for a dictatorship. He said Hitler's victory is even more clearly due to proportional representation than the triumph of Mussolini. He further contended that Austria was the next victim of proportional representation and that proportional representation has worked similar havoc in Greece and in a number of states in eastern Europe. Furthermore, he contended that most of the existing difficulties in Czechoslovakia, Belgium and Holland were due to proportional representation. Under this system the counting of ballots is so strange that proportional representation has been ruled unconstitutional by the Supreme Courts of California and Michigan. In its ruling the Michigan Supreme Court said, "An actuary, mathematically skilled in the application of the doctrine of chance to financial and other affairs, might work with confidence upon the possibilities of this system, but to the non-expert it appears too intricate and tedious to be adopted for popular election by the people." I am sure that the citizens of Boston want no part of the ill government of Europe, especially since from earliest childhood the impression has been formed in us that our system of government is the world's best. We have had too much meddling now with our form of government by people who have theories which were founded in Germany, Russia and other countries. Mr. President, if this proportional representation system should ever be enacted into law, so that Boston, as well as other municipalities, will elect its municipal governing body by proportional representation, it will mean the absolute denial of an opportunity to a large section of our people throughout Massachusetts to hold office. You can figure it out for yourselves as a matter of common sense. In Boston we have a population of approximately 800,000 people, and we have approximately 300,000 voters. How could any man in this room ever hope to go out and conduct an honest campaign over such a large field, free from an alliance with people who might finance him? He might, of course, be able to find those who would finance the campaign for him, but they would then dictate to him how he should act after he comes here. And so I say to you that the time has come for all the commoners to go to Beacon Hill and tell the Legislature that they want direct representation of the people, that they wish Abraham Lincoln's idea continued,—of government of the people, by the people and for the people. And I say to you, Mr. President, that the real people of this country, the overwhelming majority of the real people of this country, come from that great class, the common people. Mr. President, God must have loved the common people, because he made so many of them. And now we have this proposition before the Massachusetts Legislature, which will deny, if enacted, the right to the real people, the common people of this country, to ever hold office in any municipal government. I trust that tomorrow or the next day, when this bill comes before the House for a final reading, the House will come back to its senses and will agree to ask the Supreme Court of Massachusetts, in view of the decisions already rendered by two courts in this country, to tell us whether or not this law, in the opinion of the Supreme Court, is constitutional.

Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN in the chair.

Coun. TAYLOR—Mr. President, I was not at all surprised when I learned from the newspapers that the Speaker of the House took the floor and requested the passage of this particular bill. In my opinion, it is the final result of conspiracy that has been going on for many years, and they now feel that the time is ripe to put it over, with political trickery. They tried it many years ago in an election for Mayor of the City of Boston, when it looked as though James J. Storrow would be elected, and the Legislature adopted a charter which would fit in with that situation. The Republicans at that time were dissatisfied with the City Charter of Boston, and, feeling that they were to have a Republican Mayor of Boston, the existing charter at that time was abolished, and a new charter, the charter that we have at the present time, was enacted. That charter placed all authority, all power that they could possibly conceive of, in the hands of the Mayor. That was done because they then felt that Mr. Storrow would be the Mayor of Boston. However, that conspiracy miscarried, and Mr. John F. Fitzgerald was elected Mayor, and when that happened the people who had been active in changing the charter wished that they had not given the Mayor the power they had at that time in their new charter. They are now working on another conspiracy, to take away from people who are entitled to representation in this metropolitan City of Boston that representation, which they now enjoy. And so the Speaker of the House got on the floor and used the whip on the Republican members of the Legislature, men who are not interested in the politics of Boston, and who don't care for the people of Boston. What do the Republican members of the Massachusetts Legislature care for Boston, and what have they done for the people of Boston? They have placed on the shoulders of the City of Boston many burdens which we should not be expected to bear. I might call attention to one or two of them. For example, the people of Boston are paying all the expenses of the County of Suffolk, which takes in Revere, Winthrop and Chelsea. Then they have placed upon our backs, as if we were not bearing a sufficient burden already, a burden of welfare that should be borne by the entire state. The time has now come when they want complete control. Their cry is "Minority representation." This Council up to this year has always contained four Republican councilors, practically 20 per cent of the entire Body. The Republicans do not have 20 per cent of the voting power of this city, and so the Republicans have had their proper minority representation here. But the problem goes farther than that. In the Democratic party, supporting this measure, are men who never did anything for their constituents, who never turned their hands to anything that would assist them in any way. One former member of the Council who has been favoring this proportional representation measure, outside of the gentleman from the Back Bay, does not even have any telephone in his house so that he can be reached by his needy constituents. That gentleman wants to put this measure through, saying that it will lead to a better type of councilors. When I asked the councilor from the Back Bay what benefit the City of Boston would obtain through election of members of this City Council at large, you heard his answer. I can very well see the reason for it. He says that the vision of the members of the City Council is confined to the narrow limits of their wards and that they do not regard the interest of the citizens as a whole. That is the reason he stated, but no, that is not the reason, Mr. President and gentlemen. I will tell you the real reason. They want enough representation by people of the moneyed class so that when the Mayor sends to us an appropriation to meet the usual expenses of the city, the wealthy class, the class backed by the moneyed people, will say, "We are going to cut down the appropriations of the City of Boston. We will take away money from the City Hospital, we will take away money used for the people who need medical care, and they will not get it. We will take money from the Police and Fire Department appropriations, so that the people of Boston will not get the protection to which they are entitled. We will cut down the welfare allowance to such an extent that even a dog could not live on it." And the reason is very clear. It will be for the financial benefit of the wealthy stockholders and bondholders of the City of Boston, those owning large buildings in the city, to cut down the expenditures and the salaries paid by the City of Boston, and they will expect to cut down our administrative expenses to such an extent that the citizens will not receive one half of the public expenditure to which they are entitled for necessary services. They will cut down the city's expenses to such an extent that, while the tax bills may be cut down, the people of Boston, those comprising the electorate of our city, will not receive the public services to which they are justly entitled. That, gentlemen, is the conspiracy here. And how generally has this law appealed to people in other places? What is the public reaction to it? On the books of the Commonwealth we now have in effect a law that gives the right to any city or town outside of Boston to put this law into effect. Where in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts has any Republican city or town taken advantage of the situation? You say Cambridge, but that is a Democratic city, a Democratic stronghold. But why don't Republican cities and towns take advantage of it? Why do they not put it into effect? They don't want it. It is simply used to control the Democratic electorate. And where it has been introduced in different cities it works a hardship on those who live in the cities. I have read the books setting forth the proportional representation theory time and time again, and I confess that I do not understand it. And the people of New York do not understand it, and they are having trouble there now. It was put into effect there to control Tammany, but they have not succeeded. Tammany still has control in the city of New York, and it has operated as a boomerang on the Republican party. It is surprising to see how the minds of the men in the Massachusetts Legislature work. They will call the Boston City Councilors bad names, and will try to tell about the things that are done here, but if anything such as has happened in the House of Representatives or in the Massachusetts Senate in the last few weeks took place here we would immediately have an investigation by the Finance Commission. There was a bill up there in the Legislature sponsored by Councilor Chase, for the purpose of abolishing beano, and when it first came up it got by, but the Body immediately turned turtle, overturning its previous action. And why did the Massachusetts Senate vote to abolish fireworks and then turn over? Why, if this Council was ever as inconsistent as the Legislature is in its votes on Beacon Hill, we would have an investigation here by the Finance Commission. It will be interesting to see how this question appears on the ballot, if the bill is passed by the Legislature. It will probably be drawn up in such a skilful way by our genial Secretary of State that the natural tendency of anybody reading it will be to vote "Yes." We know how that has happened in the past when there has been a referendum vote submitted to the people on the ballot. Where it has been for the interest of these people to have a "yes" vote, the thing reads in such a way that people feel that they must vote "yes," and so they do. They have been fooled on the biennial question and they have been fooled on other questions that have been submitted in that way, and if this proportional representation bill is passed and we have a referendum, it will probably read in such a way that people will feel that they must vote "yes." That is undoubtedly their plan, and they are very skilful in carrying it out. Certainly I trust that we will not have proportional representation put over on us here in the City of Boston. Under such a plan, the everyday man who would like to be a candidate for the Council in the City of Boston would not have the money to spend on publicity, on the radio, and otherwise; and in order to win a city-wide election all these agencies would have to be employed to educate and influence the people of the city. No, Mr. President, this is a plan, a conspiracy, to defeat the everyday man who wants to run for public office; and if he gets the wealthy people to finance him, he will be under obligation to them and will later be expected to meet that obligation by his votes. While perhaps the language of the resolution offered by Councilor Goode is somewhat strong, nevertheless the principle behind it is correct, and I trust that it will pass.

Coun. CAREY—Mr. President, I don't wish to make any attack on the members of the Legislature, because I think many of them may feel justified in taking the point of view that they do. I think that there may be some excuse for the position taken by the gentleman from Ward 5 (Coun. Shattuck), who has always been a Republican, and may naturally take a different point of view from some of the rest of us. But when the former councilor from Ward 18 (Mr. Norton) goes up there to the State House as a proponent of the proportional representation bill, it seems to me quite a different matter. Of course, he was undoubtedly looking for newspaper publicity, as he is always doing, but when he went up to the State House and had the audacity to tell the members of the Legislature that the passage of this bill would bring out as candidates for public office men of a higher type than those now representing the citizens of Boston in the City Council, I think he showed awful "gall." Mr. Norton was a former councilor here, and I would like to ask the members of this Body how many people, if they were trying to find Councilor Norton, when they were looking for assistance in some way, could find him. He is a man who cannot be found. You cannot get him on the telephone, because his telephone number does not appear in the book. He is just an old ducking type of man. We should have men in public office who can be seen by the voters when they are in trouble or when they need advice. We have in the Boston City Council twenty-two members, one representing each ward of the city, and they are supposed to interest themselves in the affairs of their constituents, are supposed to extend a helping hand when it is needed. That right should not be denied to any voter in the City of Boston. The citizens and taxpayers of this city naturally call on the boys here to know what is going on, and they have a right to look to us for assistance. I feel that that is one of the duties which I assumed when I came to this Body, and I know that other members of the Body feel the same way. When we are elected to this Body we expect to make sacrifices and we expect to be ready to help people morning, noon and night in connection with the different activities of the city—the City Hospital, the Assessing Department, the department where they pay taxes on their property and where at times they have a proper claim to help, and we should always be glad to help them. We are also called upon in connection with welfare assistance and whatnot. And I realize also that members of the Legislature, in the same way, have their duties to perform, and I don't like to see a general attack made on them, because I think they are justified to a certain extent, from their point of view, in the action they take. But I don't like to see a man who has served here in this Body have the audacity to go there and say that this bill would bring out men of a higher type for public service and that we need more men of such a type. Nor do I think it proper to deny to the ordinary man in this city, the man who does not possess financial means, an opportunity to try to represent his fellows in this city and to be able to conduct a fight in which he is trying to be elected to office. I am a poor man, thank God, but I am trying to do a good job for my constituents. I would probably be unable to carry on such a fight for election to the Body as would be involved under this bill, because I would not have the necessary means to insure my election. There have been many good points brought out here today in opposition to this proposed measure, and I certainly hope the voters of this city will interest themselves, will carefully look into the matter, and determine for themselves the folly or the propriety of any such bill. I do not believe if the bill went to the citizens, if it is passed, they would stand by the Legislature. But I certainly do not consider any such measure in the interest of our citizens.

Coun. LANGAN—Mr. President, I am not going to indulge in any personalities either as regards the Republican or the Democratic parties, because I have always felt that we should not, in matters that concern the welfare of the city, be influenced too much by merely political considerations. I can honestly say, in all sincerity, that if I felt that the introduction of proportional representation, combined with the election of members of this Council at large, would promote the best interests of the citizens of Boston, I would not hesitate for one instant to advocate it. But I honestly do not feel that such would be the case. In my three years of public office-holding here I have tried to keep in close touch with the people I have represented, and I have found within the limits of my ward quite sufficient work to do in so keeping in touch with people. In this time of economic stress, those who are not particularly fortunate find themselves on financial rock bottom, and I am convinced that their interests are best served by a representative who is in close touch with them and close to the government. It seems to me that that would not be the case where a representative is elected at large. We do, as individual members of this Council, have a very important function to perform. The Mayor of the City of Boston cannot see every individual voter of the city. He cannot be expected to hear every individual problem that might be presented. But I learned in my schoolday history of this country, that it was founded on the principle that the people were to rule, and the last vestige of that type of government, I say, rests in the members of the City Council of the City of Boston under our present system. There are two things that have bothered me in connection with this proportional representation plan. One is that the advocates of this form of election say that the minority are now deprived of a voice in government. I was not elected unanimously by the voters of my ward, but I will say this, that I have represented every single citizen of the ward, and I know that the same thing is true of every member of this Body. They have all represented every single citizen in their ward. They do not ask John Jones if he voted for them before they try to help him. I can honestly say that the councilors in this room represent their entire electorate, represent every single citizen of their wards, and not even only the voters, but every person living within the wards, even if a person has not reached the age of twenty-one and therefore cannot vote. Those defending proportional representation also say that the interest of the representatives of the different wards at the present time is too narrow, that they do not represent or consider the needs of the whole city. I feel that that is not so. I know that I feel that I represent not only my ward, and every single resident of the ward, but also evey inhabitant of the city who may come to me for any type of assistance; and I know that all of us, even if we may be termed errand boys, are at all times glad to go out of our way to help anybody in need. So I cannot see that the mere fact that we are supposed to represent only our ward is at all contrary to the idea that we not only represent our ward but the city as a whole. I do not know of a single instance where any councilor with whom I have been acquainted has voted for his particular section as against the interests of the city as a whole. Another thing that bothers me in this proposed proportional representation of councilors at large is that a number of those so elected might come from a single ward, and that whole wards might be left without a single representative under this form of representation. It is easily conceivable that a number of wards might be left without the least vestige of representative government. Therefore, as far as the argument that minorites are not represented at the present time is concerned, and that that defect would be cured by proportional representation, I think I have given you the answer to that. Each of us represents everybody in his ward, and we even go outside of ward lines and try to help people all over the city. So far as the claim that proportional representation is more American is concerned, I claim that the present system is truly representative and is truly American. Each of us, representing the people of his ward, can and do go to the city departments and to the Mayor, to plead their cause, complaining of inefficiency in various departments in the government, complaining of conditions in various sections in all parts of the city. I say that each one of us is thoroughly imbued with the principle of American government, that those principles are dear to our hearts. I know that they are dear to my heart and to the heart of each member of this Body. I love my city, my state and my country, as each one of you do, and I feel that some of these measures that are being advocated on Beacon Hill are detrimental to the common people and to the best interests of this city.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, we have heard the statements that have been made here today with regard to the motives behind this proportional representation plan. I merely wish to say that I was fortunate enough to be elected by the people of my district, defeating an individual who had been a member of this Boston City Council for many, many years. I am sure that if proportional representation prevailed, I, for one, and many of the people in my ward, would not have the opportunity to do the honest and sincere job that we have attempted to do in the interest of our constituents. Mr. President, proportional representation does not afford the poor individual who is trying to get along in this world, who is trying to serve his city, state and nation in the best possible way, an opportunity to do so. Not only that, but it seems to me the present ward system, where we know the people of our wards and what their needs are, gives a better opportunity for service to the people than would be afforded by a city-wide election. Mr. President and members, every day of every week thirty to forty individuals come to my door asking for my support, my help, in whatever way it may be. I ask you how it would be possible under proportional representation to interview in any such way 150 or 200 individuals all over the city and do the job right? Do you feel that that would be at all feasible, Mr. President? Certainly not. In the first place, you could not know all those people from all over the city and understand their needs. I know that I would have to have four or five secretaries, which I cannot afford. Mr. President, I believe in American principles and American ideals, the freedom of men to go out and do a good job in their particular district, without having to bow to anyone or without having anyone over you who might be able to say to you, "Here, I was the one who sent you there, helped out financially, and you do as I say." I thank God that I have no such individual over me, that my people are the taxpayers and citizens of my ward, the poor and unfortunate who sent me here to do the best I possibly can to help them at all times and to the best of my ability. When you get to the point of saying to a representative, "You have to be a college man," unfortunately I have no college education, nor even a high school education, but my experience has led me to know something about human nature and to know what people's reactions are, and that is the most important thing for us all to know. My experience has enabled me to help and that is what is expected of any good American who is a representative of the people, all the time.

Coun. SHATTUCK—Mr. President, I think I am about the only person who has spoken here who has spoken to the point. Practically everything that has been said has been beside the point. This measure before the Massachusetts Legislature is simply a permissive measure, giving home rule to the City of Boston. The Legislature itself does not place the question on the ballot. It permits the people of Boston to place it on the ballot by referendum. It simply gives to the citizens of Boston the same permission that all other cities and towns now have.

Coun. GOTTLIEB—Mr. President, will the gentleman yield for a question?

Coun. SHATTUCK—In a moment. Why should we not give to the citizens of Boston a voice in this question? Generally speaking, home rule is considered a proper principle in the government of cities. Boston has sometimes been denied home rule. In this case, Boston is granted home rule. There is no trickery in granting Boston home rule. It is an act of magnanimity, not trickery. The measure simply grants to the people of Boston home rule on this question, an opportunity for the citizens, if they so wish, to say what they think about proportional representation. All we have to decide is whether the citizens of Boston shall be able to pass on the question, if they want to do so.

Coun. GOTTLIEB—Having in mind the number of votes cast throughout the city for councilors in the past year or other years, have you an opinion as to the number of votes which would be required to elect under the proportional representation system, the probable number required to elect councilors?

Coun. SHATTUCK—I could not guess. It varies from year to year, I assume.

Coun. GOTTLIEB—Well, let us take an approximate figure. Let us assume that 250,000 votes would be cast. Having in mind the number of votes received on the average by the present councilors in their respective districts, have you an opinion as to whether the councilors elected under the proportional representation system would need a greater number of votes?

Coun. SHATTUCK—I assume that, generally speaking, a greater number of votes would be required than would ordinarily be necessary under the present system, where a councilor is elected from one ward.

Coun. GOTTLIEB—Would the councilor say that under this proportional representation system, having in mind the number of men to be elected, assuming that there would be less than half as many as in the present Council, would the councilor venture to say that a candidate would require at least three times as many votes for election as at the present time?

Coun. SHATTUCK—I don't know.

Coun. GOTTLIEB—Mr. President, I have the greatest respect for the councilor from Ward 5 and for the very careful study that he gives to measures that come before the Body. I have also the highest respect for his record in the Legislature, as chairman of the most important committee, Ways and Means, and I know that he has the reputation of being one of the most able men in the city and state government, a man who has a thorough knowledge of state and municipal finances. I cannot, however, help feeling that the councilor from Ward 5 has looked at this political picture with an entirely different perspective than the other members of the Body. He represents a district where, in each election year, it is customary for men to have their names——

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, I object to this type of debate, impugning the motives of members of the Council.

Chairman M. H. SULLIVAN—The point of order is well taken, councilor.

Coun. GOTTLIEB—Mr. President, I have no desire to impugn any member's motives. I don't think we should go into motives. The motives of the gentleman, in my opinion, are of the best, and I think you will agree with me. I will say, and I think it is apropos of this whole discussion on proportional representation, that there are men in public life, coming from certain sections of the city who differ about the type of service that should be rendered by city government. But I do feel, having in mind the statement of the councilor from the Back Bay and taking into consideration the number of votes that would be required under proportional representation, that there is no question but what men who will be candidates for office under that system would require many, many more votes than are required by men elected under the system in force today. You and I all know, as a practical matter, that in our districts it is customary, even on a small scale, for us to send a circular through the mails advising the voters of our qualifications for public office. That is the general thing, and the simplest thing that any candidate can do. Of course, the intention is simply to impress upon the voters, as I say, the qualifications of the candidate. That is a comparatively simple thing, in the elections held today, but after all, a one-cent stamp must be placed on each one of the envelopes in which such circulars are sent, and if the number to which they are sent is greatly increased, of course the expense is correspondingly increased. Under the proportional representation system, if any man in this room should be a candidate there would be the increased expense of sending such circulars to voters all over the city, or there would be billboard or other advertising expense requiring the expenditure of a considerable sum of money. Either that or, as has been said by other speakers today, a candidate would require the backing of men of means and influence, prepared to expend money in his behalf, but that would carry with it certain conditions that would affect our independence in public life and subject us to the domination of others. The whole situation would be such that it would be impossible for a poor men to run for public office, and if he looked for financial assistance outside he would make himself subservient to those who helped him.

Coun. CAREY—Mr. President, I have the utmost respect and esteem for the gentleman from Ward 5 (Coun. Shattuck), as have other members of the Body. But when the principle of home rule is brought out in this particular instance, I feel strongly that in our present Council of twenty-two members, with one member from each of the twenty-two wards, we have more real home rule than we would have under this proposed plan. This proportional representation bill, in my estimation, would take away the last vestige of home rule from the voters of this city.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, it has been said that the proposition before the Legislature is simply permissive legislation, giving the chance to the people of Boston to exercise home rule, to decide whether they want this plan or not. But the whole thing is so complicated and so confusing that I venture to say not ten members of the Massachusetts Legislature could go before their constituencies and explain intelligently what proportional representation would mean. I submit that the people elect their governmental representatives with the expectation that they will exercise their reason and logic upon all matters coming before them, before finally enacting them into law. But if there should be a referendum under this plan, it would simply give the citizens of Boston the opportunity to vote on something that the members of the House do not even understand, something that even the advocates of it cannot intelligently explain. It is an absolute fact that the proponents of the plan apparently do not understand it. That is what I object to. The citizens of Boston and the Commonwealth elect us to this Council, to the House and to the Senate, and they expect reasonable action on our part in passing upon these measures. But I say that the House did not exercise logic in its action upon this matter, because the members themselves don't know what proportional representation means or how it would work out.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I will not be too long, but I hope that what I have to say may be given consideration and will have due effect on the members of the Council. I was in the House when this matter came up before. I am glad to hear Representative Chase give his views, as I think he has made a real fight in the House on behalf of the Council. I have received as much publicity on this matter, I think, as any man in the Body. I was against this when I was in the Legislature, but I don't think my action upon it injured me any with my constituents, because I have been fortunate enough to go through a successful election since. Evidently the people of my ward approved my action. If the people want to repudiate me at the next election, that will be satisfactory to me. But there are a few things that might be said. I believe the gentleman from Ward 4 (Coun. Chase) is getting in the groove now and understands how things should go. The members of the Legislature from time to time have these questions presented to them, and go on record according to their own feelings and convictions. This matter was defeated at the time when I was a member of the House, but it has now gone through. I have in mind also, along with this vote on proportional representation, the vote we took on biennial sessions, that matter being subsequently placed on the ballot and biennial sessions now prevailing, although the members of the House today, nine out of ten, are opposed to that result. The members of the Body when I was in the Legislature voted salary cuts for themselves, although many of those who so voted injured themselves seriously in doing so, as they needed the money to send their children through college, to meet bills, and one thing and another. But they voted, being whipped into line for their own salary cuts, although later on I know that they cried about it. I know, because I was a witness to it, and I know that many of the members who voted for the salary cut have deeply regretted it ever since. They needed the money in their own homes, and there was a serious loss to this state because many worthy and able Representatives who were a credit to the state, afterwards would not run for election. Of course, the whip is used up there to defeat members who wish to get through certain measures. I have had occasion to suffer from that in my own district, because at one time I succeeded in getting through up there a relief hospital for East Boston, upon which I have introduced an order here eleven times, and it did look once as if I would get that through in the Legislature. I got it through to the third reading, and then, when it came to the third reading, the whip was used to defeat me, with the leadership of Representatives Baker and Bigelow. I have been informed by the Representative from Ward 4 (Coun Chase) that some 119 votes were cast for proportional representation. That, of course, was put through under the whip. There is no necessity for this proportional representation. There would be no trouble if the members of the Legislature outside of Boston would allow Boston to run its own affairs, and do as it sees fit. If the people of Boston want it, let them recommend it. But this is not something that is wanted by the citizens of Boston. There are certain interests that want this thing to go through and to have this Body reduced from twenty-two to nine members. A body of nine, elected in this way, not by the people of the different wards, but all over the city, will be easier for certain interests to handle. I think the other members will agree with me that it would be very difficult for them to get sufficient backing to run for the Council under this proposed plan. What would happen? The candidates would be men who were independently wealthy themselves or who were able to get the backing of some contractor or banker, somebody not interested in the citizens but in his own plans; and when any important matter came up in the Body the action of members elected in that way would not mean the interest of their constituents but the interest of the contractor or banker. If there were a dozen things proposed that were in the interest of the citizens, they would have to step aside for the contractor. I say that the members of the Legislature have been shoved into something they don't want, and I say the action they have taken will not meet with the approval of the people of my district. They want to elect their own councilor. I was defeated twice before being elected to the City Council, because I did not approve of certain things that had happened, but I say right now that I will go after the Senate next week if they are going to pass this bill. The whip will be snapped, of course, and I suppose it will go through the Senate the same as it was rushed through the House. But I am going to ask some of the members up there to remember what Bickford said a few years ago, that they were a bunch of thieves and that they would sell their vote for a pound of tea. That was said about some of the men in the Legislature, and I wondered at the time why some of the members did not challenge him. But he got away with it. I was not a member of the Legislature at the time. I don't know why they did not at least defend their own characters by asking Bickford to name the man who had told him that they were a bunch of thieves.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, the gentleman from East Boston has asked why Bickford was not challenged at the particular time. I was a member of the Legislature at the time and, if I remember correctly, a committee was appointed by the House and they did call Bickford in and ask him to name the man. But he refused to do so. I certainly was not going to get up as a member of the Legislature, under the circumstances, when he had been called in and had refused to name the man. Of course, I could hardly be expected, under the circumstances, to stand up and protest, after he had placed himself on record in that way, because he did not prove anything against me.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, again I say that if I was a member of the Legislature and was told that the votes of members of the Legislature could be obtained for a pound of tea, as Bickford said three years ago —

Chairman M. H. SULLIVAN—The gentleman is out of order. That has nothing to do with this discussion.

Coun. COFFEY—I wonder how many times you might be ruled out of order in the course of a meeting! I was not a member of the body at that time, but I do recall the matter being brought up and that charge being made. Well, 119 members have voted for proportional representation, the whip being used on those men. They don't care for the people of Boston or how they may wish to be represented. It may be that they feel, as one of the Boston Representatives who had been a member of this Body felt at the time when the matter came up before the Legislature previously, that the people of Boston were too stupid to be trusted under the present system. Well, some of them, I suppose, having that feeling, the biennial bill was passed, although there was nothing to indicate that the people of Boston wanted it. I know the reaction to that bill. As is the case in a good many of these referendums, the people voted yes, without any explanation that would have made the thing intelligent to them, and the people accepted it under those circumstances. I know that some in my own family voted for it, although I was a member of the Legislature and was against the bill becoming law. But they, and a great many others, voted for it, because it was not properly explained, and they didn't know what it meant. And these members of the Legislature today are really the ones who are stupid in passing this proportional representation bill, telling the Boston voters what to do although they know nothing about the bill themselves, or how it will work. As I say, representatives of the Legislature at the time when the biennial bill went through, voted for it and were stupid enough to vote for a reduction in their own salaries, although they afterwards cried until four o'clock in the morning.

Coun. GALVIN—Mr. President, I desire to say just a word on this matter of proportional representation, voicing my own opinion. As we all know, this matter was recently taken up by the committee of the Legislature having the proportional representation bill in charge, and the bill gained much favorable opinion in the Legislature because of the fact that members of the Legislature, who were former members of the City Council, went up there and appeared in favor of it. One of those former City Council members a few years ago is a man who preceded me here in public office, and the other man was from Ward 18, stating to that committee that with the passage of this bill we would have an improvement in the members of this Body. That gentleman from Ward 18 is a man who used to come into this Council at about twenty minutes of five at night, just before the close of the meeting, then telling the Council what it should or should not do. He tried to lead the public of Boston at large to believe that he was the only councilor representing the people of Boston. He gave very little of his time to the people of Boston while he was a member of this Council, although he tried to give the impression to the public that he was extremely active. That same gentleman from Ward 18 annually used to take a trip to Europe about the first of June and come back the first of September, and he would then tell us over the radio what a wonderful government they had in Germany. Well, as the years have rolled by we have seen that this so-called wonderful government in Germany is not such a good government. I recall also that that same gentleman awhile back went on the radio and told the people of Boston that they should vote for a certain person for public office. Since that time that person has been removed from that office. I say that not in criticism of the person who was removed, but just to give an idea of the defender of a bill of this kind in the Legislature, who also tries to tell the prople of Boston on various occasions how they should vote. That same gentleman served for eleven years in the City Council and tried to get great credit while he was serving the city for not drawing his salary. He knew, of course, that he could draw it at any time later, but he tried to represent to the people that he received no salary. But he can simply at any time when he wishes draw that back salary, in spite of the impression that he has left with the public. That is not an honest, honorable thing to do. He is not acting like one gentleman here, who draws his salary and gives it to charity. The gentleman from Ward 18 leaves it there, so that when he is ready to retire or ready to withdraw it, $22,000 will be there for him. In the meantime, of course, he makes a great play for the poor unfortunate children whom he desires to have receive one-cent milk, and he makes other such attempts to obtain public notoriety, in the magazines and papers and on the radio. But you have that type of person, who has been drawing two salaries for eleven years, although he did not see fit in those eleven years to favor a proportional representation Council of nine members. At the present time this gentleman holds a public office. He lives at the ninth hole of the George Wright Golf Course. In order to reach him you have to take a car to a distant section of Hyde Park and then walk a mile and a half to reach his place, where you may find him at home after eleven o'clock at night, but you will be greeted by two ferocious police dogs before you are able to get into his home. Of course, if you are successful in fighting off the two dogs, you may be able to ring the bell. I say that when this man goes before a committee of the Legislature and gives the impression that in what he is saying he is representing this Body, he is misleading the members of the Legislature. I believe the members of the Council should ask for a hearing before the Senate committee on this particular bill. I think that committee should have something better to do than to listen to a couple of crackpots who are trying to tell them what they should do for the people of Boston.

The resolution was adopted.

MERRITT THOMPSON,
Collector of Taxes for the City of Boston.

LAND-TAKING IN DORCHESTER.

The Mayor has approved the order of the Board of Street Commissioners for the taking of land for sewerage works to be constructed as follows:

The right and easement is taken to lay and maintain sewerage works in the following described lands, exclusive of any interest in trees, buildings or other structures standing thereon, reserving to the owners thereof the right to use the lands for any purpose except such as may injure or obstruct said works, and except for placing or maintaining any structure on said lands not authorized in writing by the Mayor of said city; trees, buildings or other structures standing upon or affixed to the land in which an easement is hereby taken are to be removed therefrom within sixty days following a notice of the city's intention to enter upon said taking for the purpose of constructing said sewerage works. Said lands are in that part of Boston formerly Dorchester and are bounded as follows:

A parcel of land, owners unknown, being part of the private way known as Glenhill road, bounded:

Northeasterly by Tiverton road, seventeen and 11-100 feet; southeasterly by the southeasterly line of Glenhill road, six hundred sixty-five and 76-100 feet; southwesterly by the southwesterly line of said road, seventeen and 43-100 feet; northwesterly by easement taken for sewerage purposes, July 11, 1922, six hundred sixty-three and 86-100 feet, containing eleven thousand three hundred and two square feet, more or less.

A parcel of land, owners unknown, being part of the private way known as Glenhill road, bounded:

Northeasterly by Tiverton road, seventeen and 11-100 feet; southeasterly by easement taken July 11, 1922, for sewerage purposes, two hundred sixty-six and 67-100 feet; southwesterly by easement taken July 11, 1922, for sewerage purposes, seventeen feet; northwesterly by the northwesterly line of Glenhill road, two hundred sixty-eight and 60-100 feet, containing forty-five hundred and fifty square feet, more or less.

A parcel of land, owners unknown, being part of the private way known as Glenhill road, bounded:

Northeasterly by easement taken for sewerage purposes July 11, 1922, seventeen feet; southeasterly by the same, three hundred ninety and 52-100 feet; southwesterly by the southwesterly line of said road, seventeen and 43-100 feet and northwesterly by the northwesterly line of said road, three hundred eighty-six and 69-100 feet, containing sixty-six hundred and six square feet, more or less.

A parcel of land being part of the private way known as Doone avenue, bounded:

Southeasterly by Glenhill road, twenty-two feet; southwesterly by the southwesterly line of Doone avenue, one hundred fifty-two feet; northwesterly by another part of Doone avenue, twenty-two feet and northeasterly by easement taken for sewerage purposes July 11, 1922, one hundred fifty-two feet, containing thirty-three hundred and forty-four square feet, more or less.

A parcel of land being part of the private way known as Doone avenue, bounded:

Southeasterly by Glenhill road, twenty-two feet; southwesterly by easement taken for sewerage purposes, July 11, 1922, one hundred fifty-two feet; northwesterly by another part of Doone avenue, twenty-two feet, and northeasterly by the northeasterly line of Doone avenue one hundred fifty-two feet, containing thirty-three hundred forty-four square feet, more or less.

The sewerage works to be constructed are as follows:

In Glenhill road, six hundred forty-one linear feet of 12-inch pipe surface drain.

In Doone avenue, one hundred eighty-two linear feet of 18-inch reinforced pipe surface drain.

No betterments are to be assessed for the making of the aforesaid improvement.

Voted, That this Board determines that the undermentioned persons sustain damages in their estates by the taking of an easement for sewerage purposes in Glenhill road and Doone avenue and the construction of sewerage works therein under the order of the Board of May 6, 1941, in the amounts hereinafter respectively set against them and awards said amounts therefor.

Owners unknown (Glenhill road), 6,606 square feet, $1.00; 4,550 square feet, $1.00; 11,302 square feet, $1.00.

Owners unknown (Doone avenue), 3,344 square feet, $1.00; 3,344 square feet, $1.

PITTSBURGH'S TRAFFIC SAFETY RECORD.

Pittsburgh has been adjudged the safest city in the United States in 1932, and the second safest in 1933 and 1934 among cities with populations over 500,000. Registrations in the city increased 4.4 per cent, gasoline consumption 7.7 per cent. In 1935, despite a 2.4 per cent decrease in traffic volume, adult fatalities increased 30 per cent, total fatalities 24 per cent, as compared with 1934.

The bidder must leave his proposal with a certified check for $100, payable to and to become the property of the City of Boston if the proposal is not carried out, at the above office. A duplicate bid, without check, must be left at the office of the City Auditor prior to the time named for opening bids. Envelopes containing bids to be sealed and plainly marked "Proposal for Linoleum, Etc." There will be a charge of twenty-five cents ($0.25) for each blank proposal taken out. The bids will be publicly opened and read Monday, June 2, 1941, at 12 m., at Room 1001, City Hall Annex. The successful bidder must furnish a bond for one half the total estimated amount of the contract with a surety company authorized to do business in Massachusetts as surety for the faithful performance of the contract. The Superintendent reserves the right to accept or reject any or all bids, or any part of a bid, and to award the contract as he deems for the best interests of the city. All contracts made subject to appropriations to meet payments thereunder.

CHARLES E. THORNTON,
Acting Superintendent of Supplies.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

PROPOSALS FOR RETAINING WALL AND RESETTING EDGESTONES AND SIDEWALK IN PARKER STREET (NORTHERLY SIDE) FROM ALLEGHANY STREET, EASTERLY, ROXBURY.

The Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston, office 508 City Hall Annex, invites proposals from citizens of the United States and corporations or other legal associations wherein the controlling interest to the extent of at least over one half thereof is owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States, for retaining wall and resetting edgestones and sidewalk in Parker street (northerly side) from Alleghany street, easterly, Roxbury. A bond will be required for doing the work of a surety company approved by the Commissioner in the sum of 100 per cent of the amount of the contract, to secure the due performance of the contract and the full protection of the city. Forms of proposals may be obtained at Room 508, City Hall Annex. Each proposal should be inclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked, "Proposal for Retaining Wall and Resetting Edgestones and Sidewalk in Parker Street (Northerly Side) from Alleghany Street, Easterly, Roxbury," and left at Room 508, fifth floor, City Hall Annex before 12 m. of Wednesday, June 4, 1941, with a certified check for one hundred (100) dollars, payable to and to become the property of the city if the proposal after acceptance is not carried out. The proposals will then and there be publicly opened and read. Proposals must be made in duplicate, the sealed duplicate, without check, to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the bids. There will be a charge of two dollars ($2) for each set of plans and specifications taken out. If the price of any item appears to the Commissioner to be abnormally high or low, or the bidder neglects to bid on each and every item, it may lead to the rejection of the proposal containing such price. The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which schedule is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained, without cost, upon application therefor at the office of the Commissioner of Public Works. The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Law so called) to all persons to be employed under this contract and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required prior to the award of said contract. The undersigned reserves the right to reject any or all proposals or to award the contract as he deems best.

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

REPORT OF MISS HELEN E. CLEAVES, DIRECTOR OF MANUAL ARTS, ON ATTENDANCE AT MEETING OF EASTERN ARTS ASSOCIATION, IN NEW YORK, APRIL 16 TO 19, INCLUSIVE.

The following is the report of Miss Helen E. Cleaves, Director of Manual Arts, on her attendance at meeting of the Eastern Arts Association, in New York, April 16 to April 19, inclusive, as presented to the School Committee:

I attended the Eastern Arts Association Convention in New York City during the four days it was in session, Wednesday, April 16, through Saturday noon, April 19. Many Boston art teachers and supervisors showed their professional interest by attending during their vacation days and evenings.

Comments were enthusiastic as to the high quality of the meetings and the conferences. The general theme of the convention was "Art Grows with the American Way." The urgent necessity of relating art education to everyday life was repeatedly emphasized by speakers and members of conference groups. In fact, there is no art except that which develops out of life itself.

The president, Elmer A. Stephan, is a man of action and refinement whose work in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, is distinguished for success in relating school arts to city life.

The first speaker was a superintendent of schools, who admirably stated the case for art education as "an inextricable part of life itself, a means to the supreme art of living together peacefully. Art should live and function in the whole school, in partnership, not the servant of other subjects."

"Art well taught helps to build personality and character." "Effective education and a dynamic religion" are essential to civilization. Art Education must be improved and made available to every high school pupil. Time, space and equipment must be provided. We must question the validity of our teaching methods through experiment and survey.

We were urged to be more aggressive in finding a place for art in the curriculum. Many speakers suggested richer art programs for high school pupils. Only ten per cent in the high schools of the United States get any art whatever. (In Boston about six per cent only.)

Dr. H. L. Caswell, of Columbia University, spoke on "What One General Curriculum Worker Expects of the Arts," "Superficial Generalist versus Narrow Specialist."

"Lastest trick the core curriculum,
A-ha, that is sure to tickle 'em."

He urged art for all as citizen education in which we seek development of standards at different levels, not fixed standards of excellence. "Do not lead the average man to seek authority for his tastes. Rather, respect the taste of the average man. Taste must rise from the bottom up, through native arts and crafts. European order differs from ours. Art over there has been a privilege for the few. Here, it must contribute to the life of the citizen with standards evolved by the citizen himself, not by the art specialist."

He spoke of colleges where the art program was fine but the "student dormitories were drab and ugly, even dirty and tawdry." Students and faculty must accept art as a responsibility, not encourage art dictatorship. Art specialist necessary but art must not be separated from school life. We may no longer work in isolation.

John Taylor Arms, "the greatest etcher in the world today," made a final, eloquent appeal for study and appreciation of the beauty all around us, waiting to be seen, touched and felt. Goodness and beauty endure. After every great storm there is calm.

I attended eighteen addresses and demonstrations and acted as co-leader in two conferences. See page 25 of Program Bulletin.

Among constructive ideas for Boston I brought back renewed enthusiasm for more student cooperation in school and neighborhood art enterprises. Junior museums organized by junior committees, art activities for school and community betterment. We might do more with school or local museums, combining art, natural history, library and science exhibits, promoted by students, faculty and museum people working together. The Art Department and Visual Education Department are cooperating to some extent but an educational museum, serving all schools, is something to be desired, with circulating exhibits, managed from but not hoarded in a central office.

The Eastern Arts is to hold its convention in New York again next year and possibly for several years, by vote of members. I shall extend an invitation to come again to Boston and they probably will when they go anywhere outside of New York.

Respectfully submitted,

HELEN E. CLEAVES,
Director of Manual Arts.

Upon May 6 the Mayor approved a contract with contractors as indicated in the following letter:

BOSTON, April 30, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Attached find summary of advertised bid on "Gypsteel" senior plank, or equal, to be delivered to the Highland Street Yard, Roxbury, Sewer Division, Public Works Department, which bid was publicly opened and read on April 21, 1941.

In bidding, the United States Gypsum Company, the only bidder, quoted a net total price of $2,002.60. After the opening of the bids, this company informed the Supply Department that the net total price of $2,002.60 was in error, and that the correct net total price should have been $2,202.60. As the correct figuring of the bid will show a net total of $2,202.60, I respectfully ask permission to award the contract, without further publicly advertising, to the United States Gypsum Company, as follows:

12,000 square feet "Gypsteel" senior plank at 18.65 cents per square foot, $2,238, 2 per cent, ten days on net amount after deducting freight and haul. Net amount of contract, $2,202.60.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN A. BREEN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

12,000 Square Feet "Gypsteel" Senior Plank, 2 Inches by 15 Inches by 10 Feet, or Equal, Per Square Foot.—United States Gypsum Company (Engineering Sales Division), 18.65 cents; total, $2,238; cash discount, ten days, 2 per cent on net amount after deducting freight and haul; net total, $2,002.60.

MAYOR RECEIVES AUTOMOBILE CLUB AWARD FOR BOSTON.

At 11.30 a. m., Friday, the 23d, Herbert E. Stone, Chairman of the Advisory Board of the Boston Automobile Club, Division of the American Automobile Association, presented his Honor, Mayor Maurice J. Tobin with a plaque, City of Boston's award for honorable mention in the 1940 AAA National Pedestrian-Protection Contest.

Among cities of 500,000 or over, Boston in 1940 enjoyed the greatest reduction in pedestrian fatalities as compared to the two previous years. This reduction was 11.5 per cent. Pedestrian injuries were reduced to 6.4. The American Automobile Association gives considerable credit to Mayor Tobin for his cooperation with the Traffic Commission in arranging for an appropriation for the increased painting of pedestrian crosswalks.

Through his efforts in 1940 the painted crosswalk mileage has been increased from 60 to 200 miles, an increase of over 200 per cent. This painting of crosswalks has materially assisted in the elimination of pedestrian fatalities and injuries. The construction of special pedestrian signals and the addition of thirty pedestrian islands or zones in 1940 have undoubtedly been among the various reasons for Boston's enviable record.

Radio stations in the metropolitan area have averaged a total of five radio programs per week having to do with safety and pedestrian control. Traffic safety films have been shown in Boston proper to eighty-five groups, or a total of about 25,000 people.

In the opinion of the AAA judges, Boston's 180 playgrounds for summer use, Safety-Town demonstrations at its 125 backyard playgrounds for young children, played a very essential part in the elimination of current accidents among pedestrians and in the education of the younger generation regarding safety measures for the future.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 610.

The attention of all members of the department is directed to the observance of Policemen's Memorial Day which occurs on Sunday, June 1, 1941.

Policemen's Memorial Day is set aside by statute for the special purpose of decorating the graves of deceased policemen. The memory of Boston policemen who have sacrificed their lives in the performance of duty will be honored as in the past by the placing of a wreath upon their graves.

It is also suggested that it would be quite fitting if each member of the Force, at twelve o'clock noon on this day, would pause for one minute and pay silent tribute to the memory of their departed comrades, many of whom so courageously and willingly sacrificed life itself in the defence of law and order.

The unselfish devotion to duty as exemplified by these officers brought distinction not only to themselves and their families, but to the department as well, and it is with deepest respect and admiration that I, in behalf of the department, dedicate this day in their honor.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

JOSEPH F. TIMILTY,
Police Commissioner.

General Order No. 611.

The following transfers are hereby ordered to take effect Wednesday, May 28, 1941, at 7.45 o'clock a. m.:

Lieut. Louis DiSessa, from Division 1 to Bureau of Criminal Investigation.

Lieut. Michael J. Adley, from Bureau of Criminal Investigation to Division 1.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

JOSEPH F. TIMILTY,
Police Commissioner.

General Order No. 612.

SAMUEL J. POPE,
Chief of Department.

General Order No. 23.

I. CHARITY FIELD DAY AND ENTERTAINMENT.

His Honor Mayor Maurice J. Tobin has requested the members of the Boston Fire Department to give their customary generous support to the Field Day and entertainment for the benefit of the Mayor of Boston Special Welfare Fund, to be held at Fenway Park on Friday, June 27, 1941. Everyone who purchases tickets is contributing to the assistance of less fortunate persons and helping to provide funds for the Public Welfare Department. A program of sports and other entertainment has been arranged for the afternoon.

Tickets have been popularly priced at $1.00 and his Honor the Mayor has given his hearty indorsement and support to the affair. In order that members of the department may give their assistance to the cause, tickets have been placed in the hands of every district chief and division head today and they will interview each member of their commands as to his wishes in purchasing tickets. All returns must be made to Miss Geraldine A. Skelley, at the office of the Fire Commissioner, on or before Monday, June 23, 1941. Delivery of money at Headquarters may be made on any week day, except Saturday, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 11 a. m.

Members purchasing tickets will fill out the stub attached to each ticket and give it to the district chief or division head who will see that all stubs are returned to the Fire Commissioner's office not later than Monday, June 23, 1941. Thus, purchasers will participate in the drawing to be held on June 27. A great many valuable prizes have already been donated for the drawing.

It is hoped that the members of the department will support this most worthy endeavor. Additional tickets can be obtained at Department Headquarters.

In radio and press announcements the public will be informed that they can purchase tickets for the event at their local fire stations. A few tickets should be kept on hand in each station for this purpose.

By order of Fire Commissioner WILLIAM ARTHUR REILLY.

SAMUEL J. POPE,
Chief of Department.

LAND-TAKING IN EAST BOSTON.

The Mayor has approved the order of the taking of land for a public improvement consisting of the discontinuance of part of Border street, East Boston district, as a highway, from Sumner street southwesterly to the end of said street, bounded and described as follows:

A part of the highway named Border street is hereby discontinued, from Sumner street southwesterly to the end of said street.

Said highway, as hereby discontinued, is bounded:

Northeasterly by Sumner street, ninety-five and 18-100 feet; southeasterly by the southeasterly line of said Border street, as hereby discontinued, two hundred twenty-eight and 86-100 feet; southwesterly by the southwesterly line of said Border street, as hereby discontinued, ninety-five and 20-100 feet; and northwesterly by the northwesterly line of said Border street, as hereby discontinued, two hundred twenty-three and 90-100 feet, containing twenty-one thousand five hundred and forty-six square feet, more or less.

Voted, That this Board determines that no person sustains damages in his estate by the making of the public improvement consisting of the discontinuance of Border street, East Boston district, as a highway, from Sumner street southwesterly to the end of said street, under the order of the Board of May 20, 1941, and awards no damages therefor.

SELECTEES GET FAVOR ON GOLF LINKS BY MAYOR'S RULING.

On May 19 Mayor Tobin issued the following statement:

Men in the armed forces of the United States, with proper identification, will be allowed to play golf at the Franklin Park Golf Course on any day of the week for fifty cents. The regular price is one dollar per day and one dollar and fifty cents for Sunday. This concession has been granted because many selectees have written that on their days off they would like to play golf and their salary is too small to pay the regular fee.

MAYOR PLANS NATIONAL DEFENSE INSTRUCTION MEETINGS.

In answer to a rising tide of queries being received daily at City Hall from persons wishing to know what they may do to assist national defense, Mayor Maurice J. Tobin has completed plans for a series of public mass meetings to be held in the several districts of the city.

Fire Commissioner William Arthur Reilly has been designated to preside over these neighborhood gatherings and explain the Mayor's plan for home defense preparation by the civilian population of Boston.

Representatives of veterans organizations and local civic groups will be present at these meetings to assist Commissioner Reilly in answering the inevitable host of questions that are sure to be asked by Boston residents desiring to participate in this program, the urgency of which is daily becoming more apparent to the public mind.

The first of these civilian defense talks, that will be conducted with the assistance of the W. P. A. Community Recreation Project which is sponsored by the Mayor's Office, took place in the East Boston section and was held at the Donald McKay School, Cottage street, Thursday, May 29, at 8 p. m.

Additional meetings will follow in the Charlestown, South Boston, Dorchester and Roxbury districts, with a grand finale for the City Proper that will be held at the Hatch Memorial Shell on the Esplanade on June 26.

METROPOLITAN DISTRICT, 1938.

Total valuation of the 43 cities and towns in the Metropolitan District in 1938 was $3,499,398,193 and the property tax on the same was $130,474,309. The average tax rate was $33.28. Strictly speaking, tax rates cannot be averaged. A rate of $37.28 would be required to raise $130,474,309 on a valuation of $3,499,398,198. Of the total valuation, 44.37 per cent applied to property in Boston.

The total valuation of the 13 cities in the district was $1,126,838,735 with a total property tax of $42,494,084, requiring a tax rate of $37.71.

Boston's tax rate of $41.30 was exceeded by Chelsea ($46.20), Revere ($47.00), Saugus ($46.00) and Somerville ($43.90).

REVENUE BOND ACTS.

The 1936 issue of the "Municipal Index" contains a detailed study of the revenue bond acts in the thirty-three states which have enabling acts, and reports of all forty-eight states, showing what advantage has been taken of these acts by cities to finance the construction, operation and maintenance of sewerage systems and sewage treatment plants by service charges.

The table shows the status of revenue bond acts and other enabling acts in the different states, the dates when the acts became effective, and whether or not cities have taken advantage of the opportunity offered for financing bonds by service charges. In the case of states with no enabling acts, the table shows whether cities are charging sewer rentals under some other authority.

36,400 MOTOR DEATHS IN 1935.

According to the findings of the National Safety Council motor traffic deaths in 1935 totaled 36,400, compared with 1934's record of 36,000.

The only decrease was among school children up to fifteen years of age. Motor vehicle accidents to children have increased much less than those of adults since 1922, when safety education began on a national scale. October, November and December were the reddest months. Two-thirds of the accidents were in places under 10,000 population; more than 40 per cent of the victims pedestrians.

Thirteen states decreased traffic deaths 7 per cent or more: Delaware, Illinois, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Montana, North Dakota, Oregon, Rhode Island, Utah, Vermont, Wyoming and Washington.

BUDGETARY CONTROL.

Prior to installing the present system of budgetary control, effective as of January 1, 1939, the city of Newark had no centralized accounting control over its budget commitments. The city's general ledger contained accounts for the various budget appropriations, and reflected disbursements out of the appropriations. However, commitments for work and material were not recorded in the city's accounts until after bills submitted by the vendors had been approved for payment by the Board of Commissioners. Consequently, financial reports could only show the amount of appropriated moneys that had not been disbursed out of any account. No recognition could be given in these reports to the unpaid purchase commitments, since the amount was not known. The American City.

TAUNTON'S ASPHALT PLANT.

One of the functions of a city public works or street department is to operate as effectively as possible in the construction and maintenance of its streets and sidewalks and to produce the necessary materials for paving at the lowest possible cost. In some cities this is effected by the purchase of all paving materials in either the raw or the mixed stage. Taunton has used a city-owned 100-ton asphalt plant for street paving and maintenance and for sidewalk construction for ten years. Located in the city yard with the equipment repair shop and garage, the plant is housed in a 60 by 90 foot building with a 30 by 100 foot wing, which was formerly used as a foundry. The American City.

BOSTON AS A TOWN.

From its foundation until 1755, or a period of 125 years, Boston was not only the most outstanding but the most populous town in the American colonies. In 1760, Philadelphia's population was ahead, viz., 18,756, Boston's then being 15,631 and New York's about 14,000. In the last year of town government, viz., 1821, Boston's population was about 45,000 and its public debt $100,000, all incurred for new county buildings.

The history of Boston as a town during a period of nearly two centuries surpasses in civic interest that of Boston as a city because of the untiring zeal and successful efforts of its townsmen to realize more of true democracy than had ever been attained before. Their obligations were held as sacred as their liberties.

WATER-SUPPLY DEVELOPMENT IN THE UNITED STATES.

In 1652 Boston introduced the first American public water supply. The first mechanical pumps were used in 1761 at Bethlehem, Pa., where Hans Christiansen, an American pioneer water-supply engineer, made his pumps work "after severe struggles." In 1850 there were only 100 water plants in the United States, and as late as 1875 only 243. In 1933 there were more than 11,000 public water supplies, some serving more than one community.

TO PROTECT MINORS.

Buffalo is considering an ordinance, similar to the one in effect in New York City, for the protection of minors in theaters. It permits children, unaccompanied by adults, only in theaters licensed as to adequate sanitary and safety provisions, sets aside a certain section for them and requires the presence of a licensed matron.

SQUARE DEAL IN ASSESSMENTS FOR TAXATION.

Many cities are finding it greatly to their advantage to have their tax valuations periodically overhauled. The first criterion of any assessment is equity. For every citizen who wants through "pull" or however else to get off easy, there are twenty, nay a hundred who want a fair and square deal for all.

The appraisal of city real estate is a highly technical affair.

Few things are more important than the equalization of assessments. Particularly in cities that are cramped by an inflexible debt or tax limit, an honest, full value assessment may be a great boon. Without the slightest raise in the tax rate a substantially greater tax yield may be had.

BOSTON'S POPULATION ON APRIL 1, 1930, BY WARDS.

The longest period without precipitation was 16 days, May 5-20; the longest period with precipitation, 5 days, March 9-13. Maximum rainfall for 5, 10, 15, 30 and 60 minutes came on May 28.

The first thunderstorm occurred on January 22; last thunderstorm occurred on October 1. The highest mean temperature of three consecutive days was 82°, July 7-9; lowest mean temperature of three consecutive days, 16°, January 25-27.

Barometric pressure (reduced to sea level): Mean, 29.98 inches, 1,015.2 millibars; highest, 30.64 inches, 1,037.6 millibars, February 17; lowest, 29.14 inches, 986.8 millibars, January 22.

FIVE PER CENT OF CITY BUDGET PAID FOR REFUSE DISPOSAL.

Nearly one million dollars, or about 5 per cent of the total cost of the general city government of Los Angeles, Cal., is spent every year for the collection and disposal of refuse, under the direction of the Bureau of Engineering of that city. The Refuse Collection Division operates six days a week, and enough men are provided to compensate for a five-day week for all the personnel employed.

UNITED STATES GROSS DEBT.

November 30, 1932, total gross debt of the United States was $20,806,013,836, of which $20,476,034,190 was interest-bearing. This is a reduction of $6,120,667,458 from the peak of $26,596,701,648 on August 31, 1919. The gross debt on June 30, 1931, was $16,801,281,492.

OWNED AND RENTED HOMES IN UNITED STATES, NEW ENGLAND AND MASSACHUSETTS, 1930—ALSO BOSTON.

Total homes in UNITED STATES, 29,904,663, of which 14,002,074 or 46.8 per cent were owned, 15,319,817 or 51.2 per cent were rented, and 582,772 were of unknown tenure. "RELIEF" DECLINING.

Two-thirds of the nation's relief expenditures in recent years has been centered in ten industrial states, the "Year Book's" section on Financing Relief and Recovery points out. Half the Federal Work Relief Funds and two-thirds of all available funds have been expended in the fifty largest cities, including about 25 per cent of the population. Industrial urban population is more vulnerable to unemployment. In addition, living costs are higher, requiring greater relief allotments, and the cost of giving employment to a city group is higher than in rural areas.

STATUS OF MUNICIPAL EMPLOYEES CALLED TO DEFENSE.

A steadily increasing number of cities and states are amending their personnel policies to protect the status of their employees called to defense training, the Civil Service Assembly of the United States and Canada reports.

The state of Michigan and eight cities —Columbus, Ohio; Detroit, Flint, Michigan; Evanston, Illinois; Los Angeles; St. Petersburg; Akron and Seattle— are among those that most recently have adopted measures affecting regular employees called for training, persons eligible for jobs, and substitutes for regular employees. All grant leaves to employees called, but only Evanston provides for supplementary pay. Employees with at least three months' service with Evanston get leave and, for the first three months of training, they receive the difference between military and city pay, the difference not to exceed $150 a month. Various rights, benefits and privileges—such as promotion, retirement, vacation and sick leave—are protected by the rulings of Detroit, Evanston, Akron, St. Petersburg and Seattle.—American City Magazine.

CITIES AND NATION PAY MOST OF AIRPORT COSTS.

The civil aeronautics authority has reported that on January 1, 1939, there had been expended upwards of $330,000,000 on existing civil airports and landing fields. Of this amount, about $140,000,000, or 42 per cent of the total, represented Federal funds; in excess of $100,000,000, or 31 per cent, represented the funds of municipalities; while private and commercial concerns had expended 24 per cent, or slightly less than $80,000,000; and the states had contributed only $6,500,000, or 1.8 per cent of the total.

New York City alone has expended practically three times as much money out of its own treasury on one airport than all the forty-eight states combined. Several other cities, including San Francisco, Cleveland, and Newark, have each and individually expended nearly as much on their own airports as all the forty-eight states combined.—American City Magazine.

BOSTON'S LIABILITY FOR METROPOLITAN DEBT, 1937.

Boston's liability for this contingent debt of the State (i. e., in the form of annual assessments for sinking funds and interest) incurred for Metropolitan parks, sewers, water, etc., was $28,559,995 (net) on July 1, 1937, or $1,283,454 more than in 1936 and $6,473,404 more than in 1927. It is divided thus: Water debt, $25,314,274; Park debt, $904,738; Sewer debt, $1,639,878; Charles River Basin debt, $701,105. The percentages paid by Boston in 1937 were 63.4515 on Water Debt; 48.6623 on most of the Park Debt; 36.25 on most of the Sewer debt, and on Charles River Basin debt the same as on Park debt.

Metropolitan assessments paid by Boston in 1937 amounted to $4,752,277.22, of which 64.23 per cent was for debt requirements and 35.77 for maintenance. Water assessment, $3,282,201 (usually paid from water revenue); park, $786,974; sewer, $470.545; Charles River Basin, etc., $212,557.

LODGING OF DELINQUENT YOUTHS

Mr. Norton: I have received a letter from the Corporation Counsel under date of Apr. 25, 1941, in which he discusses the suggestion which I originally made relative to the matter of adopting in Boston the so-called Jersey City method of handling delinquent youth, so that instead of sending a youngster to the police station he would be brought to a room at the City Hospital that would be set aside for such purpose. In other words: In Boston each year the Police Department locks up a couple of hundred youngsters who are aged twelve and under. I claim the police station is not a proper place for those children. I am interested because most of those youngsters go to our public schools.

The Corporation Counsel has very kindly submitted a fourteen-page report on the suggestion. Under the law he is not required to make the exhaustive study that he did for a member of the School Committee on a question of this character. Nevertheless he has done so and I wish publicly to thank him.

On page 6 of the letter, he states: "No statute in this commonwealth provides that a child shall not be transported in a patrol wagon or lodged in a cell."

Many states in the Union refuse to lock up a child in a cell or put him in a patrol wagon.

"In my opinion, however, the authority of the Police Commissioner should be broad enough to allow him to establish rules in this field similar to those in force in Jersey City."

Mr. Lee: Give me that last one again.

Mr. Norton: I will give you a copy of the Corporation Counsel's letter. I have a dozen copies.

"In my opinion, however, the authority of the Police Commissioner should be broad enough to allow him to establish rules in this field similar to those in force in Jersey City."

What he is referring to is the specific question of lodging the youngsters in a room in the City Hospital. He does not go into the other questions.

Now I am asking that the Mayor of Boston be requested by the Boston School Committee to consider the matter of requesting the Police Commissioner of Boston to study this problem with a view to seeing if it is possible to have these delinquent youngsters sent to a room at the City Hospital pending inquiry into their cases, instead of lodging them in a police station. That is my first and only suggestion this evening.

I would like to have spread upon the records this letter from the Corporation Counsel.

I therefore offer the following:

ORDERED, That the Boston School Committee respectfully requests His Honor the Mayor to consider the advisability of asking the Police Commissioner of Boston to study the matter and report to His Honor whether in his opinion such a procedure as is now in operation in Jersey City, could be worked out in Boston.

The order passed.

The communication from the Corporation Counsel was ordered spread upon the records, as follows:

LAW DEPARTMENT
of the
City of Boston
11 Beacon Street
April 25, 1941.

Hon. Clement A. Norton,
Member, School Committee,
Boston Public Schools,
15 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass.

Dear Sir:

In a letter to me under date of March 8, 1941, you requested my opinion as to whether the adoption in Boston of the Jersey City plan for the prevention of juvenile delinquency would require changes in the law applicable to this subject. In this connection, you later submitted to me the following: copies of letters written by Mayor Hague of Jersey City to various city employees; an explanatory Pamphlet "Organization of Bureau of Special Service, Board of Education, Jersey City, N. J.", September, 1940; and Report of the New Jersey Juvenile Delinquency Commission, entitled "Justice and the Child in New Jersey," November, 1939.

The letters and the Pamphlet above-referred to describe the Jersey City program, under which a Special Service Bureau is set up to work with and for the benefit of delinquent children. The plan originated in 1931. The Report above-referred to is a state-wide study of juvenile delinquency in New Jersey by a legislative commission.

It is difficult to explain in short compass the organization and functioning of the Bureau of Special Service. Perhaps its essential factor is the co-ordination of existing facilities in Jersey City. The public schools, police, municipal medical center, the courts, the Hudson County Detention House (Jersey City is in Hudson County), and the County Probation office cooperate in carrying out the plan. See the pamphlet on "Organization of Bureau of Special Service," p. 13.

The Bureau of Special Service was established as a coordinated child welfare unit by the Jersey City Board o Education. This Bureau seems to be the central agency of the whole plan. But as the Pamphlet states (p. 9) and the Report confirms (p. 206), the police are "an essential element," and the program could not function successfully without the "coordination of all public agencies" (Pamphlet, p. 13).

A. Before discussing the relation of the Boston Public Schools to a program like the Jersey City plan, it is to be recalled that the Jersey City plan in its present form was created and given impetus by the Mayor of Jersey City and that coordination of all agencies has been the touchstone of its achievement. This coordination has undoubtedly been rendered more effective by the control that the Mayor of Jersey City is authorized to exercise over the public schools. The authority of the Mayor of Boston in this field is quite different. The direction and control of the Boston Public Schools is vested in the School Committee by a series of statutes that will be cited below. The intention of the Legislature in providing for the government of Boston appears to have been to keep the administration of the school system separate from the general administration of the city government. See Acts of 1909, c. 486, ss. 2, 3, 5, 9 and 14.

When the Special Service Bureau was organized, the School System of Jersey City included attendance officers and a number of teachers whose duty it was to assist in the education of children suffering from mental or physical handicaps. Pamphlet, p. 2. The facilities of the school system especially adapted for those laboring under such handicaps have been extended since the establishment of the plan. Pamphlet, pages 3, 4.

A series of statutes enacted by the Legislature of this Commonwealth has entrusted to the School Committee of the City of Boston the supervision and direction of the City's public schools. See Acts of 1933, c. 121, Acts of 1875, c, 241, Acts of 1877, c 53, Acts of 1889, c. 297, Acts of 1905, c. 349, Acts of 1931, c. 100, Acts of 1909, c. 480, Acts of 1934, c. 227. I am given to understand that the School Committee, acting under the authority conferred by these statutes, has already established special classes for children suffering from mental or physical defects. We have in Boston, for example, the Horace Mann School for deaf mutes, provision for which is made by Acts of 1885, c. 201. See also Acts of 1928, c. 339. There appears to be in the existing statutes ample authority for the extension of these facilities, if the School Committee should deem such an extension advisable. Of course, as to whether any particular extension of facilities would be within the existing powers of the School Committee or would transcend them would require separate consideration based upon the exact program sought to be undertaken.

Acts of 1907, c. 357, authorizes the School Committee to appoint nurses to assist the medical inspectors and to perform such other duties as the School Committee may designate. There would not seem to be any need for enlargement of legislative authority in order that children in the Boston Schools be examined so as to reveal any physical defects which hamper their progress in their classes and lead to juvenile delinquency. It is probable that an extension of facilities within the School Department to embrace the type of reporting, analysis, visiting teacher staff, physical and achievement and psychological-psychiatric examinations, and of special and additional classes included within the Jersey City program would lead to enhanced personnel and expense. That is, however, a matter which you as a member of the School Committee will be well advised upon or have full opportunity of ascertaining from the Department Staff.

As has been earlier stated, the Jersey City plan depends primarily upon the cooperation of existing agencies. I shall now consider whether the similar agencies in Boston are authorized to perform the functions of the Jersey City agencies and whether the cooperation which is the essential factor can be extended under existing law.

Problem children in a municipality generally come to the attention of either the school or police authorities. The Jersey City plan has a procedure for the handling of problem children who come to the attention of either the school or police authorities.

B. 1. Procedure in Jersey City for handling School Cases. Children suffering from physical, mental, or emotional abnormalties are reported to the Bureau of Special Service. Investigation into the background of such children is made by visiting teachers. All children are given a physical examination, achievement tests, and psychological examinations. If needed, psychiatric examinations are given. When these data have been assembled on the problem child, a recommendation is made by the Bureau of Special Service to the Superintendent of Schools regarding the necessity of transferring the children to various special classes and schools. See Pamphlet, pages 6, 7.

The authority of the School Committee of the City of Boston has been considered above. In my opinion, the School Committee has authority under existing law to put such a plan into effect, although it would, of course, be necessary to pass upon some exactly detailed program which might be proposed in order to be certain in this regard.

B. 2. Procedure in Jersey City for handling police cases.

The procedure employed in Jersey City in order to handle problem children who come to the attention of the police seems to have been laid down by Mayor Frank Hague. His directions to the members of the police force are contained in the copies of his letters above referred to.

This procedure is substantially as follows. No child is permitted to be taken to a police station or placed in a patrol wagon. A child detected in an offense is taken to his home or held in some private place until a parent arrives. In serious cases, the Medical Center is used as a temporary "Detention House." A report is made to the inspector of the police detail assigned to the Bureau of Special Service. A conference is had with the parent and child regarding the offense. A complete investigation is made into the circumstances affecting the development of the child. Serious cases are given the examinations described for children reported by the school authorities. Officers assigned to the Bureau of Special Service make follow-up visits to the home and school of the child until there is sufficient evidence that this follow-up work is no longer needed. Criminal action is taken against parents who do not cooperate. Only as a last resort are children sent to an institution.

One point must be clarified preliminary to a discussion as to whether the plan briefly sketched above can be adopted in Boston under existing law. The organization and control of the Boston Police Department differ from that in many jurisdictions—they are not subject to the Mayor of Boston, but are within the authority of the Police Commissioner. St. 1906, c. 291, s. 10; St. 1909, c. 221; St. 1920, c. 211. The Police Commissioner is appointed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Governor's Council. St. 1906, c. 291, s. 7. The Mayor of Boston's authority in regard to the Police Department differs from that of Mayor Hague in regard to the Jersey City Police.

No statute in this Commonwealth provides that a child shall not be transported in a patrol wagon or lodged in a cell. G. L. c. 119, s. 41 provides that no person shall convey in a patrol wagon a neglected or destitute child not accused or convicted of any offense. In my opinion, however, the authority of the Police Commisioner should be broad enough to allow him to establish rules in this field similar to those in force in Jersey City. Moreover, his authority is broad enough to allow him to assign some officers to assist in combating juvenile delinquency. You are familiar with the recent report of the Finance Commission questioning, however, the extent to which the Police Commissioner may go in related fields, such as the Junior Police Report, December 30, 1940, p. 75, ff.

There is in existence in this Commonwealth a cohesive body of statutes dealing with the subjects of neglected and delinquent children. Neglected children are dealt with under the provision of G. L. c. 119, ss. 42 to 51. Delinquent children are dealt with under the provisions of G. L. c. 119, ss. 52 to 64. Other pertinent provisions are contained in G. L. (Ter. Ed.) c. 119, ss. 65 to 83.

The purpose of the statutes dealing with neglected children has been said to be to provide for the removal of children from parents or guardians who are unfit to care for them. Commonwealth v. Dee, 222 Mass. 184. Section 42 provides that the Boston Juvenile Court or a District Court other than the Municipal Court of the City of Boston may issue a precept to bring before it a neglected child under sixteen years of age and its parent. The State Department of Public Welfare must be notified if a precept is issued. Section 43 gives the court issuing the precept authority to make proper provisions for the child pending the hearing. If, upon hearing, the child is adjudged to be a neglected child, the Court is authorized to commit the child to a suitable person or to the Department of Public Welfare. In proceedings of this nature the welfare of the child is the paramount factor. The Court is given a broad discretion to weigh all factors and to dispose of the case so that the best interests of the child will be served. Commonwealth v. Ball, 259 Mass. 148.

It must be noted that section 42 authorizes any person to bring a complaint and that section 49 makes it the duty of supervisors of attendance and members of boards of public welfare to search for and report neglected children. At this point there would seem to be possibilities for an overlapping of functions if the Boston Police Department should operate in seeking out potential delinquents in the manner prescribed to the Jersey City Police by Mayor Hague. One of the prime desiderata of the Jersey City Plan is that children be kept out of court proceedings until every avenue to prevent it has been explored. As our law now exists in Massachusetts, a person cannot be prevented from bringing complaints under section 42 nor can the courts be ousted of their jurisdiction to commit neglected children. In this regard, a change in the General Laws would really be necessary in order fully to implement the New Jersey plan. Perhaps some of this conflict could be resolved without legislation by enlisting the cooperation of the courts. Section 42 does not contain a mandatory direction to the courts to issue precepts to bring neglected children before them. The statute seems rather to be permissive. But when the precept is issued the State Department of Public Welfare must be notified. I should think that legislation would be required in order that there be no overlapping of investigation by the State Department of Public Welfare and any agency that may be set up in Boston.

The statutory rules regarding delinquent and wayward children are contained in G. L. c. 119, ss. 52 to 64. Here again we find a cohesive body of statutes relative to the subject.

Section 52 defines the terms used. Section 53 provides that proceedings in this respect be deemed not criminal but rather that proceedings should be adopted so that the child be treated not as a criminal but as a child in need of aid and guidance.

Proceedings on a complaint are regulated by section 54. It is mandatory that the Court shall examine the complainant and any witnesses produced by the complainant. Section 55 provides that the parent or one in loco parentis be summoned and that an agent of the State Department of Public Welfare be present if the Court is of opinion that the best interests of the child so require.

Under section 52, it is required that a probation officer of the Court in which the complaint is brought make an investigation into the character of the child, his school record, home surroundings, and previous complaints. This section seems to assume that the probation officer will observe the child during the period of any probation and report to the Court regarding his conduct during that period.

Section 58 provides for the disposition of a case where there has been an adjudication that a child is wayward or delinquent. If a child is adjudged to be a wayward child, the Court may place him in the care of a probation officer or deal with him as a neglected child. The statute gives the Court a rather wide range of discretion in dealing with a delinquent child.

The other provisions relative to delinquent children speak for themselves. It is not necessary for our purposes here that their purport be set out, but it should be noted that section 58A provides for mental and physical examinations of children before commitment as delinquents.

It must be obvious from the discussion above that the adoption in Boston of a plan similar to that in operation in Jersey City would, even assuming the cooperation of the Police Department, cause a conflict with the present methods and statutory procedure for handling neglected, wayward, and delinquent children. As has been pointed out before, one of the fundamental principles of the Jersey City plan is that the child be kept out of Court as long as possible. Another fundamental principle in the Jersey City plan is that the school be the central agency in watching over and guiding the child. The creation in Boston of a Bureau of Special Service would cause a duplication of investigation and responsibility: the Bureau might well be hampered in its efforts to guide the child by Court action commenced by some complainant and probation orders consequent thereto. With the full cooperation of the Courts, the probation officers, the State Department of Public Welfare and the police, much of the conflict might be eliminated; but under existing law there would be no one to require such cooperation, no sure imposition of responsibility, and no certainty that investigatory proceedures might not be duplicated or interfere with each other.

G. L. c. 119, ss. 65 to 72 and 73 to 83 contain various provisions relative to proceedings against children. Many of these provisions embody the same ideas that motivate the Jersey City plan. For instance, section 65 provides that cases involving children be heard in a separate juvenile session and that the hearings be private. See also ss. 66 and 67. Section 68 provides that the Court may receive information about a child from those in charge of the schools. Sections 73 to 83 contain other provisions adopted to keep a juvenile out of the usual run of criminal proceedings. Our juvenile courts are generally considered in the forefront of progress in child delinquency. It would almost seem that some of the ground which New Jersey had covered in the last decade had been explored and settled some time ago in this Commonwealth.

C. Other phases of the Jersey City Plan.

There are certain other phases of the Jersey City plan that have not yet been discussed.

One of these phases is the broader use of the school buildings and other school property so that the school can function as a kind of community center. Adults, especially those who are foreign born, are assisted in adjusting themselves to the problems of modern civilization. The school is used at night in order that the children may have an opportunity for uninterrupted study under supervision. Parents are encouraged to take an interest in the education of their children and to contribute to their own development in evening courses. Pamphlet pages 19-21.

In my opinion there is, at present, sufficient statutory authority so that the School Committee of the City of Boston may allow the school property to be reasonably used in such a program. St. 1916, c. 86, authorizes the School Committee to make regulations for the use of school property for educational, recreative, social, civic, and philanthropic purposes. This statute, taken in conjunction with the broad general powers of the School Committee over the public schools, would seem sufficient to warrant the adoption of a program similar to that in effect in Jersey City and discussed above.

Another phase of the Jersey City plan is the use of the City's Medical Center as a detention home for serious delinquents. Just what agency in Boston corresponds to the Medical Center in Jersey City I am not certain. There would be a question as to the power or propriety of using the Boston City Hospital for all types of cases of juvenile delinquency. When the exact program was determined, this subject would require more study.

D. I have read with interest the papers concerning the New Jersey plan. It is not easy to grasp it all from the printed page. You have, no doubt, considered its evaluation in the Report of the Commission, pages 206-207. There the Commission says that its evaluation is "not an easy assignment." On the whole, the Commission believes in the Bureau and its achievement and looks to see it do more. The Commission's concluding words are significant in their application to your question to me—

"One can only guess at how much of the bureau's accomplishments are due to the pattern of organization and how much are due to the interest aroused and maintained by sponsors.

"Certainly no one can see the bureau in operation without realizing that it owes much of its success to the spirit of the organization rather than to its form."

The significance of this comment lies in the difference between the control exerted by Mayor Hague over the various city departments in Jersey City which cooperate in the Bureau functioning and the existing statutory diffusion of responsibility in Boston between the Mayor, the School Committee, and the Police Commissioner.

There are also the statutory provisions in Massachusetts above referred to as to juvenile courts, probation, and the State Department of Public Welfare, which would require remoulding.

Obviously, this letter can only touch the "high spots;" but perhaps it will be of use to you in connection with your interest in the subject matter. At such time as a concrete program might be worked out, this Department would be glad to check it against the various statutes.

I am returning herewith the various papers which you sent to me and which are enumerated in the first paragraph.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) ROBERT CUTLER,
Corporation Counsel

THE NOISE NUISANCE.

That city officials are serious about eliminating noise is noted from studies of new anti-noise ordinances enacted by a growing number of municipalities listed in the "United States Municipal News," bulletin of the American Municipal Association and the United States Conference of Mayors. Among the more important of these cities are Philadelphia, Gary, Ind., Louisville, New York and Boston.

THE MUNICIPAL WATER-WORKS TREND.

In 1800 there was but one municipally-owned water-works plant in the United States. Now there are 7,853 municipally-owned installations, or 72.8 per cent of the entire number. In the United States there are ninety-four cities of over 100,000 population. All but eleven of these own their water works. Municipal plants serve 96.1 per cent of the population of the ninety-four cities, while private plants serve only 3.9 per cent.

INTERSTATE MUNICIPAL COOPERATION

At a recent meeting in New York City a new type of interstate municipal cooperation was launched by officials of cities in New York, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania. The plan is based on direct cooperation among officials of a region on pressing problems of local government.

POPULATION OF COUNTIES, 1935.

(1) Middlesex (11 cities and 43 towns), 958,855 or 23,931 over 1930; (2) Suffolk (3 cities and 1 town), 912,706 or 33,150 over 1930; (3) Essex (8 cities and 26 towns), 504,483 or 6,443 over 1930; (4) Worcester (4 cities and 57 towns), 495,562 or 4,320 over 1930; (5) Bristol (4 cities and 16 towns), 366,465 or 1,875 over 1930; (6) Hampden (4 cities and 19 towns), 333,495 or 2,001 less than in 1930; (7) Norfolk (1 city and 27 towns), 320,826 or 21,400 over 1930; (8) Plymouth 1 city and 26 towns), 166,329 or 4,018 over 1930; (9) Berkshire (2 cities and 30 towns), 121,099 or 399 over 1930; (10) Hampshire (1 city and 22 towns), 74,205 or 1,404 over 1930; (11) Franklin (26 towns), 51,043 or 1,431 over 1930; (12) Barnstable (15 towns), 36,647 or 4,342 over 1930; (13) Dukes (7 towns), 5,700 or 747 over 1930; (14) Nantucket (1 town), 3,495 or 183 less than in 1930. Total for the 14 counties (39 cities and 316 towns), 4,350,910 or 101,296 (i. e., 2.38 per cent) over 1930. Of said total, 2,975,790 (i. e., 68.39 per cent) were in the cities and 1,375,120 (i. e., 31.61 per cent) in the towns. The four counties, Suffolk, Middlesex, Essex and Bristol, contain 63.00 per cent of the State's inhabitants.

If the municipalities having a population of 5,000 or over are properly called urban, then the percentage of urban population in the entire State reached the notable figure of 90.83, while the rural shows but 9.17 per cent.

The density of population in the State in 1935 was 552.4 persons per square mile, an increase of 12.9 persons over 1930.

POPULATION OF NEW ENGLAND, 1930.

Total population, 8,166,341 (4,024,657 males and 4,141,684 females); total white, 8,065,113 (3,972,465 males and 4,092,648 females); total native white, 6,230,803 (3,067,723 males and 3,163,080 females); native white of native parentage, 3,167,082 (1,572,885 males and 1,594,197 females); Negro, 94,086 (46,963 males and 1,568,883 females); foreign-born white 1,834,310 (904,742 males and 929,568 females); native white of foreign or mixed parentage, 3,063,721 (1,494,838 males and 47,123 females); Indian, 2,466 (1,273 males and 1,193 females); Chinese, 3,794 (3,233 males and 561 females); Japanese, 352 (277 males and 75 females); Mexican, 107 (69 males and 38 females); all other races, 423 (377 males and 46 females).

A NEW POSITIVE WATER-METER TESTER.

The large majority of waterworks, particularly the smaller ones, seldom have accurate or positive means of testing their meters. Often when a meter is repaired, the man making the repairs simply blows through the meter to see if it runs, when it is again put into service with the assumption that it is accurate. Sometimes meters are hooked up in series with a new meter and water is run through to see if the readings check. This is better than the lung-power method, but still is far from accurate or dependable, in that the test meter may be in error by 2 per cent or even more. Several states have regulations governing water utilities, both municipal and private, and require a positive method of testing water meters in every meter shop.—American City Magazine.

ANNEXATIONS OF BOSTON.

East Boston in 1637; South Boston in 1804, being set off from Dorchester; Roxbury in 1868, a city of Norfolk County since March, 1846; Dorchester in 1870, a town since September, 1630; Charlestown in 1874, a city of Middlesex County since February, 1847; Brighton in 1874, set off from Cambridge and incorporated as a town of Middlesex County in February, 1807; West Roxbury in 1874, set off from Roxbury and incorporated as a town of Norfolk County in May, 1851; Hyde Park in 1912, a town of Norfolk County since April, 1868.

These annexations, which added to Boston, were by area as follows: East Boston, 1,435 acres; South Boston, 795; Roxbury, 2,450; Dorchester, 5,600; West Roxbury, 8,075; Brighton, 2,664; Charlestown, 424; Hyde Park, 2,869. Filled land increased the area later by 1,396 acres. In 1875 the annexed territory had a population of 201,250, or 58.86 per cent of city's total; in 1910 its population had increased to 477,311, or 71.18 per cent, Hyde Park not included. By 1915 the total was 549,139, or 73.67 per cent of city. By 1925 the total was 607,519, or 77.92 per cent.

JAMAICA SPENDS $1,000,000 ANNUALLY ON ROAD CONSTRUCTION AND MAINTENANCE.

Jamaica, an English possession, has a highway system which is almost entirely constructed of waterbound macadam, some 70 miles of which has been surface-treated. Many of the roads are under the supervision of the Department of Public Works and various parochial boards. There are about 2,500 miles of bridle and foot paths. The highway system connects all parts of the island in a very satisfactory manner, and the problem is not that of the construction of new roads, but the improvement of old ones, the surfacing and widening of these roads, and protective coatings. The roads are well maintained and, as there are not many heavy trucks, the maintenance is satisfactory. There are approximately 4,000 miles of highways, or 1.11 square miles of area to one mile of highway.

About a million dollars per year is spent on new construction and maintenance, the machinery used being both European and American.

(From a report of the American Road Builders' Association.)

RECREATION, ADEQUATE AS TO KIND AND AVAILABILITY.

Although the ratio of park acreage to population has been used as the simplest measure of the extent to which cities provide areas for the recreation of their people, it is by no means an accurate basis for determining this. If most of the total acreage is in one large park, if the parks are poorly distributed, or if they do not provide various types of recreation facilities, the park system may be inefficient even though the acreage is large. The efficiently planned park and recreation system will involve balanced relationship and well-distributed location of several types of properties, namely, children's playgrounds, neighborhood playfield parks, neighborhood parks, reservations, boulevards, and parkways.

The Supply Department of the City of Boston invites proposals for furnishing uniforms for the Penal Institutions Department, as per specifications contained in forms which may be obtained at the office of the Supply Department, Room 1001, City Hall Annex. The bidder must leave his proposal with a certified check for $100 payable to and to become the property of the City of Boston if the proposal is not carried out, at the above office. A duplicate bid, without check, must be left at the office of the City Auditor prior to the time named for opening bids. Envelopes containing bids to be sealed and plainly marked "Proposal for Officers' Uniforms." There will be a charge of twenty-five cents ($0.25) for each blank proposal taken out. The bids will be publicly opened and read Tuesday, June 10, 1941, at 12 m., at Room 1001, City Hall Annex. The successful bidder must furnish a bond for one half the total estimated amount of the contract with a surety company authorized to do business in Massachusetts as surety for the faithful performance of the contract. The Superintendent reserves the right to accept or reject any or all bids, or any part of a bid, and to award the contract as he deems for the best interests of the city. All contracts made subject to appropriations to meet payments thereunder.

CHARLES E. THORNTON,
Acting Superintendent of Supplies.

CITY OF BOSTON.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

PROPOSALS FOR REDECKING THE DRAW SPAN OF THE DOVER STREET BRIDGE OVER THE FORT POINT CHANNEL.

The Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston, office 508 City Hall Annex, invites proposals from citizens of the United States and corporations or other legal associations wherein the controlling interest to the extent of at least over one half thereof is owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States, for redecking the draw span of the Dover Street Bridge over the Fort Point Channel, and giving bond therefor of a surety company approved by the Commissioner in the sum of 100 per cent of the contract to secure the due performance of the contract and the full protection of the city. Forms of proposals may be obtained at Room 508, City Hall Annex. Each proposal should be inclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked "Bid for redecking the draw span of the Dover Street Bridge over the Fort Point channel," and left at Room 508, fifth floor, City Hall Annex, before 12 o'clock m., on Wednesday, June 11, 1941, with a certified check for five hundred (500) dollars, payable to and to become the property of the city if the proposal after acceptance is not carried out. The proposals will then and there be publicly opened and read. Proposals must be made in duplicate. the sealed duplicate, without check, to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the bids, There will be a charge of two dollars ($2) for each set of plans and specifications taken out. If the price of any item appears to the Commissioner to be abnormally high or low, or the bidder neglects to bid on each and every item, it may lead to the rejection of the bid containing such price. The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which schedule is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained, without cost, upon application therefor at the office of the Commissioner of Public Works. The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Act so called) to all persons to be employed under this contract and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required prior to the award of said contract. The undersigned reserves the right to reject any or all proposals should he deem it to be for the best interest of the city so to do.

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
(May 31.) Commissioner of Public Works.

STATE REFERENDA RESULTS, 1936.

A question of public policy "Shall the Representative in the General Court from this district be instructed to vote in favor of amending the State Constitution for the purpose of limiting the amount of taxes, for all purposes, which may be legally levied against any real estate within the Commonwealth to a sum not exceeding $25 for each one thousand dollars of assessed valuation?" was voted on by only a portion of the Representative Districts. In Boston, six districts did not vote on it.

The totals for the districts and parts of districts, including Boston districts, were 310,715 in favor; 113,594 against and 203,277 blanks. For Boston alone, the totals for the sixteen districts that voted were 114,184 in favor; 46,689 against and 79,827 blanks.

In Boston, there were three referenda on sales of alcoholic beverages.

First, "Shall licenses be granted in this city for the sale therein of all alcoholic beverages (whiskey, rum, gin, malt beverages, wines and all other alcoholic beverages)?" Totals, 190,353 in favor, 45,402 against and 84,732 blanks.

Second, "Shall licenses be granted in this city for the sale therein of wines and malt beverages (wines and beer, ale and all other malt beverages)?" Totals, 185,213 in favor, 40,164 against and 95,110 blanks.

Third, "Shall licenses be granted in this city for the sale therein of all alcoholic beverages in packages, so called, not to be drunk on the premises?" Totals, 187,877 in favor, 37,139 against and 95,471 blanks.

POPULATION OF BOSTON, BY SEX, NATIVITY, ETC., 1930.

Total population, 781,188 (383,454 males and 397,734 females); ratio of males to females, 96.4 to 100 as against 97.2 to 100 in 1920. Native white, 529,400 (260,419 males and 268,981 females) or 67.77 per cent; sex ratio, 96.8 to 100. Of the 529,400 native whites, 200,130, or 37.80 per cent, are of native parentage; 248,653, or 46.97 per cent, are of foreign parentage and 80,617, or 15.23 per cent, are of mixed parentage (i. e., one half native). Foreign-born whites, 229,356 (111,261 males and 118,095 females) or 9,563 less than in 1920; sex ratio 94.2 to 100. The foreign-born whites are 29.36 per cent of total population. Negroes, 20,574 (10,223 males and 10,351 females) or 2.63 per cent of population; sex ratio, 98.8 to 100. The Negro population has increased 4,224 since 1920 and 4,993 since 1915. Other races, 1,858 (1,551 males and 307 females), or 0.24 per cent, comprise 1,595 Chinese, 69 Japanese, 43 Indian, 26 Mexican and 125 miscellaneous. Total foreign white stock, 478,009 (viz., 229,356 plus 248,653) which is 61.19 per cent of all inhabitants.

CHARGE FOR POLICE RADIO SERVICE.

At least five cities and three states operating police radio systems charge for radio messages transmitted to police cars of other cities and suburbs which do not operate their own transmitters, the International City Managers' Association states. The cities are Cleveland, Detroit, Toledo, Akron and Providence; the states are Connecticut, Massachusetts and New Jersey.

Cleveland charges East Cleveland 42 cents for each call transmitted to East Cleveland police cars. East Detroit pays Detroit 35 cents a call; the sheriff's office of Lucas County, Ohio, pays Toledo 50 cents a call, with a minimum of $25 a month; and Akron charges 35 cents per message transmitted to Barberton, Cuyahoga Falls, and the sheriff's office of Summit County. Providence makes charges on calls to police cars of several surrounding communities.

Communities served by the Connecticut, Massachusetts and New Jersey state police radio systems are charged certain percentages of operating costs.—American City Magazine.

FELLOWSHIP STUDIES IN TRAFFIC CONTROL.

Fifteen graduate fellowships, each with a stipend of $1,200-plus up to $200 for travel and field investigation have been announced by the Bureau for Street Traffic Research of Harvard University. The regular annual tuition fee of $400 will be deducted from the fellowships, which have been made available through a gift to the University by the Automobile Manufacturers' Association. The officers of instruction are Miller McClintock, Director of the Bureau, and Maxwell Halsey, Assistant Director. Each of two full courses in street and highway traffic control consists of three one-hour periods a week, and additional problems, assignments and field work.

STATE VALUATIONS IN 1937.

Total assessed value of real estate on January 1, 1937, in the thirty-nine cities and 316 towns of Massachusetts, $5,742,161,541 ($18,194,654 less than on January 1, 1936), of which 65.62 per cent applied to buildings and 34.38 per cent to land; of personalty, $525,039,493; aggregate valuation, $6,267,201,034 (2.74 per cent decrease from 1936), on which the total tax was $222,184,422. To raise this amount of taxes on the property assessed at a uniform rate throughout the State would have required a tax rate of $35.45+ on $1,000 valuation. Boston's valuation, $1,590,544,700, equal to 25.38 per cent of total valuation in the State.

CITY CEMETERIES.

The Park Department has charge of twenty cemeteries, containing 212 acres, that are owned by the city. Mount Hope Cemetery is the largest. A number of these cemeteries are no longer available to the public for interments. In 1937 there were 2,075 interments in these cemeteries, or 77 more than in 1936. The interments in Mount Hope Cemetery in 1937 were 71.08 per cent of the total interments as against 74.57 per cent in 1936.

SEEKS COMMUNITY AID IN ARMY CAMP CITIES.

The army welcomes the aid of civic organizations in helping to protect soldiers from intemperance and vice when they are away from their duty stations.

The War Department is endeavoring in various ways to protect its personnel from temptations while at military posts and camps. Healthful and wholesome entertainment is furnished. Commissioned officers are charged with the responsibility for the men in their commission. Understanding leaders offer them advice and counsel, and medical officers guard their physical well-being. —American City Magazine.

RECEIPTS OF MILK IN BOSTON BY RAIL, STATISTICS FOR YEAR 1937.

Total, 201,115,222 quarts (including 21,533,437 quarts of cream) or 190,884,037 by the Boston & Maine Railroad; 9,304,589 by New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad; 926,596 by Boston & Albany Railroad.

The said total exceeds that of 1936 by 2,233,863, but is 35,786,309 below the receipts in 1931 which was the highest on record.

The receipts in 1937 of the Boston & Albany Railroad are the lowest on record for that railroad.

The maximum receipts of milk and also of cream in 1937 were in August; the minimum in February.

SEWAGE TREATMENT PLANT CONSTRUCTION ON THE INCREASE.

Owing to the economic conditions prevailing during the past year, there was but a relatively small volume of sewage treatment plant construction. Within recent months, however, there has been a decided impetus to new construction of this type growing out of the Public Works Administration allotments. Nearly 700 cities have received allotments of funds from the P. W. A. for sewerage or sewage treatment, involving an aggregate expenditure of well over $200,000,000.

FOR AIDING BOYS.

In an effort to lend a helping hand to misfit and underprivileged boys and to stem the alarming flow of young men into penal institutions and lives of crime, Big Brother Bureaus are being organized by the police departments of various cities. The International Association of Chiefs of Police urges all police jurisdictions to join the Big Brother League.

NO COST CONTROL FOR REFUSE DISPOSAL.

American cities on the whole may be clean housekeepers, but they don't know how much it is costing them to be clean or whether they are spending too much. Only a few cities are able to report accurately the unit cost of removing garbage and other refuse and of cleaning streets, according to the Public Administration Service of Chicago, Ill., which further reports that at least 90 per cent of the cities in this country have no cost control over this service.

PITTSBURGH'S TRAFFIC SAFETY RECORD.

Pittsburgh has been adjudged the safest city in the United States in 1932, and the second safest in 1933 and 1934 among cities with populations over 500,000. Registrations in the city increased 4.4 per cent, gasoline consumption 7.7 per cent. In 1935, despite a 2.4 per cent decrease in traffic volume, adult fatalities increased 30 per cent, total fatalities 24 per cent, as compared with 1934.

MANY TYPES OF W. P. A. PROJECTS.

The Works Progress Administration has placed in operation a total of more than 300,000 projects. Except for the more pretentious types of construction, these projects have covered almost the whole field of American endeavor in meeting the primary objective of relieving unemployment. The American City.

CITY OF BOSTON PRINTING DEPARTMENT

CITY RECORD

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE OF BOSTON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

VOL. 33. SATURDAY, JUNE 7, 1941. NO. 23

MAKES APPEAL TO ALL BOSTON CITIZENS TO SUPPORT MAYOR TOBIN'S FIELD DAY BY WHICH FUNDS ARE RAISED TO PROVIDE NEEDY WITH MEDICAL AND SURGICAL AIDS FOR WHICH NO OTHER MEANS ARE SET ASIDE — DR. G. LYNDE GATELY, HEALTH COMMISSIONER, EXPLAINS, OVER WBZ NETWORK, THE OBJECTS OF THE EVENT AND POINTS TO GREAT GOOD ACHIEVED AS RESULT OF MAYOR'S THOUGHTFULNESS AND CONSIDERATION — EVENT SCHEDULED FOR FRIDAY, JUNE 27, PROMISES TO BE BEST AND MOST SUCCESSFUL YET PLANNED — MANY ENTERTAINING FEATURES PROVIDED.

The following is the radio talk broadcast by Health Commissioner G. Lynde Gately, over WBZ network, on Tuesday evening, June 3:

Friends of the Air Waves.

I am here to bring to your attention an event scheduled for Friday, June 27, which should appeal to every citizen of Boston who has the means to purchase a ticket or to make a donation.

It is Mayor Tobin's third field day. That designation may be misleading, so I hasten to assure you that the field day is in no way a benefit to our Mayor, but a means he originated for doing almost unlimited good to needy children and adults.

Not all of you are aware that there are many children in our schools who do not receive the proper kind of food at home and whose parents are in such circumstances that they cannot provide luncheons for those children on days when school is in session. Likewise, you may not know that there are men and women among us who are handicapped in earning their livelihood because of the loss of an arm, a leg, an eye or because of defective hearing. Also, there are those — many of them — whose eyesight needs correction. Then there are others who have been brought through severe illness in our Boston City Hospital and who have reached a point in their fight for restored health where they need special diet, convalescent care or other extras that the hospital budget cannot cover.

All these things cost money and few of the unfortunates have the means of securing them. Under the provisions of the municipal charter, the city cannot legally appropriate money, or set aside special funds, to finance such services.

Mayor Tobin's Idea.

Mayor Tobin was aware of that situation. When he took office he hit upon the field day as a means of raising money for the benefit of those unfortunates. The sick poor have always been close to his heart and as proof of that statement I point to the fact that each year since being elected he has set aside a substantial part of his salary as a fund to provide special nurses for those hospital patients who must have extra care in order to win the battle for health and who cannot afford to pay for it.

As he and his associates planned the field day, it was to provide an opportunity for the open-hearted public to provide money for the great philanthropies I have described, but in return they were to be given full value for every dollar they contributed.

Many of you are aware of the great entertainment provided by the field days that have passed into history, but let me assure you that all of them will be eclipsed by the one that is being planned for June 27. A large group of earnest men and women, representing many professions and businesses, and from many walks of life, have given hours of their time to making preparations. They have attended meeting after meeting while working out the plans and each one is determined to do everything possible to make the coming field day an event to date from.

All Funds for Needy.

Let me assure you that not a single penny of the proceeds is expended for anything but the various items I have told you of. The Red Sox donate the use of their ball park; tickets, posters and other forms of visible advertising are given without cost; generous friends donate prizes, of which more later. There are no salaries to pay and no overhead to be amortized. Every cent taken in by the sale of tickets or by donations goes to a most worthy cause.

If you are interested in knowing just how much good is done by these field days the following figures are illuminating: During 1940 the School Department was able to provide undernourished children with 44,026 luncheons. To date, eyeglasses have been purchased for 1,031 adults and for 778 children, each of whom would otherwise, probably, have been struggling along under the handicap of faulty vision, eye strain and other troubles.

Artificial eyes have been purchased for nineteen persons, artificial legs for four others and one applicant has been fitted with an artificial arm and hand. Of an indication of what that means to the recipients I can tell you that one of the artificial legs supplied cost $157.50.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hill looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"
From Boston Centennial Poem by
NATHAN HASKEL DOLE.

FIELD DAY BROADCAST.

Every person who is helped by the field day will bless every individual who aided this great work.

I have not the figures to show how many hospital patients have been restored to health by the special diet, convalescent care and other things provided by the field day proceeds, including surgical and orthopedic apparatus, but I can assure you that there can be no more worthy charity than the one you support through your purchase of tickets at one dollar each. Every ticket holder has an equal chance at any and all of the prizes and the principal award will be a Packard automobile.

But whether or not you win a prize, you can rest assured that you will have had your money's worth of entertainment, plus the inward glow of satisfaction that comes with knowing you have aided a worthy cause and have given a lift to the less fortunate. So buy your tickets as soon as possible to assure getting a good seat and plan to come early and stay late. Remember the place and the date, Fenway Park, on Friday, June 27.

In behalf of Mayor Tobin and the committee members, I thank you.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, In these days of national emergency all our physical and mental resources are needed and should be conserved for the great task of preparing for defense; and

Whereas, Expert research testifies to the harmful effects of noise as a health and safety hazard, as a contributing factor in traffic accidents, in loss of working efficiency, in mental disturbance and in fatigue; and

Whereas, The National Noise Abatement Council has designated the week of June 1 to June 7, 1941, as National Noise Abatement Week, during which it will wage a nation-wide campaign to arouse the public consciousness to the evils of noise and the benefits of quiet; and

Whereas, An opportunity is thus afforded to citizens of the City of Boston to join with the National Noise Abatement Council and other cities in this drive to eliminate the needless and costly waste of noise; now, therefore,

I, Maurice J. Tobin, Mayor of the City of Boston, by virtue of the power and authority in me vested, do hereby proclaim the week of June 1 to June 7, 1941, as Noise Abatement Week in Boston and call upon the citizens of this city to give special consideration to the parts which they must play, individually and collectively, in the elimination of unnecessary, harmful and wasteful noises from our city streets and public places, our factories, offices, stores and homes.

Signed this 1st day of June, 1941.

MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 613.

General Order No. 612, dated May 26, 1941, announcing the resignation of Patrolman George J. Mathi, Division 10, effective as of May 27, 1941, at 7.45 o'clock a. m., is hereby rescinded.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

JOSEPH F. TIMILTY,
Police Commissioner.

General Order No. 614.

The following-named persons now serving as "military substitute" patrolmen are hereby appointed permanent patrolmen, to be effective Monday, June 2, 1941, at 10 o'clock a. m., and are assigned as follows:

Thomas C. O'Dwyer, Division 9; David J. Kehoe, Division 10; Joseph P. Foley, Division 7; John M. McDonnell, Division 11; Albert F. Rielly, Division 14; Joseph C. Baxter, Division 6.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

JOSEPH F. TIMILTY,
Police Commissioner.

General Order No. 615.

Patrolman John J. McGrath of Division 4 is commended for efficient police duty performed in the early morning hours of May 11, 1941, in connection with the arrest of one of two men whom he had observed acting in a suspicious manner, and who attempted to escape upon the approach of the officer. They were pursued by Patrolman McGrath who after commanding them to stop discharged one shot from his revolver, causing one of the young men to stop; the other one escaped.

The arrested man it was learned escaped from the Shirley School in January, 1941. Upon interrogation he confessed to a series of breaks in Division 4 and in South Boston. As a result of this, two confederates who participated in these breaks were taken into custody.

The commissioner is pleased to recognize and commend Patrolman McGrath for his keen observation, initiative and devotion to duty shown in performing this splendid police duty.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

JOSEPH F. TIMILTY,
Police Commissioner.

General Order No. 616.

A trial board consisting of Captains Harry T. Grace, Leonard E. J. O'Connell and William D. Donovan, having heard by reference a complaint made by Francis J. Murphy, captain, Division 19, against Patrolman Thomas J. Manning, Division 19, for alleged violation of the Rules and Regulations of the Police Department, charging him with conduct unbecoming an officer, has reported to the commissioner a finding of guilty as charged.

The commissioner accepts the finding and the recommendation of the Trial Board and hereby orders that the said Patrolman Thomas J. Manning be suspended for a period of sixty days, effective as of 12.45 a. m., December 26, 1940, and at the expiration of said suspension, he perform 315 hours' punishment duty.

General Laws, chapter 31, section 46C, requires approval of the Director of Civil Service before reinstatement.

Chapter 31.

"Section 46C. An officer or employee of the commonwealth or of a city or town who has become separated from the classified civil service through fault or delinquency of his own shall, within thirty days after the filing of a written request by the appointing officer, be entitled to a hearing before the director. Upon good cause shown the director may, subject to section forty-six G, authorize his reinstatement in the same position, or in a position in the same class and grade as that formerly held by him."

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

JOSEPH F. TIMILTY,
Police Commissioner.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 25.

I. Retirement.

The following retirement which took effect at 8 a. m., Sunday, June 1, 1941, is hereby announced:

Hoseman Joseph J. McGovern, Fire Prevention Division.

Hoseman McGovern was appointed to the department on February 1, 1924, and he leaves the department with the best wishes of his associates.

II. Firemen's Memorial Sunday.

Firemen's Memorial Sunday will be held on Sunday morning, June 8, 1941. Mr. William G. O'Hare, Executive Director of the Department of Public Welfare, City of Boston, will be orator of the day. A detail, consisting of two men from each district, will act as an escort to the various organizations participating in the memorial exercises. The detail will report to Charles E. Cross, Chief Marshal, in front of Fire Department Headquarters, 60 Bristol street, at 9.15 a. m.

The detail will include the trustees or members of the Charitable Association of the Boston Fire Department who are on duty that day. Regulation uniform, with sack coat and white gloves, will be worn on this occasion.

Members who are on the night tour of duty, Saturday, June 7, 1941, and who are to participate in the services, will be excused from roll call if relieved by members of the oncoming shift prior to 8 o'clock.

Members of the department who are on a day off or who are on the off-tour on Sunday, June 8, are invited to participate in the memorial exercises and it is hoped that a large number will be present to honor the memory of the deceased members of the department.

Members of the department who are on the committee on arrangements will be granted sufficient time to attend to their customary duties and those members of the committee who are working on Sunday, June 8, will be excused from duty on that day.

The Fire Department Band will furnish the music for the parade and exercises and all members of the band shall report to President Hugh W. Lynch at the Maintenance Division, 70 Bristol street, at 9.15 a. m., Sunday, June 8, 1941. They shall bring their instruments, small band books and music lyres.

Members of the band who are on the day tour of duty will be excused for the day. Members who are on the night tour of duty June 7 will be allowed sufficient time to report promptly at Bristol street at 9.15 a. m., June 8.

III. Reverend Dennis J. Lynch Scholarship.

Notice has been received from the Reverend Principal of Boston College High School, Harrison avenue, Boston, that on Saturday, June 7, 1941, at 9 a. m., in the High School Building, James street, there will be a special examination for the Reverend Dennis J. Lynch Scholarship, founded by members of the Boston Fire Department in memory of their late chaplain.

This is an annual scholarship to be awarded to the son of any member of the Boston Fire Department who obtains the highest average in the annual competitive entrance examination.

IV. A. D. T. Assignments.

The following signal numbers are to be added to running cards of the A. D. T. Company in this department:

Signal 78, Keystone Manufacturing Company, 10-38 Hill Top street, buildings Nos. 1-A and B.

Signal 79, Keystone Manufacturing Company, 10-38 Hill Top street, buildings C and D.

Signal 85, Keystone Manufacturing Company, 10-38 Hill Top street, buildings, rear, Nos. 2, 3, 4 and 6.

All the foregoing are Sprinkler Systems. Apparatus to respond to all signals, Engine 20, Ladder 27, District Chief 14. Nearest box is 3485.

Signal 87, Eastern Paper and Box Company, 63-69 Endicott street (Sprinkler System). Apparatus to respond, Engine 8, Ladder 1, District Chief 4. Nearest box is 1212.

V. BOSTON AUTOMATIC FIRE ALARM COMPANY.

A new page No. 9, dated May 15, 1941, for the Boston Automatic Assignment Book, is being issued to the department today.

The new page will replace old page No. 9, dated September 17, 1940, which will be returned to Headquarters in the envelopes provided on or before Friday, June 6, 1941.

By order of Fire Commissioner WILLIAM ARTHUR REILLY.

SAMUEL J. POPE,
Chief of Department.

STREETS DISCONTINUED.

The Mayor has approved the following order of the Board of Street Commissioners:

April 10, 1941.

Ordered, That due notice be given that this Board is of the opinion that in said city public improvements should be made, consisting of:

The discontinuance of Reed's court, Roxbury district, as a highway, from Ambrose street northeasterly to a line about seventy and 50-100 feet from Yeoman street;

The discontinuance of that part of Chadwick street, Roxbury district, as a highway, between Ambrose street and a line about fifty and 31-100 feet from Yeoman street;

The discontinuance of Larkin street, Roxbury district, as a highway, from Hampden street to Adams street;

The discontinuance of Orchard Park street, Roxbury district, as a highway, from Adams street northwesterly to bend in said street;

The discontinuance of Orchard street, Roxbury district, as a highway, from Eustis street to Orchard Park street;

The discontinuance of Dearborn place, Roxbury district, as a highway, from Dearborn street southeasterly for its entire length;

The discontinuance of Taber street, Roxbury district, as a highway, from Harrison avenue to Winslow street;

The discontinuance of Renfrew street, Roxbury district, as a highway, from Harrison avenue to Winslow street;

The discontinuance of Winslow street, Roxbury district, as a highway, from Zeigler street to Eustis street;

The discontinuance of Palmer street, Roxbury district, as a highway, from Harrison avenue to Eustis street; substantially as shown on plans in the office of this Board, that it intends to pass orders for making said improvements, and that it appoints 11 o'clock a. m. of April 24, 1941, and the office of this Board, 401 City Hall Annex, as the time and place for public hearings in the matters.

A true copy of an order passed by said Board on said day.

Attest:

Cornelius A. Reardon,
Secretary.

In Board of Street Commissioners of the City of Boston,
May 13, 1941.

Ordered, That this Board, having passed the order of notice relating to the public improvements hereinafter described, and having caused a copy of said order to be published April 11, 12, 1941, and April 14, 15, 1941, in the Boston Post and Boston Globe, two daily newspapers published in the City of Boston, and having given the public hearing, notice of which was given in said order, and being of the opinion that public convenience so requires, does hereby order the making, in said city, of the public improvements, shown on plans marked "City of Boston, Chadwick Street, Dearborn Place, Larkin Street, Orchard Street, Orchard Park Street, Reed's Court, Roxbury, April 9, 1941, William J. PROCEEDINGS OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

May 12, 1941

A special meeting of the School Committee of the City of Boston was held in the Administration Building, 15 Beacon Street, at 7:21 o'clock P. M., the Chairman presiding.

Present: Messrs Lee, McDevitt, Norton, Sullivan, and White.

APPROVAL OF MINUTES

The reading of the minutes of the previous meeting was omitted, the Committee approving them as printed.

APPROVAL OF APPOINTMENTS

The Chairman stated the question was on approving the appointments of teachers, as reported by the Superintendent and laid over at the previous meeting.

The appointments were approved.

On motion and with unanimous consent, the Committee suspended the usual order of business in order to permit of immediate action on the budget and the annual appropriation order for the current financial year.

STATEMENT OF CHAIRMAN REGARDING BUDGET

The Chairman made the following statement which was subscribed to by the other four members:

The appropriation order passed tonight means that so far as the maintenance of the public schools is concerned the tax rate of 1941 will be nearly twenty cents less than the tax rate of 1940.

Although the annual appropriation order was adopted earlier this year than it was adopted last year, the School Committee appreciates that there has been considerable delay in arriving at the final figures. Such delay, however, has been occasioned largely by the careful and painstaking scrutiny given to every budgetary item. The care exercised in examining each account has not been without results. For example, a study of the expenditures of the first four months of 1941 as compared with the expenditures of the same four months of 1940 indicated that it would be possible to add $60,000 to the savings previously agreed upon. This was done and it brought the total savings for 1941 to approximately $300,000.

Despite an increase over last year's expenditures of nearly $29,000 for fuel and light, and nearly $100,000 for supplies and equipment, caused in part by advance in prices, and despite the necessity of providing approximately $160,000 additional for the cost of annual step-rate increments, the amount to be raised by taxation for school purposes for 1941 is approximately $277,000 less than the amount raised last year. A substantial item in this total is an item of $45,500 transferred from the accumulated income of the Permanent Pension Fund which under the law may be used to reduce the tax levy, as pointed out by the City Auditor.

It has been the wish of the School Committee to cooperate with His Honor, Mayor Tobin, in keeping the tax rate as low as possible. The School Committee has endeavored to adopt every measure of economy consistent with efficient conduct of the schools and adequate provision for the welfare and progress of the pupils.

BUDGET AND ANNUAL APPROPRIATION FOR MAINTENANCE EXCLUSIVE OF "ALTERATIONS, REPAIRS, FURNITURE AND FIXTURES"

The Business Manager submitted, in compliance with the rules, the budget and proposed annual appropriation order, as follows:

To the School Committee of the City of Boston:

In compliance with the Rules of the School Committee, I submit herewith budget and annual appropriation order for the fiscal year 1941 to provide for the maintenance of the Boston Public Schools covering the costs of administration, instruction, supervision of instruction, promotion of health, custodians' services, fuel and light, supplies, portable educational equipment (commercial machines, typewriters, duplicating machines, hand tools, etc.) and incidentals; and the cost of sundry other services and expenses, exclusive of "Alterations, repairs, furniture and fixtures."

Chapter 206 of the Special Acts of 1919 as amended allowed the School Committee a tax limit appropriating power, based on the average valuation for three years less abatements, controlling nine specific items. Chapter 206 also gave the Committee power to appropriate unexpended balances and estimated income (refer to budget for the year 1935 and budgets for years prior thereto).

Chapter 284 of the Acts of 1935 eliminated tax limit appropriations for the year 1935 only and allowed the School Committee to appropriate for that year $10.07 on each one thousand dollars of the Assessors' valuation of taxable property for the year 1935, and in addition thereto, the unexpended balances and the estimated income.

Chapter 224 of the Acts of 1936 eliminated tax limit appropriating power based on average valuation for three years for all items except the following:

(1) For the construction and furnishing of new school buildings, both temporary and permanent, including the taking of land therefor, and for schoolyards and the preparing of schoolyards for use, and for rent of hired school accommodations (50 cents per $1,000 on average valuation for three years less abatements).

(2) For the alteration and repair of school buildings and for furniture, fixtures and means of escape in case of fire, and for fire protection for existing buildings, and for improving existing schoolyards (85 cents per $1,000 on average valuation for three years less abatements).

For all other school purposes, except as indicated above, chapter 224 of the Acts of 1936 provides for the following appropriating power:

(1) The sum of $15,160,000.

(2) The unexpended appropriation balances.

(3) Estimated income for the year plus the excess of income for the year immediately preceding, if any.

The existing appropriating power is covered in sections 1, 2 and 3 of chapter 224 of the Acts of 1936 set forth below. The final paragraph in section 2 of said chapter 224 reads as follows: "Nothing in this section shall prevent the mayor, on request of the School Committee, from recommending and the city council from passing additional appropriations for school purposes." Under the provisions of prior legislation going back over a long period of years, the School Committee was empowered to appeal directly to the Legislature for increased appropriating power.

CHAPTER 224 OF THE ACTS OF 1936

An act relative to appropriations for school purposes in the City of Boston and to certain statutory tax and school appropriation limits for said city, and making applicable to said city the general provisions of law relative to municipal indebtedness.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

SECTION 1. Section fifty-three of Part 1 of chapter four hundred and ninety of the acts of nineteen hundred and nine, as amended, and as affected by section two of chapter two hundred and sixty seven of the Special Acts of nineteen hundred and sixteen, and all other acts and parts of acts imposing any tax limit in said city, and also so much of chapter two hundred and six of the Special Acts of nineteen hundred and nineteen, as amended, and so much of any other act or acts as imposes any limitation upon the amount of appropriations that may be made by the school committee of said city, are hereby repealed.

SECTION 2.—The school committee of the city of Boston may annually, beginning with the financial year nineteen hundred and thirty-six, by vote of four-fifths of all its members, taken by yeas and nays, make appropriations to be raised by taxation as follows: a. For the construction and furnishing of new school buildings, both temporary and permanent, including the taking of land therefor, and for school yards and the preparing of school yards for use, and for rent of hired school accommodations, a sum which shall not exceed fifty cents on each one thousand dollars of the average of the assessors' valuations for the three preceding years, such valuations being reduced by abatements granted up to December thirty-first of the preceding year. b. For the alteration and repair of school buildings and for furniture, fixtures, and means of escape in case of fire, and for fire protection of existing buildings and for improving existing school yards, a sum which shall not exceed eighty-five cents on each one thousand dollars of the average of the assessors' valuations for the three preceding years, such valuations being reduced by abatements granted up to December thirty-first of the preceding year. c. For all other school purposes, the sum of fifteen million one hundred and sixty thousand dollars. Unexpended appropriation balances may be reappropriated for their respective purposes; and, in addition to the said sum of fifteen million one hundred and sixty thousand dollars, an amount equal to the money that may be given, and the income collected, for school purposes, as estimated by said committee, may be appropriated for the purposes of paragraph c. Nothing in this section shall prevent the mayor, on request of the school committee, from recommending and the city council from passing additional appropriations for school purposes.

Section 3. The votes of the school committee of said city making appropriations as aforesaid shall have the same force and effect as orders or votes of the city council thereof appropriating money, and shall be subject to the same provisions of law in respect to approval by the mayor, except that a vote of four-fifths of all the members of the school committee, taken by yeas and nays, shall be necessary to pass such appropriations over the veto of the mayor. All appropriations to be raised by taxation made by the school committee of said city shall be certified by said committee to the board of assessors thereof not later than May first in each year and the assessors shall include the same in the levy of that year.

The foregoing three sections of chapter 224 of the Acts of 1936 quoted in full refer to school appropriation limits.

Sections 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11 of chapter 224 of the Acts of 1936 affect the City of Boston in respect to municipal indebtedness and cover objects for which debt may be issued, the term for which each particular debt may be issued and requirements that a certain fraction of each proposed loan shall be included in the tax levy. Section 12, the last section in said chapter 224, provides that the Act shall take effect upon its passage.

It is not deemed advisable to quote these sections from 4 to 12, inclusive, in full. Details may be obtained by reference to the Act itself.

DETAILED ESTIMATES

The detailed estimates show classification by the ranks and the salaries of all permanent and temporary personnel, separated for each school, department and activity. The vacancies reported by the Superintendent of Schools as of September 30, 1940, are shown separately. The allowance for supplies for each school, department, or activity is recorded. The estimates afford the opportunity of studying school costs in detail as there is presented a collection of facts properly organized for inspection and discussion.

APPROPRIATION ORDERS

The estimated cost of maintenance of the Boston Public Schools for the fiscal year 1941 is $15,579,463.86, to provide for the cost of administration, instruction, supervision of instruction, promotion of health, services of custodians, fuel and light, books, supplies, portable educational equipment (commercial machines, typewriters, science apparatus, manual training tools, equipment for custodians, duplicating machines and other portable equipment) and incidentals; and the cost of sundry other services and expenses, exclusive of "Alterations and Repairs, Furniture and Fixtures," for which a separate budget is made. At the meeting of April 21 the School Committee, on the recommendation of the Business Manager, passed an appropriation "on account," totaling $6,400,000.00, as under the provisions of chapter 320 of the Acts of 1889 the School Committee, pending the adoption of its budget for the fiscal year, may make expenditures which shall not be in excess of one-third of the total appropriations for the fiscal year immediately preceding. I therefore recommend the passage of the accompanying order appropriating the sum of $9,179,463.86 in addition to the sum appropriated "on account" by the School Committee at the meeting of April 21, viz., $6,400,000.00.

SUMMARIZED APPROPRIATIONS FOR 1941 AND 1940

	General School Purposes and Special Items as Above	Alterations and Repair of School Buildings, Furniture and Fixtures.*	New School Buildings, Lands, Yards, Etc.*	Totals.
1. Appropriations for 1940	$15,646,132.35	$760,333.00	$75,648.00	$16,482,113.35
2. Appropriations for 1941	$15,579,463.86	$742,796.59	$76,823.00	$16,399,083.45
3. Decrease in appropriations, 1941	$66,668.49	$17,536.41	†$1,175.00	$83,029.90

REDUCTION OF EXPENSES AND AMOUNTS RAISED BY TAXATION

The above table shows a decrease of $83,029.90 in the total appropriations for the year 1941 as compared with the total appropriations for the year 1940. The amount to be raised by taxation in 1941 for maintenance and for lands and buildings for schools will be approximately $277,000 less than the amount raised by taxation for the same purposes in 1940.

COST OF ANNUAL INCREMENTS AND OTHER INFORMATION

The cost of annual increments for the year 1941 for teachers and all other employees on sliding scales will approximate $160,000. This cost is computed on the following basis. With few exceptions men teachers receive an annual increment of $144 and women teachers receive an annual increment of $96:

(a) All teachers who reached the maximum of their respective ranks during the period February 1 through December 1 of the fiscal year preceding create an additional cost in the current fiscal year, for example: A teacher who reached the maximum February 1 of the fiscal year immediately preceding would cost in the current fiscal year 1-12 of the annual increment allowed his rank. A teacher who reached the maximum March 1 of the fiscal year immediately preceding would cost in the current fiscal year 2-12 of the annual increment allowed his rank. A teacher who reached the maximum September 1 of the fiscal year immediately preceding would cost in the current fiscal year 8-12 of the annual increment allowed his rank.

(b) Teachers who did not reach the maximum of their respective ranks during the fiscal year immediately preceding, and whether or not they reach such maximum during the current fiscal year, would cost each a full annual increment.

(c) Teachers newly appointed during the fiscal year immediately preceding will cost each during the current fiscal year an annual increment or fraction thereof, dependent on the dates on which they received permanent appointment.

In considering the cost of annual increments the length of schedules must be taken into consideration—for example, teachers of the elementary grades require eleven years to reach the maximum of their ranks; teachers of the Junior High grades require eleven years to reach the maximum of their ranks; men teachers in high schools require thirteen years to reach the maximum of the rank of Junior Master; women teachers in high schools require fourteen years to reach the maximum of the rank of Assistant. Sub-masters in elementary and junior high schools require thirteen years to reach the maximum; Master's Assistants in elementary and intermediate schools (women) require fourteen years to reach the maximum; Assistants, kindergartens, one session, require seven years to reach the maximum; Assistants, kindergartens, two sessions, require eight years to reach the maximum; Shop instructors require eleven years to reach the maximum; Shop foremen require eleven years to reach the maximum.

In a school system as large as Boston's there is usually a number of vacancies existing due to various causes at the time the basic pay roll requirements are estimated. These vacancies are usually covered by temporary teachers. Vacancies are also created when certain promotions are made.

Substantial savings in salaries will be brought about during the year as follows: a. The non-placement of teachers who resign, retire or die during the budgetary period. b. Replacement of teachers when necessary by the appointment of teachers on lower salaries—in most instances the minimum salaries of the various ranks. c. The making of temporary appointments instead of replacements for the whole or part of the fiscal year. d. Deductions from salaries of teachers on leaves of absence under the regulations being more than ample to pay the cost of substitute teachers. In anticipation of these substantial savings a reduction of $297,440.00 has been made from the estimated total of the item "Salaries of Principals, Teachers, Members of the Supervising Staff and Others."

RATIO (SALARIES, PENSIONS, FUEL AND LIGHT SUPPLIES).

Of the total amount appropriated in the budget, viz., $15,579,463.86, the division between salaries, pensions, fuel and light, supplies, equipment (commercial machines, typewriters, duplicating machines, etc.) and incidentals is as follows:

(a) Salaries of all permanent and temporary personnel	$14,240,172.59
(b) Pensions—tax levy only (paid under the provisions of non-contributory pension law in operation prior to the establishment of the contributory Boston Retirement System)	10,852.00
(c) Fuel and light, including electric current for power (including extended use of schools)	502,014.76
(d) Supplies, equipment (commercial machines, typewriters, duplicating machines, etc.) and incidentals for all purposes	826,424.51
Total, exclusive of "Alterations, Repairs, Furniture and Fixtures" and "Lands, Plans and Construction of School Buildings" for which separate budgets are made for all items of repairs, construction, etc., including personnel employed by the Department of School Buildings	$15,579,463.86

The above figures show that 91.4 per cent of this budget is for salaries of all permanent and temporary personnel; 0.1 per cent for pensions; 3.2 per cent for fuel and light, including electric current for power; and 5.3 per cent for supplies, portable educational equipiment (commercial machines, typewriters, duplicating machines, hand tools, etc.) and incidental expenses.

Respectfully submitted,

Alexander M. Sullivan,
Business Manager.

The following order, submitted by the Business Manager, was presented making the necessary additional appropriations for the cost of maintenance of the Boston public schools for the current fiscal year based on the detailed estimates previously presented:

ORDERED, That, to meet the estimated cost of maintenance of the Boston public schools for the fiscal year 1941, based on the detailed estimates, which do not include "alterations, repairs, furniture and fixtures," for which separate appropriation orders are made, the following amounts are hereby appropriated for the purposes indicated below, in addition to the sums appropriated on April 21, 1941, "on account":

April 21, 1941, "on account":

For general school purposes:
Salaries of administrative officers, clerks, stenographers and other employees	$ 223,863.70
Salaries of supervisors of attendance	52,690.00
Salaries of principals, teachers, members of the supervising staff and others	7,067,668.54

SUMMARY OF FINAL APPROPRIATIONS.

Appropriations "on account" on April 21, 1941	$ 6,400,000.00
Final appropriations	9,179,463.86
Total appropriations for maintenance, exclusive of "Alterations, Repairs, Furniture and Fixtures"	$15,579,463.86

The Chairman stated the question, i.e., the acceptance of the budget with detailed estimates, and the passage of the order making appropriation in the sum of $9,179,463.86, which, added to the appropriation on account—namely, $6,400,000 made at the meeting of Apr. 21, 1941—makes the total appropriation for the current financial year $15,579,463.86.

Mr. Lee: I have some amendments of the amounts mentioned in the appropriation order that I would like to introduce.

Chairman: Mr. Lee.

Mr. Lee: I would like to outline the several amendments so that the Committee, in voting on the amendments one by one, can know the scope of the several amendments and perhaps have different amendments in mind in voting on the one that comes up first.

Is that agreeable to the Chairman and the members of the Committee?

Chairman: It is agreeable.

Mr. Lee: I want to give an outline for a few minutes and then make some argument in favor of each one.

I would like to ask first whether we have a report on the titles of the members of our teaching staff?

I think that was due at this time. I pointed out that the titles were very confusing.

Superintendent: As yet there is no report on that available. Mr. Gillis has given it some study but the report is not ready.

Mr. Lee: Through you could I ask the Business Manager how soon this budget goes to press for final printing, if it is approved tonight?

Chairman: Mr. Business Manager.

Business Manager: The budget is printed as an official school document and it will become so after it is adopted.

Mr. Lee: After it is printed any change in the budget may be made in pencil or ink. I can defer for another week the question of changing these titles and designations?

Chairman: That is agreeable.

Mr. Lee: On the amendments that I have to offer there are several which would take off about $50,000 from the budget for the rest of the year and, likewise, there are amendments to add an almost like amount. Many of them have to do with salaries and others have to do with other items.

Mr. Lee then moved that the item "Salaries of principals, teachers, members of the supervising staff and others" be reduced by $40,000.

Mr. Lee. This first reduction is a matter that we have discussed recently and on which there was very close debate. I believe we can safely take off $40,000 from the item of "Salaries of principals, teachers, members of the supervising staff and others," or from the reserve allowed under that item. We thought that last year we sailed as close to the line as possible, and we came out with a balance of $100,000.

I think Mr. Sullivan is a man of great prudence and perhaps runs under shorter sail than he needs, even with light winds. I would feel safe in taking off that amount. I move that, Mr. Chairman.

Chairman: I would like to make a short statement. I believe the attitude of the Committee had been that we were all agreeable to taking off $40,000, but we felt, after receiving the advice of the Superintendent and the Business Manager, that we might run into a serious situation if we estimated the budget too closely. If I remember correctly, the Business Manager very earnestly recommended against this additional reduction of $40,000.

Business Manager: Correct, Mr. Chairman.

Chairman: In his statement the Business Manager said that if we did run too close to the line it might prevent our paying some of our teachers around the end of the year, and the last ones to be paid would be the temporary teachers, and we might jeopardize their receiving their pay. We cannot appropriate in next year's budget for obligations that we have incurred this year if we have not appropriated for those obligations this year.

Business Manager: That is correct. I pointed out that in 1939 when the reduction in the item of salaries of principals, teachers, members of the supervising staff and others, was increased, we came out with a balance of about $2000.

The motion failed to pass by the following vote:

YEAS—Mr. Lee—1.

NAYS—Messrs. McDevitt, Norton, Sullivan, and White—4.

Mr. Lee moved that the item "Salaries of custodians" be reduced by $15,000; said reduction to be accomplished by the discontinuance of the services of the night watchmen.

Mr. Lee: I do not think that we found a diminution of broken windows or a saving of damage by having these watchmen in our larger high schools.

This year we are fortunate in that men in that caliber can find employment in defense industries or in jobs left vacant by men who have gone into the Army or into defense industries. I do not think that any permanent hardship would be worked on those night watchmen. We have voted not to fill their positions if they find jobs elsewhere, and I do not think we should continue the financial incentive to have them remain at their posts.

Chairman: Mr. Lee moves to decrease the appropriation by $15,000 to provide for the discontinuance of night watchmen.

Mr. Norton: I do not want to vote to discharge anyone.

Mr. Chairman: May I say for the purpose of the record that the School Committee has agreed to the elimination of night watchmen on their retirement, or if for any reason they leave the service. In that way, over a period of years, they will be eliminated.

The Committee has felt that they did not want to dismiss employes who had given satisfactory service over a period of years. Consequently, I am going to vote to leave this money in the budget.

Mr. Norton: When a public body starts discharging it is sort of an invitation to private business to do the same. This problem can be solved within the next few years.

The motion failed to pass by the following vote.

YEAS—Mr. Lee—1.

NAYS—Messrs. McDevitt, Norton, Sullivan and White—4.

Mr. Lee moved that the item "Salaries of principals, teachers, members of the supervising staff and others" be reduced by approximately $10,000; said saving to be accomplished by reducing the maximum salary of some of the high school men teachers to about $20 per day or just under $3600 per year, but not to apply to shop teachers and certain other vocational teachers.

Mr. Lee: It is a much smaller figure than last year, being $10,000 for the period starting in September and ending in December.

In any case, I do not wish that to apply to those who are instructing in shop courses or vocational courses where present conditions give an obviously brisk demand. That is, the $10,000 reduction in this item would apply to men teachers in fields where the demand is no more brisk this year than it has been in other years. It will leave out men teaching in fields that are obviously related to national defense or in fields where the modern trend of events has placed higher salaries on that type of work.

In arguing that I want to say that it has been our experience here that we rather accept the policy of paying one group at the expense of another. We have been carrying women teachers in this school system for ten years or more at $5 or $6 a day, and it seems to me that the best argument for it was to be able to pay other teachers over $21 a day.

It cannot longer be said that these people to whom you have paid $5 or $6 or $7 a day are temporary teachers. They have been teaching in our schools ten or eleven years, almost half of a teaching life, and it is my belief that they will go on until they retire without being permanently appointed, because the temporary classification was set up when advancement in the school system was rapid, under an expanding school population. Now advancement is not rapid and in many cases it is not existent. It seems to me that what we are doing is paying one group very highly, over $21 a day, at the expense of another group, who are by no means temporary teachers, to whom we pay $5, $6 or $7 a day.

We have the statements of Mr. Downey, Miss Mellyn and Mr. Muldoon that they would like to see a single salary schedule. I do not believe that the present salary schedule is based on its merits; nor do I believe that it has proper regard for the taxpayer or that it takes into account equitable distribution among the teachers. I think we simply pay one highly paid group at the expense of a low paid group, who are going through their teaching career at $5 or $6 per day.

It is because I have an amendment later to increase the salaries of the temporary group that I am asking for a slight reduction in these maximum salaries.

Chairman: Are you ready for the question, the reduction of $10,000 in the item of salaries of principals, teachers, members of the supervising staff and others?

You have heard the explanation of Mr. Lee.

Mr. Norton: May I say, for the purpose of the record, that Mr. Lee is the greatest friend of the low income group that I have run into in politics, but I think, for men and women who have devoted many long years to the teaching profession and have reached their maximum, that $3,888 is not too much, and we are not going to help the situation by pulling them down and perhaps giving a little more to the underpaid group.

Every member of this Committee wants to do what he can for the underpaid groups, and we are doing our best.

The motion failed to pass by the following vote:

YEAS—Mr. Lee—1.

Mr. Lee moved that an item in the sum of $5000 be inserted in the budget for the Bureau of Child Accounting or the Department of Vocational Guidance to complete the current job survey.

Mr. Lee: I refer to the questionnaire sent to those who left school in 1932, asking them about their present place of work, their present job and present income, and also asking for their comments on our school system.

With $5,000 I think we could put a few specialists on the trail of the replies that are missing and get a complete job survey. If we did that I think it would be the most valuable thing the City could have. It would be the best possible cross section and map of how jobs are distributed in Boston, because you would know how those who left school eight years ago landed in the industrial and occupational picture. From the experience of those persons, you have a map by which to guide the youngsters now getting ready to graduate, in following vocational training which will prepare them for the occupations ahead.

Mr. Norton: Mr. Lee is very insistent for this $5,000. Is there any way by which we can give it to him?

Business Manager: In the fall it may be possible to find $5,000 in the supply budget for the purpose Mr. Lee has in mind.

Mr. Norton: Will you try to do so?

Business Manager: Yes.

Mr. Lee: I would like that to be done now, if possible, because if we had people at work in the summer getting this information it would enable the youngsters to start in the autumn with a better knowledge of the vocational future.

Business Manager: I still think it may be possible to transfer $5000, if necessary, from the item of "Supplies" to the item of "Salaries."

Mr. Lee withdrew his motion for the $5000 item with the understanding indicated above.

Mr. Lee moved that the item "Salaries of custodians" be increased in the sum of $1,450 so as to provide for the increase in the minimum wage of custodians from $35 to $37.50 weekly, if such custodians have been serving for five years or more.

Mr. Lee: Some of the lower paid custodians receive $35 a week for the care of a whole school building, year in and year out. They may go on at that amount for as many years as come along.

I think their proposition to go up to a maximum of $37.50 a week after five years is a reasonable one.

Chairman: Let me interrupt to say that has been provided for already. The Committee has agreed that if in September the Business Manager has sufficient money in the custodians' appropriation item, we will take that question up again.

Mr. Norton: It would not start until September anyway.

Chairman: That is what we agreed to do last week. However, if you desire to bring up the question now we will take a vote on it.

Mr. Lee: I would like the Committee's assurance that they will help me to look for the money in these directions.

Chairman: That was the unanimous opinion of the Committee at the last meeting.

Mr. Lee: In that case I cannot consistently ask the Committee to approve this motion, because I have said there would be much more of a reserve than the Business Manager reckons on, and I therefore withdraw the motion.

Mr. Lee moved that an item in the sum of $10,000 be inserted in the budget to enable the Superintendent to get out an illustrated catalogue which shall show pictorially what the schools are doing, the different types of courses, shopwork, etc.

Mr. Lee: We have many millions of dollars' worth of high school buildings, and I claim the door to take advantage of that investment is so small that you would need a microscope to find it. I want a big door to all the high schools, that door to be in the shape of an illustrated catalog settting out every type of course in every high school and special school, so that youngsters going through the intermediate schools can find their way through a door to the course they want, and so that their parents can find that same door. When we cannot do that I think we are wasting a large part of our budget.

A significant result of this job survey was that many graduates said they had no reason in choosing one school or another, and there were very few cases where they were influenced by advice from the Vocational Guidance Department or the school teachers. It was very hit or miss. I think this would be an excellent step to enable our youngsters to find the proper course in the proper high school.

Mr. Norton: We all agree that we should publicize what the schools are doing. This year we will get more publicity than ever as a result of having the N. E. A. Convention here. We also hope this year, and in future years, to have some pictures in the Superintendent's report, which is in line with what Mr. Lee suggests.

Mr. Lee moved that the item "Extended use of the public schools" be increased in the sum of $8,000, to provide further for the evening occupancies of gymnasiums.

Mr. Lee: This year I notice—in the afternoon occupancy—in three months we have 2,500 youngsters in the seventh, eighth and ninth grades—250 teams—using thirteen school gymnasiums.

All I want to do is to open the gymnasiums at night for the older brothers and sisters, to be part of the extended use and carried on as part of the neighborhood community program. Because it is at night, money is required to pay the overtime of custodians, and we make our coal and light work overtime.

I move that we appropriate that small amount of money to bring about an excellent program in the use of our gynasiiums at night.

Mr. Norton: I am 100 per cent with Mr. Lee on the use of these gyms. Again it is a question of finance, and our Business Manager tells us that he is going to try on that item to scrape up a little during the summer. Everyone here would like those gyms open every night of the week.

The motion failed to pass by the following vote:

YEAS—Mr. Lee—1.

NAYS—Messrs. McDevitt, Norton, Sullivan, and White—4.

Mr. Lee moved that the item "Salaries of principals, teachers, members of the supervising staff and others" be increased in the sum of $10,000 for compensation of temporary teachers, so as to permit of an increase for this branch of the service for teachers who have been in temporary service in the Boston public schools for more than three years.

Mr. Lee: This amount would be three times as big if it was for the whole year. I will not argue that again because I have already stated the absurdity of carrying teachers along at $5 or $6 a day on the lure that they are only temporary teachers who may soon be appointed, when we know perfectly well that they are not temporary teachers and they are not soon to be appointed, in fact may never be appointed. And yet they are doing good service.

I am always glad to drive a hard bargain, but I do not want to drive a sharp bargain. I think we misrepresent the true situation to those teachers. Many of them will not get appointed and yet we kid them along with the lure of a high salary when appointed.

Mr. Norton: This Committee has done more for the temporary and junior elementary teachers than any Committee in the past. We have done something for them. We would like to give them all more money and we think they are underpaid.

Chairman: For a year and a half we have had before the Committee the question of paying a salary to substitutes, and we have submitted to the junior elementaries a plan calling for approximately 32 appointments, which are provided for in the present budget.

Mr. Sullivan: I am in accord with Mr. Lee on the question of temporary teachers, particularly long term temporary teachers. I have brought that up before. I believe at some point we should not only increase the temporary pay but we should grant some sort of permanency to those who have been in our service a specific length of time.

I am going to bring that before the Committee again, as I have in the past, and I hope we have some success with it.

I am going to vote against Mr. Lee's motion at this time because I believe we have sufficient funds in the budget as presented to us to take care of this problem, and I intend in a short time to bring this before the Committee and go into all angles of it.

Mr. Lee: I realize that the temporary elementary teachers place their hope more on getting an appointment some day than on an immediate raise. The situation is more acute with the intermediate and high school temporary teachers who are teaching one subject. When that subject starts to decline and pupil numbers as a whole decline, the future of that particular teacher looks particularly black.

The motion failed to pass by the following vote:

YEAS—Mr. Lee—1.

NAYS—Messrs. McDevitt, Norton, Sullivan, and White—4.

Mr. Lee: I have only two more points.

One has to do with our intermediate men teachers.

The budget which has been read by the Secretary provides an increase for certain of those teachers who have reached the maximum rating, for this coming year. I think we are doing that in a very poor way. I think there is an element of not being above board in providing $500 or $1,000 in the budget for an increase in the maximum of those teachers when we know that after a few years have gone by it will mean $12,000 or $15,000 a year, after those teachers have worked up from the lower ranks of the increment ladder to their maximum.

I think we were acting in an ill-advised way in doing that. I proposed then and I still propose that instead of giving two increments to those of this group who least need it, that we give one increment to all of the intermediate men teachers.

Chairman: That is not what you proposed before. This is a new proposition.

Mr. Lee: We had several propositions. That is the one that I think I put forward with the most emphasis, although we tried to find some common ground.

In regard to the women teachers who make the claim that the men teachers should not be paid more, it is not argued that the men are any better or that they work harder. I suggest that if the women teachers look around they will see that that is not all there is to the story. Salesmen never worked harder than during the depression, but they got paid less. The man who digs a ditch all day is paid less than the man who runs the factory and likes his job. Men have a great many opportunities open to them in life in this mechanical, engineering and commercial world, and if you want men in the schools you have to pay more to get them.

Chairman: I agree with you. It was the consensus of opinion that we should temporarily settle the pay of the intermediate men. The settlement was not satisfactory to any member of the Commitee and no one felt that it was settled for all time. It was the only basis on which we could get together at the time. We provided for two additional increments, one each year, for the intermediate men. That can be taken up again and changed at any time next year. Nobody was satisfied with the decision on that particular matter.

Mr. Norton: As little as it is, this Committee has done something.

Chairman: We have done more than any other Committee in the history of the School Department has done in trying times.

Mr. Norton: We are making an effort to help out that lower paid intermediate group, where a man with a master's degree or a bachelor's degree gets less than the man who sweeps the floor.

Mr. Lee moved that the item "Salaries of principals, teachers, members of the supervising staff and others" be increased by $3000 to provide for one additional increment for all intermediate men assistants, starting in September.

The motion failed to pass by the following vote:

YEAS—Mr. Lee—1.

NAYS—Messrs. McDevitt, Norton, Sullivan, and White—4.

Mr. Lee: The last motion deals with our action in failing to encourage or in part take over the Home and School Visitors.

The Home and School Visitors Association has been working in our schools for more years than I can remember. The work was considered so important that private citizens paid money out of their own pockets to continue it. Although it would be human nature for school teachers and heads of schools to resent an outside private organization coming into their schools to help out, yet every single headmaster who had the services of the Home and School Visitors Association in his school, wrote and spoke in highest praise of them. It is definitely something which is appreciated by outside citizens and by the school authorities, and I think by everyone who has ever made a report on the matter.

England did not know the most important thing she had. The most important thing she had was people and she did not know that people were her most important asset. I think we have to wake up to the fact that the most important thing we have in this country is people. We are trying to educate those people in the schools. The cry of the class room teacher is, "I cannot give the attention to the children that I should give. I have too many children." That same cry is raised by the graduates. Again and again in the job survey they say, "If we had more personal guidance, a more human attitude, that would have benefitted me more than anything else that I could name." In a large number of cases they say that about our school system.

The Home and School Visitors Association is an organization that supplies the missing human link. When the classroom teacher does not have time to go into the individual case this organization has furnished ex-teachers trained in psychological problems, in dealing with home conditions, who talk it over with the parents and try to get the situation straightened out.

Mr. Sullivan: How much do you propose putting in the budget for this?

Mr. Lee: I am proposing only $5000 to make a start in setting up that service in our school system.

Pending the decision of the Committee I will not specify ahead of time whether that should be to take over the existing organization or through a Civil Service examination to set up a similar service ourselves.

I think it is a terrible thing to take a step backward in a case of this sort. Take the case of a child falling down in his marks simply because following a contagious disease his books have been burned by the health authorities and he was afraid to report that fact. We hear the statement repeatedly that children are scared to talk things over with teachers or headmasters. Something definite, such as the destruction of his books, has made the child afraid to talk it over with the teacher; his marks have slumped and his problem becomes a difficult one. You need a person with a human touch who can go into the home as a friend.

After all these years I think it would be bad if we discontinued this service.

You will recall the reason for the discontinuance is that the Community Federation, which in the past has supplied the funds, feels that it cannot carry it and we have not appropriated the money to carry it ourselves. As a result, the Home and School Visitors Association is closing its doors on this group. It is up to us not to see one of the most important services that we have go by the board, but to appropriate a small amount of money to carry it on.

Mr. Lee moved the insertion in the budget of an item in the sum of $5000 to make a start in setting up the home and school service as a part of the school system.

The Chairman again stated the question: The acceptance of the budget with detailed estimates, and the passage of the order making appropriation in the sum of $9,179,- 463.86, which, added to the appropriation on account—namely, $6,400,000 made at the meeting of Apr. 21, 1941—makes the total appropriation for the current financial year $15,579,463.86.

The following communication from the Business Manager to the Acting Corporation Counsel under date of Apr. 29, 1940, and Mr. Doyle's reply under date of May 15, 1940, were ordered spread upon the records:

April 29, 1940.

Mr. W. J. Doyle
Acting Corporation Counsel
Law Department
11 Beacon Street, Boston

Dear Sir:

Last year in preparing the school budget the sum of $300,000 was deducted from the Preliminary Estimates total for the appropriation item covering the "Salaries of Principals, Teachers, Members of the Supervising Staff and Others." This reduction was made in anticipation of savings that might be made during the fiscal year due to several causes, but mainly as follows:

(a) Deductions from the salaries of teachers on leaves of absence for illness and other causes where such deductions exceed the payments made to their substitutes. This saving is variable. In some years it has been as low as $35,000 and in other years it may go as high as $50,000.

(b) Deductions through savings brought about by the non-replacement of teachers who resign, retire or die during the year and whose positions may not be filled.

(c) Deductions through savings due to the replacement of teachers who resign, retire or die during the year with salaries at or near the top of their respective schedules and their replacement by the appointment of teachers on a lower salary—for instance, the minimum salary of the rank.

(d) Deductions through savings due to the making of temporary appointments instead of replacements through permanent appointments.

In trying to estimate these savings at the beginning of the fiscal year, many of the factors entering into them are not definitely known at the time the budget is being prepared. For example—the school population is dropping and what the actual drop is going to be is not known until the schools reopen in September. The element of uncertainty therefore, as to what the amount of the reduction should be is always in the picture. Last year, as stated, we took $300,000 off the total of salaries of principals, teachers and others, making a net total for this item of $12,375,083.11. The balance at the end of the year was but $2000. If a deficit occurred and there were insufficient sums in other appropriation items to transfer to offset the deficit, the question then arises as to whether or not there is any violation of Section 16 of the amended City Charter. If there is not any violation and a deficit should occur under the circumstances outlined in this communication, could the amount of such deficit be charged to the appropriations of the following year in case funds are not available for transfer from other appropriation items or could the estimated income for the following year be reduced by the size of such deficit?

A prompt reply will be very helpful at this time.

Very truly yours,

LAW DEPARTMENT

May 15, 1940.

Alexander M. Sullivan, Esq.,
Business Manager, School Committee,
15 Beacon Street,
Boston, Massachusetts.

Dear Sir:

You have advised me that last year in preparing the school budget the sum of $300,000 was deducted from the Preliminary Estimates total for the appropriation item covering the "Salaries of Principals, Teachers, Members of the Supervising Staff and Others."

You state in substance that this deduction was made in view of certain savings which it was anticipated would be affected during the fiscal year from several causes, including the following causes specifically set forth by you:

(a) Deductions from the salaries of teachers on leaves of absence for illness and other causes where such deductions exceed the payments made to their substitutes.

(b) Deductions through savings brought about by the non-replacement of teachers who resign, retire or die during the year and whose positions may not be filled.

(c) Deductions through savings due to the replacement of teachers who resign, retire or die during the year with salaries at or near the top of their respective schedules and their replacement by the appointment of teachers on a lower salary—for instance, the minimum salary of the rank.

(d) Deductions through savings due to the making of temporary appointments instead of replacements through permanent appointments.

You further state that the balance at the end of the year after the deduction referred to was two thousand dollars. You have submitted to me for my consideration the following questions relating to the foregoing:

(1) "If a deficit occurred and there were insufficient sums in other appropriation items to transfer to offset the deficit the question then arises as to whether or not there is any violation of section 16 of the amended City Charter."

(2) "If there is not any violation and a deficit should occur . . . could the amount of such deficit be charged to the appropriations of the following year in case funds are not available for transfer from other appropriation items or could the estimated income for the following year be reduced by the size of such deficit."

The provisions of section 16 which you have referred to are as follows:

"No official of said city, except in case of extreme emergency involving the health or safety of the people or their property, shall expend intentionally in any fiscal year any sum in excess of the appropriations duly made in accordance with law, nor involve the city in any contract for the future payment of money in excess of such appropriation, except as provided in section six of this act. Any official who shall violate the provision of this section shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or both."

The School Commitee is an "official" of said City within the meaning of the foregoing section. In this connection see the following opinions of this department to the same effect.

Opinion dated August 9, 1928 sent to Alexander M. Sullivan, Business Manager, School Committee of the City of Boston.

Opinion dated June 26, 1933 sent to Miss Ellen M. Cronin Secretary, School Committee, City of Boston.

Under the circumstances hereinafter set forth expenditures in excess of the appropriations duly made in accordance with law for this item would not be justifiable as an "extreme emergency involving the health or safety of the people or their property" within the meaning of the foregoing section. (See opinions referred to above.)

However this section relates (a) to intentional expenditures in excess of appropriations and (b) to the making of contracts in excess of appropriations. It is clear, therefore, that in order to be a violation of said section there must be an intentional act in violation of its terms.

The preparation of such an item involves the administrative determination of the officers involved. In making such determination the officers may properly take into consideration circumstances of the nature referred to herein and in so far as such determination is based upon their best judgment as to the requirements of their department for this particular purpose they may properly give consideration to the factors outlined by you.

It is my opinion that if this is done and if thereafter the amount appropriated is insufficient to meet the particular needs contemplated by the appropriation item this would not result in such an intentional act as to constitute a violation of the provisions of this section.

However, if this item has been exhausted and is not thereafter replenished by transfer, no further expenditures may be made against it. Such action would be a violation of this section.

The manifest purpose of the foregoing section was to set rigid barriers against expenditures in excess of appropriations and to confine the payment of expenditures for each year to the appropriations for said year.

Therefore, subsequent expenditures could not be charged to the appropriations of the following year or against estimated income for the following year. Such action would also be a violation of this section.

Yours very truly,
Signed—W. J. Doyle,
Acting Corporation Counsel.

Mr. Norton: I want to congratulate the School Committee on the expeditious passage of the budget with a minimum of controversy, a minimum of time spent, and a maximum of investigation of the various items.

I want to congratulate our friend Joe Lee. On many of these items that he mentions we would like to be with him if we had the money. We know that he is motivated by a sincere desire to help the lower paid group and we hope to help that lower paid group.

Tonight we had a hearing on the closing of Teachers College. I do not want to close a college any more than I want to close a hospital or a school. For many years I have felt that Teachers College should be a City College. With this depression there are thousands of youngsters who have prepared for college and cannot go to college.

In reading the report of the Massachusetts Youth Commission which studied the question, there is brought out this interesting data, that of 48 states of the Union Massachusetts is 46th in the amount of money spent for higher education. That is in the official Youth Commission's report just filed.

There is also this interesting data; that 40,000 youngsters graduate from the high schools of Massachusetts each year, and less than 10,000 go to college. Although the first of the states in providing money for public schools, we are almost the last state in the Union in providing State money for higher education. That is very revealing.

Thirdly, they bring out the fact here that most of these youngsters who do not go on to college are prevented from doing so because of low finances. In other words, most of these youngsters do not continue because of a lack of finances.

President Conant of Harvard, in one of his recent addresses, admonished the college presidents of America to go back to the colleges and find out how many youngsters came from homes where the income was $2000 or less per year. He maintains that our colleges now are catering mainly to the upper income group, that the youngsters from the lower income group are not getting a proper chance.

I merely cite this tonight in connection with this report on Teachers College, to motivate my point that I would like to see the day come when we can open that college as a City College.

Mr. Lee: I would like to point out that when this matter was previously considered by the School Committee it was brought out that the keeping open of Teachers College meant no diminution or increase in the budget. It is Mr. Norton's idea that a beginning could be made with the existing faculty who are on the payroll of the school system.

We have not taken any action tonight on closing or keeping open Teachers College?

Chairman: That is right.

Mr. Norton: This official report of the Massachusetts Youth Commission states that the outstanding reason for the inability of young people to continue with their schooling is a financial one. Education beyond high school or outside of high school in this state costs money, and money is what these young people do not have. If, therefore, schooling beyond the high school is worth anything, and if the young people who ought to have it are to be enabled to get it, the Youth Commission feels that something should be done to help them secure it.

This is a conservative report presented to the Legislature this year by conservative educators.

A NEW POSITIVE WATER-METER TESTER.

The large majority of waterworks, particularly the smaller ones, seldom have accurate or positive means of testing their meters. Often when a meter is repaired, the man making the repairs simply blows through the meter to see if it runs, when it is again put into service with the assumption that it is accurate. Sometimes meters are hooked up in series with a new meter and water is run through to see if the readings check. This is better than the lung-power method, but still is far from accurate or dependable, in that the test meter may be in error by 2 per cent or even more. Several states have regulations governing water utilities, both municipal and private, and require a positive method of testing water meters in every meter shop.—American City Magazine.

POLICE PATROL FOR FIRE PREVENTION.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 26, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the Police Commissioner relative to your order of May 12, 1941, concerning the assignment of a mounted police patrol to the bridle paths in the Fenway, Arboretum and the West Roxbury woods for the safety of riders and to guard against fires.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Police Department, May 23, 1941.

William T. Doyle,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir,—Your memorandum of May 20, 1941, together with inclosure of City Council order passed in the City Council May 12, 1941, regarding the assignment of a mounted police patrol to the bridle paths in the Fenway, Arboretum and the West Roxbury woods for the safety of riders and to guard against fires, has been received.

I have taken up this matter with the responsible senior officers of this department and, in view of the limited number of officers available for police duty, together with a further reduction in the active personnel due to vacation periods, it is impossible to assign mounted officers to patrol the bridle paths at the Arboretum and the West Roxbury woods at this time. The bridle path along the Fenway (from the Fenway to Willow Pond, Jamaica Plain) is at present patrolled by mounted officers assigned to Division 16.

The commanding officers of the divisions covering the district traversed by the bridle paths of the Arboretum and the West Roxbury woods have been directed to have their foot patrolmen, motorcycle men, and men assigned to cruising cars maintain close observation and surveillance over the bridle paths themselves and the adjoining woodlands for the purpose of protecting riders, detecting forest fires, and for the apprehension of objectionable persons who may be found frequenting the locality.

I feel certain that the precautions thus taken by this department will have the desired effect.

Very truly yours,
JOSEPH F. TIMILTY,
Police Commissioner.

City of Boston,
Overseers of the Public Welfare,
May 16, 1941.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,
Mayor of Boston.

Attention of Mr. William T. Doyle.

Dear Sir,—This department has received your communication with inclosed copy of an order from the City Council, dated April 28, 1941, reading as follows:

"Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to solicit the aid of the W. P. A. authorities to prevent the closing of day nurseries in Boston due to the lack of supervisory help on account of the mandatory thirty-day suspension due to the eighteen months' rule."

May I state that I have conferred both with the W. P. A. authorities and Miss Susan J. Ginn who is the sponsor's representative for the Boston School Committee, on the question of the temporary closing of some of the nursery schools. Closings are made only when it is not possible to obtain proper staff to maintain the nursery schools and as soon as people who are acceptable for the project's maintenance are certified and people who have been terminated because of the eighteen months' ruling are recertified the schools will immediately reopen.

There is no way of maintaining staffs in the schools continuously, because the eighteen months' rule operates in every project under W. P. A. I feel sure, however, that everything will be done to make any closings of nursery schools in any section of Boston only for a very short period.

Very truly yours,
WILLIAM G. O'HARE, Secretary.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the Commissioner of Public Works relative to your order of May 12, 1941, concerning resurfacing with smooth paving and constructing sidewalks on Somerset street and Ashburton place to Howard street, Ward 3.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
May 21, 1941.

William T. Doyle,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Mr. Doyle,—This is in reference to the following order that was passed in the City Council on May 12, 1941:

"Ordered, That the Public Works Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to resurface with smooth paving and construct sidewalks on Somerset street and Ashburton place to Howard street, Ward 3."

As the department has received the necessary approval, the reconstruction of the roadway and sidewalk areas of Somerset street will start in the near future.

In the event that it is determined necessary to do so, after a survey has been made of the street, a project will be submitted to the W. P. A. authorities providing for the reconstruction, during the current year, of Ashburton place.

Respectfully yours,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

DUDLEY STREET LINES.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 26. 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the President and General Manager of the Boston Elevated Railway Company relative to your order of May 5, 1941, concerning the surveying of all lines entering and leaving the Dudley Street Terminal.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

Boston Elevated Railway,
May 22, 1941.

Mr. William T. Doyle,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir,—The trustees have considered the order of the City Council of May 5, 1941, requesting a survey of all lines entering and leaving the Dudley Street Terminal, by the trustees, with the view to extending the present five-cent fare zone to permit a five-cent fare from outside the terminal to the line terminus, and from the start of the line to the entrance of the terminal.

They have directed me to say that under the present conditions which surround the Elevated from a financial standpoint, any such consideration is out of the question.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD DANA,
President and General Manager.

LEASE TO LINCOLN HOUSE ASSOCIATION.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 26, 1941

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—The City of Boston has come into the possession, through tax title foreclosure, of a parcel of land on Village street, South End, comprising of about 1,000 square feet. I am informed by the Custodian of Foreclosed Real Estate that the Lincoln House Association have offered to lease this property from the city for a three-year period at an annual rental of one dollar per year. This association will beautify this lot of land as a rest area for mothers and children and will expend in that endeavor approximately $1,000.

I am very much in accord with this proposal and I respectfully request that your Honorable Body give approval to the accompanying order.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Real Estate Division, May 19, 1941.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,
Mayor of Boston.

In re 86 Village St., Boston. (Vacant Land, Area, 1,004 square feet.)

Dear Mr. Mayor,—I am inclosing for transmittal to the City Council, for approval by that body, four copies of an order which has been prepared by the Law Department, to grant a three-year lease, at $1.00 per year, to the Lincoln House Association.

The Lincoln House Association intends to improve and beautify this vacant lot as a rest area for mothers and babies. Their intention is to expend approximately $1,000 for such improvements.

I can see no immediate demand for this property, in view of which I highly recommend that the lease be granted.

Very truly yours,
DANIEL M. DRISCOLL,
Custodian.

Whereas, The City of Boston is the owner of about 1,004 square feet of land on the southeasterly side of Village street, numbered 86 in the numbering of said Village street in Boston; and

Whereas, The said premises are now in the care, custody, control and management of the Custodian, Foreclosed Real Estate Division of the City of Boston; and

Whereas, The Lincoln House Association, a charitable corporation organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, is desirous of using the said premises for playground purposes, now, therefore, it is hereby Ordered, That the Custodian, Foreclosed Real Estate Division of the City of Boston, be, and he hereby is, authorized to lease, in the name and behalf of the City of Boston, by an instrument in writing satisfactory in form to the Law Department of the City of Boston, the said premises to the said Lincoln House Association, for the purpose of a playground, for the term of three years, at an annual rental of $1.00, reserving, however, to the City of Boston the right to cancel said lease at any time by giving to the said Lincoln House Association a written notice of its intention so to do within thirty days of the date of said notice.

APPROPRIATION FOR RANDIDGE FUND EXCURSIONS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 26, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am in receipt of the attached communication from the chairman of the Board of Park Commissioners requesting an appropriation of $5,000 for transportation and incidental expenses in connection with excursions to be arranged under the Randidge Fund for children in the various sections of the city. In accordance with this request I submit the attached order providing for the furnishing of the required amount from the Contingent Fund, and respectfully recommend adoption of this order by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Park Department, May 21, 1941.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—You are respectfully informed that an appropriation of $5,000 will be required for transportation and incidental expenses in connection with excursions to be arranged under the Randidge Trust Fund for children in various sections of the city, said sum to be charged to Contingent Fund, when made.

This is the usual request for $5,000 which is made each year for the Randidge Trust Fund Excursions, which begin on Tuesday, July 1, and end on Friday, August 29.

The following is a copy of the order which has been presented each year to the City Council.

"Ordered, That the sum of $5,000 be, and the same hereby is, appropriated, to be expended by the Board of Park Commissioners, for recreation purposes, by the transportation of children from various parts of the city to certain recreational centers within and without the limits of the city, and for other incidental expenses in connection therewith, said sum to be charged to the Contingent Fund, when made."

Very respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

SALE OF LAND TO BOSTON HOUSING AUTHORITY.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 26, 1941.

To the Honorable the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I present herewith an order for the sale of a certain parcel of park land to the Boston Housing Authority for the sum of $1,000.

This parcel of land contains 2,050 square feet and is situated at the southwesterly side of Park place, a private way running southwesterly from Yeoman street and adjacent to land of the Boston Housing Authority in the Roxbury district of the City of Boston.

The chairman of the Board of Park Commissioners informs me that this parcel of land is no longer needed for public park and playground purposes.

The Boston Housing Authority desires to use this parcel of land in the development of a housing project.

I am of the opinion that a sale of this property at the price of $1,000 should be made to the Boston Housing Authority without public auction.

I recommend passage of the accompanying order by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

Whereas, The City of Boston is the owner of a certain parcel of land containing approximately 2,050 square feet, situated on the southwesterly side of Park place, a private way running southwesterly from 53 Yeoman street and adjacent to land of the Boston Housing Authority in the Roxbury district of the City of Boston. This parcel of land, hereinafter described, was acquired by the City of Boston for park and playground purposes, by purchase in 1922. The deed of conveyance is recorded with Suffolk Deeds, Book 4342, page 307; and

Whereas, This parcel of land is no longer needed for public park and playground purposes; and

Whereas, The Boston Housing Authority is desirous of acquiring this parcel of land for the development of a housing project, now, therefore, it is hereby

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor of the City of Boston be, and he hereby is, authorized to sell, without public auction, at a minimum price of $1,000, to the Boston Housing Authority, all the City of Boston's right, title and interest in and to this parcel of land and the private way known as Park place; and to execute and deliver a deed thereof satisfactory in form to the Law Department of the City of Boston. This parcel of land is bounded and described as follows:

Southwesterly by land of the City of Boston (Orchard park), forty-three and 17–100 (43.17) feet; northwesterly by two parcels of land; the first of said parcels of land formerly of George E. Roberts and now of the Boston Housing Authority; the second of said parcels of land formerly of John McMeniman and now of the Boston Housing Authority, forty-seven and 50–100 (47.50) feet; northeasterly by two parcels of land; the first of said parcels of land formerly a private way, Park place, and now of the Boston Housing Authority; the second of said parcels of land formerly of Augusta Scharbius and now of the Boston Housing Authority, forty-three and 17–100 (43.17) feet; southeasterly by two parcels of land; the first of said parcels of land formerly of Michael and Elizabeth Woolihan and now of the Boston Housing Authority; the second of said parcels of land formerly of Maria Butler and now of the Boston Housing Authority, forty-seven and 50–100 (47.50) feet; containing two thousand fifty (2,050) square feet of land, more or less.

This parcel of land designated as "Parcel C" and all of said measurements are shown on a plan marked "City of Boston, Orchard Park, Roxbury, January 3, 1922, F. O. Whitney, Chief Engineer, Street Laying-Out Department," on file in the office of said department, City Hall, Boston, Mass.

HEARING ON SALE OF ELEVATED POWER HOUSES.

Coun. SHATTUCK offered the following:

Ordered, That the President and General Manager of the Boston Elevated Railway Company and the President or another authorized officer of the Boston Edison Company be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to appear before the Executive Committee of the City Council with reference to the pending proposal for the sale to the Boston Edison Company of the power houses of the Boston Elevated Railway Company and for a contract with the Boston Edison Company to supply power to the Boston Elevated Railway Company.

Coun SHATTUCK—This is a matter of great interest to the citizens of Boston. They pay about two thirds of the Elevated deficit, and through the Boston Metropolitan Transit District, of which Boston is the center, they have a very large investment in the Elevated property. And they own and lease to the Elevated all the subways except the Cambridge subway, which is owned by the state. Is the offered price of $7,400,000 fair? Is the charge of 7.18 to 7.60 mills per kilowatt hour, with adjustments for changes in the cost of fuel and of wages, etc., for the current sold a fair price? Might not any savings which might be made by sale of the plant and purchase of power at the proposed prices be offset were the Boston Elevated Railway to provide for interconnection of its plant with the Boston Edison and for sale of its surplus power, of which it has capacity in excess of its own requirements amounting to about 60,000 kilowatts? Is it advisable in the public interest that the Boston Elevated Railway, which is publicly controlled and in large part publicly owned, dispose of its power-generating plants to Boston Edison Company on any terms, or unless at least a large and assured saving can be demonstrated? These are all-important questions, and they are questions which should be most carefully discussed and considered before action is taken. They are questions, also, on which the City of Boston should take a position. That is the purpose of this order. I suggest that the hearing on the subject be open to the public, and that the American Federation of labor (which has already expressed an interest in the question) and other interested parties be invited to participate.

Coun. TAYLOR—Mr President, I would like to ask a question. Will this affect in any way the deficit paid by the City of Boston?

Coun. SHATTUCK—Mr. President, some of the figures I have seen indicate that if the proposed sale were made, the power plant being purchased at the price suggested, there might be a saving of from $291,000 to $386,000 a year. That saving would largely come about through the saving of interest at 4 per cent on the $7,343,000 that is proposed to be paid for the transfer of the power house. There is another factor that might effect an increase in the saving, and that would be in the charge varying from 7.18 to 7.60 mills per kilowatt hour to be charged for the current. At the higher price, practically the only saving would be in the interest on the purchase price of the power house. On the other hand, the question arises whether, looking over a period of years, any saving could be presumed, this question depending on whether the price for the power might be increased in subsequent years. I believe a 20-year contract is proposed, subject to revision by the Department of Public Utilities. On the other hand, the cost of generating electricity might go up because of a rise in the price of fuel and other things. There is another factor to be taken into account, and that is that apparently the Elevated has quite a large amount of surplus power there. If through interconnection there would be some way of distributing this electric power, this might greatly reduce the cost of power for the trains, and any saving made by the proposed sale might be entirely wiped out. In fact, there might be a loss rather than a saving, a feature that is worth looking into.

Coun. CAREY—Mr. President, when does the gentleman propose to have these representatives appear?

Coun. SHATTUCK—Mr. President, the order asks the services of the Mayor in getting them to come before the Council, and if it is still in order I would amend the order so as to provide that they come at the next session.

The CHAIRMAN—The Chair would state that it would be better to leave the date unsettled.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

MEMORIAL DAY CAR AND BUS SERVICE.

Coun. RUSSO offered the following:

Ordered, That the Trustees of the Boston Elevated be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to arrange for additional street car and bus service to and from all cemeteries in the City of Boston on Memorial Day, May 30.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, I am introducing this order because of many requests I have received the last few days from people who go to various cemeteries to show respect for their loved dead, and I also realize that there is no one who is not affected by the loss of their nearest and dearest friends and relatives. I know that in the past many people going to the cemeteries on Memorial Day and having to carry wreaths and flowers, get very tired from their long walk. I might refer particularly to the situation at Forest Hills, where there is quite a tedious walk to the various cemeteries. I certainly trust, therefore, that the trustees of the Boston Elevated will see fit to furnish more street car and bus service to and from the cemeteries on that particular day.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

ACCEPTANCE OF BALDWIN PLACE.

Coun. RUSSO offered the following:
Ordered, That the Board of Street Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to accept and lay out as a public highway under the W. P. A. form of construction, Baldwin place, Ward 3.
Passed under suspension of the rule.

ACCEPTANCE OF ELLSWORTH STREET.

Coun. ENGLERT offered the following:
Ordered, That the Board of Street Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to accept and lay out Ellsworth street, Ward 11, as a W. P. A. project.
Passed under suspension of the rule.

REIMBURSEMENT TO BOSTON BY LYNN.

Coun. TAYLOR offered the following:
Ordered, That the Director of Public Welfare and the Corporation Counsel be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to take all necessary action to compel the city of Lynn to reimburse the City of Boston for all money paid by the City of Boston to all recipients who have Lynn settlements.

Coun. TAYLOR—Mr. President, I have introduced this order because of a situation which has been called to my attention this past week, a situation that would make any red-blooded man's blood boil. Certainly the officials of Lynn cannot be proud of their action. A gentleman who lives in my district, and whom I will not embarrass by mentioning his name, is a World War veteran, and in the war lost the sight of an eye and a part of his leg. He lives in Boston and has been receiving welfare aid from the City of Boston. Having enlisted in the army from Lynn, under the law he was a Lynn settled case, but the City of Boston was paying this man relief every month and asked to be reimbursed by the city of Lynn. Recently, however, the city of Lynn notified the welfare authorities of Boston that they would no longer reimburse Boston for any of the money paid out to this man. They wanted him to come back to Lynn, where they were going to send him to a poor farm. It certainly is a sad commentary on our democratic form of government for a public official of Lynn to send one of her patriotic sons who participated in the World War and helped to preserve democracy, to a poor farm, simply because Lynn did not care to pay the welfare aid to which this man was properly entitled. The City of Boston does not send such men to a poor farm, but might send them to Long Island, where they could be properly cared for. This man is a World War veteran who has been deprived of some of his faculties, and there is now a threat that he shall go to the city of Lynn, simply because that city will not pay the amount that has been paid out to the man, who, incidentally, has a Lynn settlement, and where he will be compelled to go to a poor farm. It certainly is not an inspiring situation for young fellows who enlist in the army and who, because of the hazards of war, become unable to earn a living in the ordinary way. I certainly say that the Director of Public Welfare and the Corporation Counsel should be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to take all necessary action to compel the city of Lynn to reimburse the City of Boston for all the money paid by this city to recipients who have Lynn settlements. I trust that all proper steps will be taken to make such collections. I believe a veteran of this type is certainly entitled to decent treatment from any public officials.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

CONSTRUCTION OF WARD 13 STREETS.

Coun. HUTCHINSON offered the following:
Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to reconstruct Midland street, Ward 13, and install artificial stone sidewalks thereon, as a W. P. A. project.

Ordered, That the Board of Street Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to accept and lay out Southview street, Ward 13, as a public highway under the W. P. A. plan of construction.

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to reconstruct the following streets in Ward 15 as W. P. A. projects:
Blakeville street, Longfellow street, Stonehurst street, Speedwell street, Norton street, Clarkson street.
Passed under suspension of the rule.

CONSTRUCTION OF WARD 16 SIDEWALKS.

Coun. FISH offered the following:
Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk at No. 28 Port Norfolk street, Ward 16, in front of the estates bordering thereon; said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of artificial stone, with granite edgestones, under the provisions of chapter 196 of the Special Acts of 1917.

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk at No. 12 Port Norfolk street, Ward 16, in front of the estates bordering thereon; said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of artificial stone, with granite edgestones, under the provisions of chapter 196 of the Special Acts of 1917.
Severally passed under suspension of the rule.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

PREFERENCE TO SINGLE WOMEN FOR SCHOOL POSITIONS.

Coun. GOODE offered the following:
Ordered, That the Boston School Committee be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to give preferred consideration to single women when selections are being made from a civil service list for appointment to any position under the jurisdiction of the School Committee, and to appoint single women rather than married women whose husbands are gainfully employed.

Coun. GOODE—Mr. President, some months ago I brought to the attention of the School Committee, through this Body, the fact that there are many married women employed in permanent and temporary positions in the School Department while other members of their families are on the city, state or Federal pay rolls. The School Committee replied that they were grateful to have the matter called to their attention and that steps would be taken to remedy the situation. It has been brought to my attention within the last few days that an appointment has been made in the School Department of a matron, a married woman who is the mother of three children, whose husband at the present time is employed in a county department of the city and is well paid by the City of Boston as a deputy sheriff. There are in my own district, as I assume that there are in every other district of the city, many widows and single women who do not receive proper recognition from those in authority while women with husbands in good positions are recognized. It is certainly wrong that such a condition should continue to be tolerated by those in authority. I don't know whether such appointments are brought to the attention of the School Committee or not. Many of the members of that Committee are personal friends of mine, for whom I have the highest regard, and I know that my predecessor in the Council from Ward 18 (Mr. Norton), at present a member of the School Committee, throughout his public life has always fought for the poor man and for the person who was most in need. I feel that he, with other fairminded members of the School Committee, will see that steps are taken to remedy this condition.

ENGINE HOUSE, WARD 1.

Coun. COFFEY offered the following:
Ordered, That the Fire Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to take immediate steps to reopen the engine house on Marion street, Ward 1.
Passed under suspension of the rule.

FINGERPRINTING OF SCHOOL CHILDREN.

Coun. HURLEY offered the following:
Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to confer with the officials of the Police Department and of the public and private schools in the City of Boston relative to the advisability of fingerprinting all children of school age, and to request the cooperation of all adult residents of Boston, to the end that a positive means of identification may be established in the event of a situation such as now prevails throughout European countries.

Coun HURLEY—Mr. President, I am introducing this order as the result of a conversation with different medical men who have just returned from England, and I have also consulted Doctor Brickley, the Medical Examiner of the Northern District. In England many children, as well as aged people, as the result of the bombings are killed, and cannot be identified before they are buried; and there are also thousands of children wandering all over England and France today who have been separated from their parents and scattered through the different countries, wandering about perhaps hundreds of miles, because of no proper means of indentification by which they may be returned to their parents. The doctors who have been abroad are today giving a graphic picture of the situation so far as these children are concerned, children not necessarily physically injured because of the war but without means of identification, without tags, cards or other means of telling who they are and where they belong. If the thing had been thought of and they had been fingerprinted, it would have been a simple matter to return them to their families when the conflict was over. It is not purely a war-time measure, although the war has brought the necessity for such action more prominently to the public mind, but even apart from war-time bombings there are numerous cases where this sort of thing would be of great help as a means of identification, —in cases, for instance, where children have become lost or injured, are unconscious and cannot give any information in regard to themselves. There is sometimes serious injury, the victims lying unconscious for a long time, while convalescing, and there is no means of identification so that they can be returned to their families. The same is true when people are unknown, who are killed or die. They will frequently lie in the Boston morgue awaiting identification, which would be easy if they were fingerprinted. So this means of identification would be of great value, not only in war time, but in peace time. And with the threat of war, and in the war-torn world around us, it can be easily seen how very important this might be. New England is an industrial section, with shops of all kinds vitally engaged in producing arms and munitions, ships and planes. And there are saboteurs at work here, as we continually read in the papers. Plants are blown up, victims are killed, and it is practically impossible to identify them. Doctor Brickley, I may say, tells me that the last thing in the human body to be decomposed are the fingers. It is frequently the case that other parts of the body will be decomposed without the possibility of recognition, and still the fingers will be in fair shape, so that the fingerprints can be recognized. Insurance companies will refuse to pay on many claims because there is no proper means of identification, but they will pay where there is identification of fingerprints. It seems to me, therefore, that if we have proper fingerprinting, with card indexes, and so on, it will be a simple matter for the families of the deceased to get together with the insurance companies and settle their claims. While I am asking for the cooperation of the School and Police Departments, I want it understood that the Police Department will have nothing to do with the record. The only reason for their being called is that they are experienced in this matter, have the fingerprinting equipment, and so on, and can be of great assistance in that way. But they will have no access to these records. I trust that the order will be passed, and that the Police Commissioner and the School Committee will get together on the matter, and that some such action as is suggested in my order will be taken.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

ROPING OFF STREETS, JUNE 2.

Coun. SHATTUCK offered the following:

Ordered, That the City Messenger be authorized to rope off streets in connection with the annual parade of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company on Monday, June 2, 1941, the expense of same to be charged to the appropriation for Flags, Ropes and Stakes.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

ROPING OFF STREETS, JUNE 3.

Coun. CAREY offered the following:

Ordered, That the City Messenger be authorized to rope off streets in connection with the annual schoolboy parade on June 3, 1941, the expense of same to be charged to the appropriation for Flags, Ropes and Stakes.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

FIVE-CENT FARE, BRIGHAM CIRCLE–CHARLES STREET BUS LINE.

Coun. CAREY and CHASE offered the following:

Ordered, That the trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway Company be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to arrange for the immediate establishing of a bus line between Brigham Circle and Charles street with a five-cent fare privilege.

Coun. CAREY—Mr. President, this order has been introduced by me on previous occasions, and my purpose in introducing it at the present time is to again request the Elevated to take immediate action in this matter. The vacation season is fast approaching, and in my district there are many poor children whose only relaxation in the summertime is to go down to the Public Garden and ride on the swan boats. I am assured that unless some such action as I suggest is taken —a bus line with a five-cent fare—those rides will be missed this summer, and it will be a great deprivation to the children of my district. The mothers and fathers of these children, parents of three or four or sometimes seven or eight, cannot take them down to the Public Garden for these rides if they have to pay ten cents apiece for them. So I think the trustees of the Elevated might well consider this as a charitable move, which will give to the youngsters an opportunity to avail themselves this summer of this privilege that they have had in previous summers.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

RECESS.

By direction of President GALVIN, the Council took a recess at 3.17 p. m., subject to the call of the Chair. The members reassembled and were called to order at 3.47 p. m.

Coun. GOTTLIEB in the chair.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Coun. SHATTUCK, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

1. Report on message of Mayor and order (referred May 12) for acceptance of chapter 148 of Acts of 1941, re payments of Elevated for subways, etc.— that same ought to pass.

Report accepted; said order passed.

2. Report on message of Mayor and order (referred today) that land be leased to Lincoln House Association—that same ought to pass.

Report accepted; said order passed.

3. Report on message of Mayor and order (referred today) that $5,000 be appropriated for Randidge Fund excursions—that same ought to pass.

Report accepted; said order passed, yeas 18, nays 0.

4. Report on message of Mayor and order (referred today) for sale of land to Boston Housing Authority—that same ought to pass.

Report accepted; said order passed, yeas 19, nays 0.

5. Report on order (referred April 28) relative to day off in seven for members of Boston Police force—recommending passage of accompanying new draft, viz.:

Ordered, That the Police Commissioner of the City of Boston be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to grant the Boston police one day off in seven, provided it means no additional expense to the city for police protection.

Report accepted and the question came on the passage of the order.

Coun. D. F. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, the reason why this order has been held over since April 28 is that we have notified the commissioner to appear before us in executive session to answer some questions. We would like to know, for example, why the Boston police cannot be granted one day off in seven, the same as is the case in other cities and towns throughout the state. Other cities and towns grant that privilege, one day off in seven, and I believe the Boston police should be granted the same privilege. Back in 1939 the Police Commissioner, after an order was introduced asking whether one day off in seven could not be granted, said it would need an additional forty-five men. That was in the early part of 1939, and since then and 1941 there has been an addition of 154 policemen to the Boston Police Force. I believe, therefore, that the one day off in seven can be granted without making another request for forty-five more men. I cannot understand the Police Commissioner not wanting to appear before the Executive Committee in regard to this matter, when he must practically agree himself that there is now a sufficient number of men on the Police Force to enable this petition to be granted. Why he does not grant it I do not know. That is the reason why I have introduced the order requesting the Police Commissioner, through his Honor the Mayor, to grant the Boston police one day off in seven, provided it means no additional expense to the city for police protection. I certainly trust that the Police Commissioner will carry out the purpose of the order.

Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, I have made a very thorough investigation of this matter of one day off in seven granted to members of various police departments in metropolitan Boston. Take, for instance, the situation in the city of Somerville where in 1937 a day off in six was granted to the members of the department, a more liberal allowance than is asked for in Boston. There had been some doubt as to the advisability of this action in the city of Somerville where it had been felt that such action might necessitate an additional appropriation for the department. But it was found out there that the officers performed such worthwhile service that an addition to the appropriation for the Police Department was unnecessary. It has worked out in this way. They provide one day off in six for thirteen weeks, and one day off in eight for thirteen weeks. I understand also that the Metropolitan District Police get one day off in seven, where they formerly got one day off in eight. I think the City of Boston is far behind the other cities of the metropolitan area as far as this matter is concerned. Ours is the largest force in the metropolitan area, and it should act in advance of the others in a matter of this kind, which is distinctly a humanitarian measure. Police Commissioner Timilty appeared before us when we were previously considering this matter and said at the time if he received $80,000 more annually and could appoint forty-five more officers, he could give the one day off in seven, but that the way he was situated in the department at that time he could not do so. Later, however, 154 new men were appointed to the force, to help out on the parking problem. I was informed, however, a few weeks ago that the parking violation cases in the courts are greatly diminishing, and that there is a constant decrease in the fines for breaking the parking laws. This would clearly indicate that it would be an easy matter at the present time to take off forty-five of those men, that being the number that he previously indicated would be necessary if he were to grant the one day off in seven, and now give the men the one day off in seven. There not being so many people breaking the parking law at the present time, all those men are not needed for that work. So, for heaven's sake, take off forty-five of them and then give the men in the Police Department one day off in seven.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

STUDY OF ELEVATED POWER PLANT.

Coun. FISH and HURLEY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Survey Committee be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to make a study of the power production (surplus power) of the Boston Elevated Railway Company, with the possibility of selling it to the city for the purpose of lighting city-owned property.

Coun. FISH—Mr. President, I shall speak very briefly on that order. From the short talk we had on the proposed new Elevated and Edison power plan today, I made two observations. One is that the Elevated has produced its power much more cheaply than the Edison Electric Illuminating Company, and the other is that we may be losing a pretty good bet if we pass by the opportunity of purchasing the surplus power from the Elevated for lighting purposes. Councilor Shattuck stated earlier today that there was such a surplus of power produced by the Elevated, and I think it would be well to have a survey committee find out if there are any technicalities that would prevent the Elevated from selling that surplus power to the city. If there are no such technicalities, I say that we would be doing the people of Boston a pretty good service in giving them an opportunity to use this power and thus reduce their light bills.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

RESURFACING OF RIVER STREET.

Coun. GOODE offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to resurface with smooth paving River street in the Readville section of Ward 18, from 1600 River street to the Dedham line.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

PAYMENT IN ADVANCE TO CITY EMPLOYEES.

Coun. GOODE offered the following:
Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to consider the advisability of instructing the City Treasurer to provide for the payment of two weeks' pay in advance to all city employees prior to their going on annual vacation.
Passed under suspension of the rule.

SANITARY PROTECTION, PLAYGROUNDS.

Coun. GOODE and FISH offered the following:
Ordered, That the Park Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to provide first aid kits for all playgrounds and also to take all precautions possible to prevent the spread of athlete's foot and related diseases in park bath houses.
Passed under suspension of the rule.

INCREASE IN COST OF NECESSITIES OF LIFE.

Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN offered the following:
Resolved, That the Boston City Council hereby voices its protest to the State Director of the Necessities of Life relative to the exorbitant and unwarranted increase in the prices of such commodities and requests that his department proceed to investigate and criminally prosecute any dealers engaged in such practices.
Chairman GOTTLIEB—The order will be referred to the Committee on Rules.
Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a statement.
Chairman GOTTLIEB—The gentleman may proceed if there is no objection.
Coun. COFFEY—I object, Mr. President.
The order stood referred to the Committee on Rules.

THE NEXT MEETING.

Coun. GALVIN—Mr. Chairman, I move that when we adjourn it be to meet two weeks from this Monday at 2 p. m.
Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I don't think we should take any more vacations. Last year, if I am not mistaken, I think we had twenty-two or twenty-three vacations, and I think we have had at least five so far this year. In the meantime, the Legislature has been in session right along for five days a week, having already met about one hundred twenty-five days this year. They are now, of course, getting extra money, but in the past I know that, in addition to recess committees and commissions, they have met for five days a week into the summer. When I was up there, that was the custom, and it has been the custom for many years for them to meet from the first of the year clear into the summertime. But, we down here, on the other hand, last year, for instance, had pretty good vacations, for twenty-two or twenty-three weeks, and we have started in the same way this year. I don't think it makes sense. We are elected here to attend to the city's business and look after the interests of our constituents, and we should meet regularly to take care of the business of the city.
Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, speaking on the same motion, we represent here the interest of our constituents, and we are supposed to be interested in the welfare of the City of Boston. We are continually getting up here and taking that position——
Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I rise to a point of order, that the gentleman is not speaking to the motion before the house.
Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, I believe my remarks are entirely in order, and I am leading up to the motion to adjourn.
Chairman GOTTLIEB—The gentleman will take care to confine his remarks to the question before the house.
Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, one of the important purposes and reasons for our meetings here is to take care of the welfare interests of the City of Boston, and I believe that comes strictly within our province within the charter. I think all motions, orders and resolutions, anything that will affect the welfare of the city, are entirely within our province. I have introduced orders here week after week having to do with the welfare and the interests of our constituents, and I believe such orders have been and are at all times in order. I introduced a resolution a few moments ago that I feel that the people of Boston will back up to the hilt, and I introduced it as a result of contact with people of Boston who are vitally interested in the prices of certain commodities in this city.
Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I raise the point of order that the gentleman is out of order.
Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN—I am leading up to the immediate question before the Body, Mr. President.
Chairman GOTTLIEB—The councilor will come to the point quickly.
Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN—I am coming to it, Mr. President, but the resolution which I introduced is one upon which it is proper for me to speak for one minute or for twenty-five minutes.
Chairman GOTTLIEB—The gentleman will confine himself to the order before the Body.
Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, confining myself to the order and leading up to it, I feel that the remarks I have made are entirely appropriate, and in order before this Body. I think a resolution looking to reduction of price of necessary foods, one in the interest of all the people, is decidedly a matter that is in order in this Body. When we read the newspapers and look at the City Record, we very soon find out that the actions of certain concerns, in the matter of raising prices of the necessities of life, and so on, are against the interest and against the welfare of the people of this city, and I believe there is no matter in which the people of Boston are more vitally interested. Certainly nothing can more vitally affect the people of Boston than a rise in prices of necessary articles of food.
Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I rise to a point of order, that the gentleman is out of order.
Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN—I think, Mr. President, in view of the fact——
Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I insist that the gentleman is out of order, and I ask the Chair to so rule. If he does not, I will make a speech, following his remarks.
Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, I am leading up to a point——
Chairman GOTTLIEB—The Chair will rule that the councilor is out of order, unless he confines himself to the order before the Body.
Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, one of my reasons for coming here today was to present the resolution I have offered, which certainly deals with a matter of the most vital interest to the people of Boston. I think if we are not allowed to introduce and speak upon such a resolution, the people of Boston will be properly resentful of the fact. I am merely speaking along the same line that I did a few weeks ago, when the conditions referred to in the resolution were not as bad as they are today. The Director ——
Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I rise to a point of order, that the gentleman is not talking to the motion, that when we adjourn it be to meet two weeks from today.
Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, I am leading up to that.
Coun. COFFEY—Well, how long does it take you to lead up to it? You have been ruled out of order and the resolution has been sent to the Committee on Rules.
Chairman GOTTLIEB—The Chair will rule the gentleman from Brighton out of order.
Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, I would like to ask the Chair a question.
Chairman GOTTLIEB—The gentleman is still out of order.
Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, may I ask the Chair a question in connection with the point of order? What change has there been in the rules of the Boston City Council adopted a few months ago, that make a resolution or order introduced at this time against a rise in the price of the necessities of life out of order, when it was perfectly in order earlier in the year? What change has now taken place that makes a resolution of this kind out of order at the present time?
Chairman GOTTLIEB—The present Chairman was not presiding at that time. The question before the Body at this time is Councilor Galvin's motion that when the Council adjourn it be for two weeks.
Coun M. H. SULLIVAN—Well, Mr President, I am leading up to that.
Chairman GOTTLIEB—The gentleman is out of order.
Coun. Galvin's motion that when the Council adjourn it be for two weeks was declared carried. Coun. COFFEY doubted the vote and asked for the yeas and nays.
The roll was called, and the motion that when the Council adjourn it be for two weeks prevailed, yeas 13, nays 8:
Yeas—Coun. Englert, Fish, Galvin, Goode, Gottlieb, Hurley, Hutchinson, Lyons, Scannell, Shattuck, D. F. Sullivan, Taylor—12.
Nays—Coun, Carey, Chase, Coffey, Kelly, Linehan, Russo, M. H. Sullivan, Wickes—8.

SUMMER BUS SCHEDULE TO SOUTH BOSTON BEACHES.

Coun. GOTTLIEB offered the following:
Ordered, That the trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to arrange for a summer bus schedule from Morton street, at Blue Hill avenue, through Columbia road to the South Boston beaches, and return, at a fare of five cents.
Passed under suspension of the rule.

BUS LINE FROM BLUE HILL AVENUE TO BEACHES.

Coun. HUTCHINSON offered the following:
Ordered, That the trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to re-established a bus line starting at West Cottage street on Blue Hill avenue and running to the South Boston beaches, and return, at a five-cent fare each way.
Passed under suspension of the rule.

ACCEPTANCE OF SUNNYBROOK ROAD.

Coun. LYONS offered the following:
Ordered, That the Board of Street Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to accept and lay out Sunnybrook road, from Maple to Willow streets, Ward 20, as a public highway, under the W. P. A. plan of construction.
Passed under suspension of the rule.

REMOVAL OF ELEVATED TRACKS AND RESURFACING OF STREETS.

Coun. CHASE and D. F. SULLIVAN offered the following:
Ordered, That the Boston Elevated Railroad Trustees be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to arrange for the removal of the railway tracks and granite blocks on Massachusetts avenue, from Boylston street to Columbus avenue, and Columbus avenue to Northampton street, and Northampton street to Washington street, and replace the same by the construction of a smooth asphalt surface, said work to be done in conjunction with a city-sponsored W. P. A. project for the resurfacing of the above-mentioned streets.

Coun. CHASE and F. D. SULLIVAN offered the following:
Ordered, That the Public Works Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to arrange for a W. P. A. project for the resurfacing, with smooth asphalt surface, of Massachusetts avenue, from Boylston street to Columbus avenue, Columbus avenue to Northampton street, Northampton street to Washington street; said work to be performed by the Boston Elevated Railway Trustees in the removal of car tracks and granite blocks.
Severally passed under suspension of the rule.

BUS LINE, MASSACHUSETTS AVENUE STATION–DUDLEY STREET.

Coun. CHASE, HURLEY and D. F. SULLIVAN offered the following:

Passed under suspension of the rule.

EXTRA WEEK'S VACATION FOR CERTAIN EMPLOYEES.

Coun. D. F. SULLIVAN and HURLEY offered the following:
Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor instruct all department heads to grant an extra week's vacation to those persons who cannot take part in the special privileges given to other city employees during the summer season.
Passed under suspension of the rule.

HOUSING PROJECT, WARD 9.

Coun. D. F. SULLIVAN offered the following:
Ordered, That the Boston Housing Authority be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to consider the advisability of erecting a housing project on the site bounded by Roxbury, Tremont and Ruggles streets and Shawmut avenue, Ward 9.
Passed under suspension of the rule.

COST OF NECESSITIES OF LIFE.

Coun. CHASE and D. F. SULLIVAN offered the following:

Whereas, There has been a decided increase in the cost of necessities of life in Boston; and

Whereas, This unwarranted increase is working a disadvantage and hardship on the citizens of Boston; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Boston City Council, in regular meeting assembled, hereby registers its protest and respectfully urges his Excellency the Governor to order the Department of Necessaries of Life to investigate the unwarranted increase in costs of food, clothing, etc.; and be it further Ordered, That a copy of this resolution be sent to the Governor.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

TRAFFIC ISLANDS, WARD 9.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

SKELETON FORCE FOR HOSPITAL MAY 31.

Coun. HURLEY and D. F. SULLIVAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the trustees of the Boston City Hospital be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to extend to employees of the city hospitals the same privilege as employees of all other city departments and permit them to work on skeleton force on Saturday, May 31.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

Adjourned, on motion of Coun. SCANNELL, at 4.22 p. m., to meet on Monday, June 9, 1941, at 2 p. m.

CORRECTIONS.

In Coun. CHASE'S remarks in Council Minutes of May 12, 1941, on "Opposition to Proportional Representation," on page 194, second column, twenty-ninth line, the word "but" should read "that," so that two sentences should read:

"I feel that most of the members who voted yes on this question would not have voted that way but for the activities of certain people. With this in mind I cannot agree with them that their vote on the question was prompted as a result of deliberations which logically caused them to come to this conclusion."

Rules for Examinations.

All examinations shall be given in English.

Applicants for Class B or journeyman's certificate must be at least eighteen years of age and have had at least two years' practical experience or the equivalent in the installation of wires, conduits, apparatus, fixtures and other appliances for carrying or using electricity for light, heat or power purposes.

Applicants for Class A or master's certificate must be at least twenty-one years of age and have had at least two years' experience in the business of installing wires, conduits, apparatus, fixtures and other appliances for carrying or using electricity for light, heat or power purposes.

Examinations shall consist of applicant's knowledge of the National Electrical Code and practical electrical work.

All persons desiring to be examined, either for a master or journeyman certificate, shall have application on file at least ten days previous to the date of such examination.

Applicants for examination will be required to obtain at least 70 per cent in order to obtain a certificate.

Applicants who fail to obtain the required 70 per cent will not be entitled to re-examination until a period of three months has elapsed, and those who receive less than 50 per cent, or who fail on the practical demonstration, will not be re-examined for a period of six months.

Any person found referring to notes or books, or misbehaving during an examination, will be debarred from that examination.

Notice will be sent to applicants for certificates when and where examination will be held and only those so notified will be examined on that day.

PARKS.

Cincinnati has one of the most beautiful park systems in the United States and the public approval of these parks is indicated by the large attendance in all the parks throughout the year.

The total area now under the control of the Park Board is 4,270 acres. Of this, the Public Recreation Commission operates approximately 1,000 acres for supervised and directed play. Important additional acreage has been acquired by the City during the year, including approximately 22 acres purchased on the south side of Columbia Parkway, and 47 acres in College Hill presented as a gift for park purposes by a civic-minded citizen.—Cincinnati City Bulletin.

THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE OF THE CITY OF BOSTON.

ADMINISTRATION BUILDING, 15 BEACON STREET, OFFICE OF THE BUSINESS MANAGER, TENTH FLOOR.

PROPOSALS FOR FURNISHING FUEL OIL FOR BOSTON PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The School Committee of the City of Boston invites bids for furnishing fuel oil required for school buildings from June 16, 1941, to December 31, 1941, deliveries to be continued until June 15, 1942, provided appropriation is made therefor and the School Committee so orders. Proposal forms are obtainable at the office of the Business Manager of the School Committee, tenth floor, 15 Beacon street. Envelopes containing proposals must be sealed and plainly marked "Proposal for Furnishing Fuel Oil for Boston Public Schools." The bid must be in duplicate. One copy signed by the bidder and accompanied by a certified check for three hundred dollars ($300), payable to the City of Boston, must be left at the office of the Business Manager on or before 12 o'clock m. on Wednesday, June 18, 1941. Copies filed with the Business Manager will be publicly opened and read at 12 o'clock m. of the day stated. The other copy, also signed by the bidder, must be filed with the City Auditor, City Hall, Boston, Mass., previous to the time named for the opening of the bids. Fuel oil is to be delivered in the tanks of the several buildings and the price per barrel of heavy or medium oil and the price per gallon of light oil named in the proposal must include the delivery in said tanks in a manner satisfactory to the School Committee. The total estimated quantity of fuel oil required during the period June 16, 1941, to June 15, 1942, both dates included, is as follows:

49,800 barrels heavy fuel oil.
12,200 barrels medium fuel oil.
26,000 gallons light fuel oil.

The School Committee reserves the right to reject any or all bids and to accept such bid, or part of bid, as may be deemed best for the interests of the city. The successful bidder will be required to furnish a bond for not less than fifty (50) per cent of the amount of the contract.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

PROPOSALS FOR CLEANING CATCH-BASINS.

The Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston, office 508 City Hall Annex, invites proposals from citizens of the United States and corporations or other legal associations wherein the controlling interest to the extent of at least over one half thereof is owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States, for taking out and removing about 3,325 cubic yards of material from about 950 catch-basins in Districts 1, 2, 2A, 3, 4 and 7, all work to be completed by December 31, 1941, and giving bond therefor of a surety company approved by the Commissioner in the sum of 100 per cent of the total amount of the contract, to secure the due performance of the contract and the full protection of the city. Forms of proposals may be obtained at Room 508, City Hall Annex. Each proposal, accompanied by a statement clearly setting forth the equipment of which the bidder is possessed for the proper and speedy carrying out of such contract (such equipment to be considered as an essential consideration in the awarding of the contract), should be inclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked "Proposal for Cleaning Catch-Basins," and left at Room 508, fifth floor, City Hall Annex, before 12 m. on Friday, June 13, 1941, with a certified check for 5 per cent of the total amount of the contract, payable to and to become the property of the city if the proposal, after acceptance, is not carried out. The proposals will then and there be publicly opened and read. Proposals must be made in duplicate, the sealed duplicate, without check, to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the bids. There will be a charge of two dollars ($2) for each set of plans and specifications taken out. If the price bid on any district appears to the Commissioner to be abnormally high or low it may lead to the rejection of the proposal for said district. The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Law so called) to all persons to be employed under this contract and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required prior to the award of said contract. The undersigned reserves the right to reject any or all proposals or to accept any proposal should he deem it to be for the best interests of the city so to do.

Bid bonds will not be accepted. Said proposals will then and there be publicly opened and read. Proposals must be made in duplicate, one with cash, certified check or certificate of deposit to be left as above, the other without cash, certified check or certificate of deposit to be filed with the City Auditor, City Hall, Boston, before the time stated above for the opening of proposals.

NOTICE TO SUB-BIDDERS.

All sub-contractors bidding on the work designated in the proposal form shall deliver or mail to the awarding authority record copies of all bids sent by them to the General Contractor. All such bids shall be in sealed envelopes, plainly marked on the outside with the sub-contractor's name, the nature of the work bid upon and the name or names of bidders they include in their bids for any portion of the work, involving labor and materials. All such bids must be delivered to, or mailed to and received by the awarding authority, and mailed to and received by the General Contractor, no later than 12 noon, Monday, June 16, 1941.

No sub-bid shall be considered in the final selection of sub-bidders except those filed with the awarding authority.

Plans and specifications may be examined at the Superintendent's office, fourth floor, 26 Norman street, Boston.

Sub-bidders shall use the proposal form for sub-bidders set forth in chapter 480 of the Acts of 1939, copies of which may be obtained at local stationers or at the office of the awarding authority.

The names of all sub-bidders who file their bids with the awarding authority will be mailed by the awarding authority on the date of receipt to the general contractors bidding on the project and no sub-bidder not included on the list of sub-bidders shall be used by the General Contractor in his bid.

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which schedule is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained without cost upon application therefor at the office of the Superintendent of Construction, fourth floor, 26 Norman street, Boston. The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Law so called) to all persons to be employed under the contract and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required prior to the award of said contract.

Plans and specifications may be obtained at the office of the Superintendent of Construction, Department of School Buildings, fourth floor, 26 Norman street, Boston. All plans and specifications must be returned in good condition to said office at the time of the filing of bids.

A bond of a surety company, approved by the Superintendent of Contruction, in the full amount of the contract, to secure the due performance of the contract and the full protection of the city, will be required. The Superintendent of Construction reserves the right to reject any and all bids if it be in the public interest so to do. The Superintendent of Construction also reserves the right to reject all sub-bids on any item or items in accordance with the provisions of chapter 480 of the Acts of 1939.

JAMES J. MAHAR,
Superintendent of Construction,
Department of School Buildings.

BOSTON AS A TOWN.

From its foundation until 1755, or a period of 125 years, Boston was not only the most outstanding but the most populous town in the American colonies. In 1760, Philadelphia's population was ahead, viz., 18,756, Boston's then being 15,631 and New York's about 14,000. In the last year of town government, viz., 1821, Boston's population was about 45,000 and its public debt $100,000, all incurred for new county buildings.

The history of Boston as a town during a period of nearly two centuries surpasses in civic interest that of Boston as a city because of the untiring zeal and successful efforts of its townsmen to realize more of true democracy than had ever been attained before. Their obligations were held as sacred as their liberties.

CITY OF BOSTON.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

PROPOSALS FOR CONSTRUCTING NEW ARTIFICIAL SIDEWALKS, SETTING NEW EDGESTONE, AND LAYING A FOUR (4) INCH CONCRETE BASE IN THE FOLLOWING STREETS IN WEST ROXBURY: FAUNCE ROAD, WOODDALE STREET, CEDAR GROVE STREET, RITA ROAD, AND BURGOYNE STREET.

The Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston, office 508 City Hall Annex, invites proposals from citizens of the United States and corporations or other legal associations wherein the controlling interest to the extent of at least over one half thereof is owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States, for constructing new artificial sidewalks, setting new edgestone, and laying a four (4) inch concrete base in the following streets in West Roxbury: Faunce road, Wooddale street, Cedar Grove street, Rita road, and Burgoyne street, and giving bond therefor of a surety company approved by the Commissioner in the sum of 100 per cent of the contract to secure the due performance of the contract and the full protection of the city. Forms of proposals may be obtained at Room 508, City Hall Annex. Each proposal should be inclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked "Bid for Constructing New Artificial Sidewalks, Setting New Edgestone, and Laying a Four (4) Inch Concrete Base in the Following Streets in West Roxbury: Faunce Road, Wooddale Street, Cedar Grove Street, Rita Road, and Burgoyne Street," and left at Room 508, fifth floor, City Hall Annex, before 12 o'clock m., on Monday, June 16, 1941, with a certified check for fifteen hundred (1,500) dollars, payable to and to become the property of the city if the proposal after acceptance is not carried out. The proposals will then and there be publicly opened and read. Proposals must be made in duplicate, the sealed duplicate, without check, to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the bids. There will be a charge of two dollars ($2) for each set of plans and specifications taken out. If the price of any item appears to the Commissioner to be abnormally high or low, or the bidder neglects to bid on each and every item, it may lead to the rejection of the bid containing such price. The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which schedule is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained, without cost, upon application therefor at the office of the Commissioner of Public Works. The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Act so called) to all persons to be employed under this contract and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required prior to the award of said contract. The undersigned reserves the right to reject any or all proposals should he deem it to be for the best interest of the city so to do.

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

36,400 MOTOR DEATHS IN 1935.

According to the findings of the National Safety Council motor traffic deaths in 1935 totaled 36,400, compared with 1934's record of 36,000.

The only decrease was among school children up to fifteen years of age. Motor vehicle accidents to children have increased much less than those of adults since 1922, when safety education began on a national scale. October, November and December were the reddest months. Two-thirds of the accidents were in places under 10,000 population; more than 40 per cent of the victims pedestrians.

Thirteen states decreased traffic deaths 7 per cent or more: Delaware, Illinois, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Montana, North Dakota, Oregon, Rhode Island, Utah, Vermont, Wyoming and Washington.

THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE OF THE CITY OF BOSTON.

ADMINISTRATION BUILDING, 15 BEACON STREET, OFFICE OF THE BUSINESS MANAGER, TENTH FLOOR.

PROPOSALS FOR RUN OF MINE AND NUT AND SLACK SEMI-BITUMINOUS COAL FOR BOSTON PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The School Committee of the City of Boston invites bids for furnishing run of mine and nut and slack semi-bituminous coal required for the school buildings from June 16, 1941, to December 31, 1941, deliveries to be continued until June 15, 1942, provided appropriation is made therefor and the School Committee so orders. Proposal forms are obtainable at the office of the Business Manager of the School Committee, tenth floor, 15 Beacon street. Envelopes containing proposals must be sealed and plainly marked "Proposal for Furnishing Run of Mine and Nut and Slack Semi-Bituminous Coal for Boston Public Schools." The bid must be in duplicate. One copy signed by the bidder and accompanied by a certified check for fifty dollars ($50) for each district bid for, four hundred and fifty dollars ($450) for the whole nine districts, payable to the City of Boston, must be left at the office of the Business Manager on or before 12 o'clock m. on Wednesday, June 18, 1941. Copies filed with the Business Manager will be publicly opened and read at 12 o'clock m. of the day stated. The other copy, also signed by the bidder, must be filed with the City Auditor, City Hall, Boston, Mass., previous to the time named for the opening of the bids. The coal is to be delivered in the bins of the several buildings and the price per ton named in the proposal must include the delivery and housing in a manner satisfactory to the School Committee. The contractor must furnish suitable equipment and sufficient number of men to house the coal properly and promptly. The estimated tonnage required is as follows and as much of it as possible will be housed during July and August, 1941:

Semi-Bituminous Coal.

District.	Run of Mine.	Nut and Slack.
1. City Proper	4,700 tons	—
2. South Boston	1,700 tons	—
3. East Boston	2,300 tons	—
4. Roxbury	6,700 tons	—
5. Dorchester	5,800 tons	550 tons
6. Charlestown	1,300 tons	300 tons
7. Brighton	2,400 tons	—
8. West Roxbury	2,400 tons	—
9. Hyde Park	1,200 tons	—
Totals	28,500 tons	850 tons

Bidders may submit a proposal for furnishing the run of mine and nut and slack semi-bituminous coal required in any one or more of the above nine districts of the city and may also submit one bid covering the whole city. The School Committee reserves the right to reject any or all bids and to accept such bid, or part of bid, as may be deemed best for the interests of the city. The successful bidder will be required to furnish a bond for not less than fifty (50) per cent of the amount of the contract.

ALEXANDER M. SULLIVAN,
Business Manager of the School Committee.

CITY RECORD

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE OF BOSTON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

VOL. 33. SATURDAY, JUNE 14, 1941. NO. 24

BOSTON'S MUNICIPAL OBSERVANCE OF FLAG DAY HAS UNUSUAL SIGNIFICANCE TODAY — MAYOR TOBIN AND LEADING PUBLIC AND MILITARY OFFICIALS TO TAKE PART IN EXERCISES ON COMMON AFTER SHORT BUT COLORFUL PARADE BY MILITARY, NAVAL, HISTORIC, VETERAN AND CIVIC ORGANIZATIONS — MANY FLAGS OF HISTORIC INTEREST TO BE DISPLAYED IN LINE OF MARCH.

The City of Boston, with Mayor Tobin taking the leading part, has prepared an elaborate program for the observation of Flag Day, the principal exercises taking place in the afternoon and early evening of Saturday, June 14.

The event which takes place today is the ninth annual municipal observance of the adoption of the Stars and Stripes in 1777, and due to the condition of world affairs, as well as national, takes on special significance.

A small but colorful and historic street parade to start at Copley square at 7 p. m. and proceed to the Common by way of Boylston and Tremont streets, entering the Common at West street and proceeding to the parade ground

The parade review will take place at the foot of Monument Hill and will be reviewed by Mayor Tobin, representatives of the Army, Navy, Coast Guard and State Guard, and the Committee of Arrangements.

Starting at 7.30 p. m., a program of special exercises will be conducted from a temporary stand on the parade ground.

The concluding feature will be a ceremonial lowering of the Flag, conducted by a detachment from the United States Army Coast Artillery from Boston Harbor forts, at approximately sunset.

The Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements is John A. Scanga, from the Citizens' Public Celebrations Association, functioning in conjunction with City Director of Public Celebrations Louis J. Brems. The complete program for the event follows:

Street Parade.

Assemble at Copley square, 6.45 p. m. Start at 7 o'clock. Route.—From Dartmouth street, Boylston street, Tremont street, to West street entrance into Common, to Parade Ground. Historic Group — "Story of the Stars and Stripes" with flags of 300 years. Veterans of Previous Wars, with Colors: Grand Army of the Republic, United Spanish War Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Legion.

Third Division — Civilian Service. Marshal, Lieut. James J. Goode, U. S. A. Band, Boston Police Department, with colors. Boy Scouts — Jamaica Plain Troop. Theodore Roosevelt Detachment, Marine Corps League. North Sea Mine Force Association. Float — Boston Civilian Defense Unit. American Red Cross, Boston Metropolitan Chapter. Sons of Union Veterans. Boston High School Cadets, Hyde Park.

Historic Flags in the parade and on the Common: 1497, John Cabot Flag. 1620–1630, Flag of the Pilgrims and Puritans. 1775, Flag of Bunker Hill. 1775, Flag of Fort Moultrie. 1775, The Pine Tree Flag. 1776, Grand Union Flag. 1777, Betsy Ross Flag. 1812, Stars and Stripes of that period. 1861, Flag of the Civil War Northern Army. 1941, Old Glory of Today and Tomorrow.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"
From Boston Centennial Poem by
NATHAN HASKEL DOLE.

REPORT OF FREDERICK J. GILLIS, ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT, ON ATTENDANCE AT THE CONVENTION OF THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION FOR HEALTH, PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND RECREATION, AT ATLANTIC CITY, APRIL 28 TO MAY 3.

The following report of Frederick J. Gillis, Assistant Superintendent of Schools, on the convention of the American Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation, was presented to the School Committee:

The American Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation, a department of the National Education Association, held its forty-sixth annual convention at Atlantic City, New Jersey, April 30 to May 3, 1941. The national meeting was a joint conference with the Eastern District Society. In 1940, the Eastern District Society convened in Boston.

The convention theme was "National Preparedness Today and Tomorrow."

A pre-convention conference of the National Association of Directors of Physical Education for College Women was held April 26–28. The Society of State Directors of Health and Physical Education met Monday, April 28. A conference on Safety Education was held April 29.

April 28 and April 29 I spent in New York City visiting cafeterias in junior and senior high schools and the central kitchen for the preparation of hot lunches served free to about one hundred thousand children.

Seven hundred and eighteen schools participate in the child nutrition program. The program is financed by the Department of Public Welfare, and the W. P. A. Food that is purchased, supplies, trucks, oil and gas are paid for by the Department of Public Welfare. Surplus commodities, rent of the building occupied, the central kitchen, cooks, sandwich-makers, directors, dietitian and other help are supplied by the W. P. A. Eligibility of a child for participation in the hot lunch program is determined by the principal of the school and the Board of Education. The all-over cost per meal per child is about fourteen and one half cents. The city of New York allows five to six cents per child for food purchased. Sixty per cent of the expense is borne by the Federal Government and 40 per cent by the city. The city is reimbursed 40 per cent of its expenditure by the state of New York. Senior high school pupils do not participate, but if they are given lunch free from the school cafeteria, the cafeteria is reimbursed eight cents per meal plus an allowance of surplus commodities.

The menu on the day I was present consisted of sandwiches, made of whole wheat bread and cream cheese and pineapple filling, baked beans, milk and fruit. Dietary complications prevent the use of meat.

Mr. James A. Fahey, head supervisor of the project, his assistant, Mr. George J. McLaughlin, and the dietitian, Miss Alice M. Gertson, were very kind in showing the facilities of the building to me and they gave me the information contained above.

Cafeterias in the junior high schools are run by the Board of Education, using civil service personnel for servers. Senior high school cafeterias do not employ civil service help. When a senior high school cafeteria is to be organized, several dietitians are recommended by Miss Grace Helene Miller, Director of Cafeterias, New York Schools, to the head master. He selects one of the group recommended. The head master and the dietitian select the help. Each senior high cafeteria must be self-supporting. In the William Cullen Bryant and the Forest Hills High Schools, both new, and serving about four thousand children each day, the equipment was the very latest and best, menu varied, discipline of the students excellent. Old buildings with unsatisfactorily located cafeterias are relocating the cafeterias on the upper floors as opportunity offers. Miss Miller allowed me to inspect the blueprints for two new cafeterias to be located on the fourth floor of their buildings.

April 30 I attended the pre-convention conference on Safety Education. Pupil interest in safety should be stimulated in every classroom and extra curricular activity so that brain and muscle coordination may habitually be used to avoid accident and injuries. The prevention of athletic injuries was strongly stressed at the morning session. In the afternoon (April 30) a fine discussion was held on Safety Factors in Physical Education and Athletic Activities, and a demonstration of the various types of Visual Aids in Safety Education. This meeting was followed by a safety demonstration of the First Aid and Emergency Services of a typical Volunteer Ambulance Corps.

In the evening of April 30 the first general session was held. One of the honor awards was presented to Dr. Clare Turner of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge. The address of the evening was by Will Durant — "A Blueprint for Better America." Doctor Durant advocated (a) sterilization or segregation of the feeble-minded, (b) general birth control, (c) education in a hand trade for all, (d) profit sharing in industry, (e) government purchase and control of mineral, fuel and natural resources, (f) elimination of class war to save democracy, and (g) return of corporal punishment

May 1 was taken up with meetings on the Schwert Bill, H R 1074, international sports, recreation programs in camp and defense community, contemporary dance for men and women, and a demonstration of early American, Mexican and cowboy dances by the students of Cheyenne Mountain High School, Colorado Springs, Colorado This was quite the best thing of the whole convention, overshadowing the tennis demonstration by Miss Marble and Mr. Budge.

Discussion of "Recreation and Its Contribution to Total Defense" and "The Need for Recreation In and Around Cantonment Areas" clearly showed the problem of recreation for drafted soldiers as yet unsolved.

Practically all problems of health, from "Gelatin Feeding and Athletics" to the philosophy underlying the cult of Physical Fitness, were treated.

In Physical Education the range included "An Anthropometric Study of Masculinity and Femininity of Body Build," and "Exercise Following the Reconstructive Surgery of Arthritis."

In recreation discussions it was particularly stressed that school children should be taught the skills required to play games suitable for post-school life rather than be restricted to baseball, football, track and basketball.

May 2, discussion on "The Efforts of College Physical Education to Meet the Problems of Physical Fitness and National Defense" propounded these questions:

1. In terms of the new emphasis on physical fitness and national defense, are adjustments necessary today in college programs of physical education?
2. What administrative problems are involved in intensification of the program:
   a. Increased budget.
   b. Additional staff or increase in staff load.
   c. Facilities at present in maximum use.
   d. Additional time; adjustments of scheduled classes and laboratory periods.
   e. Objections from other department.
   f Student viewpoint and attitudes.
3. In what manner may our activity programs be intensified so as to more effectively insure such desirable outcomes as skill, strength, endurance, generally sound physical condition and student appreciation of these factors?
4. Because of the pressure of present needs, should safeguards be instituted in order to preserve the fundamental nature and basic objectives of physical education?
   a. If this is desirable, what should these safeguards be?

On the evening of May 2, a joint meeting of the Eastern Music Educators' Conference and the American Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation on Music and Dance was held.

I returned home the night of May 2.

FREDERICK J. GILLIS,
Assistant Superintendent.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 617.

On Friday, June 27, 1941, from noon until five o'clock p. m., at Fenway Park, a Field Day and entertainment is to be held for the benefit of the Special Fund, sponsored by his Honor Mayor Tobin.

Five thousand tickets have been allotted for distribution to members of the Police Department. It is urged that every member manifest his interest in this worthy cause by purchasing at least one ticket. By so doing the quota of tickets allotted will be disposed of, and members of this department will demonstrate to the Mayor, the Police Commissioner and to the public their sincerity and spirit of cooperation in helping to realize sufficient funds to lighten the heavy burden now on the Welfare Department, and will also help to make this Field Day a great success.

Tickets, priced at $1.00 each, are forwarded to the divisions and units listed in the schedule contained in a Superintendent's Order issued this date, and commanding officers shall be held responsible for the tickets sent.

Such officers as may be spared may be excused from duty on Friday, June 27, 1941, so that they may attend the Field Day and entertainment. Commanding officers will use due discretion in determining the number of officers who may be excused, and at what time they may be excused, so that the efficiency of the department will not be impaired.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

JOSEPH F. TIMILTY,
Police Commissioner.

General Order No. 618.

Commencing as of Monday, June 16, 1941, the duty of officers of this department in visiting, daily, theaters and moving picture houses to collect reports of special police officers, as to compliance with building laws, will be discontinued.

Commencing, also, as of Monday, June 16, 1941, Form No. 6 of this department, now used by special police officers in making such daily report, will be discontinued.

Supplanting the present arrangement of collection of daily reports of special police officers on theater and moving picture house inspection, and their transmission by station houses to Headquarters, is a program herewith presented, dated June 4, 1941, of James H. Mooney, Building Commissioner, City Hall Annex, Court square, Boston, setting forth that such special police officer's report, in amended form (see copy attached), shall be made monthly, directly to the Building Commissioner.

A copy of the bulletin of the building Commissioner to members of the Egress Division personnel of his department, as well as a copy of the new form of monthly report of the Building Department to be used by special police officers on and after Monday, June 16, 1941, are sent to police divisions for delivery to theaters and moving picture houses within their respective divisional lines.

Note.

By this order is meant:

(1) That Sunday, June 15, 1941, is the last day on which daily reports under discussion of special police officers of theaters and moving picture houses shall be collected by officers of this department, to be forwarded by stations to Headquarters.

(2) That commencing as of Monday, June 16, 1941, such reporting shall be done directly, each month, to the Building Commissioner.

(3) That this department shall give such aid as may be required to building inspectors in the performance of their inspectional duty.

After June 15, 1941, division commanders will forward for disposition to the Projerty Clerk's stockrooms, 229 Milk street, supplies on hand remaining of Form No. 6, "Theatre and Moving Picture House Report."

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

JOSEPH F. TIMILTY,
Police Commissioner.

General Order No. 619.

The following transfers are hereby ordered to take effect on Wednesday, June 11, 1941, at 7.45 o'clock a. m.:

Patrolman Herman C. Blake, from Traffic to Division 16.

Patrolman Orris E. Bennett, from Division 16 to Traffic.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

JOSEPH F. TIMILTY,
Police Commissioner.

DAMAGES AWARDED.

The Mayor has approved the following order of the Board of Street Commissioners:

Voted, That the order of the Street Commissioners and Mayor of July 22, 1939, determining that no person sustains damages by the making of the public improvement, consisting of the laying out of Garner road, formerly Gustine street, be, and the same hereby is, amended, by striking out in the first and second lines of said order the words: "that no person sustains in his estate," and by striking out in the last line of said order the word: "no." That said order be further amended by adding thereto Guy S. Day, $700. That the amount $700 be, and the same hereby is, awarded to Guy S. Day for the damages sustained by the making of the said improvement.

Voted, That the order of the Street Commissioners and Mayor of January 27, 1939, determining that no person sustains damages by the making of the public improvement, consisting of the laying out of Belton street, be, and the same hereby is, amended, by striking out in the first and second lines of said order the words: "that no person sustains in his estate," and by striking out in the last line of said order the word: "no." That said order be further amended by adding thereto Harrison N. Fitzpatrick, $67. That the amount $67 be, and the same hereby is, awarded to Harrison N. Fitzpatrick for the damages sustained by the making of the said improvement.

Voted, That the order of the Street Commissioners and Mayor of July 22, 1939, as amended May 26, 1941, determining damages caused by the making of the public improvement consisting of the laying out of Garner road, formerly Gustine street, be, and the same hereby is, amended, by adding to said order the amount $275 as an award to Susie B. Hyland. That the amount $275 be, and the same hereby is, awarded to Susie B. Hyland for the damages so sustained.

OVERTIME ALLOWED.

The heads of the various departments whose employees have received payment for overtime state in connection therewith that if any laborer has been allowed to work more than eight hours per day it has been only in case of emergency under the law.

Park Department.

Approval has been given for overtime payment to the following employed on emergency tree work on Saturday and Sunday nights, May 24 and 25:

CONTRACTS AWARDED.

Permission to award contracts for work, materials and supplies, in accordance with recommendations of department heads, has been approved by the Mayor.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

Upon June 9 the Mayor approved a contract with low bidders as indicated in the accompanying communication:

BOSTON, June 6, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Attached please find list of bids on proposals for furnishing automobiles and trucks to the various city departments, which were publicly opened and read at this office under date of May 19, 1941.

A copy of these bids was sent to the Public Works Commissioner for recommendation and comment. In conjunction with his reports, I would respectfully request that permission be granted me to award contracts to the lowest bidders as indicated, with the following exceptions.

I would request the rejection of all bids for Item 11, one new 1941 Chevrolet, or equal, business coupe for the Health Department, as all the bids submitted were for Ford cars, and it is my intention to secure prices for a Chevrolet car at a future date. Regarding Item 13, calling for twenty-two new 1941 Fordor Special sedans, the Commissioner of Public Works has asked that we eliminate two of these cars assigned to the Bridge Service, owing to the fact that he is unable to purchase these two cars due to budget limitations. Concerning Item 14, calling for two new 1941 Standard or DeLuxe Buicks, or equal, I would request the rejection of all bids on this item, as I have been informed by the Public Works Commissioner that he has adopted a policy of not purchasing any car for a division engineer, the delivered price, exclusive of trade-in values, of which is in excess of $900. The totals of the various contracts are as follows:

Bowers Motor Sales Company $21,262.44; Lalime & Partridge, Inc.' $14,561.60; International Harvester Com' pany, $7,559.40; Cote Motor Company $6,925.70; Warren G. Fraser, $2,708.39'

Respectfully yours,

CHARLES E. THORNTON,
Acting Superintendent of Supplies.

* Contract awarded.

WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

Upon varying dates as indicated the Mayor approved contracts with firms and contractors, etc., for supplies, etc. Communications from the heads of departments interested were as follows:

HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT (Sanatorium Division).

BOSTON, April 10, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—After inviting several contractors to submit a bid for the purchase and collection of garbage at the Sanatorium, only one bid was received, that of Walter Griffin, in the amount of $35 per month, from April 1, 1941, to December 31, 1941.

Subject to your approval, it was voted by the Board of Trustees, at their meeting held March 28, 1941, to award this contract to Walter Griffin.

Your approval is respectfully requested to award this contract to Walter Griffin.

Very truly yours,

CARL DREYFUS,
President, Boston City Hospital Trustees.

PARK DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, May 23, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—By vote of the Board of Park Commissioners your approval is respectfully requested to authorize the Board to award, without advertising, a contract to the Boston Elevated Railway for furnishing not more than nine buses each day for the transportation of approximately 250 children each day on Randidge Trust Fund Excursions to and from Castle Island, South Boston, for five days each week, from Tuesday, July 1, through Friday, August 29, for the sum of $10 for each bus each day and $10.50 for each bus for each day when the Sumner Traffic Tunnel is used.

If a bus reports to a starting point and, due to inclement weather, the outing is not held, a charge of $2.50 is to be made for each bus to cover the cost of the operation and the cost of the driver.

Requests for bids for these outings were made to the following: Boston Elevated Railway, New England Greyhound Lines, Inc., the Gray Line, and Rawding Lines, Inc.

All of the above companies, excepting the Boston Elevated Railway, replied in writing declining the invitation to bid.

This expense is to be charged to the Contingent Fund, Transportation of Children, and the total charge is not to exceed the sum of $4,500.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, May 20, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Under date of May 5, 1941, bids were publicly opened and read in this office for furnishing granite curbing for delivery to the Park Department. The only bid was received from the H. E. Fletcher Company, as per the attached schedule.

Subsequent to the opening of the bid, I had received a communication from the H. E. Fletcher Company, copy of which I am inclosing, in which they reduced their prices from those shown on the publicly opened bid.

In view of this reduction, I would respectfully ask that permission be granted me to award a contract to the H. E. Fletcher Company, West Chelmsford, Mass., without further advertising, as the prices shown in the supplementary letter are the lowest that we have been able to receive from any source. The following is the summary of the award:

2,918 linear feet straight curbing at 85 cents per linear foot, $2,480.30; 84 linear feet straight curbing at 85 cents per linear foot, $71.40; 41.1 linear feet circle curbing at 90 cents per linear foot, $36.99; 17.1 linear feet circle curbing at 90 cents per linear foot, $15.39; 6 only 2½-foot radius curb corners at $3.90 each, $23.40. Total, $2,627.48.

The above prices are subject to a 2 per cent cash discount for payment in ten days.

Respectfully yours,

CHARLES E. THORNTON,
Acting Superintendent of Supplies.

The Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston, office 508 City Hall Annex, invites proposals from citizens of the United States and corporations or other legal associations wherein the controlling interest to the extent of at least over one half thereof is owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States, for constructing new artificial sidewalks, setting new edgestone, and laying a four (4) inch concrete base in the following streets in Dorchester: Faunce road, Wooddale street, Cedar Grove street, Rita road, and Burgoyne street, and giving bond therefor of a surety company approved by the Commissioner in the sum of 100 per cent of the contract to secure the due performance of the contract and the full protection of the city. Forms of proposals may be obtained at Room 508, City Hall Annex. Each proposal should be inclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked "Bid for Constructing New Artificial Sidewalks, Setting New Edgestone, and Laying a Four (4) Inch Concrete Base in the Following Streets in Dorchester: Faunce Road, Wooddale Street, Cedar Grove Street, Rita Road, and Burgoyne Street," and left at Room 508, fifth floor, City Hall Annex, before 12 o'clock m., on Monday, June 16, 1941, with a certified check for fifteen hundred (1,500) dollars, payable to and to become the property of the city if the proposal after acceptance is not carried out. The proposals will then and there be publicly opened and read. Proposals must be made in duplicate, the sealed duplicate, without check, to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the bids. There will be a charge of two dollars ($2) for each set of plans and specifications taken out. If the price of any item appears to the Commissioner to be abnormally high or low, or the bidder neglects to bid on each and every item, it may lead to the rejection of the bid containing such price. The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which schedule is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained, without cost, upon application therefor at the office of the Commissioner of Public Works. The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Act so called) to all persons to be employed under this contract and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required prior to the award of said contract. The undersigned reserves the right to reject any or all proposals should he deem it to be for the best interest of the city so to do.

CITY RECORD

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE OF BOSTON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

VOL. 33. SATURDAY, JUNE 21, 1941. NO. 25

BOSTON'S TAX RATE FOR 1941 FIXED AT $39.60 — MAYOR TOBIN, BY ECONOMIES EFFECTED, IS ENABLED TO PRESENT TO CITIZENS A RATE FOR THIS YEAR ONE DOLLAR LESS THAN IN 1940, AND TESTIFIES TO THE SUCCESS OF THE CONSTRUCTIVE POLICIES BEING PURSUED BY THE PRESENT ADMINISTRATION — PROPERTY TAX IS LOWEST LEVIED SINCE 1929, DESPITE THE FACT THAT FEDERAL LEVIES ARE CLIMBING AND VALUATIONS HAVE SHRUNK AND ABATEMENTS THAT HAVE BEEN IN VOGUE BY THE APPELLATE TAX BOARD — MAYOR COMMENDED BY TAX COMMISSIONER LONG.

On June 14 Mayor Tobin announced the 1941 tax rate with the following statement:

The tax rate for 1941 is $39.60. This represents a reduction of $1.00 from the rate of the previous year. At a time when Federal taxes are climbing rapidly, this reduction in the Boston rate should be tangible evidence to the home owners and business firms in the city of constructive policies of administration.

The total property tax to be levied this year on the owners of real and personal property is $57,847,000. This is about $2,370,000 less than in 1940 and it is the lowest property tax to be levied by the city since 1929. In other words, the tax burden on property in this city this year is less than in any previous year since the depression began. I doubt that many governmental units can point to such a record.

It should be noted also that the 1941 total levy on real and personal property represents a reduction in excess of $9,000,000 from the levy of 1932, which was the highest levy in the city's history.

While I wish that more substantial tax relief could be afforded — and if the authority of the Mayor were broadened, I believe it could have been — I am certain that the relief reflected in this year's property tax and tax rate is a welcomed reversal of the upward trend of past years.

This reduction is not the result of chance. It represents hard work and cooperative effort. It reflects the fruits of many of the financial policies which were instituted when I took office and which, if continued, may well result in further reductions.

Reduced Valuations.

The assessed valuations determined by the Board of Assessors, and used in fixing the 1941 rate, total $1,460,782,900, a reduction of $22,451,600 from the 1940 valuations. This is the lowest valuation total since 1911. Further, this is the eleventh consecutive year of reductions in valuation. The total reduction since the peak in 1930 has been over $500,000,000.

The valuations as determined this year are, in my opinion, sound and do not warrant such generous abatements which the Appellate Tax Board has seen fit to give on the valuations of previous years. In fact, it is a matter of surprise to me that the Board, with respect to Boston valuations, should be making decisions which fail to show a realization of the substantial improvement in downtown business conditions.

There are several features of this year's tax rate which the citizens of Boston should know. The city has found it necessary again to borrow on ten-year bonds for part of its Welfare costs and as a result the rate is two dollars lower than if the city had not borrowed. But the $3,430,000 which is being borrowed is the lowest since the policy of borrowing for this purpose commenced in 1933.

I am hopeful that this reduction not only marks the beginning of a tapering off in these loans, but the early discontinuance of this practice. However, the city this year is on better than a pay-as-you-go policy, because the debt to be retired is greater than the debt to be contracted.

Exclusive of Welfare requirements, appropriations for maintenance of city and school departments in this year's levy are about $1,800,000 less than in 1937.

Accompanying this reduction in maintenance costs there has been a reduction during the same period of over $15,000,000 in the outstanding debt obligations of the city. There is every probability that at the end of the current year a further reduction of $4,000,000 or more will be made,— thus making a total debt reduction of close to $20,000,000 achieved under the policies of the present administration. I am very proud of this record, because in my opinion the credit of the city depends in no small degree upon a conservative debt policy and it has been particularly important, with a declining valuation, to reduce the city's debt. With such uncertain times ahead, a sound municipal credit standing is absolutely essential.

Elevated Deficit.

It has been necessary to include in the tax levy Boston's share of the deficit in the operation of the Boston Elevated Railway. This amount was certified to Boston and other cities and towns that are in the Transit District by the Commissioner of Corporations and Taxation as one of the state assessments to be raised this year. Under the state law the city must comply with that mandate. I am, however, setting this amount aside on the books of the city as a reserve, and it will not be paid to the state until every legal means have been exhausted to prevent the imposition of this deficit upon the taxpayers. If, as I confidently expect, it develops that my efforts in cooperation with the Finance Commission and other municipalities are successful in eliminating this deficit, this reserve will be returned to the taxpayer in the form of a credit in the next tax levy.

BOSTON'S TAX RATE FOR 1941.

After twenty years of complaint and no action, I have taken the initiative, in cooperation with the Finance Commission, to get at the facts in regard to Elevated finances, and as a result a strong case has been made out to show that the levying of this deficit is unwarranted. The matter is now pending before higher state officials and the courts. I intend to press vigorously for a decision favorable to the city, but, pending that decision, we must comply with existing provisions of the law.

I am especially gratified that the financial improvements during the four years of my administration, as reflected particularly in this year's tax reduction and the decline in the city's debt, have been brought about without any impairment in the essential services of the city.

There have been no salary reductions and Welfare clients have received liberal allowances. I have worked hard to obtain Boston's fair share of Federal and State Funds and a large measure of success has resulted. The taxpayer has been benefited thereby in a lower rate and all our citizens have benefited through continuation and even enlargement of services which otherwise would have been impossible.

I think it no exaggeration to state that the financial standing and credit rating of our city are better today than at any time in the past ten years.

I wish to express my appreciation and the thanks of the city for the cooperation which state officials and the Legislature gave to the city in the form of favorable legislation and decisions affecting the financial relationships of the state and the city. Several elements in the tax rate depend upon state authority. My financial officials and I have spared no efforts to represent Boston's interests in these matters and I am pleased to say that we have received fair treatment from the state agencies.

Following is a table indicating in comparative form the various elements entering into the determination of the tax rate for 1940 and 1941:

COMMENDED BY TAX COMMISSIONER LONG.

The following is a copy of a telegram received by the Board of Assessors:

BOSTON, June 14, 1941.

BOARD OF ASSESSORS.

As Commissioner of Corporations and Taxation I hereby approve all of the figures used in determining the 1941 Boston Tax Rate. All procedures and amounts being in complete compliance with the law you are hereby notified that as Commissioner of Corporations and Taxation I approve $39.60 as the 1941 Boston Tax Rate. Please let me congratulate you upon this splendid result. $39.60 as a tax rate in view of all the difficult circumstances compares favorably with every 1941 tax rate so far established. It is a real achievement and a real pleasure for me to approve $39.60 as the 1941 Boston Tax Rate.

HENRY F. LONG,
Commissioner of Corporations and Taxation.

EXTENSION OF CONTRACT.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

The Mayor has approved the following request of the Commissioner of Public Works:

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Under date of August 6, 1940, the City of Boston entered into a contract with the Haller Engineering Associates, Inc., for testing services including supervision and inspection of sheet asphalt and bituminous concrete pavement materials for this department up to December 31, 1940. Included in this contract is the following article:

"Article 8. The City of Boston may, with the approval of his Honor the Mayor, extend the term of this contract to any date up to and including December 31, 1941, upon written notice to that effect given to the Contractor by the Commissioner."

I request your approval to extend the term of this contract, as provided for in the above article, to December 31, 1941.

Yours truly,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 620.

By authority conferred upon the Police Commissioner by law, Patrolman Daniel J. Guilfoyle of Division 17, charged with conduct unbecoming an officer and neglect of duty, was dismissed from the Police Department, effective as of June 6, 1941, at 7.45 o'clock a. m.

Written notice of such dismissal, with the reasons therefor, was specifically given in hand on June 6, 1941, to the said Daniel J. Guilfoyle.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

JOSEPH F. TIMILTY,
Police Commissioner.

General Order No. 621.

Sergt. Marcus E. Madden and Patrolmen John M. Decker and William J. Donovan, all attached to Division 4, are commended for efficient police duty performed in connection with the arrest and conviction of three colored men, who were engaged in an altercation with two white men, in the South End, on the early morning of January 19, 1941, during which one of the white men received a stab wound of the heart which resulted in his death.

The commissioner is pleased to recognize and commend these officers for their untiring efforts and devotion to duty shown in performing this splendid police duty.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

JOSEPH F. TIMILTY,
Police Commissioner.

General Order No. 622.

The following transfers are hereby ordered to take effect Saturday, June 14, 1941, at 7.45 o'clock a. m.:

Patrolman Henry Doherty, from Division 1 to Division 19.

Patrolman John F. J. Maloney, from Division 13 to Division 1.

Patrolman Frederick C. Hoy, from Traffic to Division 13.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

JOSEPH F. TIMILTY,
Police Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT CHANGES.

The following changes in the number, rating and compensation of the city employees have been made during the week ending Thursday, June 19:

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Approval has been given for the appointment of the following temporary assistant drawtenders at $1,700 a year, for a period of twenty weeks from June 9, to fill vacancies caused by vacations in the Bridge Service:

James H. Wallace, 99 Howard avenue, Dorchester; James T. Healy, 26 Eden street, Charlestown; John L. Walsh, 11 Nonquit street, Dorchester; Walter T. Abbott, 739 Boylston street, Boston; Joseph J. Powers, 49 King street, Dorchester; Edward A. Smith, 37 Whitten street, Dorchester; Joseph P. Cannata, 24 Gavin Way, South Boston.

36,400 MOTOR DEATHS IN 1935.

According to the findings of the National Safety Council motor traffic deaths in 1935 totaled 36,400, compared with 1934's record of 36,000.

The only decrease was among school children up to fifteen years of age. Motor vehicle accidents to children have increased much less than those of adults since 1922, when safety education began on a national scale. October, November and December were the reddest months. Two-thirds of the accidents were in places under 10,000 population; more than 40 per cent of the victims pedestrians.

Thirteen states decreased traffic deaths 7 per cent or more: Delaware, Illinois, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Montana, North Dakota, Oregon, Rhode Island, Utah, Vermont, Wyoming and Washington.

BOSTON AS A TOWN.

From its foundation until 1755, or a period of 125 years, Boston was not only the most outstanding but the most populous town in the American colonies. In 1760, Philadelphia's population was ahead, viz., 18,756, Boston's then being 15,631 and New York's about 14,000. In the last year of town government, viz., 1821, Boston's population was about 45,000 and its public debt $100,000, all incurred for new county buildings.

The history of Boston as a town during a period of nearly two centuries surpasses in civic interest that of Boston as a city because of the untiring zeal and successful efforts of its townsmen to realize more of true democracy than had ever been attained before. Their obligations were held as sacred as their liberties.

POPULATION OF NEW ENGLAND, 1930.

Total population, 8,166,341 (4,024,657 males and 4,141,684 females); total white, 8,065,113 (3,972,465 males and 4,092,648 females); total native white, 6,230,803 (3,067,723 males and 3,163,080 females); native white of native parentage, 3,167,082 (1,572,885 males and 1,594,197 females); Negro, 94,086 (46,963 males and 1,568,883 females); foreign-born white 1,834,310 (904,742 males and 929,568 females); native white of foreign or mixed parentage, 3,063,721 (1,494,838 males and 47,123 females); Indian, 2,466 (1,273 males and 1,193 females); Chinese, 3,794 (3,233 males and 561 females); Japanese, 352 (277 males and 75 females); Mexican, 107 (69 males and 38 females); all other races, 423 (377 males and 46 females).

PARKS.

Cincinnati has one of the most beautiful park systems in the United States and the public approval of these parks is indicated by the large attendance in all the parks throughout the year.

The total area now under the control of the Park Board is 4,270 acres. Of this, the Public Recreation Commission operates approximately 1,000 acres for supervised and directed play. Important additional acreage has been acquired by the City during the year, including approximately 22 acres purchased on the south side of Columbia Parkway, and 47 acres in College Hill presented as a gift for park purposes by a civic-minded citizen.—Cincinnati City Bulletin.

MAYOR TOBIN PRAISES SPIRIT OF HEROES OF BUNKER HILL BATTLE—CALLS ATTENTION TO FACT COLONISTS WERE NOT WAGING WAR OF AGGRESSION, BUT WERE BATTLING IN DEFENSE OF THEIR LAND AND IDEALS, AND CALLS FOR NATIONAL UNITY TODAY FOR DEFENSE OF LAND WHICH WE OF THIS DAY INHERIT FROM THOSE OLD FOREFATHERS—URGES AMERICANS NOT TO BE INTIMIDATED BY ANY SHOW OF MIGHT THAT MAY BE DISPLAYED—ALSO WARNS AGAINST FEELING OF FALSE SECURITY.

The following, in part, is Mayor Tobin's address at Bunker Hill "night before" Banquet, June 16:

One hundred and sixty-six years ago tonight a band of patriots who had gathered from the farms and the villages of the colonies were engaged in fortifying a hill within a stone's throw of where we are. They were undisciplined and poorly equipped, yet they were preparing to give battle to a numerically superior force of the best soldiers the Old World could produce.

There followed one of the first battles of the Revolution. Its principal results were that it gave the raw Colonial troops the knowledge that they could stand against the foe and it taught the other side the fallacy of the belief that they were faced by a rabble of cowardly farmers. Both these lessons had much to do with the result of the war for independence.

The battle of Charlestown was one of the incidents that paved the way for a great decision that was to be written into the Declaration of Independence. That decision had long been made. It was the choice of men who would acknowledge no right of government except by their consent. That choice was challenged by the power of force and folly which had blindly set itself against the progress of the world except as it wished the pattern to be woven.

Parallels Drawn.

To my mind, there is a great parallel between that situation and the one of today. An analysis of the Battle of Bunker Hill, and of the events that led to it, further emphasize that statement.

The Colonists had not been the aggressors at Concord or at Lexington. They had acted only upon the defensive. They struck a blow to ward off a blow.

The heights of Charlestown were fortified for no other purpose than defense; to confine the enemy within the narrow limits of Boston itself and to prevent further hostile incursions. But a despotic and tyrannical leader, General Gage, failed to heed the warning or to count the cost, and he did not realize that the men who opposed him — men who entered that battle with only two flints, a gill of powder and fifteen musket balls each — were armed with a weapon that his well-drilled soldiers did not possess. It was the knowledge that theirs was a righteous cause.

The parallel can be carried further. The British had planned to seize and fortify the heights of Charlestown and Dorchester on June 18. When, on the morning of the 17th, they found that the Colonists were ahead of them, there was still time for justice to have ensured peace. Instead, the arrogant leader struck and precipitated the war. For a time the force he represented won most of the battles, but in the end, right triumphed.

It is not difficult to define the spirit that urged those courageous Colonial soldiers on; that caused the patriot, James Otis, to elude those who had him in charge during the period of his mental ailment and to make his way from Andover to fight at Bunker Hill; or that motivated Colonel Gardner, mortally wounded, to order his nineteen-year-old son, who wept beside him, to return to the battle line.

True Americanism.

It was what we have come to know as true Americanism. Those brave men lacked about everything necessary for fighting, including food and water. In their cases, desperation took the place of discipline. But they learned that day what they might do in the confidence that Almighty God was on their side and that their cause was good.

There is still more to the parallel. The Revolution was brought on by the desire of the Crown, in that case the aggressor, to secure more income by taxing the Colonies. The result was that instead of receiving the additional tax money, the Mother Country had to spend huge sums to maintain an army and a fleet here and to wage a long and losing war.

The freedom that Bunker Hill helped to give us is now being challenged, which is further indication of the great mistake entailed in the idea that a fight for a great cause will never have to be made again.

At this point in our national affairs, and in the months that stretch ahead, there are a number of things that must be borne in mind. We must not be lulled into false security through ease and forgetfulness. We must be imbued with honesty of purpose and of action; we must always bear in mind the need of courage and sacrifice to meet the opposition ever present.

As Americans we must never be intimidated by any show of might. Had the men who stood behind those rude earthworks 166 years ago borne in mind only the fact that the best troops of Europe were advancing against them, they never could have made the valiant stand they did. All they remembered was what they were fighting for, and theirs was the spirit that carried their country to greatness. There was no weakness in those men.

The paramount issue is national unity. That is not a product of regimentation or compulsion. It comes from the spirit of men, tempered by good will. It leaves men free to differ in fundamental convictions and to go their separate ways as custom or conviction may prompt, but unites them voluntarily to serve the common good, and, as citizens of one country, to stand together for the defense of its ideals.

If hatred, or class conflict, or mutual distrust among religious groups are allowed a place among us, we cannot contribute to the pacification of the world; we have no message of healing for a world at war. Facing realistically the facts of the world in which we find ourselves, we must create a society such as we would like the world to be, where in freedom we can find efficiency and in diversity a deeper unity.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 27.

I. EDWARD J. MURPHY.

It is with deep regret that the Fire Commissioner announces the death, on June 3, 1941, of Hoseman Edward J. Murphy of Engine Company 15. Hoseman Murphy was appointed to the department on May 1, 1918.

The funeral was held from his late residence, 159 D street, South Boston, at 8.30 a. m., Friday, June 6, 1941, followed by services at St. Augustine's Church, Dorchester street, at 9 a. m.

The Chief of Department detailed members of Military Drill Companies 1 and 2 to act as a funeral escort and the members of Engine Company 15 were excused from duty in order to attend the services.

II. NEW FIRE ALARM BOX.

A new fire alarm box, No. 12-2495, has been installed at Louder's Lane School, end of Louder's lane, Jamaica Plain. The box has been connected into Circuit No. 42 and assignments will be the same as for Box 2495.

Company commanders will insert the location of the new box on the assignment card for Box 2495.

III. FIRE ALARM BOX, NAVY DRY DOCK, SOUTH BOSTON.

Box 7129, the location of which is now given on assignment cards as Metropolitan Coal Pier, Eastern Steamship Company, foot of Harbor street, should be changed to read as follows: South Boston Dry Dock, Harbor street.

Box 7129 has been moved from the pier at the foot of Harbor street approximately 600 feet towards Summer street and is attached to a pole.

A new fire alarm box, numbered 12-7129, has been installed on a pole near the Northern avenue gate of the dry dock. The location of this box should read as follows: 12-7129, South Boston Dry Dock, Northern avenue gate.

TRANSIT DEPARTMENT.

Upon June 4 the Mayor approved a contract as stated in the following communication:

BOSTON, May 22, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—In response to invitations duly advertised, the following bid for wrought-iron fence for Vehicular Underpass in Huntington avenue at Massachusetts avenue was publicly opened and read at a meeting of this Board held today: Progressive Iron Works, Inc., $10,167.

Your approval of the award of this contract to Progressive Iron Works, Inc., the only bidder, is respectfully requested.

Respectfully yours,

T. F. SULLIVAN, Chairman.

Upon June 12 the Mayor approved a contract with H. E. Fletcher Company for furnishing granite edgestone, Huntington Avenue Subway. Bid, opened May 29, was as follows: H. E. Fletcher Company, $4,913.70.

Upon June 12 the Mayor approved a contract with the Metropolitan Paving Brick Company for furnishing vitrified paving brick, Huntington Avenue Underpass. Bids, opened on June 5, were as follows:

Upon June 16 the Mayor approved a contract with Samuel J. Tomasello Corporation for furnishing Class I bituminous concrete paving mixture for Huntington Avenue Subway. Bids, opened May 29, were as follows:

Trimount Bituminous Products Company, $11,808; Samuel J. Tomasello Corporation, $11,376.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

Upon varying dates as indicated the Mayor approved contracts with contractors, supply houses, etc., for supplies and labor, etc. Communications from the heads of the several departments interested were as follows:

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, May 28, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Under date of July 11, 1940, your Honor approved a contract with the Everett Fuel Company, the lowest bidder, for furnishing commercial kerosene to the various city departments for a period terminating on May 31, 1941.

In view of the unsettled conditions at the present time in the petroleum industry, I would respectfully ask permission to award a new contract, without advertising, by amending the present contract so that the terms of the contract will be extended until December 31, 1941, at the same terms and conditions in the original contract, namely, the posted tank wagon price per gallon at the time of delivery less .5 cent per gallon, less 1 per cent cash discount for payment in ten days.

In my opinion, advertising at this time would not result in lower prices being submitted than the one stated herein.

The approximate amount of the gallonage will be 35,000 gallons.

Respectfully yours,

CHARLES E. THORNTON,
Acting Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, June 11, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Under date of June 9, 1941, bids were publicly opened for furnishing fifty-five hundred pounds of sheet copper to the Boston City Hospital, Thorndike Building. No bids were received, although nine companies were notified that the City of Boston was in the market for this material.

Subsequent to this public opening, we asked quotations through the medium of quotation sheets and we received the following prices: Whitehead Metal Products Company, Inc., $1,361.41; Brown-Wales Company, $1,420.60.

These prices were for immediate delivery from stock, subject to acceptance at once, and also subject to prior sale.

In view of the fact that no bids were received on a public advertisement, I would respectfully recommend that a contract be awarded to the Whitehead Metal Products Company, Inc., the lowest bidder, without further advertising, at the above price.

Respectfully yours,

CHARLES E. THORNTON,
Acting Superintendent of Supplies.

LAND-TAKING IN EAST BOSTON.

The Mayor has approved the order of the Board of Street Commissioners for the taking of land for a public improvement, consisting of the discontinuance of Border street, East Boston district, as a highway, from Sumner street to Maverick street; the discontinuance of Liverpool street, East Boston district, as a highway, from Sumner street to Maverick street; the discontinuance of London street, East Boston district, as a highway, from Sumner street to Maverick street, bounded and described as follows:

Border Street.

The highway named Border street is hereby discontinued, from Sumner street to Maverick street. Said highway as hereby discontinued is bounded:

Southwesterly by Sumner street, fifty feet; northwesterly by the northwesterly line of said Border street as hereby discontinued, four hundred and fifty feet; northeasterly by Maverick street, fifty feet; and southeasterly by the southeasterly line of said Border street as hereby discontinued, four hundred and fifty feet.

Liverpool Street.

The highway named Liverpool street is hereby discontinued, from Sumner street to Maverick street. Said highway as hereby discontinued is bounded:

Southwesterly by Sumner street, fifty feet; northwesterly by the northwesterly line of said Liverpool street as hereby discontinued, four hundred and fifty feet; northeasterly by Maverick street, fifty feet; and southeasterly by the southeasterly line of said Liverpool street as hereby discontinued, four hundred and fifty feet.

London Street.

The highway named London street is hereby discontinued, from Sumner street to Maverick street. Said highway as hereby discontinued is bounded:

Southwesterly by Sumner street, fifty feet; northwesterly by the northwesterly line of said London street, as hereby discontinued, four hundred and fifty feet; northeasterly by Maverick street, fifty feet; and southeasterly by the southeasterly line of said London street as hereby discontinued, four hundred and fifty feet.

Voted, That this Board determines that no person sustains damages in his estate by the making of the public improvement, consisting of the discontinuance of the following streets in the East Boston district: Border street, Liverpool street and London street, from Sumner street to Maverick street, under the order of the Board of June 9, 1941, and awards no damages therefor.

FLAG IN FLOWERS IN PUBLIC GARDEN.

The Old Glory which has been constructed out of living plants in the Public Garden is ready for public view.

It required 14,500 plants to complete this design. The size of the bed in which the flag is made is 15½ by 15 feet; the flag itself is 9 by 10 feet in diameter; the pole 14 feet long and tapering from one foot at the base to six inches at the top. The inscription at the base of the flag reads, "Long May It Wave."

The bed is located between the George Washington Monument and the Ether Fountain, near the main entrance on Arlington street.

LAND-TAKING IN DORCHESTER.

The Mayor has approved the order of the Board of Street Commissioners for the taking of land for a public improvement, consisting of the laying out and construction of Ainsley street, Dorchester district, as a highway, from Westglow street northerly, with the name of Auriga street, or some other distinctive name, bounded and described as follows:

A highway named Auriga street is hereby laid out, from Westglow street northerly for a distance of approximately four hundred and thirty-five feet, and ordered constructed.

For the making of the aforesaid improvement an easement for street purposes is hereby taken in the following described land, exclusive of trees or structures standing upon or affixed thereto:

A parcel of land, supposed to belong to Francis J. Townsend and Katherine L. Townsend, bounded:

Easterly by Ainsley street, fourteen and 98-100 feet; southerly by land hereinafter described as taken from Truscello et al., 86-100 feet; and westerly by the westerly line of Auriga street, as established under this order, fourteen and 91-100 feet, containing six square feet, more or less.

A parcel of land, supposed to belong to Louis Truscello two thirds and Sebastino Bertolami one third, bounded:

Northerly by land hereinbefore described as taken from Townsend et al., 86-100 feet; easterly by Ainsley street, forty-one and 56-100 feet; southerly by land hereinafter describd as taken from McKenney et al., three and 23-100 feet; and westerly by the westerly line of Auriga street, as established under this order, forty-one and 40-100 feet, containing eighty-five square feet, more or less.

A parcel of land, supposed to belong to John B. M. McKenney and Dorothy G. McKenney, bounded:

Northerly by land hereinbefore described as taken from Truscello et al., three and 23-100 feet; easterly by Ainsley street, forty-one and 57-100 feet; southerly by land hereinafter described as taken from Truscello et al., five and 60-100 feet; and westerly by the westerly line of Auriga street, as established under this order, forty-one and 41-100 feet, containing one hundred eighty-three square feet, more or less.

A parcel of land, supposed to belong to Louis Truscello two thirds and Sebastino Bertolami one third, bounded:

Northerly by land hereinbefore described as taken from McKenney, five and 60-100 feet; easterly by Ainsley street, forty-one and 57-100 feet; southerly by land hereinafter described as taken from Truscello, seven and 97-100 feet; and westerly by the westerly line of Auriga street, as established under this order, forty-one and 41-100 feet, containing two hundred eighty-one square feet, more or less.

A parcel of land, supposed to belong to Josephine Genevese Truscello, bounded:

Northerly by land hereinbefore described as taken from Truscello et al., seven and 97-100 feet; easterly by Ainsley street, forty-one and 57-10 feet; southerly by the same, ten and 34-100 feet; and westerly by the westerly line of Auriga street, as established under this order, forty-one and 41-100 feet, containing three hundred seventy-nine square feet, more or less.

Trees or structures standing upon or affixed to the aforedescribed land shall be removed therefrom within sixty days following a notice of the city's intention to enter upon said land for the purpose of constructing said improvement.

Said highway as hereby laid out is bounded:

Southerly by Westglow street, thirty-seven and 2-100 feet; westerly by the westerly line of said Auriga street, as hereby laid out, eighty and 5-100 feet; southerly by the southerly line of said Auriga street, as hereby laid out, three feet; again westerly by the westerly line of said Auriga street, as hereby laid out, three hundred fifty-five and 6-100 feet; northerly by the northerly line of said Auriga street, as hereby laid out, forty and 8-100 feet; and easterly by the easterly line of said Auriga street, as hereby laid out, four hundred thirty-four and 46-100 feet.

Betterments are to be assessed for the making of the aforesaid improvement.

CONSTRUCTION WORK.

The Mayor has approved the request of the Public Works Department for the following construction work:

A surface drain of 18-inch pipe, W. P. A. project, in private land (Glenhaven road brook), between Centre street (opposite Glenhaven road) and 85 feet easterly, in the West Roxbury district, at an estimated cost of $2,300.

A surface drain of 12-inch pipe (to be built in same trench with release sewer) in Edna road, between Granite avenue and 320 feet westerly, in the Dorchester district, at an estimated cost of $543.38.

A surface drain of 12-inch pipe (to be built in same trench with release sewer) in Wingate road, between Neponset Valley Parkway and 312 feet northeasterly, in the Hyde Park district, at an estimated cost of $430.67.

BUILDING RAZED.

The Mayor has approved the request of the Building Department to raze the following structure as a fire menace or nuisance:

Approval has been given to vacate forthwith the building at 324 Commonwealth avenue, Ward 5, used as a home for crippled children in violation of the provisions of the Boston Building Law, and not provided with sufficient means of egress in case of fire.

TRAFFIC COMMISSION RULINGS.

Voted, That as urgently required by considerations of public safety and convenience, during the period of underground construction by the Boston Edison Company, vehicles are excluded from the following street, on Sunday, June 8, 1941, from 7 a. m. to midnight.

Winter Street, Downtown Boston.
From Tremont street to Washington street.

REPORT OF JOSEPH McKENNEY, ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION, ON ATTENDANCE AT THE ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION FOR HEALTH, PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND RECREATION, IN ATLANTIC CITY, APRIL 28 TO MAY 3.

The following report has been presented to the School Committee:

BOSTON, May 27, 1941.

MR. ARTHUR L. GOULD, Superintendent,
Boston School Department.

DEAR MR. GOULD,—The following is a report of the annual convention of the American Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation. The convention was held in Atlantic City, April 28 to May 3, inclusive.

Because of the emergency existing at the present time the theme of the 1941 convention was "National Preparedness, Today and Tomorrow." Many sectional meetings were devoted to the place of Health, Physical Education and Recreation in our defense program, and the Schwert Bill, H. R. 1076. Briefly, the Schwert Bill requests Congress to appropriate millions of dollars for health, physical education and recreation. The states are to match a percentage of the appropriation with state funds. It is similar to a P. W. A. grant. Personally, I feel the Schwert Bill will not be passed by Congress, although the delegates at the convention were most optimistic.

Boston's leadership in education is not appreciated until one attends an educational convention and listens to educators from other sections of the country expound their progressiveness in education. The Superintendent of the Chicago Public Schools was cheered by the delegates when he announced that Chicago was now giving diploma credit for physical education. This is something Boston has been doing for years.

Charles Forsythe of Michigan gave a very interesting lecture on "Safety Factors in Physical Education and Athletic Activities." His recommended program has been in force in Boston for many years, i. e., a physician in attendance at all athletic contests, medical examination before competition, bandaging of ankles in contact games, three weeks of training before competition, etc.

In a survey of all cities of the United States it was discovered that only four per cent of the children of elementary school age leave the city during the summer vacation period. It was interesting to know that we have the opportunity to cater to 96 per cent of our children during the summer playground season.

I am deeply interested in an insurance program for injuries received during participation in athletics. I have discussed many tentative programs with our Advisory Committee of Head Masters. Twenty-six states now have an athletic insurance program. Michigan and Wisconsin have conducted successful programs since 1930. New York has a similar program at the present time. I am making a study of these programs and will forward a definite recommendation to you on this matter before the close of the school year.

The administrative directors were deeply concerned with the criticism aimed at them because of the poor physical fitness of the draft selectees. A survey made by this group showed that 80 per cent of the unfit selectees were turned down because of medical and not physical reasons, i. e., bad teeth, eyes, ears, feet, pituitary, undernourished, etc. None of these could be corrected by any program of Physical Education.

I am quite sure that we will be asked to serve as hosts when the National Society holds their next eastern meeting in 1945, as many delegates expressed the desire to return to Boston in the very near future.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH MCKENNEY,
Associate Director of Physical Education.

TO SELL BEVERAGES.

The Mayor has approved the following request of the Park Commissioners:

BOSTON, May 22, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—The Board of Park Commissioners respectfully requests your approval to issue a permit to Harry J. Woolfson, 39 Ridgewood street, Dorchester, to sell tonic and ice cream in Franklin Field during 1941.

Mr. Woolfson has agreed to pay the City of Boston the sum of $50 for this permit.

Very respectfully yours,

WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

A NEW POSITIVE WATER-METER TESTER.

The large majority of waterworks, particularly the smaller ones, seldom have accurate or positive means of testing their meters. Often when a meter is repaired, the man making the repairs simply blows through the meter to see if it runs, when it is again put into service with the assumption that it is accurate. Sometimes meters are hooked up in series with a new meter and water is run through to see if the readings check. This is better than the lung-power method, but still is far from accurate or dependable, in that the test meter may be in error by 2 per cent or even more. Several states have regulations governing water utilities, both municipal and private, and require a positive method of testing water meters in every meter shop.—American City Magazine.

THE NOISE NUISANCE.

That city officials are serious about eliminating noise is noted from studies of new anti-noise ordinances enacted by a growing number of municipalities listed in the "United States Municipal News," bulletin of the American Municipal Association and the United States Conference of Mayors. Among the more important of these cities are Philadelphia, Gary, Ind., Louisville, New York and Boston.

FIVE PER CENT OF CITY BUDGET PAID FOR REFUSE DISPOSAL.

Nearly one million dollars, or about 5 per cent of the total cost of the general city government of Los Angeles, Cal., is spent every year for the collection and disposal of refuse, under the direction of the Bureau of Engineering of that city. The Refuse Collection Division operates six days a week, and enough men are provided to compensate for a five-day week for all the personnel employed.

UNITED STATES GROSS DEBT.

November 30, 1932, total gross debt of the United States was $20,806,013,836, of which $20,476,034,190 was interest-bearing. This is a reduction of $6,120,667,458 from the peak of $26,596,701,648 on August 31, 1919. The gross debt on June 30, 1931, was $16,801,281,492.

OWNED AND RENTED HOMES IN UNITED STATES, NEW ENGLAND AND MASSACHUSETTS, 1930—ALSO BOSTON.

"RELIEF" DECLINING.

Two-thirds of the nation's relief expenditures in recent years has been centered in ten industrial states, the "Year Book's" section on Financing Relief and Recovery points out. Half the Federal Work Relief Funds and two-thirds of all available funds have been expended in the fifty largest cities, including about 25 per cent of the population. Industrial urban population is more vulnerable to unemployment. In addition, living costs are higher, requiring greater relief allotments, and the cost of giving employment to a city group is higher than in rural areas.

STATUS OF MUNICIPAL EMPLOYEES CALLED TO DEFENSE.

A steadily increasing number of cities and states are amending their personnel policies to protect the status of their employees called to defense training, the Civil Service Assembly of the United States and Canada reports.

The state of Michigan and eight cities —Columbus, Ohio; Detroit, Flint, Michigan; Evanston, Illinois; Los Angeles; St. Petersburg; Akron and Seattle— are among those that most recently have adopted measures affecting regular employees called for training, persons eligible for jobs, and substitutes for regular employees. All grant leaves to employees called, but only Evanston provides for supplementary pay. Employees with at least three months' service with Evanston get leave and, for the first three months of training, they receive the difference between military and city pay, the difference not to exceed $150 a month. Various rights, benefits and privileges—such as promotion, retirement, vacation and sick leave—are protected by the rulings of Detroit, Evanston, Akron, St. Petersburg and Seattle.—American City Magazine.

CITIES AND NATION PAY MOST OF AIRPORT COSTS.

The civil aeronautics authority has reported that on January 1, 1939, there had been expended upwards of $330,000,000 on existing civil airports and landing fields. Of this amount, about $140,000,000, or 42 per cent of the total, represented Federal funds; in excess of $100,000,000, or 31 per cent, represented the funds of municipalities; while private and commercial concerns had expended 24 per cent, or slightly less than $80,000,000; and the states had contributed only $6,500,000, or 1.8 per cent of the total.

New York City alone has expended practically three times as much money out of its own treasury on one airport than all the forty-eight states combined. Several other cities, including San Francisco, Cleveland, and Newark, have each and individually expended nearly as much on their own airports as all the forty-eight states combined.—American City Magazine.

BOSTON'S LIABILITY FOR METROPOLITAN DEBT, 1937.

Boston's liability for this contingent debt of the State (i. e., in the form of annual assessments for sinking funds and interest) incurred for Metropolitan parks, sewers, water, etc., was $28,559,995 (net) on July 1, 1937, or $1,283,454 more than in 1936 and $6,473,404 more than in 1927. It is divided thus: Water debt, $25,314,274; Park debt, $904,738; Sewer debt, $1,639,878; Charles River Basin debt, $701,105. The percentages paid by Boston in 1937 were 63.4515 on Water Debt; 48.6623 on most of the Park Debt; 36.25 on most of the Sewer debt, and on Charles River Basin debt the same as on Park debt.

Metropolitan assessments paid by Boston in 1937 amounted to $4,752,277.22, of which 64.23 per cent was for debt requirements and 35.77 for maintenance. Water assessment, $3,282,201 (usually paid from water revenue); park, $786,974; sewer, $470.545; Charles River Basin, etc., $212,557.

TENNIS COURTS, ROBERTS FIELD.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 9, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the chairman of the Park Department relative to your order of May 12, 1941, concerning placing the tennis courts on Roberts Field, Ward 17, in proper condition.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Park Department, May 27, 1941.

William T. Doyle,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir,—I have your memorandum of May 20, with inclosure, order from the City Council to place the tennis courts on Roberts Field in proper condition.

Investigation made by me of these courts on Sunday, May 25, showed the courts to be in fairly good condition. They are clay courts, are smooth and have been lined. They will receive a good rolling after the first wet spell. If it is possible, these courts will be built of asphalt in the near future.

Very truly yours,
WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

NOTARY IN LOCAL WELFARE OFFICE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 9, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the secretary of the Public Welfare Department relative to your order of May 5, 1941, concerning the advisability of having one clerk in each local welfare office serve as a notary, said expenses involved to be paid by the Welfare Department.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Overseers of the Public Welfare,
May 26, 1941.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,
Mayor of Boston.

Attention of Mr. William T. Doyle.

Dear Sir,—This department has received your communication with inclosed copy of an order from the City Council, dated May 5, 1941, reading as follows:

"Ordered, That the Director of Public Welfare, through his Honor the Mayor, be requested to consider the advisability of having one clerk in each local welfare office serve as a notary, said expenses involved to be paid by the Welfare Department."

I feel certain that in this matter each district is being covered adequately and in event of any untoward increased demand for W. P. A. certifications we shall be only too glad to extend the services we already have in the matter of notaries.

Very truly yours,
WILLIAM G. O'HARE, Secretary.

Placed on file.

PAYMENT OF CITY EMPLOYEES IN ADVANCE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 9, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the Acting City Treasurer relative to your order of May 26, 1941, concerning the advisability of instructing the City Treasurer to provide for the payment of two weeks' pay in advance to all city employees prior to their going on annual vacation.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Treasury Department, June 3, 1941.

Mr. William T. Doyle,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir,—In answer to your request of May 29, in my opinion there is no provision in the law which will permit the payment of salaries in advance of the current pay roll period.

Very truly yours,
W. W. FOLEY,
Acting City Treasurer.

Placed on file.

TRAFFIC SIGNALS, WARD 15.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 9, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the commissioner of the Boston Traffic Commission relative to your order of May 26, 1941, concerning the installation of automatic traffic signals at the following locations in Ward 15:

Hendry and Bowdoin streets, Columbia road and Quincy street, Savin Hill and Dorchester avenues, junction of Dorchester avenue, East, Freeport and Hancock streets.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Traffic Commission, June 6, 1941.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—This is in reply to Council order dated May 26, 1941, which reads as follows:

"Ordered, That the Traffic Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to install automatic traffic signals at the following locations in Ward 15:

"Hendry and Bowdoin streets, Columbia road and Quincy street, Savin Hill and Dorchester avenues, junction of Dorchester avenue, East, Freeport and Hancock streets."

At the present time there are no funds available for the installation of traffic signals. We have recommended that the intersections of Columbia road and Quincy street and Savin Hill avenue and Dorchester avenue be signalized when funds are procured.

Respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. HICKEY, Commissioner.

Placed on file.

HEALTH PRECAUTIONS, PLAYGROUNDS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 9, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the chairman of the Park Department relative to your order of May 26, 1941, concerning providing first aid kits for all playgrounds and also to take all precautions possible to prevent the spread of athlete's foot and related diseases in park bath houses.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Park Department, June 4, 1941.

William T. Doyle,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir,—I have your memorandum of May 29, with inclosure, order from the City Council that the Park Commissioner be requested to provide first aid kits for all playgrounds and also to take all precautions possible to prevent the spread of athlete's foot and related diseases in park bath houses.

After a number of years of experience I have very little faith in foot baths.

In order to properly use a foot bath, a bather should just have the solution around his feet, without touching the bottom of the pan. Our floors are supposed to be cleaned nightly with live steam. They are washed daily with a strong solution of disinfectant. Sun is the greatest disinfectant for athlete's foot. If the sun penetrates to any great extent into the shower rooms, there will be very little, if any, athlete's foot.

I regret to inform you that washing the feet in chlorine solution or, in fact, any other solution, will have no measurable effect on athlete's foot, which is really a fungus.

According to the best known medical dermatologist (one of them) in the city, there are at least forty different kinds of this fungus. Up to the present time there has been no perceptible ringworm disease in any of our bath houses.

Regarding the first aid kits, all houses under our supervision are supplied with bandages, iodine, adhesive tape and spirits of ammonia, which are the things commonly used in a simple first aid treatment.

Very truly yours,
WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

ELEVATED SERVICE TO CEMETERIES, MAY 30.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 9, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the President and General Manager of the Boston Elevated Railway relative to your order of May 26, 1941, concerning arranging for additional street car and bus service to and from all cemeteries in the City of Boston on Memorial Day, May 30.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

SALE OF OBSOLETE X-RAY FILMS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 9, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the trustees of the Boston City Hospital relative to the sale of obsolete X-ray films and recommend the passage of the accompanying order.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Hospital Department, May 23, 1941.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—There is an accumulation at this hospital of approximately 3,082 pounds of obsolete X-ray films.

As these films are no longer required by the hospital, the trustees are desirous of disposing of them.

I therefore respectfully request that your Honor submit the inclosed order to the City Council for consideration and passage by that Honorable Body.

Respectfully yours,
CARL DREYFUS,
President, Board of Trustees.

Ordered, That the trustees of the Boston City Hospital be, and hereby are, authorized to sell approximately 3,082 pounds of obsolete X-ray films not required by the Hospital Department, after inviting bids therefor by advertisement in the City Record.

Referred to Executive Committee.

GIFT OF PORTABLE TRAILER PUMP.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 9, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—The American Mutual Liability Insurance Company, through its president, Mr. Charles E. Hodges, Jr., has offered as a gift to the City of Boston a Maxim portable trailer pump. This pump can be used to great effectiveness in the protection of homes and property.

The generosity of the donor of this pump deserves the commendation of the citizens of Boston, and is, to my mind, an example of high civic interest. I respectfully request the approval of the attached order by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

Ordered, That the City of Boston hereby accepts the gift of the American Mutual Liability Insurance Company of one Maxim portable trailer pump, and that said pump is hereby placed in the care, custody and control of the Fire Department of the City of Boston.

Referred to Executive Committee.

PAYMENTS BY ELEVATED ON SUBWAY RENTALS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 9, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith an explanatory communication from the chairman of the Transit Commission and a copy of chapter 140 of the Acts of 1941 changing the date of the annual rental payments for the use of the Boylston Street Subway by the Boston Elevated Railway Company.

I recommend the passage of the accompanying order accepting the act.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Transit Department, May 28, 1941.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir, — This department is in receipt of notice from the Secretary of the Commonwealth that chapter 140 of the Acts of the year 1941, entitled, "An Act providing for modification of the terms and conditions under which the Boston Elevated Railway Company is using certain alterations in and extensions to the Boylston Street Subway and making certain changes relative to payments in connection with such use", was approved by his Excellency the Governor on March 25, 1941.

In view of the change in the Boston tax rate year from April first to January first it became necessary to move forward the annual date of rental payment by the Boston Elevated Railway Company to the twenty-fifth day of April in each year to and including the year 1941 and to the twenty-fifth day of January in each year thereafter.

The acceptance of this act, chapter 140 of the Acts of 1941, constitutes an agreement on the part of the City and the Boston Elevated Railway Company to execute a contract modifying, in accordance with the provisions of this act, the existing contract between the City and the Company for the use by the company of the alterations in and extensions to the Boylston Street Subway.

The first requirement of the act relating to its effectiveness provides for its acceptance both by vote of the City Council and by approval of your Honor and by the filing of a certificate of such acceptance and approval with the State Secretary during the current year.

The department respectfully forwards herewith a photostatic copy of the act.

Respectfully yours,
T. F. SULLIVAN, Chairman.

Ordered, That chapter one hundred and forty of the Acts of the year nineteen hundred and forty-one, "An Act Providing for Modification of the Terms and Conditions Under Which the Boston Elevated Railway Company is Using Certain Alterations in and Extensions to the Boylston Street Subway and Making Certain Changes Relative to Payments in Connection With Such Use", be, and is hereby, accepted.

Referred to Executive Committee.

ABANDONMENT OF EASEMENTS, WEST ROXBURY.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 9, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am in receipt of communication from the Commissioner of Public Works in which he states that certain easements in Wilbert road and private land between Canterbury and Harvard streets, West Roxbury, taken by the Board of Street Commissioners in 1917 and in 1926 for sewerage purposes, are no longer needed for public purposes. It is the recommendation of the Commissioner of Public Works that these easements be abandoned.

In order that these parcels of land may be free of any unnecessary easements no longer needed by the City of Boston for public purposes I subscribe to the recommendation of the Commissioner of Public Works and request the approval of the accompanying order by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
May 22, 1941.

To the Mayor.

In accordance with the provisions of chapter 40, section 15, of the General Laws, I inclose herewith notice to the City Council that an easement in Wilbert road and private land between Canterbury and Harvard streets, West Roxbury, taken by the Board of Street Commissioners for sewerage purposes and approved by the Mayor February 15, 1917, and now in my charge, is, in my opinion, no longer required for public purposes. This easement is shown on plan K-1254, on file in the Sewer Division, and I recommend that it be abandoned, and I submit herewith an order to the City Council requesting the abandonment of this easement.

Canterbury street has been changed to American Legion Highway.

Respectfully,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

EXPENSES RE VALUATION OF AIRPORT PROPERTY.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 9, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,— I am in receipt of the attached communication from the Special Commission appointed under the provisions of chapter 8 of the Resolves of 1941, to value certain items of property at the Airport in East Boston in which the request is made that the City share on an equal basis with the Commonwealth in a bill incurred by the commission for accountants' services. In view of the interest of the city in the report of the commission, I feel that the request contained in the attached letter should be honored. I accordingly submit herewith an appropriation order to meet the city's share of the expenditure involved.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

Ordered, That the sum of $450 be, and the same is hereby, appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Mayor, for the meeting of the city's share of expenses incurred by the Special Commission appointed to value certain items of property located at the Airport at East Boston, said sum to be charged to the Contingent Fund.

Referred to Executive Committee.

APPROPRIATION FOR BUREAU OF AMERICANIZATION.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 9, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,— The Bureau of Americanization which commenced its activities last year under my direction, has practically exhausted the funds provided by your Honorable Body.

In my opinion this Bureau has done worthwhile work during its short period of existence, and I am of the belief that to discontinue this Bureau at this time would be a grave mistake, in that its activities are extremely beneficial in many ways during this period of national emergency.

The attached report of the Bureau provides an interesting outline of the activities of the Bureau, and justifies a further appropriation to continue its necessary work. I am informed that an appropriation of $8,500 will be sufficient to carry on the Bureau for another period of twelve months from July 2, 1941, and I, therefore, submit herewith to your Honorable Body an order for transfer of this sum of money from the Contingent Fund to the Bureau of Americanization, and respectfully request its passage.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

Bureau of Americanization,
Mayor's Office,
Boston, Mass.

June 6, 1941.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—Attached is a detailed report of the activities of this Bureau from June, 1940, to June, 1941.

This Bureau was created in June, 1940, by yourself with funds provided by the City Council. At the present time these funds are running out. If it is your intention to continue the activities of this Bureau, and I recommend that you do, it will be necessary to provide additional funds.

To extend the activities of this Bureau for another twelve months' period would require an estimated appropriation of $8,000.

Respectfully yours,
FRANK FLANAGAN,
Director.

The Bureau is located in Room 108, Annex Building. Its personnel consists of a Director, Assistant Director and Clerk-Stenographer.

Below is a table of forms filled, filed and pending, which was only part of the work covered by the Bureau.

Declarations (first papers)	660
Petitions (second papers)	896
Repatriation (former citizens)	67
Derivative	34
Lost papers	8
Re-entry	2
Registry	12
	1,679
Number of inquiries in regard to citizenship, exclusive of applications	1,654
Field visits (Mr. Flanagan)	53
Field visits (Mr. Walsh)	78
Number on welfare	203
Letters written in reference to applications,	456
Applications pending	157

There has existed a cooperative spirit with the Welfare Department, several meetings of groups were addressed and over two hundred applicants were welfare recipients. Most of the Bureau's efforts were, and are, directed to this type of case, and progress, while limited by statute waiting periods, is very encouraging from a moral and economic view.

There was added during the latter part of 1940, to the Government regulations concerning aliens, the Alien Registration Act (Fingerprinting Law). Many persons, residents of Boston, were made familiar with the laws and urged to comply by a series of meetings, sponsored by you and attended by Commissioner Reilly and representatives of this Bureau, in all parts of the city. These meetings, over twenty, were highly commended by the Government departments concerned and all of the so-called foreign language societies, who helped by participation in them.

Added use of existing school facilities were made by sending applicants who were in need of instructions in primary subjects bearing on their obtaining citizenship.

The members of the City Council were extended every assistance, both personally and to their constituents. Arrangements were made for many cases to have "Crews" visit the home of sick or infirm persons to be fingerprinted at the request of councilors.

On May 18 the Bureau conducted the exercises in observance of "I Am An American Day" at the Hatch Shell, Esplanade. They were attended by over 20,000 people and provided a means by which new citizens, native-born and naturalized, were afforded an opportunity to express their appreciation for the benefits which Citizenship of the United States afforded them.

The meeting was addressed by your Honor, representatives of the Governor, U. S. Senator David I. Walsh and representatives of the Department of Justice. Over forty patriotic and veteran societies participated. The event was covered in the press in detail and the Bureau has been the recipient of many complimentary expressions from participants and onlookers upon its carrying out of the program.

Appreciation for aid and cooperation throughout the year is extended to:

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin, Mayor.
Members of the Boston City Council.
Immigration and Naturalization Division, Department of Justice.
American Legion.
Veterans of Foreign Wars.
National Youth Administration.
Works Progress Administration.

SALE OF LAND TO BOSTON HOUSING AUTHORITY.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 2, 1941.

To the Honorable the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I present herewith an order for the sale of a certain parcel of land, together with the building thereon, to the Boston Housing Authority for the sum of $15,000.

This parcel of land, containing approximately 3,281 square feet of land, is situated on the southwesterly side of East Dedham street and the building thereon is the former site of old Police Station 5.

The Superintendent of Public Buildings informs me that this property is no longer needed for public purposes.

The Boston Housing Authority desires to use this property in the development of a housing project.

I am of the opinion that a sale of this property at the price of $15,000 should be made to the Boston Housing Authority without public auction.

I recommend passage of the accompanying order by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Law Department, June 2, 1941.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—I am in receipt of a letter from Leo F. Power, Superintendent of Public Buildings of the City of Boston, dated May 28, 1941, relative to a sale to the Boston Housing Authority of the property situated on East Dedham street, known as old Police Station 5, in the South End district, wherein Superintendent Power states:

"This property is under the control of this department and is of no further use for city departments.

"The Boston Housing Authority offered us a price of $15,000, which I believe to be fair and acceptable."

An examination conducted by this office discloses that:

1. This parcel of land contains approximately 3,281 square feet.
2. This parcel of land was purchased by the City of Boston in 1857 for the sum of $3,372.
3. The deed of conveyance to the City of Boston of this parcel of land is recorded with Suffolk Deeds, Book 714, page 98.
4. The assessed valuation of this parcel of land is as follows: Land, $5,000; building, $10,000. Total, $15,000.

I inclose herewith an order to be introduced in, together with a letter of transmittal to the City Council, if the same meets with your Honor's approval, authorizing the sale and conveyance of the said parcel of land to the Boston Housing Authority for the sum of $15,000.

Very truly yours,
ROBERT CUTLER,
Corporation Counsel.

Whereas, The City of Boston is the owner of a certain parcel of land containing approximately 3,281 square feet, together with the building thereon, situated on the southwesterly side of East Dedham street in the South End district of the City of Boston. This parcel of land, hereinafter described, was acquired by the City of Boston by purchase in 1857 and the building thereon is the site of old Police Station 5. The deed of conveyance is recorded with Suffolk Deeds, Book 714, page 98; and

Whereas, This parcel of land, together with the building thereon, is no longer needed for public purposes; and

Whereas, The Boston Housing Authority is desirous of acquiring this parcel of land, together with the building thereon, for the development of a housing project; now, therefore, it is hereby

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor of the City of Boston be, and he hereby is, authorized to sell, without public auction, at a minimum price of $15,000, to the Boston Housing Authority, all the City of Boston's right, title and interest in and to this parcel of land, together with the building thereon, and to execute and deliver a deed thereof, satisfactory in form to the Law Department of the City of Boston. This parcel of land is bounded and described as follows:

Northeasterly by East Dedham street, forty-eight and 8–100 (48.08) feet; southeasterly by land of the Boston Housing Authority, sixty-nine (69) feet; southwesterly by other land of the Boston Housing Authority, forty-six and 74–100 (46.74) feet; northwesterly by other land of the Boston Housing Authority, three (3) feet; southwesterly by other land of the Boston Housing Authority 31–100 (.31) feet; northwesterly by other land of the Boston Housing Authority, said boundary being in part through the center of a brick wall, sixty-six (66) feet, containing 3,281 square feet of land, more or less.

The above described parcel of land is shown on a plan marked "City of Boston, East Dedham Street, Boston Proper, May 28, 1941, William J. Sullivan, Chief Engineer, Street Laying-Out Department", on file in the office of the Street Laying-Out Department, City Hall, Boston, Mass.

Referred to Executive Committee.

SEWERAGE APPROPRIATION.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 9, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am in receipt of the attached communication from the Commissioner of Public Works, recommending that a loan appropriation of $500,000 be authorized for further extensions and improvements in the sewerage system of the city. In the budget adopted by your Honorable Body earlier in the year provision was made for an appropriation from taxes for this purpose as required under the provisions of section 5 of chapter 224 of the Acts of 1936. The appropriation requested by the Commissioner of Public Works is necessary, since the funds provided for this type of work under the last authorization made three years ago have been exhausted. I respectfully recommend immediate consideration and adoption of the accompanying order.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
June 9, 1941.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,— Under the provisions of chapter 178 of the Acts of 1930 the City Council, by an affirmative vote of two thirds of the members, may appropriate, to be met by the issue of bonds, such sums as shall be recommended by the Commissioner of Public Works, with the approval of the Mayor, for the construction of sewerage works.

Under the provisions of section 5 of chapter 224 of the Acts of 1936, cities are authorized to issue loans for purposes such as the above-referenced, if, as in the case of Boston, 10 cents on each $1,000 of the assessed valuation for the preceding year has been appropriated from available revenue funds. During the current year the amount of $148,323.45, which represents the above-referenced 10 cents on each $1,000 of assessed valuation, has been appropriated in connection with the anticipated authorization by the City Council to the issuance of bonds for sewerage works.

The last sewerage works appropriation authorized by the City Council was in the amount of $450,000, and was passed on April 11, 1938. This loan has been expended in its entirety and it is necessary, therefore, in order to provide an appropriation for the continuation of the program for the extension and improvement of the sewerage system of the city, that an order be introduced in the City Council authorizing an issue of bonds to be expended for sewerage works.

I recommend, therefore, that an order be introduced in the City Council, for adoption by that Body, authorizing an issue of bonds in the amount of $500,000 for sewerage works.

Respectfully yours,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Ordered, That under the provisions of section one of chapter one hundred and seventy-eight of the Acts of nineteen hundred and thirty, and section five of chapter two hundred and twenty-four of the Acts of nineteen hundred and thirty-six, the sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) be, and the same is hereby, appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Commissioner of Public Works, for the construction of sewerage works, and that the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, upon request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount.

Referred to Committee on Finance.

APPROPRIATION FOR STREET CONSTRUCTION AND PAVING.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 9, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am in receipt of the attached communication from the Commissioner of Public Works in which it is requested that a loan authorization of $500,000 be made for the construction of public ways or permanent pavement.

The last authorization made by your Honorable Body in 1933 for this purpose has been practically exhausted, and the Street Commissioners and the Public Works Department are without funds to carry out any further street improvements As pointed out in the letter of the Commissioner of Public Works, W. P. A. forces formerly used on this work have been materially reduced through the Defense Program.

I respectfully recommend consideration and adoption of the accompanying orders.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
June 9, 1941.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—Due to the curtailment in the W. P. A. street construction program, this department will not be able to complete its normal street construction work during the current year.

At the present time there are approximately 1,500 W. P. A. employees engaged on street work, whereas, normally, 4,500 W. P. A. workers are engaged on work of this kind. In order, therefore, to effect during the current year the normal street construction and reconstruction program, it is necessary to have a substantial amount of the work, particularly that part affecting the construction of newly accepted streets, done under contract. At the present time the department has a list of approximately forty streets that were previously accepted as public highways and laid out by the Board of Street Commissioners, under the provisions of chapter 393 of the Acts of 1906.

At the present time there is only approximately $75,000 available under the so-called Highways, Making Of, loan, to pay for the cost of street construction work ordered by the Board of Street Commissioners under the provisions of the latter-referenced chapter of statute law. I feel that an appropriation should be made which will provide not only for the construction of the above-referenced forty streets, but also for any other streets that the Board of Street Commissioners might accept as public highways during the current year.

I respectfully request, therefore, that an order be introduced in the City Council authorizing the issuance of a so-called Highways, Making Of, loan, in the amount of $500,000, to provide sufficient funds for street construction work.

Respectfully yours,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Ordered, That under the provisions of section 5 of chapter 224 of the Acts of 1936 the sum of one hundred forty-eight thousand, three hundred twenty-three dollars and forty-five cents ($148,323.45) be, and the same is hereby, appropriated, to be expended, under the direction of the Commissioner of Public Works, for the construction of public ways or permanent pavement, said amount to be raised by taxation on the polls and estates in the City of Boston.

Ordered, That under the provisions of section 7 of chapter 44 of the General Laws as amended by section 5 of chapter 224 of the Acts of 1936, and under the provisions of chapter 393 of the Acts of 1906, the sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) be, and the same is hereby, appropriated, to be expended for the construction of public ways or permanent pavement, and that the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, upon request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount.

APPROPRIATION FOR BRIDGE CONSTRUCTION.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 9, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am in receipt of the attached communication from the Commissioner of Public Works in which it is requested that a loan authorization of $500,000 be made for the construction of bridges.

The last authorization made by your Honorable Body in 1938 has been completely exhausted and in view of the condition of certain of the bridges of the city it is imperative that new construction be carried forward in order to avoid life and property damage.

I respectfully recommend adoption of the accompanying order.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
June 9, 1941.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—The department has under its jurisdiction approximately 150 bridges. At the present time many are badly in need of repair and it is absolutely necessary at this time to provide for an appropriation which will not only allow for the repair of these bridges, but will also provide an amount to allow for the reconstruction of certain of them, if necessary.

At the present time negotiations are being made with the Boston and Albany Railroad and the Boston Elevated Railway in connection with the proposed construction of a new bridge to replace the existing Broadway Bridge that is located over the right-of-way of the Boston and Albany Railroad. The construction of this bridge would cost approximately $200,000.

In addition to this, it will be necessary to undertake repairs of a major nature on the Meridian Street Bridge, the Broadway Bridge over the New Haven Railroad tracks and Fort Point Channel, the Dover Street Bridge over Fort Point Channel and other bridges of equal importance.

In view of this, therefore, I recommend that an order be introduced in the City Council, for adoption by that Body, authorizing the issuance of loans, in the amount of $500,000 to provide for the construction of bridges.

Respectfully yours,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Ordered, That under the provisions of section 5 of chapter 224 of the Acts of 1936 the sum of one hundred forty-eight thousand, three hundred twenty-three dollars and forty-five cents ($148,323.45) be, and the same is hereby, appropriated, to be expended, under the direction of the Commissioner of Public Works, for the construction of bridges, said amount to be raised by taxation on the polls and estates in the City of Boston.

BUS SERVICE ON BOYLSTON STREET.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 9, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the President and General Manager of the Boston Elevated Railway Company relative to your order of May 26th, 1941, concerning the operating a bus service from Massachusetts avenue to Boylston and Charles streets.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

Boston Elevated Railway,
June 3, 1941.

Mr. William T. Doyle,
Chief Clerk-Secretary, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir,— In reply to your letter of May 29 with order of the City Council, we are, as stated in my letter of March 17, planning to operate bus service from Massachusetts avenue to Boylston and Charles streets as soon as the street conditions are reasonably satisfactory for such operation. The trustees do not feel that they can operate for a longer distance at a five-cent fare.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD DANA,
President and General Manager.

TRAFFIC BLINKER, WARD 17.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 9, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,— I transmit herewith communication from the Commissioner of the Boston Traffic Commission relative to your order of May 26, 1941, concerning the installation of a traffic blinker at the junction of Old Morton and River streets, Ward 17.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Traffic Commission, June 6, 1941.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir, — This is in reply to Council order dated May 26, 1941, which reads as follows:

"Ordered, That the Traffic Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to install a traffic blinker at the junction of Old Morton and River streets, Ward 17."

We have no record in our files of any accidents ever occurring at this location involving personal injuries. Morton street at River street is narrow and even if we thought a beacon would be helpful at this location there would not be room enough in the throat of Morton street to place a flashing beacon.

Respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. HICKEY, Commissioner.

ENGINE HOUSE, MARION STREET, WARD 1.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 9, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,— I transmit herewith communication from the Fire Commissioner relative to your order of May 26, 1941, concerning the reopening of the engine house on Marion street, Ward 1.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Fire Department, June 3, 1941.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—I have this day received notice of the order dated May 26, 1941, as follows:

"Ordered, That the Fire Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to take immediate steps to reopen the engine house on Marion street, Ward 1."

As there has been no change in conditions since the closing of the fire station on Marion street, at the present time I do not favor the reopening of this station.

Very truly yours,
WM. ARTHUR REILLY,
Fire Commissioner.

CAR SERVICE TO SOUTH BOSTON BEACHES.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 9, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the President and General Manager of the Boston Elevated Railway relative to your orders of May 26, 1941, concerning the re-establishment of bus lines to the South Boston beaches.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

Boston Elevated Railway,
June 6, 1941.

Mr. William T. Doyle,
Chief Clerk-Secretary, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir,—Referring to City Council orders dated May 26, 1941, requesting the re-establishment of bus lines to the South Boston beaches, the trustees last summer ran four intermittent beach lines to Columbia Circle, operating 893 trips and receiving $951 revenue at the five-cent fare. The operating expenses alone, without any fixed charges added in, were $1,202. The irregularity with which such lines serve the public, the fact that some persons using them could just as well have used existing lines by transfer, and the discrepancy between operating costs and income resulted in the trustees voting to discontinue operation of lines of this character.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD DANA,
President and General Manager.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

Coun. SHATTUCK, for the Committee on Finance, submitted the following:

Report on message of Mayor and order (referred May 12) for loan of $2,000,000 for funding of overlay deficits—that same ought to pass.

The report was accepted and the question came on the passage of the order.

Coun. SHATTUCK—Mr. President, this loan order for $2,000,000 is offered under an act passed at the present session of the Legislature, authorizing in all $3,000,000. This is the first installment under that act which supplements the funding loan of 1938, all of which has been used. The purpose of this funding loan is to fund the deficits which occurred before 1938, a larger overlay being required than was provided in the past. The customary previous overlay has proved insufficient, and there are many deficits resulting from that cause. We had before the Committee on Finance Mr. Fox, the City Auditor, who stated that as of May 31, 1941, there were overlay deficits on the books of $1,077,000; that, in addition, there were prior to that date personal property tax delinquencies to the amount of $900,000, and the poll tax delinquencies to the amount of $500,000. The matter is still in the hands of the collector, and he hopes to collect part of it, but it is very clear that quite a considerable part of it will never be collected and will have to be covered in the proposed loan. In addition to that, there are over 2,500 cases pending before the Tax Appeals Board, involving about $17,300,000 of assessed value. Mr. Fox has stated that the experience in the past indicated that the average abatements in such cases by the Tax Appeals Board were about 12 per cent of the assessed valuation, which will require about $2,000,000 more. So it seems apparent that the $2,000,000 now asked for is fully needed for this purpose, and it is probable that the $3,000,000 allowed by the Legislature will ultimately not prove quite sufficient. Your committee has voted to report this loan order unanimously.

The question was put on the passage of the order, and but fourteen affirmative votes were recorded as against one in the negative, viz.:

Yeas—Coun. Carey, Coffey, Englert, Galvin, Goode, Hurley, Hutchinson, Linehan, Russo, Scannell, Shattuck, D. F. Sullivan, M. H. Sullivan, Taylor—14.

Nays—Coun. Wickes—1.

President GALVIN—Fifteen votes being required for passage, the order is rejected.

Coun. FISH—Mr. President, I would like to explain my silence on that vote, and I will do so very briefly. When they decide to come out to Dorchester and give abatements on property, I will go along on this matter.

Coun. WICKES—Mr. President, I would like to say just a word in explanation of my "no" vote. The reason why I voted "no" is because I am having such a difficult time in securing abatements for people living in Ward 17, Dorchester. I think it is about time that the taxpayers of Ward 17 were given much more consideration in this matter of abatements.

Coun. TAYLOR—Mr. President, I would like to move a reconsideration of the vote rejecting the order, and if reconsideration prevails, I would like to say something.

Reconsideration of the vote rejecting the order prevailed.

Coun. TAYLOR—Mr. President, while I appreciate the position of the two councilors from Dorchester, I wish to say at the same time that perhaps they do not realize that the rejection of this order may injure the property owners in their respective districts, for this reason, that undoubtedly there are plenty of people who live in those districts who have filed applications for abatement which are now pending before the Board of Tax Appeals, and, unless some such action as this proposed in this order is adopted, if the appeal is granted, the City of Boston can do nothing about it. If the Board of Appeals of the State grants the abatement, the City of Boston must pay it. And where is that money coming from? It will have to come out of appropriations that we, the councilors, must approve, and if there is not sufficient money we must appropriate the money to cover it. The result is that we will have a much higher tax rate. So I say to you councilors who object to this, while your intentions may be right, what the result will be. If such action as is proposed here now is not taken, and abatements are granted by the Board of Tax Appeals, there will not be enough in the city treasury to meet the abatements, and, consequently, instead of the City of Boston's tax rate being $40.60 or less, it will be so much higher. So you will not be helping the people of your districts, but hurting them, by defeating this order.

Coun. SHATTUCK—Mr. President, without spending any more time in debating this matter, I will simply say that councilor Taylor is absolutely right in the statement he has made. Certainly the members will help the taxpayers of their districts by passing this order.

Coun. FISH—Mr. President, I will agree with everything that Councilor Taylor says so far as the owners of intown property are concerned. I have fought for them as much as anybody in the Council and have always felt that they should get relief on their taxes. At the same time, however, I do think that the residential property in our districts should also get some relief. As representing many property owners in Dorchester, in Ward 16, and I know that this same situation prevails in other wards, I feel strongly that the Board of Tax Appeals should in justice do something for those people. Therefore, I did not vote on this order. I will take my chances on money being available to meet any tax abatements that may come along. But I do strongly feel that action should be taken to relieve the taxpayers in our districts. When that is done, I shall be willing to go along on this.

Coun. CAREY—Mr. President, I voted for the passage of the order, and I heartily subscribe to what Councilor Taylor has said. But I do sympathize most decidedly with the statements made by the councilors from the Dorchester wards. There has been lately too much delay in relief to the small home owners, and I believe that the councilors from Dorchester and from other sections of the city have a right to demand better and quicker action upon petitions for tax abatement. Of course, we all sympathize with the situation of the downtown taxpayers, but certainly the small home owners in our districts are entitled to as much consideration, and nothing is being done to relieve them. I understand that members of the Board of Assessors are trying out a certain credit system, inaugurated about two years ago, under which they seek to get most minute information about taxpayers who go to the assessors and want relief. I believe that in 99 per cent of the applications where property values run from $5,000 to $6,000 a year, the applicants try to be fair in the matter, but there seems to be suspicion on the part of some members of the Board that everybody is dishonest. Some of the members of the Board of Assessors can nearly always be seen; there are others who seem to think they are doing the Council a great favor if they give a minute or two of their time, although that is what they are being paid for. Most of these people seeking some tax relief have mortgages on their property, and the banks carrying mortgages are pressing them for information as to whether or not they are going to be given any tax abatement, but naturally no information is forthcoming until the taxpayer gets some answer from the assessors. I might say that if the assessors felt that any credit investigation was necessary in connection with the application for tax relief by the small home owner, the investigation should have been made at the time when the application for abatement was filed, not waiting until several months after the filing of the application before deciding to have the investigation made.

The order was passed, yeas 15, nays 0:

Yeas—Coun. Carey, Coffey, Englert, Galvin, Goode, Hurley, Hutchinson, Langan, Linehan, Russo, Scannell, Shattuck, D. F. Sullivan, M. H. Sullivan, Taylor—15.

Nays—0.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I rise to a point of order. I ask that Rule 23 of the Rules of the City Council be observed, a rule that provides that every member who is present when a question is put shall give his vote on any matter before the Body. I ask that that rule be enforced.

President GALVIN—It is rather difficult to enforce that rule.

(Rule 23 is as follows:

"Every member who shall be present when a question is put, unless he is excluded by interest, shall give his vote, unless the Council for special reasons shall excuse him. Application to be so excused on any question must be made before the Council is divided, or before the calling of the yeas and nays; and such application shall be accompanied by a brief statement of the reasons, and shall be decided without debate.")

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, looking at Rule 23, which is a rule of this Body, I see it provides that on any matter before the Body any member present must vote for or against, and I ask that that rule be enforced.

President GALVIN—The point of order is well taken, and the President will endeavor to see that it is enforced from now on. The vote on the passage of the order is fifteen to none, and the order has received its first reading and passage.

ESCALATOR, MAVERICK STATION.

Coun. COFFEY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Board of Trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to arrange for the installation of an escalator in the Maverick Station of the East Boston subway.

Com. COFFEY—Mr. President, why I am offering the order at this time is because of letters I have received from the Selectmen of Winthrop, which I will ask to have incorporated in the record.

Coun. COFFEY introduced the following letters:

Office of Board of Selectmen,
Winthrop, Mass., May 26, 1941.
Mr. James Coffey, Councilman, Boston City Council, Boston, Mass.

Dear Sir,— Inclosed herewith please find copy of letter sent to the Transit Department of the City of Boston on the 26th day of May, 1941.

The letter is self-explanatory, and we sincerely hope that you will agree with us and cooperate to the end that we might obtain a favorable result.

Very truly yours,
THOMAS E. KEY,
Chairman, Board of Selectmen.

Winthrop, Mass., May 26, 1941.
Col. Thomas F. Sullivan, Chairman, Transit Department, City of Boston, Mass.

Dear Sir,— For some years now we have heard people remark about the lack of an escalator at the Maverick Station in East Boston.

Lately, however, as town officials, we cannot help but have an added interest in this particular matter because of the use our people now make of the location in question.

It seems to be quite obvious that an installation of an escalator in this station would be very much appreciated and a great public convenience for the many middle-aged and elderly people who find it necessary to use this station going to and from a hard day's work.

We are writing to you at this time in the hope that you will take the matter seriously and make a sincere effort to make this improvement.

Hoping that you will give us a reply and advise us what you can or cannot do in this matter, we are,

Very truly yours,
THOMAS E. KEY,
ARTHUR F. VERNEY,
ROSS F. BATCHELDER,
Selectmen of Winthrop.

EVENING OUT-PATIENT DEPARTMENT, CITY HOSPITAL.

Coun. D. F. SULLIVAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the trustees of the Boston City Hospital be instructed, through his Honor the Mayor, to consider the advisability of opening an evening Out-Patient Department at the City Hospital.

Coun. D. F. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, a study of the emergency medical needs of low-income wage earners has shown the need for an evening Out-Patient Department connected with the Boston City Hospital. Wage earners, both heads of families and others, who are making small wages cannot afford to lose the time nor the wages to attend the morning Out-Patient Department. It is enough for these persons to pay the carfare, but to sacrifice a half-day to a whole day's pay is a serious problem. I believe that these cases should have an agency to meet their emergency medical needs in the evening. Furthermore, as a lay person, I have heard much about the organization of auxiliary police, fire and civilian aid forces to be prepared for future emergency situations. I sincerely believe that the opening of an evening Out-Patient Department will allow for the organization of our medical and nursing fields to prepare further for these future situations. I am not prepared to discuss the mechanics of such an organization, for I feel that the medical leaders of our great City Hospital are well prepared to handle the problem. I hope this order will pass and will receive the earnest attention of the Mayor, the City Civilian Defense Committee and the trustees of the Boston City Hospital.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

INCREASED FOOD ALLOWANCE.

Coun. D. F. SULLIVAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Overseers of the Public Welfare be instructed, through his Honor the Mayor, to consider the advisability of increasing the food allowance to those persons receiving Old Age Assistance, Aid to Dependent Children and Dependent Aid, due to the increased cost of living.

Coun. D. F. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, the present emergency situation has created certain problems for the needy. The increased cost of living has forced these persons to curtail the amount of food for daily living. We know that the amount allotted barely meets the minimum need. Now that food prices have increased we find many families, and particularly children, deprived of the essential foods. My purpose in introducing this order is to seek ways and means of correcting this condition. I hope this order will pass.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

SIDEWALK CONSTRUCTION.

Coun. ENGLERT offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk in front of No. 8 Newark street, Ward 11, in front of the estates bordering thereon; said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of artificial stone, with granite edgestones, under the provisions of chapter 196 of the Special Acts of 1917.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

RECONSTRUCTION OF SAXTON STREET.

Coun. HUTCHINSON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to reconstruct Saxton street, Ward 13, as a W. P. A. project.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

BOYS' CLUB IN WARD 13.

Coun. HUTCHINSON offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to confer with the trustees of the Hayden Foundation in regard to erecting a boys' club in Ward 13.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

SCHEDULES FOR FIREMEN.

Coun. WICKES offered the following:

Ordered, That the Fire Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to consider the advisability of so arranging the schedule that no fireman will be required to work more than seventy-two hours a week and yet be entitled to his day off in six as at present, and also to eliminate the necessity of working a long day of twenty-four hours.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

CONGRATULATIONS TO HYDE PARK HIGH SCHOOL CADETS.

Coun. GOODE offered the following:

Resolved, That the Boston City Council in meeting assembled extends its heartiest congratulations to Major Albert Kelly and the cadets of the Hyde Park High School upon the occasion of winning first place in the recent annual school boys' competition.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

SALE OF RAILS AND ELEVATED STRUCTURE.

Coun. GOODE and M. H. SULLIVAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Mayor of Boston and the officials of the Boston Elevated be requested to confer for the purpose of putting up for bid the car rails still remaining on the streets of Boston, despite the fact that the cars have been replaced by bus lines, and also the blighted elevated structure along the Atlantic avenue route to the end that these materials may be used for the manufacture of projects for national defense.

Coun. GOODE—Mr. President, since there is no legal requirements to compel the Boston Elevated Railway Company to remove unused car rails in the City of Boston because the miles of steel car lines now on the streets of Boston constitute a menace to pedestrians and a hazard to traffic, I believe that a plan for the removal of the Atlantic avenue elevated structure and the discontinued steel car rails might be feasible at this time. Because of the rising cost of scrap steel in conjunction with the National Defense Program, steel companies have found it profitable to put in bids and contract for the removal of such materials. The blighted elevated structure on Atlantic avenue is listed on the books of the Elevated as an asset to that company. It certainly is no asset to the City of Boston and together with the car lines is contributing in no small degree to decentralization in this city. It is only a few months since the razing of the Old Ninth avenue elevated structure in New York was completed. That city finds itself justified in bidding it "good riddance," and it has found that the job that many advised against tackling is now paying dividends. At the present time the Bethlehem Steel Corporation is removing many of the buildings on the World's Fair Grounds in New York and the steel from these structures will be put to good use in the defense program. I hope the order will be given due consideration.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON LICENSES.

Coun. FISH for the Committee on Licenses, offered the following:

Report on petitions for driveway openings, viz.:

Antonio Capodilupo, 31 Cross street, Ward 3 (referred April 7); Victor Ratzburg (referred June 9), 127–135 Cambridge street; Francis J. Sawyer (referred June 9), Beverly and Causeway streets; John Hunkins (referred June 9), 241 Market street—recommending that leave be granted on usual conditions.

Report accepted; leave granted on usual conditions.

OIL AND GASOLINE SHORTAGE.

Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN and GOODE offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to confer immediately with Secretary Ickes and other Federal authorities in order that necessary steps may be taken to avert a threatened shortage of fuel oil and gasoline in Boston, inasmuch as it may materially affect the conduct of city government.

Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, we all understand, of course, that we are required to cooperate with the National Government in the present emergency. However, from information at my command I feel that any serious reduction in the supply of gas and oil to the City of Boston will materially affect the tax rate of the city this year. I was speaking with my good friend Jim Mahar, Superintendent of School Buildings, and he called to my attention the situation in regard to at least one of the school buildings in the Allston district, a situation which is typical of many school buildings throughout the city, where they would have to change the oil heaters if the reported plan of the Government in regard to conservation of oil is concerned, so that the building could use coal. The situation, of course, is not one that applies to schools alone, but it would apply generally throughout the City of Boston, and we can all readily see, in the case of the schools alone, that the additional cost to carry on school buildings in the various twenty-two wards of the city might materially affect the tax rate this year. Of course, like all members of the City Council, I have every desire to cooperate with the Federal authorities in this period of national emergency, but I was surprised to read in the Boston papers yesterday that in Canada, which is so closely connected with us in many ways, and which is really in the war, there has been no attempt to shut off the supply of fuel oil or gasoline, and they are themselves using tankers at the present time for the conveyance of such. I feel, therefore, that if something is not done to supply this threatened shortage of fuel oil and gasoline in the coming months, we will not be able to cut down the tax rate of Boston this year.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

WIFE OF NON-CITIZEN W. P. A. ASSIGNMENT.

Coun. RUSSO offered the following:

Ordered, That the trustees of the Public Welfare Department be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to change the policy in force at the present time requiring the wife of a non-citizen to accept a W. P. A. assignment.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, last week I was confronted with a situation whereby a woman who had been working under the Welfare Department of the City of Boston, a woman with five children, ranging from four to ten years of age, was forced to accept a W. P. A. assignment, or the Welfare Department would stop its aid. I have also had brought to my attention another case where a mother of a child one year of age was forced to accept W. P. A. leaving that child at home with her husband. Otherwise, she would not have received any aid. I certainly do not believe in such practices. I believe the wife's place is in the home, especially where there are small children who need the attention of their mother. I believe that these welfare social workers, visitors, so called, and supervisors, are taking upon themselves too much authority in dealing with poor individuals, when they expect mothers to go on W. P. A. leaving four children at home under such circumstances. I hope that the trustees of the Welfare Department will take action in regard to this matter, instructing their visitors and supervisors not to place in jeopardy these children who need a mother's care. I trust that the Mayor will look into this matter, and see that these conditions are eliminated, not subjecting poor individuals who are confronted with such problems to any such treatment.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

SALE OF ROXBURY LAND.

President GALVIN called up, under unfinished business, No. 3 on the calendar, viz.:

3. Order for sale to the Boston Housing Authority of 2,050 square feet of land on Park place, Roxbury, owned by the City of Boston, for $1,000.

On May 26, 1941, the foregoing order was read once and passed, yeas 19, nays 0.

The order was given its second and final reading and passage, yeas 19, nays 0.

CONFIRMATION OF EXECUTIVE APPOINTMENTS.

President GALVIN called up, under unfinished business, Nos. 1 and 2 on the calendar, viz.:

1. Action on appointment submitted by the Mayor, May 26, 1941, of Harry Greenbaum, to be a Constable with authority to serve civil process upon filing of bond.

2. Action on appointments submitted by the Mayor, May 26, 1941, of Michael Ferrale and Clarence Humberstone, to be Weighers of Goods; and Mary E. Oldham, to be a Weigher of Coal.

The question came on confirmation. Committee, Coun. Russo and Fish. Whole number of ballots 16, yeas 16, and the appointments were confirmed.

RECESS.

The Council voted at 3.15 p. m., on motion of Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN, to take a recess subject to the call of the Chair. The members reassembled and were called to order by President GALVIN at 3.41 p. m.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Coun. LANGAN, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

1. Report on petition of Clara O'Keefe to be paid an annuity on account of death of her husband, Cornelius J. O'Keefe (referred August 19, 1940)—recommending passage of accompanying order, viz.:

Ordered, That under the provisions of chapter 340 of the Acts of 1933, an annuity of twelve hundred dollars be allowed and paid to Clara O'Keefe, widow of Cornelius J. O'Keefe, a member of the Fire Department, who died on February 15, 1940, on account of injuries received in the performance of his duty; said annuity being made up of allowances as follows:

For the widow, Clara O'Keefe, so long as she remains unmarried, $1,000 per annum;

For the following-named child, during such time as she is under the age of eighteen or over said age and physically or mentally incapacitated from earning, $200 per annum: Clare O'Keefe, born September 26, 1922;

the payments to date from February 15, 1940, and to be charged to the appropriation for Fire Department, Pensions and Annuities.

Report accepted; said order passed.

2. Report on message of Mayor and order (referred today) that land and building at East Dedham street be sold to Boston Housing Authority for $15,000 — that same ought to pass.

The report was accepted, and the order was given its first reading and passage, yeas 17, nays 0.

3. Report on message of Mayor and order (referred today) that gift of American Mutual Liability Insurance Company of portable trailer pump be accepted — that same ought to pass.

Report accepted; said order passed.

4. Report on message of Mayor and order (referred today) that chapter 140 of Acts of 1941 be accepted — that same ought to pass.

Report accepted; said order passed.

5. Report on message of Mayor and order (referred today) that $450 be appropriated for meeting city's share of expenses incurred by Special Commission appointed to value certain items of property located at Airport at East Boston, said sum to be charged to Contingent Fund—that same ought to pass.

The report was accepted; said order passed, yeas 17, nays 0.

6. Report on message of Mayor and orders (referred today) for an appropriation and a loan, to be expended by Commissioner of Public Works, for construction of bridges — that same be referred to Committee on Finance.

Report accepted; said reference ordered.

Report on message of Mayor and orders (referred today) for an appropriation and a loan, to be expended by Commissioner of Public Works for construction of public ways or permanent pavement—recommending reference to Committee on Finance.

Report accepted; said reference ordered.

Coun. SHATTUCK—Mr. President, I wish to announce that there will be a meeting of the Committee on Finance, Wednesday of this week at 2.30 p. m. I hope the members of the committee will attend, and, of course, other members of the Council will be welcome.

THE NEXT MEETING.

On motion of President GALVIN, the Council voted that when it adjourns it be to meet on Monday, June 23, at 2 p. m.

OPINION OF CORPORATION COUNSEL RE HORSE AND DOG TIP ESTABLISHMENTS.

Coun. HURLEY offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor request the Corporation Counsel to render a decision on the order presented by Councilors Hurley and Fish, May 5, relative to an ordinance that all horse and dog tip establishments be licensed.

Coun. HURLEY—Mr. President, some time ago there was an order introduced here by Councilor Fish and myself, asking that the Mayor consult with the Corporation Counsel in regard to the creation of an ordinance licensing and bonding the so-called horse and dog tip establishments. There were a few such at the time, but in the past few weeks hundreds have started up. A week ago today, in the Boston American, there was a very enlightening column by Austen Lake. It starts off,—

"Open season on Boston suckers. Today's mail brings a disgusted fan letter, demanding, 'Can't you do something about this?' and inclosing a tout-sheet trimmed with a 'razzberry' border. 'There must be enough inherent horse suckers to make this racket pay,' continues the irate writer. 'If the law can't catch these weasels, at least the bright light of publicity might crimp their game.'

"The sucker flier states in Gothic type, 'Confidential!!! Dear Sir,— This bureau has "arranged"— don't ask us how — for two getaway specials at Suffolk Downs. These hot-shots are ready for the slaughter. They can't miss. You are one of a carefully selected list of horse players, known as square shooters, to get this opportunity. Naturally, in a fix like this, we have to be careful of who we deal with.

"'Now, all you got to do is mail $10 for one of these fixes, or $15 for both. Naturally, we paid pretty steep to get this in the satchel and we got to get our money back. Mail to Russell Reynolds, General Delivery, Providence P. O., and we will answer by return mail. We don't have any business address for reasons you understand, but we have made clean-ups all over the country and never been caught. Get on this quick.'

"The surprising thing is that, after five years of race-phenagling Boston legislation makes no provision for handling the flotsam of the horse tracks who come to town on the same social footing as any other merchant and opens an emporium for trimming the public. He needs no great capital — only enough to rent a room, install a telephone and publish his mystic hoopla. The police are handcuffed! There is no statute! And although the law has grabbed several of the horse swamis and hustled them into court, the magistrates have always snorted dismissal and turned them loose to feed on our sucker population some more."

If the Mayor will ask the Corporation Counsel to get such an ordinance down here, I think we will save millions to the poor people working hard and patronizing sucker drives backed by racketeers in Boston, working in connection with people in other places whom they represent. I think this is a matter that should be acted upon right away.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

SIDEWALKS, ROBINWOOD AVENUE, WARD 19.

Coun. LANGAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Public Works Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to construct sidewalks on Robinwood avenue, Ward 19, under the W. P. A. plan of construction.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

PLAYGROUND FOR SMALL CHILDREN, JAMAICA POND.

Coun. LANGAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Park Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to establish a playground for small children on the Pine Banks, Jamaica Pond, as a W. P. A. project.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

Adjourned at 4.03 p. m., on motion of Coun. ENGLERT, to meet on Monday, June 23, 1941, at 2 p. m.

RESTORATION OF SALARIES.

The Portland City Council has granted full restoration of salaries to all city employees, at an estimated cost (for the remaining six months of the year) of $162,430. This will put the city in the red at the end of the year unless additional revenue is obtained. Increases and adjustments of salaries for individuals will be considered as soon as finances permit.

STATE REFERENDA RESULTS, 1936.

A question of public policy "Shall the Representative in the General Court from this district be instructed to vote in favor of amending the State Constitution for the purpose of limiting the amount of taxes, for all purposes, which may be legally levied against any real estate within the Commonwealth to a sum not exceeding $25 for each one thousand dollars of assessed valuation?" was voted on by only a portion of the Representative Districts. In Boston, six districts did not vote on it.

The totals for the districts and parts of districts, including Boston districts, were 310,715 in favor; 113,594 against and 203,277 blanks. For Boston alone, the totals for the sixteen districts that voted were 114,184 in favor; 46,689 against and 79,827 blanks.

In Boston, there were three referenda on sales of alcoholic beverages.

First, "Shall licenses be granted in this city for the sale therein of all alcoholic beverages (whiskey, rum, gin, malt beverages, wines and all other alcoholic beverages)?" Totals, 190,353 in favor, 45,402 against and 84,732 blanks.

Second, "Shall licenses be granted in this city for the sale therein of wines and malt beverages (wines and beer, ale and all other malt beverages)?" Totals, 185,213 in favor, 40,164 against and 95,110 blanks.

Third, "Shall licenses be granted in this city for the sale therein of all alcoholic beverages in packages, so called, not to be drunk on the premises?" Totals, 187,877 in favor, 37,139 against and 95,471 blanks.

POPULATION OF BOSTON, BY SEX, NATIVITY, ETC., 1930.

Total population, 781,188 (383,454 males and 397,734 females); ratio of males to females, 96.4 to 100 as against 97.2 to 100 in 1920. Native white, 529,400 (260,419 males and 268,981 females) or 67.77 per cent; sex ratio, 96.8 to 100. Of the 529,400 native whites, 200,130, or 37.80 per cent, are of native parentage; 248,653, or 46.97 per cent, are of foreign parentage and 80,617, or 15.23 per cent, are of mixed parentage (i. e., one half native). Foreign-born whites, 229,356 (111,261 males and 118,095 females) or 9,563 less than in 1920; sex ratio 94.2 to 100. The foreign-born whites are 29.36 per cent of total population. Negroes, 20,574 (10,223 males and 10,351 females) or 2.63 per cent of population; sex ratio, 98.8 to 100. The Negro population has increased 4,224 since 1920 and 4,993 since 1915. Other races, 1,858 (1,551 males and 307 females), or 0.24 per cent, comprise 1,595 Chinese, 69 Japanese, 43 Indian, 26 Mexican and 125 miscellaneous. Total foreign white stock, 478,009 (viz., 229,356 plus 248,653) which is 61.19 per cent of all inhabitants.

CHARGE FOR POLICE RADIO SERVICE.

At least five cities and three states operating police radio systems charge for radio messages transmitted to police cars of other cities and suburbs which do not operate their own transmitters, the International City Managers' Association states. The cities are Cleveland, Detroit, Toledo, Akron and Providence; the states are Connecticut, Massachusetts and New Jersey.

Cleveland charges East Cleveland 42 cents for each call transmitted to East Cleveland police cars. East Detroit pays Detroit 35 cents a call; the sheriff's office of Lucas County, Ohio, pays Toledo 50 cents a call, with a minimum of $25 a month; and Akron charges 35 cents per message transmitted to Barberton, Cuyahoga Falls, and the sheriff's office of Summit County. Providence makes charges on calls to police cars of several surrounding communities.

Communities served by the Connecticut, Massachusetts and New Jersey state police radio systems are charged certain percentages of operating costs.—American City Magazine.

FELLOWSHIP STUDIES IN TRAFFIC CONTROL.

Fifteen graduate fellowships, each with a stipend of $1,200-plus up to $200 for travel and field investigation have been announced by the Bureau for Street Traffic Research of Harvard University. The regular annual tuition fee of $400 will be deducted from the fellowships, which have been made available through a gift to the University by the Automobile Manufacturers' Association. The officers of instruction are Miller McClintock, Director of the Bureau, and Maxwell Halsey, Assistant Director. Each of two full courses in street and highway traffic control consists of three one-hour periods a week, and additional problems, assignments and field work.

STATE VALUATIONS IN 1937.

Total assessed value of real estate on January 1, 1937, in the thirty-nine cities and 316 towns of Massachusetts, $5,742,-161,541 ($18,194,654 less than on January 1, 1936), of which 65.62 per cent applied to buildings and 34.38 per cent to land; of personalty, $525,039,493; aggregate valuation, $6,267,201,034 (2.74 per cent decrease from 1936), on which the total tax was $222,184,422. To raise this amount of taxes on the property assessed at a uniform rate throughout the State would have required a tax rate of $35.45+ on $1,000 valuation. Boston's valuation, $1,590,544,700, equal to 25.38 per cent of total valuation in the State.

CITY CEMETERIES.

The Park Department has charge of twenty cemeteries, containing 212 acres, that are owned by the city. Mount Hope Cemetery is the largest. A number of these cemeteries are no longer available to the public for interments. In 1937 there were 2,075 interments in these cemeteries, or 77 more than in 1936. The interments in Mount Hope Cemetery in 1937 were 71.08 per cent of the total interments as against 74.57 per cent in 1936.

SEEKS COMMUNITY AID IN ARMY CAMP CITIES.

The army welcomes the aid of civic organizations in helping to protect soldiers from intemperance and vice when they are away from their duty stations.

The War Department is endeavoring in various ways to protect its personnel from temptations while at military posts and camps. Healthful and wholesome entertainment is furnished. Commissioned officers are charged with the responsibility for the men in their commission. Understanding leaders offer them advice and counsel, and medical officers guard their physical well-being. —American City Magazine.

RECEIPTS OF MILK IN BOSTON BY RAIL. STATISTICS FOR YEAR 1937.

Total, 201,115,222 quarts (including 21,533,437 quarts of cream) or 190,884,037 by the Boston & Maine Railroad; 9,304,589 by New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad; 926,596 by Boston & Albany Railroad.

The said total exceeds that of 1936 by 2,233,863, but is 35,786,309 below the receipts in 1931 which was the highest on record.

The receipts in 1937 of the Boston & Albany Railroad are the lowest on record for that railroad.

The maximum receipts of milk and also of cream in 1937 were in August; the minimum in February.

SEWAGE TREATMENT PLANT CONSTRUCTION ON THE INCREASE.

Owing to the economic conditions prevailing during the past year, there was but a relatively small volume of sewage treatment plant construction. Within recent months, however, there has been a decided impetus to new construction of this type growing out of the Public Works Administration allotments. Nearly 700 cities have received allotments of funds from the P. W. A. for sewerage or sewage treatment, involving an aggregate expenditure of well over $200,000,000.

FOR AIDING BOYS.

In an effort to lend a helping hand to misfit and underprivileged boys and to stem the alarming flow of young men into penal institutions and lives of crime, Big Brother Bureaus are being organized by the police departments of various cities. The International Association of Chiefs of Police urges all police jurisdictions to join the Big Brother League.

NO COST CONTROL FOR REFUSE DISPOSAL.

American cities on the whole may be clean housekeepers, but they don't know how much it is costing them to be clean or whether they are spending too much. Only a few cities are able to report accurately the unit cost of removing garbage and other refuse and of cleaning streets, according to the Public Administration Service of Chicago, Ill., which further reports that at least 90 per cent of the cities in this country have no cost control over this service.

PITTSBURGH'S TRAFFIC SAFETY RECORD.

Pittsburgh has been adjudged the safest city in the United States in 1932, and the second safest in 1933 and 1934 among cities with populations over 500,000. Registrations in the city increased 4.4 per cent, gasoline consumption 7.7 per cent. In 1935, despite a 2.4 per cent decrease in traffic volume, adult fatalities increased 30 per cent, total fatalities 24 per cent, as compared with 1934.

MANY TYPES OF W. P. A. PROJECTS.

The Works Progress Administration has placed in operation a total of more than 300,000 projects. Except for the more pretentious types of construction, these projects have covered almost the whole field of American endeavor in meeting the primary objective of relieving unemployment. The American City.

LIBRARIES AND SCHOOLS SAVE MONEY.

Libraries and schools in the United States, it is estimated by the United States Office of Education, will save at least $1,600,000 a year on transportation charges for book purchases because of the low postal rate which will be continued until July 1, 1941. It is stated that the 1½ cent per pound rate on books, regardless of zones, is having important effects on limited and inadequate book budgets.

HEALTH AND HOSPITAL.

The plant and equipment of the Cincinnati General Hospital have been largely rehabilitated during the year 1939. As a result the operating officials of the Hospital will be able to do much better work in caring for the sick than heretofore.

The hospital treated 18,963 patients this year compared to 18,765 last year, and 24,929 individuals were cared for in the Out-Patient Dispensary against 24,701 in 1938. There was also an increase of approximately 10 per cent in the number of persons treated in the receiving ward, resulting in a total of 25,082. (From Annual Address of City Manager.)

DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

PROPOSALS FOR ALTERATIONS, ETC., AT THE HANCOCK SCHOOL, PARMENTER STREET, BOSTON, MASS.

The Superintendent of Construction, Department of School Buildings, City of Boston, invites sealed proposals for alterations, etc., at the Hancock School, Parmenter street, Boston, Mass. Forms of proposals may be obtained at the office of the Superintendent of Construction, fourth floor, 26 Norman street, Boston, Mass. Each proposal must be signed by the bidder, placed in an envelope, properly sealed, and marked "Proposal for Alterations, etc., at the Hancock School, Parmenter Street, Boston, Mass," and left at the office of the Superintendent of Construction, fourth floor, 26 Norman street, Boston, Mass., before 12 noon, July 3, 1941, accompanied by cash or certified check on, or a certificate of deposit issued by a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston in the sum of $500 to become and be the property of the City of Boston as liquidated damages, if, after an award is made to him, the bidder shall fail to enter into the contract therefor within ten days after notice of said award has been mailed to him. Bid bonds will not be accepted. Said proposals will then and there be publicly opened and read. Proposals must be made in duplicate, one with cash, certified check or certificate of deposit to be left as above, the other without cash, certified check or certificate of deposit to be filed with the City Auditor, City Hall, Boston, before the time stated above for the opening of proposals.

NOTICE TO SUB-BIDDERS.

All sub-contractors bidding on the work designated in the proposal form shall deliver or mail to the awarding authority record copies of all bids sent by them to the General Contractor. All such bids shall be in sealed envelopes, plainly marked on the outside with the sub-contractor's name, the nature of the work bid upon and the name or names of bidders they include in their bids for any portion of the work, involving labor and materials. All such bids must be delivered to, or mailed to and received by the awarding authority, and mailed to and received by the General Contractor, no later than 12 noon, Monday, June 30, 1941.

No sub-bid shall be considered in the final selection of sub-bidders except those filed with the awarding authority.

Plans and specifications may be examined at the Superintendent's office, fourth floor, 26 Norman street, Boston.

Sub-bidders shall use the proposal form for sub-bidders set forth in chapter 480 of the Acts of 1939, copies of which may be obtained at local stationers or at the office of the awarding authority.

The names of all sub-bidders who file their bids with the awarding authority will be mailed by the awarding authority on the date of receipt to the general contractors bidding on the project and no sub-bidder not included on the list of sub-bidders shall be used by the General Contractor in his bid.

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs and laborers in the work to be perfomed under the contract shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which schedule is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained without cost upon application therefor at the office of the Superintendent of Construction, fourth floor, 26 Norman street, Boston. The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Law so called) to all persons to be employed under the contract and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required prior to the award of said contract.

Plans and specifications may be obtained at the office of the Superintendent of Construction, Department of School Buildings, fourth floor, 26 Norman street, Boston. All plans and specifications must be returned in good condition to said office at the time of the filing of bids.

A bond of a surety company, approved by the Superintendent of Construction, in the full amount of the contract, to secure the due performance of the contract and the full protection of the city, will be required. The Superintendent of Construction reserves the right to reject any and all bids if it be in the public interest so to do. The Superintendent of Construction also reserves the right to reject all sub-bids on any item or items in accordance with the provisions of chapter 480 of the Acts of 1939.

JAMES J. MAHAR,
Superintendent of Construction,

PUBLIC AUCTION.

The City of Boston will sell at public auction all its right, title and interest in and to about one hundred and twenty-four thousand seven hundred and fifty (124,750) square feet of land and flats, with buildings thereon, on the westerly side of Border street, East Boston, numbered 246, 246R, 250, 256 in the numbering of said street, consisting of two parcels, and more fully described in two tax deeds recorded with Suffolk Deeds, Book 5544, pages 164, 165, on Tuesday, June 24, 1941, at 3 p. m., on the premises, at a minimum price of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000).

A deposit of fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500), in cash or certified check, is required at the time and place of sale, and the balance to be paid in thirty (30) days; or in lieu of the payment of the said balance the Custodian of Foreclosed Real Estate may enter into an agreement with a responsible purchaser for the payment of the balance in the following manner. Said agreement, if executed, to incorporate the following terms and conditions:

1. A payment of eighteen hundred dollars ($1,800), payable in thirty (30) days from the date of sale. This payment may be waived by the Custodian of Foreclosed Real Estate if, in his opinion, eighteen hundred dollars ($1,800) was expended in repairs to buildings on said property during said thirty (30) days.
2. Nine (9) monthly payments of one thousand dollars ($1,000) each will be paid, starting January 15, 1942, to be applied to the unpaid balance.
3. Starting August 1, 1941, two hundred and fifty dollars ($250), payable the first of every month, will be paid in lieu of taxes and interest to the City Collector until papers are passed on or before October 1, 1942. Regardless of when papers are passed, the minimum amount in lieu of taxes and interest to be paid to the City Collector will be two thousand dollars ($2,000).
4. Instrument of conveyance to be delivered on or before October 1, 1942.

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE OF BOSTON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

VOL. 33. SATURDAY, JUNE 28, 1941. No. 26

MAYOR TOBIN ASSAILS PROPOSALS FOR IMPOSING NEW TAXES ON AUTOMOBILES AS DISCRIMINATORY AND INJURIOUS TO ONE OF NATION'S BEST SOURCES OF REVENUE — DECLARES MOTOR CAR CAN NO LONGER BE CONSIDERED IN LUXURY CLASS, SINCE IT HAS BECOME A NECESSITY AS A TRANSPORTATION MEDIUM — DELIVERS ADDRESS AT LUNCHEON OF MASSACHUSETTS AUTOMOBILE DEALERS ASSOCIATION AT COPLEY PLAZA — POINTS TO FACT AMERICA OWES BIG DEBT TO INDUSTRY FOR BETTERING WAY OF LIFE AND OPENING UP CONTINENT TO ALL CLASSES OF CITIZENS.

The following, in part, is the address of Mayor Tobin at the luncheon of the Massachusetts Automobile Dealers Association, at the Copley Plaza, on Wednesday, June 25:

It is a pleasure to meet with the men who market the motor cars in this Commonwealth. I can well imagine that this is probably the most momentous and important meeting you have held in years. There are questions of the utmost importance to your business to be threshed out and concerted action to be taken, if you are to safeguard your investment and your livelihood.

America owes a tremendous debt to the automotive industry. It has bettered our way of living, it has opened up the entire continent to all classes of life and it has given us the vast network of fine roads we possess. New England's great tourist industry would never have existed but for the motor car.

For years the automobile has been the greatest exponent of dollar value of anything produced in our country. It is the product of an industry that has never taken a backward step. Each year the car makers spend vast sums to improve their products, to make it a still greater value, while, at the same time, they reduce the cost to the ultimate consumer. They have led the fight to bring our nation out of the depression by keeping their factories at full speed and creating jobs for countless thousands, not only in their own plants but in mines, on farms and in numberless other factories that supply the things necessary in automobile building.

Important Part in Industry.

And you men comprise that important part of the set-up that is charged with distributing those marvelous creations and, thereby, keeping the factories in operation.

Think of the important place the motor car industry has in our defense program. Were it not for the skill of the men in the auto factories and the aptitude of the manufacturers for mass production on a precision basis, the great task of rearmament would today be only in the vaguest form. New England and Massachusetts in particular have been prominent in producing those skilled artisans and that intricate machinery that are so necessary to the great automotive plants of the Middle West and so important in the present drive toward national safety.

It has long been recognized that the automobile is about the most heavily taxed product turned out in America. Now there is talk in Washington of an additional twenty to twenty-five per cent levy on cars. That would be in addition to increased prices for tires, oil, gasoline, batteries, etc. If the plans suggested are carried through, it is highly probable that the purchaser of a 1942 automobile, which will be placed upon the market late this summer, will have to pay nearly fifty per cent more than the price the manufacturer had in mind when he designed the new offering.

Would Hamper Sales.

There can be little doubt but that that would hamper the sale of cars, and such a situation would hurt every one of you. It could easily mean that many of you dealers would have to curtail in your establishments by laying off salesmen, mechanics and others. In short, you would be forced to operate on a shoestring, and the result would be a lot of additional unemployment.

The automobile can no longer be classed as a luxury. It is a necessity in the every-day life of America, and as such it should not be burdened with top-heavy additional taxes. Naturally, we expect to pay higher prices for about everything we purchase in order to finance the rearmament program, but there seems to be no need for discrimination against the long-suffering motoring public. It would be far better to spread a lot of that proposed increase in the auto tax over a number of other things that, up to now, haven't borne much of a tax burden, and not to take any action that will hamper the progress of America's Number One Industry. In short, the fable of the goose that laid the golden eggs should be kept in mind.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"
From Boston Centennial Poem by
NATHAN HASKEL DOLE.

* Contract awarded.

Upon June 12 the Mayor approved a contract with the Groisser & Shlager Iron Works for furnishing structural steel to the Boston City Hospital for use at the Thorndike Memorial Building. The approximate amount of the contract was $1,763, less a cash discount of one half of one per cent for payment in ten days. There was but one bid, opened May 26, as follows:

All Structural Steel Necessary for Additional Cage Rooms, Roof of Thorndike Memorial Building, Boston City Hospital, Fabricated to Sizes with Standard Connections, Ready to Erect According to Plans of James H. Ritchie and Associates, Architects and Engineers, 20 Newbury Street, Boston.—Groisser & Shlager Iron Works, total cost, $1,763; discount, ten days, one half of 1 per cent.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

Upon such dates as are indicated the Mayor approved contracts as requested for supplies, labor, etc., for the several departments indicated. Communications from the departments interested were as follows:

SUPERIOR CRIMINAL COURT.

BOSTON, May 28, 1941.

To HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor, City of Boston.
From WILLIAM M. PRENDIBLE, Clerk, Superior Criminal Court.
Subject: Exemption from Chapter 156, Acts 1939.

DEAR SIR,—I respectfully request written authority to be exempt from compliance with the provisions of chapter 156 of the Acts of 1939, in so far as it affects expenditures under Item D-1 in the budget of this office for the following reasons:

It is impossible to estimate in advance, purchases which might come within the provisions of this law.

Although the Item D-1 is charged against this office on the budget, the District Attorney, Probation Department and the Court all make purchases which are charged against this item. I have no control over the purchases or amounts expended by these departments.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM M. PRENDIBLE,
Clerk.

MUNICIPAL COURT OF THE ROXBURY DISTRICT.

ROXBURY, January 14, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

MY DEAR MR. MAYOR,—You have granted us written permission to expend sums of money under Items B-4 (Transportation) and D-1 (Office Supplies, Stationery, Printed Forms, etc.) without advertising. The reason for this, of course, has been explained to you and has been satisfactory, namely:

The transportation is done on a trip payment basis, i. e., some days we may have four or five trips and other days none. By arrangement with the auditor the price per trip has been agreed upon. The stationery and the forms are items that we cannot anticipate and as a general rule are awarded to the lowest bidder, instructions being to get three bids on each job, unless it is an emergency. You will recall I have suggested, if you so instruct, I would be only too willing to hand this printing over to the City Printing Plant. We have found them by no means the lowest bidder.

So, once again I request of you written permission to expend the sums for Items B-4 (Transportation) and D-1 (Office Supplies, etc.) for the year 1941, without advertising for bids.

Cordially and respectfully,

FRANKLAND W. L. MILES,
Justice.

REGISTRY OF PROBATE.

BOSTON, April 3, 1941.

To HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.
From JOHN R. NICHOLS, Assistant Register of Probate.
Subject: Request to be excused from advertising for bids under Item D-1 in 1941 budget.

MY DEAR MR. MAYOR,—I inclose herewith original and four copies of letter asking to be excused from advertising for bids under Item D-1 in my 1941 budget. This request is made under the provisions of chapter 156 of the Acts of 1939.

Mr. Sullivan is away on vacation and, therefore, I have used the rubber stamp for his signature. I trust this will meet with your approval.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN R. NICHOLS,
Assistant Register.

BOSTON, April 3, 1941.

To HONORABLE MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.
From ARTHUR W. SULLIVAN, Register of Probate.
Subject: Request to be excused from advertising for bids under Item D-1 in 1941 budget.

MY DEAR MR. MAYOR,—As you are aware, it is necessary for me to purchase supplies for the Registry of Probate and the Probate Court under Item D-1 in the budget. The principal expenditures from this item are for the purchase of blank forms, of which we have approximately three hundred kinds. With such a variety, it is very difficult, if not impossible, to anticipate the needs of the bar, the public and the office in that connection and very often we find it necessary to order some items for quick delivery, so that we cannot wait until our needs would amount to one thousand dollars.

We do not usually expend as much as one thousand dollars at any one time for the purchase of such blank forms and other supplies. I believe that if we were required to build up our orders to the one thousand dollar mark and advertise for bids, such action would be likely to result (no matter how unintentionally) in over purchasing.

In the light of the foregoing, I respectfully request authority to dispense with advertising for bids for the purchase of supplies under budget Item D-1. This request is made under the provisions of chapter 156 of the Acts of 1939.

Respectfully yours,

ARTHUR W. SULLIVAN,
Register.

SUPERIOR COURT FOR CIVIL BUSINESS.

BOSTON, March 14, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—In accordance with provisions of section 1, chapter 156, of the Acts of 1939, I respectfully submit for your approval this request to dispense with the contract formality of such act, and assign as reasons thereof the following:

It is impossible for the clerk to anticipate the amount and kind of printed forms, lists, books and office supplies necessary for the proper maintenance of his office. The many forms and lists are subject to change without notice and it would be unwise to place orders in anticipation of a year's supply, as it would result in vast overstocking of many items and a shortage of others.

In addition, it is the duty of the clerk to prepare and promulgate the orders of court and to prepare and mail the various weekly trial lists; also to keep the court, and sessions thereof, supplied with forms and stationery as needed.

As it is impossible to foresee what supplies are necessary to carry out this duty, I believe the continuance of the practice of ordering supplies as needed should be followed. I call your attention to the fact that you granted this permission to the former clerk, Mr. James McDermott, for the reasons stated in his letter to you under date of December 20, 1939.

Respectfully yours,

THOMAS DORGAN,
Clerk.

REGISTRY OF DEEDS.

BOSTON, January 17, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—In accordance with the provisions of chapter 156 of the Acts of 1939, I hereby respectfully request from your Honor written authority to dispense with advertising for proposals for the furnishing of supplies for the Suffolk Registry of Deeds, particularly with respect to Items C-9, B-1 and D-1 of the budget, for the following reasons:

1. The principal articles to be purchased under C-9 are standard typewriters, for which there is a standard price, with a standard discount, to state, city and county departments.

2. Practically all of the Item B-1 is for the binding of indexes and record books. This work has been efficiently, satisfactorily and expeditiously performed by the same concern at a fair price for more than half a century; this concern agrees to do the work at the same prices at which the contract was awarded to it last year.

3. The Item D-1 covers the furnishing of grantor and grantee indexes for the Recording Department and for the Registered Land Department, which are furnished under the same conditions referred to in paragraph 2; and the item also covers standard record paper and sundry articles of stationery, which are furnished at standard prices.

Respectfully yours,

WM. T. A. FITZGERALD,
Register.

MUNICIPAL COURT OF THE CHARLESTOWN DISTRICT.

CHARLESTOWN, April 2, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

MY DEAR MR. MAYOR,—I desire to call your attention to the fact that M. Driscoll & Son, of 60 Warren street, Charlestown, Mass., have been committing prisoners from this court since 1904, under the direction of Judge Henry W. Bragg, now deceased, and for three other months another person was making the commitments. When I was appointed January 14, 1914, I gave the contract of commitments to Mr. Driscoll, whose work has been very satisfactory. I have the utmost confidence in his ability and dealings with the court.

May I respectfully ask you to give me the right to continue the employment of Mr. Driscoll in the commitment of prisoners, during 1941.

I am,

Very respectfully,

CHARLES S. SULLIVAN,
Justice.

MUNICIPAL CRIMINAL COURT.

BOSTON, January 21, 1941.

HON. F. DELANO PUTNAM,
Chief Justice.

MY DEAR CHIEF JUSTICE,—I respectfully submit herein reasons for exemption of this office from chapter 156, Acts 1939. No one of several items purchased by this office will amount to $1,000, with the exception of the purchases of various dockets and indexes at the beginning of the year. These various dockets, consisting of Domestic Relations, General, Drunk, Released Drunk, Inquests and Traffic Violations, differ in many respects and it would be impossible to class them in one contract. The dockets used in the Parking Violations are of a greater variance from the rest, so this would have to be treated as an individual item. It would take many orders for over a period of months in the printing of our forms to total the amount of $1,000. It does not seem to me that there is any possible way to estimate the number of arrests or cases brought by summons that would appear before this court; therefore one could not estimate the number of the various forms used for the various crimes that we would use in any given year.

The statistics of this court will show that there is a variance in each year, sometimes increasing and sometimes decreasing, the increase or decrease not being consistent enough to set a figure for a certain amount of forms that would be needed for the particular offences. With the Legislature in session this year there is no way of knowing what new laws will be passed or what existing laws will be changed, all of which might have a bearing on the forms required in this office. Again I would call to your attention that the printing of these forms should be done by a printer with plenty of experience along the line of printing legal papers, as it is very important that much care should be used in the work.

Therefore I feel that the above should be sufficient to grant the exemption requested.

Very truly yours,

WILLIAM D. COLLINS,
Clerk.

MUNICIPAL COURT OF THE WEST ROXBURY DISTRICT.

WEST ROXBURY, January 13, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—It is requested that advertising in the City Record be dispensed with in the matter of transportation of prisoners in this court, as the number and extent of the various items of charges under this heading are varying, and depend upon the nature of crimes and forms of commitments. The present incumbent furnishing this service has acted as such for over eleven years and is very familiar with the requirements.

Yours respectfully,

DANIEL W. CASEY,
Justice.

MUNICIPAL COURT OF THE SOUTH BOSTON DISTRICT.

SOUTH BOSTON, January 9, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

MY DEAR MR. MAYOR,—In accordance with chapter 156 of the Acts of 1939 I herewith furnish you with signed statement giving in detail the reasons for not inviting bids by advertisement for the transportation of prisoners to and from the South Boston Municipal Court for the year 1941.

1. The physical condition of some prisoners, both men and women, demand responsibility of operator as well as immediate transportation.

2. This work has been done satisfactorily for several years by present operator's family, and who is available for the year 1941.

3. Prices charged and to be charged are reasonable.

4. Although impossible to estimate exactly, average cost per year is about $1,300.

Respectfully submitted,

LEO H. LEARY,
Justice.

EAST BOSTON DISTRICT COURT.

EAST BOSTON, January 15, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—In reference to the Acts of 1939, chapter 156, which requires contracts in excess of one thousand dollars to be entered into only after they have been submitted to bids, it appears that two items in our budget come within the scope of that chapter. They are Items D-1 and B-4, one for printing and office stationery, and the other for transportation of prisoners.

All the printing and stationery, our budget Item D-1, used in this connection has been supplied by the City of Boston Printing Department for the last eight or nine years. We have no printing done excepting through the Printing Department, nor have we purchased a single thing, whether elastic bands, stamps, staples, or other stationery, excepting through that department. The work done by the Printing Department has always been of the best and what we have purchased through them has always been satisfactory to us. We desire to continue the practice of having our printing done and our purchases made through them. This convenience is invaluable. May we ask your written authority to dispense with advertising in the City Record as provided in the statute above noted.

As to transportation of prisoners, Item B-4, we have had a Mr. Leo Milder doing that work for a period of twenty years. About ten years ago, during the administration of the late Judge Joseph H. Barnes, a contract, month to month, was made with Mr. Milder for the transportation of prisoners at a flat rate of $135 a month. This contract was made after several applicants had been interviewed by the late Judge Barnes.

Mr. Milder has given us very good service. He is on hand whenever needed. The transportation of prisoners is handled in a most efficient manner. We feel, Judge Charles J. Brown, the Justice of this Court, especially, that a condition bordering on chaos would result if we were compelled to advertise as required by the statute. Judge Brown feels as we do that the contract is reasonable and results in a saving to the county. We transport an average of forty prisoners per month. Prisoners may go to the common jail, House of Correction, Concord Reformatory, Lyman School, Bridgewater and as far as Chelmsford. We have the utmost faith in Mr. Milder.

May we ask that you authorize us, in accordance with the statute, to dispense also with advertising for transportation of prisoners in the City Record.

Very truly yours,

CARL V. BOMAN.
Assistant Clerk.

Of 2,629 applications for licenses to carry loaded revolvers, 2,431 were granted.

Accidents from all causes in the streets, parks and squares caused death of 122 and injury to 7,289. Automobile accidents killed 76 and injured 4,431. The automobile fatalities were 62.3 per cent of the 122 deaths.

Annual salaries: Commissioner, $8,000; superintendent, $7,000; deputy superintendents, 4 at $4.500 each; captains, $4,000; lieutenants and lieutenant-inspectors, $2,700; sergeants, $2,500; patrolmen, $1,600 the first year, with $100 yearly increase until maximum of $2,100 is reached. The Traffic Division numbered a force of 211 in 1938.

In 1938, the Police Charitable Fund amounted to $207,550 and $7,900 was paid to 54 beneficiaries during said year.

METROPOLITAN DISTRICT, 1938.

Total valuation of the 43 cities and towns in the Metropolitan District in 1938 was $3,499,398,193 and the property tax on the same was $130,474,309. The average tax rate was $33.28. Strictly speaking, tax rates cannot be averaged. A rate of $37.28 would be required to raise $130,474,309 on a valuation of $3,499,398,198. Of the total valuation, 44.37 per cent applied to property in Boston.

The total valuation of the 13 cities in the district was $1,126,838,735 with a total property tax of $42,494,084, requiring a tax rate of $37.71.

Boston's tax rate of $41.30 was exceeded by Chelsea ($46.20), Revere ($47.00), Saugus ($46.00) and Somerville ($43.90).

REVENUE BOND ACTS.

The 1936 issue of the "Municipal Index" contains a detailed study of the revenue bond acts in the thirty-three states which have enabling acts, and reports of all forty-eight states, showing what advantage has been taken of these acts by cities to finance the construction, operation and maintenance of sewerage systems and sewage treatment plants by service charges.

The table shows the status of revenue bond acts and other enabling acts in the different states, the dates when the acts became effective, and whether or not cities have taken advantage of the opportunity offered for financing bonds by service charges. In the case of states with no enabling acts, the table shows whether cities are charging sewer rentals under some other authority.

A NEW POSITIVE WATER-METER TESTER.

The large majority of waterworks, particularly the smaller ones, seldom have accurate or positive means of testing their meters. Often when a meter is repaired, the man making the repairs simply blows through the meter to see if it runs, when it is again put into service with the assumption that it is accurate. Sometimes meters are hooked up in series with a new meter and water is run through to see if the readings check. This is better than the lung-power method, but still is far from accurate or dependable, in that the test meter may be in error by 2 per cent or even more. Several states have regulations governing water utilities, both municipal and private, and require a positive method of testing water meters in every meter shop.—American City Magazine.

BUDGETARY CONTROL.

Prior to installing the present system of budgetary control, effective as of January 1, 1939, the city of Newark had no centralized accounting control over its budget commitments. The city's general ledger contained accounts for the various budget appropriations, and reflected disbursements out of the appropriations. However, commitments for work and material were not recorded in the city's accounts until after bills submitted by the vendors had been approved for payment by the Board of Commissioners. Consequently, financial reports could only show the amount of appropriated moneys that had not been disbursed out of any account. No recognition could be given in these reports to the unpaid purchase commitments, since the amount was not known. The American City.

TAUNTON'S ASPHALT PLANT.

One of the functions of a city public works or street department is to operate as effectively as possible in the construction and maintenance of its streets and sidewalks and to produce the necessary materials for paving at the lowest possible cost. In some cities this is effected by the purchase of all paving materials in either the raw or the mixed stage. Taunton has used a city-owned 100-ton asphalt plant for street paving and maintenance and for sidewalk construction for ten years. Located in the city yard with the equipment repair shop and garage, the plant is housed in a 60 by 90 foot building with a 30 by 100 foot wing, which was formerly used as a foundry. The American City.

BOSTON AS A TOWN.

From its foundation until 1755, or a period of 125 years, Boston was not only the most outstanding but the most populous town in the American colonies. In 1760, Philadelphia's population was ahead, viz., 18,756, Boston's then being 15,631 and New York's about 14,000. In the last year of town government, viz., 1821, Boston's population was about 45,000 and its public debt $100,000, all incurred for new county buildings.

The history of Boston as a town during a period of nearly two centuries surpasses in civic interest that of Boston as a city because of the untiring zeal and successful efforts of its townsmen to realize more of true democracy than had ever been attained before. Their obligations were held as sacred as their liberties.

WATER-SUPPLY DEVELOPMENT IN THE UNITED STATES.

In 1652 Boston introduced the first American public water supply. The first mechanical pumps were used in 1761 at Bethlehem, Pa., where Hans Christiansen, an American pioneer water-supply engineer, made his pumps work "after severe struggles." In 1850 there were only 100 water plants in the United States, and as late as 1875 only 243. In 1933 there were more than 11,000 public water supplies, some serving more than one community.

TO PROTECT MINORS.

Buffalo is considering an ordinance, similar to the one in effect in New York City, for the protection of minors in theaters. It permits children, unaccompanied by adults, only in theaters licensed as to adequate sanitary and safety provisions, sets aside a certain section for them and requires the presence of a licensed matron.

SQUARE DEAL IN ASSESSMENTS FOR TAXATION.

Many cities are finding it greatly to their advantage to have their tax valuations periodically overhauled. The first criterion of any assessment is equity. For every citizen who wants through "pull" or however else to get off easy, there are twenty, nay a hundred who want a fair and square deal for all.

The appraisal of city real estate is a highly technical affair.

Few things are more important than the equalization of assessments. Particularly in cities that are cramped by an inflexible debt or tax limit, an honest, full value assessment may be a great boon. Without the slightest raise in the tax rate a substantially greater tax yield may be had.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

SPECIAL MEETING.

Friday, June 13, 1941.

Special meeting of the City Council in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at 11.30 a. m., President GALVIN in the chair. Absent, Coun. Coffey.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the Flag.

The meeting was held pursuant to the following call.

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 11, 1941.

To the Members of the City Council.

Gentlemen,—You are respectfully requested to assemble in the City Council Chamber, City Hall, on Friday, June 13, 1941, at 11.30 a. m., for the purpose of taking such action as may be advisable on the following financial orders now pending before your Honorable Board:

Order for an appropriation of $148,323.45 for construction of public ways or permanent pavement and order for a loan of $500,000 for the same purpose.

Order for an appropriation of $148,323.45 for the construction of bridges and order for a loan of $500,000 for the same purpose.

Order for a loan of $500,000 for sewerage works.

The declaration of the tax rate is immediately necessary and it is of vital importance that the two appropriation orders specified above be adopted at this meeting.

Unless such action is taken it will not be possible to borrow any money for streets or bridges, the repair of which is imperatively required.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

Placed on file.

Coun. SHATTUCK, for the Committee on Finance, submitted reports recommending the passage of the five orders enumerated in the call for the meeting.

The report was accepted and the question came on the passage of the orders.

Coun. SHATTUCK—Mr. President, the report of the committee recommends the passage of the three loan orders of $500,000 each for public ways and permanent pavement, for bridges, and for sewerage works, and two appropriation orders of $148,323.45 each for public ways or permanent pavement, and for bridges. These two appropriation orders will be from the tax levy. I have here a letter from the City Auditor reviewing our borrowing program for this year and indicating how we should probably come out at the end of the year. I should like to read from that letter. The auditor says:

"I submit for your information the following table relating to debt transactions of the city during the current fiscal year:

Bonds already issued in 1941:
Huntington Avenue Subway Extension	$500,000 00
Miscellaneous Rapid Transit Issues	40,000 00
		$540,000 00
Bond issues already approved by City Council:
Surplus Commodity Stamp Plan	$250,000 00
Municipal Relief Loan	3,430,000 00
		3,680,000 00
Bond issues pending in City Council:
Overlay Deficit Funding	$2,000,000 00
Sewerage Works ($500,000.00)	* 200,000 00
Bridge Construction ($500,000.00)	* 200,000 00
Highway Construction ($500,000.00)	* 200,000.00
		2,600,000 00
Probable future issues:
Huntington Avenue Underpass		200,000 00
Total		$7,020,000 00

* Estimated amount that it will be necessary to issue in 1941.

This amount with tax levy appropriation will support expenditures of, roughly, $350,000.00, which would appear to be the reasonable limit of cash expenditures during the coming year."

He further says:

"Serial bond redemptions during 1941 will total $9,455,000.00. Subtracting from this amount the total of probable issues appearing in the foregoing table indicates a probable reduction of $2,500,000.00 in the outstanding serial debt of the city. The actual reduction will probably be in excess of this figure, since betterment collections are applied as a credit in the determination of the net funded debt."

The substance of that is that if we authorize these loans, having in mind the loans now before us, we will come out at the end of the year with a probable reduction of two and one half million in the net debt, due to the fact that maturities this year exceed the amount of new borrowing by approximately that amount. I believe that all these borrowings now before us are for purposes either in the nature of repairs or in the nature of regularly recurring expenditures, as we always have something to do on bridges, streets and sewers, and, therefore, theoretically speaking, they shoud be included in the current taxes of the year, as annually recurring expenditures which ought to be provided out of the tax levy. There are circumstances, however, under which theoretical give way to practical considerations, and I believe this is one of those cases. I believe that to go completely on a pay-as-you-go basis at this time would put an undue burden on the tax levy and on real estate, and that by this proposed action we will have taken a step which is proper, under the circumstances. Your committee has reported favorably on all three of these proposed measures, and I believe they should be passed.

Coun. HUTCHINSON—Mr. President, I believe one fact should be emphasized,—that where many employees have been transferred to defense projects they are not available for our street and bridge work, and it is therefore necessary to borrow the money to have these necessary repairs made.

The question was put on passage of the five orders mentioned in the call for the meeting (three loan and two appropriation orders).

Coun. D. F. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, I move that the orders be referred to the Executive Committee.

The motion was lost.

The orders were passed by roll call (the two appropriation orders absolutely and the three loan orders receiving their first reading and passage), yeas 20, nays, Coun. D. F. Sullivan, 1.

The purpose for which the meeting was called having been accomplished, the Council was adjourned at 12.15 p. m., to meet on Monday, June 23, at 2 p. m.

PROCEEDINGS OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

May 28, 1941

Following a conference, the School Committee, by unanimous consent, assembled in public meeting at 6:15 o'clock P. M., the Chairman presiding.

Present: Messrs. Lee, McDevitt, Norton, Sullivan, and White.

On motion, the Committee by unanimous vote suspended Section 14 of the Rules which provides for twenty-four hours' notice for the calling of special meetings.

The following was offered:

That this Committee reconsider its action of May 12, 1941, accepting the budget with detailed estimates for the current financial year; also the passage of the order making appropriation in the sum of $9,179,463.86.

The motion passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Messrs, Lee, McDevitt, Norton, Sullivan, and White—5.

NAYS—0.

On motion, it was unanimously

VOTED, That the School Committee hereby withdraws and requests His Honor the Mayor to return to the School Committee for further study, the budget and appropriation order which were submitted to him as the result of the action of this Committee of May 12. 1941.

The budget and appropriation order having been withdrawn from His Honor the Mayor, the Chairman stated that the Commitee proposes to carefully review the budgetary estimates with a view to making further reduction if that shall be found possible. The Corporation Counsel has informed His Honor the Mayor that there will be available for appropriation by the School Committee an additional sum of approximately twenty-two thousand dollars ($22,000) which the City is to receive on account of collections on unpaid bills from cities and towns, for tuition of non-resident pupi's attending Boston schools.

The Committee adjourned.

Attest:

ELLEN M. CRONIN,
Secretary.

June 2, 1941

A regular meeting of the School Committee of the City of Boston was held in the Administration Building, 15 Beacon Street, at 7:35 o'clock P. M., the Chairman presiding.

Present: Messrs. Lee, McDevitt, Norton, Sullivan and White.

AMENDMENT OF ANNUAL APPROPRIATION ORDER

The Chairman made the following statement:

At a special meeting of the School Committee held May 28, 1941, the Committee voted unanimously to reconsider the budget with detailed estimates for the current financial year; also the order which was passed at the meeting of May 12, 1941, making appropriation in the sum of $9,179,463.86. The budget and appropriation order were thereupon withdrawn from the Mayor.

At the request of the School Committee, the Board of Apportionment then carefully reviewed the estimates as previously submitted and in the light of the expenditures for the first five months of the current financial year as compared with the first five months of the preceding year, recommended to the School Committee a further reduction in the sum of $100,000 under the item "Salaries of Principa's, teachers, members of the supervising staff, and others."

The Board of Apportionment further recommended a reduction of $30,000 in the item "Supplies, Equipment, and Incidentals."

The following communicaiton was received:

To the School Committee of the City of Boston:

I submit herewith changes in the Budget as submitted by me to the School Committee at the meeting of May 12, 1941 and accepted on that date. These changes carry into effect reductions totaling $130,000 recommended by the Board of Apportionment and agreed to by the School Committee.

I recommend the passage of the accompanying order.

Respectfully yours,
Alexander M. Sullivan.
Business Manager.

ORDERED, That the appropriation order, included in the Budget, and passed at the meeting of May 12, 1941, is hereby amended by striking out the items:

Salaries of principals, teachers, members of the supervising staff and others	$7,067,668.54
Supplies, equipment and incidentals	587,142.51

and substituting in place thereof the following:

Salaries of principals, teachers, members of the supervising staff and others	$6,967,668.54
Supplies, equipment and incidentals	$557,142.51

so that the order as amended will read as follows:

ORDERED, That to meet the estimated cost of maintenance of the Boston public schools for the fiscal year 1941, based on the detailed estimates, which do not include "alterations, repairs, furniture and fixtures," for which separate appropriation orders are made, the following amounts are hereby appropriated for the purposes indicated below, in addition to the sums appropriated on April 21, 1941, "on account":

For general school purposes:
Salaries of administrative officers, clerks, stenographers and other employees	$223,863.70
Salaries of supervisors of attendance	52,690.00
Salaries of principals, teachers, members of the supervising staff and others	6,967,668.54
Salaries of cafeteria employees, nutrition class attendants and lunch attendants	35,608.20
Salaries of custodians	563,264.51
Salaries of matrons	13,976.40
Fuel and light, including electric current for power	252,014.76
Supplies, equipment and incidentals	557,142.51
Pensions to veterans	6,852.00
Promoting the Americanization and better training for citizenship of foreign-born persons	11,214.00
Vocational guidance	31,091.00
Physical education — day schools and playgrounds	178,386.77
Salaries of school physicians, salaries of school nurses and care of teeth	125,499.80
Extended use of the public schools	30,191.67
Pensions to teachers (amount to be raised by taxation)	——
Total	$9,049,463.86

SUMMARY OF FINAL APPROPRIATIONS

Appropriations "on account" on April 21, 1941	$6,400,000.00
Final appropriations	9,049,463.86
Total appropriations for maintenance, exclusive of "Alterations, Repairs, Furniture and Fixtures"	$15,449,463.86

REDUCTIONS IN DETAILED ESTIMATES

The Estimated Cost of Maintenance (reference Page XII of the Budget) is changed as follows: The item "Salaries of Principals, Teachers, Members of the Supervising Staff and Others" is reduced from $12,167,688.54 to $12,067,668.54. The item "Supplies, Equipment and Incidentals" is reduced from $771,142.51 to $741,142.51. The total for the Estimated Cost of Maintenance, $15,579,463.86; is reduced to $15,449,463.86, making a net reduction of $130,000 in the total appropriations covering expenditures under the control of the School Committee.

The item of $224,879 under "Reductions" (reference Page 102 of the Budget) is increased by $100,000 making the total of the reductions for savings $397,440 instead of $297,440. The net total for "Salaries of Principals, Teachers, Members of the Supervising Staff and Others (Including Supervisors of Instruction)" on Page 102, is therefore $12,067,668.54.

The sum of $92,534.10, being the total for books, stationery and other supplies for Latin and day high schools, (reference Page 128 of the Budget) is reduced from $92,534.10 to $88,502.40, brought about as the result of a 5 per cent reduction in the per capita allowances for Latin and day high schools, exclusive of High School of Practical Arts and Mechanic Arts High School. The sum of $127,458.80, being the total for books, stationery and other supplies for elementary and intermediate day school districts (reference Pages 129-132 of the Budget) is reduced from $127,458.80 to $121,085.86, as the result of a 5 per cent reduction in the per capita allowances. The sum of $30,000 for reserve for transfers (reference Page 137 of the Budget) is reduced from $30,000 to $10,404.64, which is a reduction of $19,595.36. The total for "Supplies, Equipment and Incidentals" has therefore been reduced from $771,142.51 to $741,142.51—a net reduction of $30,000.

INCREASE IN INCOME

The Estimated Income, general, including Smith-Hughes and George-Deen Funds, 1941, (reference Page V of the Budget) has been changed from $958,103.55 to $980,103.55, an increase of $22,000,—thereby increasing the total income from $979,255.86 to $1,001,255.86. This change has been made on the recommendation of the Corporation Counsel—that increased collections will be received from cities and towns which have delayed payment of tuition for pupils attending vocational schools in Boston. (Reference pages V and XI).

REDUCTION IN APPROPRIATIONS AND AMOUNT TO BE RAISED BY TAXATION

Due to the reductions totaling $130,000 the total appropriations for the year 1941 will show a decrease of $213,029.90 as compared with the appropriations for the year 1940. Because of these reductions totaling $130,000 and an increase of $22,000 in the estimated income, the amount to be raised by taxation in 1941 for maintenance and for lands and buildings for schools will be approximately $429,000 less than the amount raised by taxation for the same purposes in 1940. (Reference Page VI).

The communication was placed on file and the reductions recommended therein were accepted.

Question then came on the passage of the order amending two items of the appropriation order passed at the meeting of May 12, 1941, i. e., "Salaries of principals, teachers, members of the supervising staff and others" and "Supplies, equipment and incidentals."

On Mr. Lee's request, the question was divided.

Question came on the amendment of the item "Salaries of principals, teachers, members of the supervising staff and others" reducing the original item in the sum of $100,000.

The amendment was adopted by the following vote:

YEAS—Messrs. Lee, McDevitt, Norton, Sullivan, and White—5.

NAYS—0.

Question then came on the amendment of the item "Supplies, equipment and incidentals" reducing the original item by $30,000.

Mr. Lee: I would like to argue that point a little bit, to try to bring the Committee to my frame of mind.

I think the fact that our expert staff, the Board of Apportionment and the Business Manager, can come out with recommendations that are $130,000 apart in the course of one week, indicates that that procedure is not as accurate as we would like to have it.

I am gratified that we are making the reduction that we have made in the appropriation for salaries of teachers. You remember, I called for a $40,000 reduction and this is a $100,000 reduction.

I believe we are going too far in reducing our reserve for supplies by $30,000.

I think we should bear in mind that we follow the Archimedes principle in the revised figure on which we are voting today. Heretofore the Superintendent has tried to count every drop of blood in the body of our teaching staff, in other words, to count the actual vacancies that will be filled or will not be filled with individuals and he has done the best he could by that method. A different approach is to see how much the water level of the bath tub has gone up or has gone down from year to year. In doing that we have noticed that there was a trend downward, that whether individuals were appointed or not appointed, there still was a trend downward in the last five years in the amount actually spent. As a check on that, when we looked over the amount actually spent in the first four months of this year we found the trend was downward. So we deduced that the body of Archimedes weighs less, because the water was lower in the bath tub, which is a basis that I think is a sound one to reckon on. I am glad to see it brought into use here and I think it should be reckoned on in future years.

However, I feel that we should not lower the appropriation for supplies by this amount, because this is not a representative year. We are not going to follow the trend as far as supplies are concerned during this coming year. In fact, we are going to see an upward swing of prices owing to the war program. Congress has appropriated seventeen billions, and unless everybody's spending is going to be curtailed by a considerable amount, prices are going to go up. I think we need the $30,000 reserve for supplies this year in view of the uncertain conditions and the trend of prices.

I further realize there are certain expenses for particular purposes which the Committee would like to carry out next September, on which they will fall back on their reserve in order to have the money for carrying them out. For that reason I would like to see a reserve in the supply budget.

In view of the stand that we took two weeks ago I think we could be a little more conservative today and leave the $30,000 in the budget as a reserve for supplies.

Chairman: You understand we are not cutting $30,000 out of supplies. We are cutting $20,000 of that $30,000 from Reserve, on the advice of the Board of Apportionment who feel today that a reserve of $10,000 is sufficient. The further reduction means five per cent in the per capita allowance for supplies for the schools.

Mr. Norton: I think it should be understood that there are no salary reductions here. Mr. Lee spoke of a reduction in the salary appropriation.

Chairman: No salary that we have agreed on in conference has been curtailed by these amendments. This saving is taken off the bottom. The cushion is diminished so there will be less of an unexpended balance than we anticipated.

A roll call being ordered, the amendment was adopted by the following vote:

YEAS—Messrs. McDevitt, Norton, Sullivan, and White—4.

NAYS—Mr. Lee—1.

Question came on the passage of the appropriation order as amended, as follows:

ORDERED, That to meet the estimated cost of maintenance of the Boston Public Schools for the fiscal year 1941, based on the detailed estimates, which do not include "alterations, repairs, furniture and fixtures," for which separate appropriation orders are made, the following amounts are hereby appropriated for the purposes indicated below, in addition to the sums appropriated on April 21, 1941, "on account":

For general school purposes:

Salaries of administrative officers, clerk, stenographers and other employees	$223,863.70
Salaries of supervisors of attendance	52,690.00
Salaries of principals, teachers, members of the supervising staff and others	6,967,668.54
Salaries of cafeteria employees, nutrition class attendants and lunch attendants	35,608.20
Salaries of custodians	563,264.51
Salaries of matrons	13,976.40
Fuel and light, including electric current for power	252,014.76
Supplies, equipment and incidentals	557,142.61
Pensions to veterans	6,852.00
Promoting the Americanization and better training for citizenship of foreign-born persons	11,214.00
Vocational guidance	31,091.00
Physical education — day schools and playgrounds	178,386.77
Salaries of school physicians, salaries of school nurses and care of teeth	125,499.80
Extended use of the public schools	30,191.67
Pensions to teachers (amount to be raised by taxation)	.....
Total	$9,049,463.86

SUMMARY OF FINAL APPROPRIATIONS

Appropriations "on account" on April 21, 1941	$6,400,000 00
Final appropriations	9,049,463.86
Total appropriations for maintenance, exclusive of "Alterations, Repairs, Furniture and Fixtures."	$15,449,463.86

The order passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Messrs. McDevitt, Norton, Sullivan, and White—4.

NAYS—Mr. Lee—1.

In connection with his vote Mr. Lee stated that he was voting "No" having in mind only the reduction of the item "Supplies, equipment and incidentals" in the sum of $30,000.

SUGGESTED THREE-YEAR COURSE IN HIGH SCHOOLS

Mr. Norton: Due to the national emergency certain American colleges are preparing to meet the challenge of acceleration with a proposed optional three-year program. It has been suggested that a study might be made relative to a three-year program for some of the high school students who are able to do four years' work in three years. Such a study is being made in some other cities. I wonder if during the summer we might have a study made of this by the Board of Superintendents?

Referred to the Superintendent who will have the suggested study made.

JUNIOR ELEMENTARY ASSISTANTS

Mr. Norton: Mr. Chairman, may I ask about the junior elementary teachers? What is their status?

Chairman: We will await the Mayor's approval of the budget, which we hope will be given without delay. We anticipate having another meeting on Thursday or Friday of this week, so that the Superintendent may be prepared to put in his nominations of the elementary teachers. We plan to fill every actual vacancy.

Mr. Norton: When will this go into effect?

Chairman: At once. These teachers, at least for the most part, are assigned to the schools to which they are to be appointed.

The Committee adjourned.

Attest:

ELLEN M. CRONIN,
Secretary.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS. (STATE SERVICE.)

NOTE.—Applicants are advised to file applications early. In event of a tie on the eligible list, the applicant who filed his application first will be given precedence. The lists established as a result of these examinations will be used to fill all vacancies in these classifications in the various State departments.

ASSISTANT FISH CULTURIST (MALE), AUGUST 8, 1941.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

PROPOSALS FOR SEWERAGE WORKS IN HARDING ROAD, BETWEEN HADWIN WAY AND STELLA ROAD, AND OUTLET IN STELLA ROAD TO STONY BROOK CONDUIT, WEST ROXBURY.

The Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston, office 508 City Hall Annex, invites proposals from citizens of the United States and corporations or other legal associations wherein the controlling interest to the extent of at least over one half thereof is owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States, for sewerage works in Harding road, etc. A bond will be required for doing the work of a surety company approved by the Commissioner in the sum of 100 per cent of the amount of the contract, to secure the due performance of the contract and the full protection of the city. Forms of proposals may be obtained at Room 508, City Hall Annex. Each proposal should be inclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked, "Proposal for Sewerage Works in Harding Road, etc.," and left at Room 508, fifth floor, City Hall Annex, before 12 m. of Monday, July 7, 1941, with a certified check for three hundred (300) dollars, payable to and to become the property of the city if the proposal after acceptance is not carried out. The proposals will then and there be publicly opened and read. Proposals must be made in duplicate, the sealed duplicate, without check, to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the bids. There will be a charge of two dollars ($2) for each set of plans and specifications taken out. If the price of any item appears to the Commissioner to be abnormally high or low, or the bidder neglects to bid on each and every item, it may lead to the rejection of the proposal containing such price. The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which schedule is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained, without cost, upon application therefor at the office of the Commissioner of Public Works. The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Law so called) to all persons to be employed under this contract and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required prior to the award of said contract. The undersigned reserves the right to reject any or all proposals or to award the contract as he deems best.

CITY RECORD

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE OF BOSTON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

VOL. 33. SATURDAY, JULY 5, 1941. NO. 27

MAYOR TOBIN OFFICIATES AT LAUNCHING OF FIRST VESSEL BUILT IN BOSTON SINCE WORLD WAR DAYS—FERRYBOAT "HUDSON," BUILT IN YARDS FAMOUS FOR "CLIPPER SHIP" SAILING VESSELS, CHRISTENED BY MRS. TOBIN BEFORE HUGE CROWD OF DISTINGUISHED CITIZENS—MAYOR TOBIN PRAISES ENTERPRISE WHICH BROUGHT BUSINESS TO BOSTON AND EXPRESSES HOPE THIS IS BEGINNING OF REVIVAL OF BUSINESS WHICH ONCE BROUGHT GREAT FAME TO PORT.

On Saturday afternoon, June 28, Mayor Tobin, in the presence of a large group of the leading citizens of Boston, launched the first large commercial craft to be built in Boston since the World War No. 1 — a ferryboat built for the Electric Ferries, Inc., to the order of the General Motors Sales Corporation. Mayor Tobin cut the rope that started the vessel on her launching, while Mrs. Tobin christened the vessel with water taken from Boston Harbor and the Hudson River where the ferry will be put into service. In launching the vessel, Mayor Tobin spoke, in part, as follows:

In these days when, along almost the entire coastline of the United States, shipbuilding plants are humming in the performance of their part of the National Defense Program, the launching of a craft has become commonplace. Naval units, cargo carriers, and other types are being created at record speed and almost daily one takes to its native element.

But the launching for which we gathered is something out of the ordinary, even though this new hull does not have attached to it the glamour of a fighting craft or the promise that it will make its way to far ports with many cargoes. This event marks two things. First, the revival of shipbuilding in Boston proper and, second, the revival of a shipyard that formerly was world famous.

On this very spot, nearly a century ago, a man of vision and daring began the creation of sailing craft that took the maritime world by storm. I refer to Donald McKay, who designed and built clipper ships that set such records for speedy and lucrative voyages that they revolutionized shipbuilding.

Launched Great Ships.

It was his idea to combine extreme lines with cargo-carrying space that would turn the added speed thus afforded into quick and impressive profits to the owners. In 1850 he launched "Stag Hound" of 1,535 tons, a size that was astonishing in that day. The following year came "Flying Cloud," a larger craft, that made the voyage from New York to San Francisco, around Cape Horn, in the then phenomenal time of eighty-nine days, and with the additional record of having sailed three hundred and seventy-four miles in a twenty-four-hour period. There followed "Flying Fish," "Sovereign of the Seas," "Lightning," "Romance of the Seas" and "Great Republic," the last-named the most gigantic thing afloat up to that time, with a length of three hundred and twenty-five feet, a tonnage of four thousand, five hundred and sixty-five and masts that were two hundred and forty feet in length.

These flyers, created by the former Nova Scotia farm boy who had vision, made the American Merchant Marine supreme for a time. Last of the extreme clippers built by Donald McKay was the "Glory of the Seas."

Today we are launching an entirely different type of vessel. Instead of the graceful wooden hull of wood which McKay turned out, she is of steel with the sections welded together. Instead of being propelled by the force of wind against swelling white sails, her power is derived from the modern diesel electric equipment that is coming into general use, and which is being applied to so many naval craft. Such is the march of progress.

However, she was fashioned by another master shipbuilder, Carl G. Hodblom, who is one of the geniuses of the present day group of marine artisans. She is well and honestly built and, in her more humble capacity of transporting people in New York Harbor, she will give as good and faithful service as the winged flyers that formerly were launched from this tract.

It is good to see this form of business revived in Boston. Ours has always been and always will be a maritime city. In the early days, Boston produced great numbers of hardy and skillful sailors and a vast fleet of vessels of many types. A lot of the fortunes that helped to make Boston famous were founded on shipping and it is the hope of every person who has Boston's welfare at heart that this shipyard and others in Boston will be busy and prosperous for years to come, as America regains the place it formerly held in the Merchant Marine.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"
From Boston Centennial Poem by
NATHAN HASKEL DOLE.

SHIPBUILDING EMPIRE.

Donald McKay died in comparative obscurity and today he rests in a quiet spot near the banks of the Merrimac river. From his mansion on White street, within sight of where we now stand, he formerly surveyed his shipbuilding empire.

A group of men interested in ships and shipping paid him just, though belated honor by raising funds to provide the memorial that stands on Castle Island, at the edge of the channel, where all sailors who pass in and out of our harbor may see it. On that stone shaft is carved this tribute: "Master builder whose genius produced ships of a beauty and speed before unknown, which swept the seven seas, made the American clipper ship famous the world over and brought renown and prosperity to the City of Boston."

As a further tribute to the honesty and substance of the things Donald McKay wrought, let me say that the very launching ways upon which "Hudson" was built have incorporated into them the ways laid down by the old master in 1850 and from which "Glory of the Seas" took her maiden plunge into the ocean. Put in place more than ninety years ago, those old timbers still are sound and their fastenings tight. Donald McKay builded well and Carl Hedblom, who succeeds him, will uphold that tradition.

To the General Motors Sales Corporation and to Electric Ferries, Inc., who jointly brought to this yard the project that has given employment to between three and four hundred men—American artisans who have no peers and who are the backbone of our defense drive—our city owes a vote of thanks which I now extend. We hope that "Hudson" will have a long, safe and prosperous career.

EXTENSION OF CONTRACT.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Approval has been given for an extension of the time of completion of contract for repairing hull, etc., of ferryboat "Ralph J. Palumbo," dated April 28, 1941, from June 16, 1941, to June 23, 1941. This extension is requested as the contractor was delayed in the delivery of materials and the overhauling of the blower by the B. F. Sturtevant Company, these delays being due to Government priorities.

ASSESSMENTS ABATED.

The Mayor has approved the following order of the Board of Street Commissioners:

In the matter of the application for revision of assessment levied on account of the construction of sewerage works, the Board of Street Commissioners, acting under the authority of chapter 359 of the Acts of 1896 and deeming it just and proper that such action should be taken,

Order, That the amounts hereinafter specified, being the annual apportionments of said assessment for the years specified below, be, and the same are hereby, abated.

Mary J. Gallagher et al., Vermont street, lot 2: 1912, $7, 1913, $7, 1914, $7, assessed June 27, 1904.

MAYOR TOBIN EXPLAINS WHAT BOSTON HAS DONE AND IS DOING IN MATTER OF PUTTING INTO EFFECT A DEFENSE PROGRAM—PLANS NOW WELL ADVANCED, HE TELLS RADIO AUDIENCE, OVER STATION WEEI, AND POINTS TO FACT THAT IN FIRE PROTECTION ALONE CITY IS FAR AHEAD—CHAIRMEN OF COMMITTEES NAMED AND DUTIES ARE DEFINED—PLAN MODELED SOMEWHAT ON THAT OF LONDON, WHERE CONDITIONS AS TO STREETS ARE MUCH LIKE THOSE OF BOSTON.

The following is, in brief, Mayor Tobin's radio speech on Ranny Weeks program, Station WEEI, 10.30 p. m., Monday, June 30:

Good Evening, Friends of the Air Waves.

Because Boston is so much like London in many respects, we who have charge of the operation and the security of the city had much valuable information before us when we began our defense program. We had to consider how to handle emergencies in the older part of the community, with its narrow and winding streets and many old buildings, and we had to give thought to what should be done, if the need arose, in the younger sections where thoroughfares are straighter and wider and the majority of the buildings of modern construction. However, we have the paradoxical situation that many of the latest type of skyscrapers in Boston are in the older section.

I can safely say that Boston's defense program is well advanced and that in the matter of fire protection alone it is far ahead of what has been done in the majority of American cities.

It is well to point out that in any civil defense program difficulties are encountered. In Boston, we found that inasmuch as the United States is not at war, consideration had to be given to state's rights, private rights and peace-time pursuits. Nevertheless, the possibility of peace-time disasters and of internal trouble gave us the excuse, or, perhaps, reason is the better word, for operating on a semi-military basis.

Because I have mentioned the fire protection phase of our program I shall take it up first. One of our strongest assets is our Auxiliary Fire Department. We now have—mark, I do not say we are going to have, but we have at this moment—twelve hundred civilians trained as fire fighters. All of them have completed the regular course of training that is given to the men who enter the Fire Department. If we were to lose our entire force of fifteen hundred regular firemen we could at once replace them with twelve hundred auxiliary fire fighters.

FIRE DEPARTMENT WORK.

Under the direction of William Arthur Reilly, our Fire Commissioner whom I appointed chairman of the local Defense Committee early in 1940, the work of building up an auxiliary fire-fighting force is being continued. Commissioner Reilly and the officers of his department go before various organizations, showing pictures and explaining the work that is necessary. They stress the fact that there is no hazard until the emergency arises, and then the hazard is brought home to them, whether they are trained in fire fighting or not. The response has been good and I am informed that it is possible right now to organize a volunteer fire-fighting force in any section of the city.

The idea that has to be sold is that if a man wishes to defend his home and his family, the best thing he can do is to join the Auxiliary Fire Department. The education he receives from the course given is the finest kind of fire prevention. We are aiming at a membership of 5,000 in our auxiliary department. The men go to their neighborhood fire stations at six or seven o'clock at night and take a course of instruction till nine o'clock. The course is the most practical possible, the men who have taken it enjoy it and the city is better off as a result.

In addition we are acquiring the latest type of portable pumps, similar to those used in fighting bomb fires abroad. The chief value of these pumps is that they can be taken where larger apparatus cannot go. By placing portable units on hose wagons and ladder trucks, the pumping strength of the department will be tripled and the cost will be less than that of a single new fire engine or ladder truck purchased under ordinary conditions.

In the field of communications, by means of a W. P. A. project, fire alarm wires are being placed underground and two-way radio, on a separate wave length, has been placed in the various chiefs' cars, while arrangements have been, with the organization of amateur radio operators, for auxiliary communication service. Finally, plans are being worked out for the protection of vital points in the water and public works systems. This guarding will be done either by the police or by the State Guard.

In the matter of protection or demolition of buildings, our Building Commissioner, James E. Mooney, formed a committee made up of himself, the Public Works Commissioner, the Superintendent of Public Buildings, the Transit Commissioner, the Park Commissioner, the Health Commissioner, the Superintendent of Construction of the Department of School Buildings and a representative of the Police Department. This committee has divided Boston into fourteen districts, with headquarters, for each district, in a public school that has a large gymnasium and a cafeteria with kitchen equipment.

REGULAR WORKERS.

To each division headquarters will be assigned a regular city employee from the departments I have just mentioned, with the understanding that they will form a unit to direct the activities of volunteer units to be established from lists we have catalogued of all persons engaged in building or underground construction.

Already we have listed every licensed builder in the city, by name and address, according to their various classifications. Every journeyman and master gas fitter, every journeyman and master plumber, every licensed building wrecker, building contractors, heating contractors, shoring workers and building movers have been listed. Every union representing the building trades has been contacted for a list of their members by names and addresses.

We are cataloguing all licensed public halls by name and street address, with the allowable capacity of persons, with the thought in mind that these halls could be converted into temporary housing.

Diagrammatic forms are in process of preparation, listing the personnel of regularly employed city workers who will act as key men to supervise work units classified as follows: Rescue units, wrecking units, shoring units, construction units, protective units.

Next on the list is health and hospitals. Dr. G. Lynde Gately, Health Commissioner of the city, has assumed responsibility for this work. The interrelationship between the Public Health Department and the Red Cross has been established and a conference has been held with the director of the medical service of the Massachusetts Committee on Public Safety, for the purpose of making the Boston program conform to those in other sections of the state.

Congested areas of Boston have been divided into districts with the existing health units as their bases. Each is in charge of a district health officer responsible for organizing a unit for first aid and necessary treatment in case of a catastrophe. All available hospital beds within the city limits have been catalogued.

Several conferences have been held with Boston executives of the milk industry for the purpose of protecting pasteurization facilities and the milk supply, and local and state laboratories have been contacted for the purpose of increasing production of materials necessary for immunization in the event of an epidemic of preventable communicable disease. The nursing profession has been surveyed to determine the number of auxiliary professional nurses available.

Doctor Gately's work is not confined to Boston. He has been placed in charge of Suffolk County, thus establishing a health program on the basis of protection by area rather than by city limits.

As far as welfare is concerned, William G. O'Hare, Commissioner of Public Welfare, is ready to carry out all welfare activities which are not covered by the Red Cross emergency disaster relief program.

Shelter Plans.

In the matter of shelter, present plans are to utilize school buildings because of their facilities for housing large numbers of people in assembly halls, lunch rooms and regular class rooms. Boston has more than three hundred such buildings. Municipal and large public buildings will also be utilized, depending upon the location of a disaster and the buildings involved.

I early arranged for the formation of a special committee on transportation, headed by James L. Truden, a railroad executive of long standing. This committee deals with all transit lines, bus service, railroads, taxicab companies, steamship lines and automobile clubs. As Mr. Truden is also chairman of transportation for the state committee, his plans will necessarily go beyond the city limits because of the nature of the transportation needs and facilities.

The Red Cross has assumed responsibility for the following: Medical and first aid field stations supplemental to regular municipal stations; procurement and delivery of food and fuel; registration and identification through field stations; rehabilitation of families and homes.

Coming to the subject of air raid precaution, Police Commissioner Joseph F. Timilty has had his various police districts busy with the work of organizing civilian volunteers possessed of suitable qualities for service as air raid wardens. Each block and each street is to be in charge of a person of responsibility who is being trained in the proper procedure to follow in the event of a disaster condition arising in his vicinity.

Graduates of the Massachusetts Women's Civilian Defense School and the Men's Air Raid Precautions School are to be utilized to give instructions to those citizens in the procedure that should be followed and this instruction will begin as soon as the Air Raid Precautions School graduates its first class.

The services of air raid wardens, dealing essentially with the preservation of law and order, naturally lend themselves to police supervision. The Police Department, through its various patrolmen, will be able to supervise and control the activities of air raid wardens in an efficient manner.

We are planning to install sirens operated by steam or compressed air, because of the possibility of our present system of electric sirens failing in an emergency where the current supply might be cut off or disrupted.

Regarding public works, the commissioner of that department, George G. Hyland, has been active in preparing for operations under disaster conditions. His experiences, following the St. Valentine's Day blizzard and the hurricane of the preceding year, have given him exceptional qualifications for visualizing and planning on the protection of and repair of the systems of water supply, sewage, bridges and highways.

For the protection and repair of transit facilities, Colonel Thomas F. Sullivan, our Transit Commissioner, has organized all the vital information necessary for the proper execution of the defense program and in conference with other city officials has made plans for the protection of vital points of the transit system.

Volunteers for the civilian defense program have been enlisted through publicity releases, radio broadcasts and district meetings. As of tomorrow, six district meetings will have been held in municipal buildings, through the cooperation of the Adult Recreation Project of the W. P. A. This project has arranged for the staff and personnel at the various municipal buildings and the speakers heard represented the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the United War Veterans, the Massachusetts Committee on Public Safety and department heads of the city government. Each meeting has averaged an attendance of 250, who have heard the program of the local committee outlined, and who, with others of the general public, have been invited to assist in the work.

In the planning and research necessary to formulate the program, reports from England and Canada, as well as from various agencies of the United States, have been carefully studied. A mapping project has been sponsored, with the assistance of W. P. A., for the purpose of locating facilities for use of the city government under disaster conditions.

All types of machinery, tools and equipment are being catalogued. Hazardous areas of the city have been identified, means of egress plotted and other such work performed by forty field inspectors and an appropriate staff of draftsmen and supervisors.

There is one other phase of defense work that requires mention. That is the preservation of the morale of enlisted men through the provision of recreational and social opportunities in Boston for men on leave.

A committee of men and women civilians, headed by Mrs. Joseph E. Scanlon of West Roxbury, has been conducting a series of dances for the past five months. In addition, parties of girls have been chaperoned to Fort Devens on various occasions. This committee has made all arrangements for providing halls, music, refreshments and partners for military men in Boston on leave.

A service center has been established by the Soldiers and Sailors Service Committee, through funds provided by the Community Fund in anticipation of the U. S. O. national campaign. This center, functioning in a manner similar to the ones conducted in the last war, provides a meeting place and information service for the men of our armed forces.

All in all, we are well satisfied with the progress Boston has made in the matter of civilian defense. I am proud of the fact that Mayor LaGuardia, Director of Civilian Defense, said, when he inspected a report of our activities to date, that in his opinion Boston's program was far ahead of those in most cities in the country.

This indicated that in plans and objective, at least, the pathway for local defense has been clearly marked. It is the earnest hope of all of us that the training and precautions will never be needed under conditions of warfare, but they will be invaluable if, in the future, a catastrophe of Nature falls upon us.

TRAFFIC COMMISSION RULINGS.

Voted, That as urgently required by considerations of public safety and convenience, for a trial period of sixty (60) days, the Revised Traffic Rules and Regulations of the City of Boston are amended as follows, effective July 7, 1941:

* Contract awarded.

Upon June 24 the Mayor approved a contract with bidders as indicated for furnishing 95 per cent ethyl alcohol to city departments from July 1, 1941, to September 30, 1941, inclusive. These bids were opened June 16. Inasmuch as the two bidders quoted the same prices, permission was given to divide this business equally. The approximate totals of the awards were as follows:

United States Industrial Chemicals, Inc., $842.40; Commercial Solvents Corporation, $842.40.

As the individual awards do not amount to one thousand dollars, no formal written contracts were made out.

WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

Upon varying dates as indicated the Mayor approved contracts with firms and commercial houses for supplies, labor, etc. Communications from the heads of the several departments interested were as follows:

PARK DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, June 6, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—In order to obtain tulips for the Public Garden for 1942 it is necessary that we place our order immediately so that we might be able to obtain the tulips by the first of next October, when they must be planted.

Due to war conditions in Europe we have been unable to receive any tulip bulbs from Holland during the past two years. Last year, after considerable difficulty and writing to various sections of the country, we were able to buy some bulbs which had been grown in England and some others in Portland, Oregon.

Because of general war conditions we face the same difficulty again this year. I have checked various sources and find we will be able to obtain some tulips which have been grown in England and also some from this country.

I desire to purchase 37,000 tulip bulbs, at a cost of $1,654, from the following concerns:

M. Van Waveran & Sons, Inc., 101 West Thirty-first street, New York City, $1,148; George Alkemade, 44 Whitehall street, New York City, $290; Vaughn's Seed Store, 47 and 49 Barclay street, New York City, $216.

I believe that the prices we are getting from these concerns are very fair ones, and in view of present conditions in the tulip market I respectfully request permission to purchase these tulip bulbs without advertising, as nothing would be gained by doing so.

Very respectfully yours,

WILLIAM P. LONG,
Chairman.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, June 10, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

Your approval is respectfully requested to the award of a contract, without advertising, for sewerage works in Mercier avenue and Regan road, Dorchester, to the Prompt Contractors, Inc., 499 Beech street, Roslindale, at an estimated cost of $1,400.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

At the present time this concern has a contract for sewerage works in Beatrice street, Galty avenue and Barna road, which is in the same area where this additional work is to be done. This proposed sewer construction is in connection with a housing development now in progress, and the purpose of this work is to enable the owner and builder to extend his housing operations, and to construct finished streets at his expense.

The contractor agrees to perform this work at unit prices similar to those in the original contract, and as these prices are reasonable, I do not believe any benefit would accrue to the city by publicly advertising.

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

BOSTON, June 10, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

At the present time there is in progress a W. P. A. project for the construction of a steel and brick garage at Highland street, Roxbury. The project provided for the W. P. A. to furnish labor to erect a steel frame, the city to furnish steel and hired equipment, and most of the steel has now been delivered on the site of the work.

As the W. P. A. has no ironworkers available to do the work, it is necessary for the city to invite bids at a lump sum price to furnish labor and equipment necessary to erect the steel frame.

The bids were opened June 6, 1941, and resulted as follows:

West End Iron Works, $1,235; The Marine Company, $1,340; Daniel Marr & Son Company, $1,470.

As no further progress can be made on this building until the steel is erected and as there would be no advantage in publicly advertising, I respectfully request that you allow this department to issue, without public advertising, so-called service orders to the West End Iron Works to the amount of their submitted bid of $1,235 for doing this proposed work.

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

BOSTON, June 21, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

Your approval is requested to enter into a contract with Frank J. Jacobs Company, without publicly advertising, for the construction of 12-inch and 15-inch pipe surface drain in Deforest street, Bates street, Hallron street, Macdonald street and Grassmere road, Hyde Park, in connection with the construction of sanitary sewer as provided for by release agreements signed by Lillian E. Wolsey and Karl V. Wolsey.

The surface drain is to be located in the same trench as the sanitary sewer and the cost of the work is determined from unit prices set forth in the contract. Total cost of this work is estimated at $3,083.70, and contract provides that the construction of the surface drain is subject to the construction of release sanitary sewer.

The unit prices are established by the city, and inasmuch as the surface drain is to be put in the same trench with the sanitary sewer it would be most advantageous to award this contract without advertising.

The practice of release sewers dates back over a period of sixty years and the effect is that the sewer is built at the expense of the property owners while under the law the city must bear the entire expense of constructing surface drains.

This entire work is done under the supervision of the Sewer Division, the owner or contractor paying the inspector's salary on the work that pertains to the sanitary sewer, and in effect the release agreement provides for the construction of the sanitary sewer by the owner and after acceptance by the city it becomes the property of the City of Boston for future maintenance.

In this particular instance the release sewers are being built in connection with a low cost housing project located on the old Weld estate opposite the George Wright Golf Course in Hyde Park.

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

BOSTON'S INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION PROVES NOTABLE EVENT.

Historic and patriotic ceremonies that are traditionally part of the official City of Boston observance of the Nation's Birthday, were in evidence as usual on Independence Day, Friday, July 4.

An all-day twenty-four-hour program was arranged jointly by the Mayor's Office, the City Council in the local districts and the Citizens' Public Celebrations Association.

Every year from 1783 such a general display of enthusiasm and confidence in the Republic has taken place in Boston, varying only in harmony with the passing circumstances of the times; the spirit and the intentions have remained the same.

Summary of Boston events of the day and evening were:

9.30 A. M.—Flag raising by the Mayor, City Hall.

9.40 A. M.—Parade—escort to Boston Common for Flag raising, also by the Mayor. The parade retraced its way to 10.30 A. M.—Old State House, for the annual reading of the Declaration of Independence, where the original document was first read to the people of Boston in 1776. Reader was a high school student in Colonial dress—Edward P. Grigalus, South Boston High School.

The parade included detachments from the Army, Navy and State Guard; Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company; colors of war veteran groups. Music was furnished by 241st Coast Artillery Band, and band of Boston Fire Department.

As the parade passed Granary Burying Ground on Tremont street, a special salute was given in honor of three signers of the Declaration buried there—John Hancock, Samuel Adams, Robert Treat Paine.

11.15 A. M., Faneuil Hall.—Annual Oration Exercises, with a simple program of significance and dignity. The Mayor presided. The oration was by Dr. Daniel L. Marsh, President of Boston University, invocation and benediction by two clergymen, music by orchestra and patriotic numbers by the audience.

An afternoon program on the Common was held in conjunction with the Boston Committee on Public Safety, Boston's central contribution in the proposed nation-wide plan of rededication and universal pledge to the Flag that has been suggested from the office of Civilian Defense at Washington for all communities, 4 to 5 p. m.

During the day neighborhood programs mainly for children were conducted under the sponsorship of members of the City Council. Evening fireworks and band concerts in several districts were rendered.

8 to 10 P. M., at Frog Pond, on the Common.—There were "Community Festival" with varied program, including band, procession of participants, singing by the audience of popular and patriotic songs in the spirit of the day, group dancing, a "Gay '90's" revue, illumination, historic tableaux, and as the grand finale the usual fireworks display at the athletic field, at 10 o'clock.

The day started with "night before" bonfire in Boston and other sections.

Chairman of the Citizens' Committee of Arrangements: Henry I. Lazarus; Vice Chairman, William F. Looney; Secretary, E. B. Mero; with a committee composed of members of the Citizens' Public Celebrations Association working under the sponsorship of the Mayor.

Marshal of the morning parade-escort: Maj. Albert J. Kelley, military instructor of Hyde Park High School; Chief of Staff, Capt. Charles W. Creaser of Massachusetts State Guard.

DAMAGES AWARDED.

The Mayor has approved the following votes of the Board of Street Commissioners:

Voted, That the order of the Street Commissioners and Mayor of July 22, 1939, as amended May 26, 1941, determining damages caused by the making of the public improvement consisting of the laying out of Garner road, formerly Gustine street, be, and the same hereby is, amended, by adding to said order the amount $280 as an award to William H. Kirk and Blanche A. Kirk, husband and wife, as tenants by the entirety; that the amount $280 be, and the same hereby is, awarded to William H. Kirk and Blanche A. Kirk, husband and wife, as tenants by the entirety for the damages so sustained.

Voted, That the order of the Street Commissioners and Mayor of July 22, 1939, as amended May 26, 1941, determining damages caused by the making of the public improvement consisting of the laying out of Garner road, formerly Gustine street, be, and the same hereby is, amended, by adding to said order the amount $123 as an award to Louise M. Cobb; that the amount $123 be, and the same hereby is, awarded to Louise M. Cobb for the damages so sustained.

Voted, That the order of the Street Commissioners and Mayor of December 31, 1937, as amended, determining damages caused by the making of the public improvement consisting of the laying out of Rich street, be, and the same hereby is, amended, by adding to said order the amount $291.70 as an award to Donald W. McLeod, Horatio S. Card and Charles T. Noble, trustees of the Massachusetts Society for the Protection of the Insane and Mentally Infirm, that the amount $291.70 be, and the same hereby is, awarded to Donald W. McLeod, Horatio S. Card and Charles T. Noble, trustees of the Massachusetts Society for the Protection of the Insane and Mentally Infirm for the damages so sustained.

LAND-TAKING IN DORCHESTER.

The Mayor has approved the order of the Board of Street Commissioners for the taking of land for sewerage works to be constructed as follows:

The right and easement is taken to lay and maintain sewerage works in the following described lands, exclusive of any interest in trees, buildings or other structures standing thereon, reserving to the owners thereof the right to use the lands for any purpose except such as may injure or obstruct said works, and except for placing or maintaining any structure on said lands not authorized in writing by the Mayor of said city; trees, buildings or other structures standing upon or affixed to the land in which an easement is hereby taken are to be removed therefrom within sixty days following a notice of the city's intention to enter upon said taking for the purpose of constructing said sewerage works. Said lands are in that part of Boston formerly Dorchester and are bounded as follows:

A parcel of land, owners unknown, being part of the private way known as Mercier avenue, bounded:

Easterly by Mercier avenue (highway), forty and 7-100 feet; southerly by the southerly line of Mercier avenue, by two measurements, one hundred four and 67-100 feet and one hundred twenty-three feet; westerly by another part of Mercier avenue, thirty-five feet; and northerly by the northerly line of Mercier avenue, by two measurements, one hundred twenty-one and 8-100 feet and one hundred three and 89-100 feet, containing eighty-one hundred and forty square feet, more or less.

The sewerage works to be constructed are as follows: 180 linear feet of 10-inch pipe sanitary sewer and 180 linear feet of 12-inch pipe surface drain.

Betterments are to be assessed for the making of the aforesaid improvement.

Ordered, That this Board estimates that the abutting lots of land on the northerly side of Mercier avenue for a distance of approximately two hundred and thirty-five feet westerly from Mercier avenue (highway) and the abutting lot of land on the southerly side of Mercier avenue, designated as Assessment Lot 5, will receive benefit or advantage, beyond the general advantage to all real estate in said city from the improvement herein ordered; each of said lots to the amount hereinafter respectively set against it; said lots and the supposed owners thereof being shown on a plan marked "City of Boston, Plan No. 1261, Sewerage Works, Mercier Avenue, Dorchester, June 5, 1941, William J. Sullivan, Chief Engineer, Street Laying-Out Department," and on file in the office of said department.

Lot.		Amount.
1.	William J. Driscoll Construction Company	$115 00
2.	William J. Driscoll Construction Company	115 00
3.	William J. Driscoll Construction Company	115 24
4.	William J. Driscoll Construction Company	124 08
5.	William J. Driscoll Construction Company	124 00
		$593 32

Voted, That this Board determines that no person sustains damages in his estate by the taking of an easement for sewerage purposes in Mercier avenue, Dorchester district, under the order of the Board of June 23, 1941, and awards no damages therefor.

HOUSING PROJECT, WARD 9.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 23, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the chairman of the Boston Housing Authority relative to your order of May 26, 1941, concerning considering the advisability of erecting a housing project on the site bounded by Roxbury, Tremont and Ruggles streets and Shawmut avenue, Ward 9.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

Boston Housing Authority,
June 11, 1941.

Mr. William T. Doyle,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir,—This will acknowledge receipt of your communication of recent date, concerning the City Council order of May 26, 1941,—

"That the Boston Housing Authority be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to consider the advisability of erecting a housing project on the site bounded by Roxbury, Tremont and Ruggles streets and Shawmut avenue, Ward 9."

You are advised that the Authority is aware of the conditions in the area designated, but, unfortunately, at this time cannot hold out much hope for an early development of this area because all of the funds presently available are earmarked for specific projects in the various stages of planning and construction. In addition to this, there are numerous requests for developments in other areas of the city.

The following projects have been or are presently to be developed in the Roxbury area:

Dwelling units in the Mission Hill Area.....	1,023
Dwelling units in the Lenox Street Area.....	306
Dwelling units in the Heath Street Area....	420
Dwelling units in the Orchard Park Area....	774
Total number of dwelling units.....	2,523

Respectfully,
JOHN A. BREEN, Chairman.

PREFERENCE BY SCHOOL COMMITTEE TO SINGLE WOMEN.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 23, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the Secretary of the Boston School Committee relative to your order of May 26, 1941, concerning giving preferred consideration to single women when selections are being made from a civil service list for appointment to any position under the jurisdiction of the School Committee, and to appoint single women rather than married women whose husbands are gainfully employed.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
School Committee, June 12, 1941.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—At a conference of the School Committee held in this building on Monday evening of this week, June 9, the Committee received and ordered placed on file the order passed by the City Council on May 26, 1941, and forwarded, through the office of your Honor, May 29, 1941, as follows:

"Ordered, That the Boston School Committee be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to give preferred consideration to single women when selections are being made from a civil service list for appointment to any position under the jurisdiction of the School Committee, and to appoint single women rather than married women whose husbands are gainfully employed."

Respectfully submitted,
ELLEN M. CRONIN, Secretary.

SELECTION OF FUNERAL DIRECTOR.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 23, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the secretary of the Public Welfare Department relative to your order of May 12, 1941, concerning allowing families of deceased persons who are on welfare or old age assistance, or other persons eligible under chapter 117, section 18a, as amended by chapter 465 of the Acts of 1938, the privilege of selecting the funeral director, and further that the Director of Public Welfare or his assistants be requested to inquire from the kin of the deceased whether or not they have a funeral director of their own selection.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Overseers of the Public Welfare,
June 16, 1941.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,
Mayor of Boston.

Attention of Mr. William T. Doyle.

Dear Sir,—This department has received your communication with inclosed copy of an order of the City Council, dated May 12, 1941, reading as follows:

"Ordered, That the Director of Public Welfare be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to allow families of deceased persons who are on welfare or old age assistance, or other persons eligible under chapter 117, section 18A, as amended by chapter 465 of the Acts of 1938, the privilege of selecting the funeral director; and be it further

"Ordered, That the Director of Public Welfare or his assistants be requested to inquire from the kin of the deceased whether or not they have a funeral director of their own selection."

May I state that in event of the death of a person who is on Dependent Aid it is our policy to allow the family to contact this department with regard to selecting a funeral director and, further, it is the policy that the department will make inquiry as to whether or not the family has a funeral director whom they would prefer to handle the funeral arrangements.

Very truly yours,
WILLIAM G. O'HARE, Secretary.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,

Attention of Mr. William T. Doyle.

Dear Sir,—This department has received your communication with inclosed copy of an order from the City Council, dated June 9, 1941, reading as follows:

"Ordered, That the trustees of the Public Welfare Department be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to change the policy in force at the present time requiring the wife of a non-citizen to accept a W. P. A assignment."

Please be advised that it is our policy to try to get work assignments on W. P. A. for all persons eligible for same. However, it has always been the policy here never to break up a family organization in order to have such employment, and I feel sure that in any case where the wife of a non-citizen is needed for family duties she would not be forced to accept employment by this department.

Very truly yours,
WILLIAM G. O'HARE, Secretary.

"Ordered, That the Overseers of the Public Welfare be instructed, through his Honor the Mayor, to consider the advisability of increasing the food allowance to those persons receiving Old Age Assistance, Aid to Dependent Children and Dependent Aid, due to the increased cost of living."

May I state that on the question of food allowances Old Age Assistance budgets are refigured twice a year and Aid to Dependent Children budgets are figured four times a year on a diet and cost basis. Also, the department has, during the past few months, been refiguring Dependent Aid budgets, especially those of larger families, on a basis which we feel will suffice.

LICENSING OF HORSE AND DOG TIP ESTABLISHMENTS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 23, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the Corporation Counsel relative to your order of May 5, 1941, concerning preparing and submitting to the City Council an ordinance providing for the licensing of all horse and dog tip establishments in the City of Boston.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Law Department, June 20, 1941.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—I am replying to the communication from your office dated May 9, 1941, requesting consideration and report upon the order adopted by the City Council on May 5, 1941, and reading as follows:

"Ordered, That the Corporation Counsel be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to prepare and submit to the City Council an ordinance providing for the licensing of all horse and dog tip establishments in the City of Boston."

A further order was adopted by the Council in this connection on June 9, 1941.

The request for the preparation of an ordinance in the foregoing connection has naturally led to a consideration of the powers of the city government in regard thereto. After careful consideration, I have formed the opinion that under the existing law the City Council does not have the power to enact an ordinance providing for the licensing of horse and dog tip establishments in the City of Boston and that the validity of any such ordinance, if attempted to be passed, could not be upheld in litigation. Under these circumstances I have not prepared any draft of ordinance.

It is my understanding that the establishments referred to in the Council's order maintain within the City of Boston premises for the sale of different kinds of "tipster sheets" which contain predictions as to the outcome of horse and dog races. Such "tipster sheets" have identifying trade names. Each person buying a particular "tipster sheet" receives the same prediction. In these establishments no betting of any kind is made; once the sale of the "tipster sheet" is completed, the relationship between the seller and the buyer is terminated.

Assuming that the above-described business is found to be in any way violative of the legal restrictions upon betting within this Commonwealth (see Acts of 1934, chapter 374, section 13), the enforcement of the statutory provisions and penalties in that regard rests with the duly constituted officers charged with the enforcement of law. Strict surveillance by the police may reveal that the activities carried on at certain of the establishments referred to go beyond the activities described in the preceding paragraph.

Assuming that the above-described business does not violate existing provisions of law, the municipal power to regulate the conduct of such business by the granting or withholding of licenses, if such a power does exist, must be derived either from special statute or from the general authority contained in section 21, chapter 40, of the General Laws.

There exists no specific Massachusetts statute authorizing the licensing by municipalities of horse and dog tip establishments. A petition for special legislation to authorize the licensing of this form of enterprise was introduced in the 1938 sitting of the General Court as House No. 1050 and after hearing was given leave to withdraw. Under such a special statute, there could be no doubt of a municipality's power to enact an ordinance providing for reasonable license fees in regard to such establishments.

In view of the consistent position taken by the Supreme Judicial Court in regard to the nature and limits of the general authority given to municipalities as aforesaid in section 21 of chapter 40 of the General Laws, it is my opinion that the power to license horse and dog tip establishments is not included in that general authority. Gentlemen,—I am in receipt of the attached communication from the Board of Park Commissioners requesting the transfer of the sum of $45,000 from the income of the George F. Parkman Fund to the Maintenance and Improvement of the Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887.

I submit herewith an appropriation order and respectfully recommend its passage by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,

City of Boston,
Park Department, June 10, 1941.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—By vote of the Board of Park Commissioners you are respectfully asked to request the City Council to transfer from the income of the George F. Parkman Fund the sum of $45,000 which is now available, to be expended under the direction of the Board of Park Commissioners as follows:

Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887, Maintenance and Improvement of	$45,000

When making up the budget estimates for the year 1941, a sum equal to the total yearly income of the George F. Parkman Fund was deducted from Item A–1, Permanent Employees, with the understanding that this deduction was to be replaced by the total yearly income of said Parkman Fund for 1941, to be transferred as it accrued from time to time during the year to the regular maintenance appropriation of the Park Department.

Very respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

Ordered, That the sum of $45,000 be, and hereby is, appropriated from the income of the George F. Parkman Fund, to be expended under the direction of the Park Commissioners, for the Maintenance and Improvement of the Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887, as follows:

Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887, Maintenance and Improvement of	$45,000

Boston Elevated Railway,
June 20, 1941.

Mr. William T. Doyle,
Chief Clerk-Secretary, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir,—In reply to your letter of June 12 with accompanying order of the City Council, I beg to advise that the question of disposition of the Atlantic Avenue structure is at the present time in the hands of the Supreme Court of Massachusetts. Pending decision of the court, there is nothing we can do or plan to do with regard to its removal.

With regard to unused car rails remaining in the streets, there are in the City of Boston at the present time approximately 83,000 linear feet of single track in this category, which represents approximately 2,630 tons of scrap rail. At the Federal Government's fixed price of $16.06 per ton the value of the scrap rail, if removed, would be $42,237.80. It would cost, however, $135,000 to remove this track and the cost of restoring the street surface after the track had been taken out would be $200,000.

Trusting this is the information desired, I remain,

Very truly yours,
EDWARD DANA,
President and General Manager.

THREATENED REDUCTION IN W. P. A.

Coun. GALVIN and M. H. SULLIVAN offered the following:

Whereas, News reports from Washington indicate that a 41 per cent reduction in W. P. A. work will take place in Boston; and

Whereas, Such reduction will obviously effect to the greatest extent those who have not been and cannot be absorbed by defense work; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Boston City Council request the Massachusetts membership in Congress to exert every possible influence to protect the jobs of these deserving citizens.

Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, speaking on the order which you and I have introduced relative to the reduction in W. P. A. personnel in Massachusetts, I think that everyone who is acquainted with the conditions of the present time, and everyone who meets job seekers even during the present hour when so many people are being absorbed by the defense industries, is well aware of the fact that as a total solution to the unemployment problem the defense work is not sufficient. Those people who are inexperienced or physically incapacitated find that there is no place for them in any of our Navy Yards, shipyards, arsenals, or in any shops involving defense work. Machinists and others have been knocked off the W. P. A. rolls to a substantial extent, and, as I understand it, the number of people employed on W. P. A. in Massachusetts amounts to 58,000 at the present hour, but of this number of 58,000 the vast majority, practically the entire group, cannot be absorbed by the W. P. A. Those who could be absorbed all find themselves in the defense projects. W. P. A. and such projects will not be affected. They find themselves in private or in governmental employment where the defense work is now being conducted. But as I understand it, practically all the women's projects in the State of Massachusetts are to be closed down. As I understand it, virtually every sewing project is to be shut up. As I understand it, those women, who certainly could find no place in machine shops of the defense industry, are going to be laid off indiscriminately from the W. P. A. pay rolls. And as I further understand it, a number of clerks, a number of men on our street construction, a number of persons, both men and women, who have had no experience in private industry that would qualify them for work in the Government or private industries, are likewise to be dropped. It seems absolutely unwarranted and most unfortunate that the Federal Government at the present time should use the present hour to drop the 58,000 people, who still remain on, as the basis for the reduction. Those are 58,000 people who can't be absorbed in this type of industry. As I understand it, 41 per cent of the entire personnel in Massachusetts would be lopped off. And as I understand it, the proportion amounts to 24,000 of the 58,000 people now employed. Certainly those of us who have seen people coming to our homes after their eighteen months asking to be reinstated, those who have come in here on Monday and have seen these rooms outside packed full of people looking for employment on the W. P. A. pay rolls, know that the defense work has been an absolute failure and that W. P. A. must continue or else the City of Boston and other municipalities will find tnemselves in grave financial situations, because if the W. P. A. fails to absorb these people, if 600 Washington street can't take care of them, 43 Hawkins street will have to do the job. On that basis, to do the job it means further hardship for everyone in the city, further hardship for the taxpayers, further hardships for the families of these people. As I further understand it, Oliver street is going to be closed down, every local branch of the W. P. A., every local office, is to be shut tight, the work is to be done entirely from 600 Washington street, the administrative force in every municipality of the state, with the 359 cities and towns, is just going to be closed up and only a small part of the people employed in the administrative offices will be transferred to 600 Washington street. There is going to be no local administrative bureau for this work. I think as a result of that, W. P. A., which should be close to the people, is going to be far away from the people, and the power of Boston, the power of the state, and the power of the nation will suffer as the result. I hope that the Massachusetts Congressmen, who have been contributing so much money for the defense industries, will consider home defense and keep these people employed. I hope they will consider the serious situation which we are facing and appropriate the few millions of dollars necessary in order to keep our Massachusetts people and our Boston people at work on W. P. A. projects until private industry takes care of them.

Coun. GOTTLIEB—Mr. President, I am glad that the councilor from Brighton brought this question of W. P. A. curtailment to light before the Boston City Council. The point I would like to make is this: Defense industry has absorbed practically every man who was on the W. P. A. who could be used for defense work at the present time. The residue are men who can properly be classified as unemployables, men who are not fitted for any type of work that is helpful or material to defense measures by a private industry. What will happen to these men if the W. P. A. shuts down in Massachusetts? You and I know that for the first time in many years Boston has received a breathing spell in so far as its welfare burden is concerned. For the first time in many years the City of Boston Welfare Department is being run for a comparatively small amount of money. That is reflected, as we all know, in the tax rate of the City of Boston. We can all agree that if the W. P. A. shuts down, every one of these so-called unemployables will immediately revert to the welfare rolls of the City of Boston, so that instead of receiving a direct benefit from all this defense industry, Boston in the last analysis will suffer because we will be paying out more money to welfare recipients than we did prior to all this defense activity. I think, Mr. President, that it is unfair for the Federal Government, having in mind the burden that the cities and towns have been carrying for so many years, that it is absolutely unfair of them at the present time to throw this burden back upon the cities and towns, who are in no position financially to carry any greater welfare burden than they are carrying today. So that I sincerely hope, Mr. President, that the Federal Government will, in their wisdom, at least keep the W. P. A. available for those men and women who are properly classified as unemployables in Boston, and who would, if the W. P. A. was curtailed, go back to our welfare rolls.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, in one sense I hope that this lay-off affects some of those in authority in the W. P. A., who are white collar workers, who are also on non-relief. Those are the people who I hope they will lay off. I recall three years ago in the Legislature I introduced a bill asking for an investigation of the non-relief workers on W. P. A. Of course I did not get very far with the bill because of the fact that the majority of your legislators are outside of the cities—I mean, members from towns and hamlets, and so forth, and they, of course, had to defend the W. P. A. authorities in their sections. But I brought to light some interesting facts at that time, showing where one man in authority in the W. P. A. had, besides his salary of $4,500, three pensions. I also brought to light the fact that another man in the major office at 600 Washington street received a salary of $3,500 and had a wife who ran a school and took in approximately $10,000 a year. And I cited at least fifteen different cases of white collar, non-relief workers, who were in executive positions at the W. P. A. headquarters, who had wives or sisters, or somebody else in the family who had a very large income. For instance, a deputy police commissioner, who had two daughters working down at 18 Oliver street. And I cited several cases along the lines I have just mentioned. It is going to be a pleasure to me, if I pick up a paper sometime, to read where some of those in authority have got the gate. When we, just poor politicians, some of the small fry, went down there to intercede for anybody we got the cold shoulder because we were not Congressmen. We were not in a position to take care of some of those in there, to get them an increase in salary, or to take care of some member of their families, to get them a job. I hope that when some of these people do get fired that they have to run to their local politician, to their councilor or representative. As far as the law of it is concerned, I think the power should be taken away from those in authority at 18 Oliver street and at 600 Washington street. For example, now there is a project of handicapped workers in my town. I am fortunate enough to have only four East Bostonians on that project. There are eighty-eight working on that project. And to give you an example of the fitness of those in authority at both Oliver street and 600 Washington street, the first project they shut down is a project of eighty-eight people who are physically handicapped; it is impossible for them to go out and get work in other lines. So that our sympathy can be with them more than anybody else that is on the W. P. A. who are affected by this layoff. And I say, if they are starting in down at Oliver street and 600 Washington street by laying off eighty-eight handicapped people, then God help the others who are on the white collar jobs, who will eventually be reached. Now, I do not agree wholeheartedly with the statements made by the councilor from Ward 22 when he says that all the sewing projects will be closed up. I am informed that the central office, which is in Roxbury, will probably be kept open, and just the women that are working there will be kept. But I am almost positive in my mind that this is the beginning of the end of the W. P. A., and that everybody wil be affected except those who are now on defense projects, in other words, who are working forty-eight hours a week for $21, whereas in the shipyards, for a 48-hour week the salary would be about $60. So that they are getting the same type labor from the W. P. A. workers. I would like to know if this Council has any authority, or if we can make any recommendation whatsoever to take the power away from those down at Oliver street and from those at 600 Washington street, so that something can be done about keeping on people who have three, four, five or six dependents. I know in the last layoff they just took the names at random and laid them off, and as the result of that some single person, some person who had no dependents whatsoever, was kept on, while married men with five or six children were laid off. When I inquired — and I did inquire personally down at 18 Oliver street and 600 Washington street — I was told that they had no system, that they just allowed the foreman to take a gang of twelve or fifteen men and say, "Half you men are going to be laid off," and draw lots. I think that is a very poor way to lay off men or women who are on the W. P. A. I think that some system ought to be inaugurated down there so that they would keep those men with the most dependents. As the councilor from Ward 22 says, I, too, hope that our delegation in Washington will take some steps to keep those men on the longest.

The resolution was adopted under suspension of the rule.

FUNDING OF OVERLAY DEFICITS.

President GALVIN called up, under unfinished business, No. 3 on the calendar, viz.:

3. Ordered, That under the provisions of chapter 225 of the Acts of 1941 the sum of two million dollars be, and hereby is, appropriated, to be used for the funding of overlay deficits, and that the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, upon request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount.

On June 9, 1941, the foregoing order was read once and passed, years 15, nays 0.

The question came on giving the order its second and final reading and passage.

The order was passed, yeas 18, nays 0.

SALE OF LAND ON EAST DEDHAM STREET.

President GALVIN called up, under unfinished business, No. 4 on the calendar, viz.:

4. Order for the sale to the Boston Housing Authority of land on East Dedham street formerly used for Police Station 5.

On June 9, 1941, the foregoing order was read once and passed, yeas 17, nays 0.

The order was given its second reading and passage, yeas 18, nays 0.

CONFIRMATION OF APPOINTMENTS.

President GALVIN called up, under unfinished business, Nos. 1 and 2 on the calendar, viz.:

1. Action on appointment submitted by the Mayor, June 9, 1941, of William H. Mahoney, to be a Constable with authority to serve civil process upon filing of bond.

2. Action on appointments submitted by the Mayor, June 9, 1941, of Ralph Renshaw, Avord W. Wasson, Joseph L. Riggs, to be Weighers of Goods; and Alvin C. Tamkin, Arnold Levitt, Arthur S. Gorman, to be Weighers of Coal.

The question came on confirmation. Committee, Coun. M. H. Sullivan and Coffey, yeas 18, nays 0, and the appointments were confirmed.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON LICENSES.

Coun. ENGLERT, for the Committee on Licenses, submitted the following:

Report on petition for driveway openings, recommending that leave be granted, under usual conditions, viz.:

Gulf Oil Corporation, 1927–1935 Beacon street, Ward 21.

Report accepted; said license granted on usual conditions.

SOLDIERS' RELIEF.

Coun. ENGLERT, for the Committee on Soldiers' Relief, submitted report recommending payment of aid to soldiers and sailors and their families in the City of Boston for the month of June.

Report accepted; said order passed.

RECESS.

By direction of President GALVIN the Council took a recess at 2.43 p. m. The members of the Council reassembled and were called to order by President GALVIN at 3.20 p. m.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Coun. LANGAN, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

1. Report on message of the Mayor and order (referred June 9) for release of easements on Canterbury street—that same ought to pass.

Report accepted; said order passed, yeas 17, nays 0.

2. Report on message of Mayor and order (referred June 9) that $8,500 be transferred from Contingent Fund to appropriation for Bureau of Americanization—that same ought to pass.

Report accepted; said order passed, yeas 17, nay 0.

3. Report on message of Mayor and order (referred today) that $45,000 be transferred from income of George F. Parkman Fund to be expended by Park Department—that same ought to pass.

Coun. CAREY—Mr. President, while we did have this in Executive and voted to pass it through, I do think that a little more time might be taken on it, not that the Council eventually perhaps will not consent to O. K. this transfer. But as I understand it, there are only certain parks and playgrounds of the city which benefit from the Parkman Fund. If I am wrong on that I stand to be corrected. But if that is true, it seems to me that if certain playgrounds and parks will benefit from the fund, other playgrounds and parks should perhaps be given a little more consideration than the parks and playgrounds which do benefit from this special fund, and I think it might not do any harm to lay this matter on the table until the next meeting when we can ask the commissioner to come down. There are many of the members of the Council who are not fully aware of the functions of the money that is left in the Parkman Fund, and I do not think a delay of a week or two will do any harm. I for one would like to know a little bit more about it. I think it might be well to have the commissioner come down here and explain to this Council just what parks and playgrounds are benefited from the Parkman Fund, and what are not, in case there might be some of us who might have playgrounds or parks in districts of the city which need attention, that may probably be neglected. I therefore move that the matter be laid on the table until the next meeting.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, I agree with the councilor from Ward 10; but, on the other hand, if this money is to be paid on salaries and some of the men expect to get away this week as the result of this money which is being transferred—if that is the fact, I certainly do not go along with the gentleman from Ward 10; but if that money is not going to be for salaries due in the near future I think it should be laid on the table. I would like to have that question answered. Is it going to be spent for salaries that are due in the near future?

The question came on adoption of the motion by Councilor Carey that the order be laid on the table for one week. The Council voted to lay the matter on the table for one week.

JURORS DRAWN.

Forty traverse jurors were drawn, for the Superior Court, Criminal Session, to appear July 7, 1941, the Mayor absent, and Coun. TAYLOR drawing the jurors, viz.:

Robert C. Smith, Ward 1; Frederick James Maher, Ward 2; Joseph Cefalo, Ward 3; Frank J. Chester, Ward 3; Frank DiCilio, Ward 3; Thomas F. Joyce, Jr., Ward 3; Peter Makre, Ward 3; Christo Stephenson, Ward 3; Claude E. Breedlove, Ward 4; John A. MacRae, Ward 4; Charles E. O'Donnell, Ward 4; Robert L. Lynch, Ward 5; William Barron, Ward 7; John R. Peterson, Ward 7; Thomas E. Wythe, Ward 7; William J. Welch, Ward 8; Ernest Lamy, Ward 9; Michael Joseph Murphy, Ward 10; Ernest Giuva, Ward 11; James M. Walsh, Ward 11; Leo F. Will, Ward 11; Laurence E. Josselyn, Ward 12; Samuel Motel, Ward 14; Robert J. Rachin, Ward 14; James J. Conlon, Ward 15; Joseph J. Hurley, Ward 15; Joseph E. Walker, Jr., Ward 15; Josiah E. Chase, Ward 16; Edmund Ralph Harrington, Ward 16; James J. Locke, Ward 16; Albert Stone, Ward 16; John F. Kelly, Ward 17; Wallace M. Badger, Ward 18; Howard S. Ingalls, Ward 18; William S. Allen, Ward 19; John P. Igo, Ward 20; Chester R. Perry, Ward 21; Thomas Lydon, Ward 22; William C. Norton, Ward 22; Cornelius Sullivan, Ward 22.

MILK FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN AT PLAYGROUNDS.

Coun. GOODE offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor, through the School Committee and Surplus Commodities Corporation, expand the present free milk program to include the distribution of milk during the summer months to school children in all playgrounds of the City of Boston.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

ESCALATOR, MAVERICK STATION.

Coun. COFFEY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Boston Transit Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to install an escalator in the Maverick Station, East Boston, for the convenience of patrons.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

"STOP" SIGNS, EAST BOSTON.

Coun. COFFEY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Traffic Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to install "Stop" signs at the following locations in East Boston:

On Marion street, at Saratoga street; on Brooks street, at Saratoga street; on Putnam street, at Saratoga street; on Prescott street, at Saratoga street.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, in regard to the "Stop" signs, it has been called to my attention by residents in these sections that there have been some fifteen accidents at these intersections in the last month, and as the result of that I have asked that the Traffic Commissioner take some action to see that those signs are placed over there in the near future.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

SWEEPING AND SPRINKLING MACHINES FOR WARD 3.

Coun. RUSSO offered the following:

Ordered, That the Public Works Commissioner be requested to immediately put into use in the Ward 3 section of Boston automatic sweeping and sprinkling machines for cleaning the streets.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, for the last fifteen or sixteen months I have been on a crusade trying to have the streets of the City of Boston kept in a clean condition. I hate to get up every time and talk on this subject but I cannot help it. I will tell you what transpired in my district up to yesterday. The streets in my district were not clean and I felt that it was a hazard to the lives and safety and health of the children of my district. I called the North Grove street yard on Saturday night and urged them to do something, inasmuch as Sunday was approaching, to have the streets decently clean. I was confronted by the foreman and he said that they have no facilities as far as the sweepers are concerned, and neither have they anybody to send out into the districts to do the cleaning. Mr. President, I was up until one o'clock Sunday morning going around the district and seeing every street in a very deplorable condition. I thought that perhaps they might do something to see that some of the streets would be clean for Sunday morning, but nothing was done. I tried to get in touch with the Public Works Commissioner. I tried to get in touch with Mr. Gately and he called me up about two o'clock in the afternoon. I thought it would be well to have some evidence as to the condition of the streets in my district and the way they were being left, so that I took it upon myself to have the Commissioner of Health of the City of Boston come to my district and view the condition that existed. And when he was so kind as to come there and see with his own eyes, I say to you, Mr. President, that it is about time that we, the Council of the City of Boston, should make it our business to see that the streets of the City of Boston are kept in a very clean condition. The children in my district do not have any area in which to play, Mr. President, and it was really a deplorable sight to see those youngsters, on a very hot Sunday, playing in the streets with the condition that the streets were in. I would like to find out from the Public Works Commissioner what the real situation is. If there is a defect I would like to know about it. I hope that he sees to it that a sweeper is sent into the district to see that the streets are kept clean, especially now that summertime is approaching, to see that the streets are watered to give a little coolness to those poor youngsters who are playing in the streets. I hope, Mr. President, that something will be done, because I don't like to get up on this floor all the time and speak of these conditions. But I do know that the one thing that is most precious to each and every one of us, and especially to the men who have children, is cleanliness, and for their protection I hope that the streets of the City of Boston, and in particular the streets of my district, are kept in a very clean condition.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

TRANSFER OF COMMONWEALTH PIER.

Coun. SCANNELL and LINEHAN offered the following:

Resolved, That the City Council of Boston is hereby opposed to the transfer of Commonwealth Pier from the State to the Federal Government.

Coun. SCANNELL—Mr. President, speaking on the order that we have introduced, I want the people of my district who work on the waterfront not to be deprived of the right to make a living. The proposed change will be detrimental to the Port of Boston. This pier, being one of the best docks on the eastern seaboard, if changed over to the United States Navy will lose now and in the future its value as a berth for most coastwise ships and shipping from all parts of the world. Of course I do not object to anything that will help national defense, but I believe that the best way to defend our country is to keep our people working and to build bigger and better docking facilities. I say if the United States Navy wants docks and piers at this time they should build them, taking dockage space on the waterfront of Boston Harbor. If the Government itself built these docks it would result in more work for the people of Boston and for the residents of my district. Those new docks would strengthen the defense of our country in case of war and serve as supply bases. I hope for the sake of the people who depend for their livelihood on these piers and docks that the Navy Department will abandon the idea of taking over Commonwealth Pier and the Boston Army Base and start building their own docking facilities so that it will save the Port of Boston from vital shipping losses of a private nature. If this transfer is made it will result in the destruction of this great Port of Boston. I hope the order passes.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, talking on the order, I want to go along with the gentleman from South Boston. There are plenty of empty docks in my ward that would be available for the Government if they saw fit to take them. Most of these wharves are in very good condition and only a stone's throw from the Navy Yard, so that I hope something will be done by the Massachusetts Congressmen.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

EXEMPTION FROM EXCISE AND POLL TAXES.

Coun. SCANNELL offered the following:

Ordered, That the Corporation Counsel be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to draft a bill for presentation to the Legislature providing that all men in the military or naval service of the United States be exempt from payment of excise taxes or poll taxes.

Coun. SCANNELL—Mr. President, speaking on the order, I want to say just a word. There are a number of young men who are going into the army from my district. A few of them have automobiles. Some of these young men have been making $35, $40, or $50 a week. The result is that they are being deprived of automobiles, are putting the automobiles in garages, but yet they are being sent excise tax bills and poll tax bills by the City of Boston, and I really think it fair for the City of Boston to cooperate with the Federal Government because these selective service young men are being drafted and getting only $21 a month, and by the time the money is taken out for their uniforms and the different emblems on their uniforms they will not be able to pay their poll tax or their excise tax.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

NAMING OF SPACE FOR REV. JOHN M. CHMIELINSKI.

Coun. LINEHAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the space at the junction of Devine way and Logan way, in the vicinity of Mohawk street, Ward 7, be named in honor of Rev. John M. Chmielinski, late pastor of St. Mary's Polish Church, South Boston.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

CONDITION OF SOUTH BOSTON BEACHES.

Coun. LINEHAN and SCANNELL offered the following:

Ordered, That the Park Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to hire enough temporary help to keep the beaches of South Boston in proper condition during the summer months.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, it was unfortunate that when the budget was considered this year in regard to the Park Department, at that time we had a sufficient number of people on the welfare rolls who, if they had stayed on them, could have been sent, for example, to the L Street Bath Houses, to Carson Beach, and the other beaches along the South Boston Strandway to take care of the conditions. Now, unfortunately for the Park Department, in that particular section of the city we have a condition which we did not foresee the first of the year. A great many men have been taken off the welfare rolls — thank goodness — but unfortunately for the Park Department they find themselves without any help to take the place of the so-called welfare workers. Now, I realize that if we could have looked into the future perhaps this could have been arranged the first of the year when we considered the budget; but, as I said before, due to the fact that we did not know what was going to take place at this time, we are faced with a condition where we have got to do something about it. We have not made any preparations for it, so that now is the time to do it. I sincerely hope that his Honor the Mayor will find some means, perhaps by transferring funds from the Welfare Department, or some other department, to take care of this situation. At the present time all we have working over there, which is in the way of temporary help, are the lifeguards and a few matrons. And I might add that this is only about one third of the help that is necessary on those beaches. I sincerely hope that his Honor the Mayor will find some means of overcoming the situation.

Coun. SCANNELL—I want to go along with my colleague in speaking about the condition of the beaches in South Boston. As you know, in previous years we had a lot of welfare workers working in the various bath houses. This year we have none, or practically none. I understand there are about sixty lifeguards appointed and about sixty matrons. While that list is a little mite longer, I think that with a small added expense to the city the conditions of the beaches and the conditions of the bath houses could be remedied by taking the rest of those people off the civil service list on temporary appointments.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

70-HOUR WEEK FOR FIREMEN.

Coun. D. F. SULLIVAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Fire Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to consider the advisability of putting the firemen on a 70-hour week instead of the present 84-hour week.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

TRAFFIC SIGNALS, PERKINS STREET AND JAMAICAWAY.

Coun. CAREY and LANGAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Traffic Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to install automatic traffic signals at the intersection of Perkins street and the Jamaicaway.

Coun. CAREY—Mr. President, that order has been introduced here, I think, every year for the last four years. The Jamaicaway is one of the heaviest traveled arteries in the city, not only by Boston residents but more particularly by people coming from points outside the city, going from one side of the city to the other. I have been out there on many an occasion during the day and in the evening hours, and have seen mothers, who had no time excepting the few hours that they might spend around Jamaica Pond and the daisy field and the other attractions there in connection with the pond, trying to get from Perkins street over into the pond area, at great hazard to their lives. I think that some protection should be afforded to these mothers, who are entitled to a little bit of fresh air around the pond and the area there, and the money that the city might spend to install these lights in order to give protection to those mothers will be well spent. I hope during the next few months that the Traffic Commissioner will find that these lights can be put there, and I know that they will be used to good advantage.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

"SLOW" SIGNS ON SAGAMORE STREET.

Coun. HUTCHINSON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Traffic Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to install "Slow" signs on Sagamore street, near Elton street, Ward 13.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

CLOSING OF NAZI AND ITALIAN CONSULATES.

Coun. GOTTLIEB offered the following:

Resolved, That the Boston City Council in meeting assembled congratulate the United States Department of State for their action in closing Nazi and Italian Consulates which were engaged in subversive activities as exposed in the Boston City Council many months ago.

The resolution was adopted, under a suspension of the rule.

Later in the session Councilor RUSSO asked unanimous consent to make a statement, which consent was granted.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, some time ago I put in a resolution to the Council urging that the Council go on record as opposed to these great United States becoming implicated in this foreign war, so that the American people may be able to continue to enjoy in America the peace that we all so love. I know that it was referred to the Committee on Rules, which is perhaps well called the graveyard. But I wish to speak at this time, Mr. President, on the resolution put forth a few moments ago commending the United States Government for closing the consulates of two European powers, which was referred by the Chair to the Committee on Rules and which evidently went by. I don't know, Mr. President, whether or not we should commend the Government for such action, or whether or not we should favor such action, but I do know, Mr. President, that as far as the Italian consulates are concerned in the United States no charges have ever been brought in connection with the diplomatic relations between these great United States and Italy. Mr. President, I feel that the action of the United States Government in closing particularly the Italian consulates does not cast any reflection as far as the Americans of Italian origin are concerned here in America. The people of Italian extraction in America have demonstrated their loyalty to America in the past, have demonstrated their loyalty to America at the present, and I am fully confident that they will demonstrate their loyalty in the future. But I do state, Mr. President, as was expressed in the resolution that I put forth some time ago, that I do believe, and firmly believe, that this is not our war. I firmly believe, and I have inquired from many, many Americans and I have not found one who is against our own national defense, but I have found at least 90 per cent or more of the American people against this great nation being involved in any foreign war. Mr. President, we are confronted today and are told by the warmongers that the American people have not got the self-confidence to say that they are able to defend themselves and defend America. Never in the history of America have I ever learned, never was I taught in school or any other place, that the American people were not able to defend themselves. Never was I taught that England was our main line of defense. And so, Mr. President, as an American citizen, as the head of my family, as the head of my home, if I did not have that self-confidence that I was able to defend my family and my home, then I would have no right to have such a family and such a home. But I am as sure as I stand here, as sure as any American in America, that we have that self-confidence that we are able to defend our homes, able to defend our families and able to defend our land, this great America. And in closing, Mr. President, I wish to add that this is the true sentiment of true Americans, who are willing if tomorrow the necessity should come — and God grant that it may not — that we have to stand up in defense of America, I am sure that the American people, regardless of their race, color or creed, will defend America to the last drop of their blood. But I do not feel that the American people should be called upon to defend any other nation throughout the world. I say, give America to the Americans. God has blessed me with three children that I am bringing up as Americans. I am not bringing those children up for Italy, I am not bringing up those children for Germany. I am not bringing up those children for England, or any other nation except America, the land that they belong to. Mr. President, I know, as I said before, that we are going through this stage where the American people propose to express their opinions as true Americans. But if that is the case, Mr. President, then I wish to go down on the same level as his Eminence, Cardinal O'Connell, when he stated that this is not our war and that America should stay at peace. And may his prayers go forth to our Savior, God Almighty, and may we all pray to keep America free, to keep our liberty, our Constitution, and our Bills of Rights as they have been enjoyed in the past. May we, the present generation, go along and preserve those rights. And I know that to preserve those rights is to never be involved in any foreign war.

Coun. GOTTLIEB—Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a statement.

The PRESIDENT—Councilor Gottlieb asks unanimous consent. There being no objection it is granted.

Coun. GOTTLIEB—Mr. President, every member of the City Council is familiar with the many orders that I have filed during the past six months advocating the closing of the Nazi consulate in the City of Boston, and among the reasons that I advanced at the time these orders were filed was the fact that these Nazi consulates, particularly the Nazi consulate in Boston, were engaged in subversive activities which were against the best interests of the United States of America and which were illegal and in violation of their rights as German nationals in this country. I also stated that these consulates had a force far in excess of what was needed for their regular consulate duties, and that they were engaged in instilling German Kultur, opposed to the democratic form of government, into those German school children here in the City of Boston. I never at any time reflected or made any attack upon the Americanism or the patriotism of those who were German-Americans or those who were Italian-Americans living here in Boston or elsewhere in the United States. That was not my feeling then and it is not my feeling now. I feel that we who are Americans regardless of our ancestry, regardless of the country from which we came or from which our people came, are imbued with every patriotic ideal that looks for the best in American life and for the best in the democratic form of government. I feel that the councilor from Ward 3 represents everything that is fine in a man who came here from another country years ago, became an American citizen, worked hard to bring up a family of children, and who has exemplified the best in American life here in the City Council and here in the City of Boston. But I am at a loss to understand how he can object to an order such as the order which I just filed, which is nothing more or less than an indorsement of what our own United States Department of State has done during the past few weeks Our Government, the Government by which we live, the Government to which we contribute our lives and to which we entrust ourselves, has said, and said in no uncertain terms, that the Nazi and the Italian consulates are dangerous to our form of government, and surely we should be proud of the fact that we have a right to go along and commend it and congratulate our Government for its action. I feel a little proud, too, of the fact that I was able to contribute some information to the United States Government some months ago when I pointed out that this consulate, the Nazi consulate in Boston, was operated in a manner that was not conducive to the best interests and to the best welfare of the people of Boston and the people of the United States. All those orders, Mr. President, were referred to the Committee on Rules, because of the rules of our City Council I did not object to that at that time because I knew that my colleagues in the Council were bound by the rules by which we function as a body of government here in the City of Boston. But surely now, when our own State Department has paved the way, we have a right to go along and I think there should be no objection to this type of resolution. Mr. President, I would like to add, in answer to the statement by the councilor from Ward 3 on the question of minding our own business, that we have no right or we should not defend any other nation—I say, Mr. President, I am sick and tired of the smug hypocrisy of those men and women who say that we ought to mind our own business. Of what value is civilization, of what value is the progress that we have made the last few hundred years if people are to be reduced to slavery in other parts of the world? Is that the thing, Mr. President, for which we have fought for freedom ourselves? Is that, Mr. President, the follow-up of the great Civil War to free the slaves? Mr. President, we do not help democracy in other parts of the world to defend them as a nation; we help them to defend the principles by which we ourselves are bound, the principles which make us the great nation that we are today, and if we fail them we fail ourselves, and we should be charged with failure in a civilized world, as a civilized people, if we failed to protect our fellow civilized men and women throughout the world.

Coun. CAREY—May I ask that the resolution which is under discussion at the present time be read again, please?

The PRESIDENT—The resolution is not under discussion; it is by unanimous consent.

Coun. CAREY—Is it in order, then, for the Council to move a reconsideration of the resolution?

The PRESIDENT—That is in order.

Coun. CAREY—May I now ask, Mr. President, that the resolution be read again?

The resolution was read by the clerk.

Coun. CAREY—Mr. President——

The PRESIDENT—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. CAREY—To speak on the resolution, if I am in order.

The PRESIDENT—The resolution is not now before the Body.

Coun. CAREY—I move reconsideration of the order.

The PRESIDENT—Councilor Carey moves reconsideration of the order.

The motion to reconsider was carried.

Coun. CAREY—Mr. President, in the first place this Council has at no time acted on any resolution relating to the Italian consulate; in the second place, it is not in this instance really a matter which should come before this Body but is a matter which I think we have no right whatsoever to pass upon. For those two reasons I have moved reconsideration of the resolution.

The question again came on the adoption of the resolution.

Coun. TAYLOR—Mr. President, I rise to a point of order. This resolution has already been referred to the Committee on Rules. I would like to understand what the reconsideration is about.

The PRESIDENT—The councilor is mistaken. The resolution was adopted. That action was reconsidered and the resolution is now to be acted upon.

Coun. SCANNELL—I move that the resolution go to the Committee on Rules.

Coun. CAREY—After we have passed on the reconsideration I had in mind asking to have it referred to the Committee on Rules.

The question came on Coun. Scannell's motion to refer the resolution to the Committee on Rules.

The motion was declared lost.

The question then came on the adoption of the resolution.

Coun. COFFEY—I rise to a point of order, Mr. President. I think that this resolution is out of order.

The PRESIDENT—The resolution is not out of order. It is back now where it was submitted by Councilor Gottlieb.

Coun. CAREY—Mr. President, what is the present status at the moment?

The PRESIDENT—The present status is as it was first submitted by Councilor Gottlieb.

Coun. CAREY—I would like to have the resolution referred to the Committee on Rules, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT—It has been voted not to so refer it.

Coun. CAREY—I doubt the vote and ask for a roll call.

The PRESIDENT—Councilor Carey asks for a roll call.

Coun. TAYLOR—I rise to a point of order. The question is whether it is too late now for a roll call.

The PRESIDENT—The Chair will rule that no business having intervened since Councilor Scannell's motion was declared lost, a roll call is in order. The question now is on reference to the Committee on Rules, and the clerk will call the roll.

The roll was called and the resolution was referred to the Committee on Rules, yeas 8, nays 3:
Yeas—Coun. Carey, Coffey, Englert, Linehan, Russo, Scannell, D. F. Sullivan, Ward—8.
Nays—Coun. Gottlieb, Hutchinson, Taylor—3
The resolution was adopted under suspension of the rule.

SIDEWALKS ON BAY STREET.

Coun. KELLY offered the following:
Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to install granolithic sidewalks on both sides of Bay street, Ward 15, as a W. P. A project.
Passed under suspension of the rule.

CONGRATULATIONS TO MR. AND MRS. THOMAS F. COFFEY.

Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN offered the following:

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS. (STATE SERVICE.)

NOTE.—Applicants are advised to file applications early. In event of a tie on the eligible list, the applicant who filed his application first will be given precedence. The lists established as a result of these examinations will be used to fill all vacancies in these classifications in the various State departments.

ASSISTANT FISH CULTURIST (MALE), AUGUST 8, 1941.

Last date for filing applications, Friday, July 18, 1941, at 5 p. m.

Salary: The entrance salary is $1,380 a year; the maximum salary is $1,800 a year.

Vacancies: At the present time, there are two vacancies, and two anticipated vacancies at the State Fish Hatcheries of the Massachusetts Division of Fisheries and Game.

Duties: Under the direction of the culturist, to perform routine tasks in connection with the operation and maintenance of a fish hatchery devoted to the propagation of brook, brown, and rainbow trout, and small mouth black bass. Examples: The candidate should understand the methods of artificial propagation of trout; should have a working knowledge of fish diseases, and measures for checking their spread and the proper treatment; should be familiar with hatchery methods of propagating small mouth black bass; should be capable of engaging in construction work such as the upkeep of the buildings, fish pools and ponds, and equipment used in the operation of a hatchery; should understand the methods of distributing and planting fish and be capable of making accurate reports and records on activities at the hatchery; and should also be capable of assuming responsibility of the hatchery in the absence of the culturist.

Entrance Requirements: Applicants who have not reached their twenty-first birthday or who have passed their forty-fifth birthday on the date of examination will not be eligible to apply. A certificate of date of birth must be filed with the application, unless one has been filed with a previous application. Applicants must have two years' experience in a hatchery where large numbers of trout and bass have been reared.

Provisional employment can not be applied to the entrance requirement.

Subjects and Weights: Training and experience, 2; practical questions, 3; total, 5. In marking experience, no credit is given for provisional employment.

Passing Requirements: At least 70 per cent in each subject of the examination in order to become eligible.

Physical fitness to be determined by physical examination.

LIBRARIES AND SCHOOLS SAVE MONEY.

Libraries and schools in the United States, it is estimated by the United States Office of Education, will save at least $1,600,000 a year on transportation charges for book purchases because of the low postal rate which will be continued until July 1, 1941. It is stated that the 1½ cent per pound rate on books, regardless of zones, is having important effects on limited and inadequate book budgets.

PROCEEDINGS OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

NOTICE TO BOARD OF ASSESSORS OF ANNUAL APPROPRIATIONS

A communication was received from the Business Manager, under date of June 5, 1941, reporting that under the provisions of Section 3 of Chapter 224 of the Acts of 1936 the School Committee is required to certify to the Board of Assessors the aggregate amount of its appropriations to be raised by taxation for the year 1941. The Business Manager recommended the passage of the accompanying orders notifying the Board of Assessors that the sum of $15,032,538.44 is to be raised by taxation in the year 1941 for maintenance of the public schools and for lands, plans and construction of school buildings. The amount certified to be raised by taxation for 1941, viz., $15,032,588.44, is approximately $429,000 less than the amount raised by taxation for the year 1940. Such reduction of $429,000 lowers the tax rate by thirty cents.

PROPOSALS FOR FURNISHING AND INSTALLING NEW BOILERS IN HEATING PLANT AT FRANKLIN PARK GREENHOUSE, WEST ROXBURY.

The Park Commissioners of the City of Boston, 33 Beacon street, invite proposals for furnishing and installing new boilers in heating plant at Franklin Park Greenhouse, West Roxbury. Forms of proposals must be obtained at the Engineer's office of the Park Department, 33 Beacon street. Each proposal should be signed by the bidder and inclosed in an envelope, sealed, and marked "Proposals for Furnishing and Installing New Boilers in Heating Plant at Franklin Park Greenhouse, West Roxbury," and left before 2 o'clock on Tuesday, July 15, 1941, at the office of the Park Department, with a certified check for $500, payable to and to be the property of the City of Boston if the proposal is not carried out and will then and there be publicly opened and read. A duplicate proposal, without check, must be deposited with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the bids. A bond will be required for doing the work in the sum of 100 per cent of the estimated contract price. The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, chauffeurs and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioners of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which schedule is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained, without cost, upon application therefor at the office of the Park Commissioners. The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits, under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Law so called) to all persons to be employed under the contract and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required prior to the award of said contract. The Commissioners reserve the right to reject any or all proposals.

VOL. 33. SATURDAY, JULY 12, 1941. No. 28

AMERICA HAS MARCHED EVER FORWARD, FOLLOWING THE SIGNPOSTS ERECTED BY THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE, TO BECOME THE MOST POWERFUL NATION ON THE PLANET — DR. DANIEL L. MARSH, PRESIDENT OF BOSTON UNIVERSITY, DELIVERS THE 1941 JULY FOURTH ORATION IN FANEUIL HALL BEFORE GREAT AUDIENCE GATHERED TO COMMEMORATE EVENT.

"1941 Inherits the Glorious Fourth," is the subject of the 1941 Fourth of July Oration, delivered in Faneuil Hall, Boston, by Dr. Daniel L. Marsh, President of Boston University. His address reads as follows:

In a spirit of genuine humility, I have come to deliver the Fourth of July Oration in historic Faneuil Hall, the cradle of American liberty. I was glad to accept the invitation to deliver this oration not only because of the historic significance of the day and the place, but also because it was extended by my friend, Maurice J. Tobin, the distinguished Mayor of Boston, — a man whom I admire for the qualities of his character, respect for the efficiency of his administration, and love in reciprocation of his choice friendship.

The thirteen original colonies were founded by different nations, and with varying motives; but no matter by which nations the colonies were formed, it was not long until they all came under the control of England. By 1670, persecutions and oppressions had begun; by 1760, life was almost intolerable. George III had come to the throne. George III was young, only twenty-two years old; he was dull, stupid, uneducated, arrogant, bigoted, bullheaded, and finally, crazy. His mother had dinned into his ears the dictum, "George, be King!" He accepted the then prevailing philosophy that a colony existed for the enrichment of the mother country. He saw an opportunity to get money to carry on his European wars; and by 1774 the colonies could endure it no longer, so they called a Congress to meet in Philadelphia in September of that year.

Defended Rights as Englishmen.

They met as Englishmen to defend their rights as Englishmen. They drew up a letter which they addressed to their King, and the King refused to receive it. When they adjourned, they adjourned as Englishmen to reconvene the following May as Englishmen for redress of grievances as Englishmen. But before they met in May, 1775, the sod on Lexington Green had soaked up the first blood shed for American independence, and at Concord,

"By the rude bridge that arched the flood,
Their flag to April's breeze unfurled,
Here once the embattled farmers stood,
And fired the shot heard round the world."

Although they met as Englishmen, it was not long until they saw there were other rights than those of Englishmen which they had to defend, so by June of 1776 there was introduced into Congress a resolution that "these United Colonies are and of right ought to be free and independent states." Then Congress appointed a committee of five men, consisting of Thomas Jefferson, John Adams, Benjamin Franklin, Sherman, and Livingston, to draft a Declaration of Independence. They felt that a decent regard for the opinion of mankind would require them to tell the world why they were going to war. The committee designated Thomas Jefferson to draft the Declaration. He had a reputation for a felicitous style and a facile pen.

Jefferson — handsome, tall, aristocratic, democratic, a lawyer from Virginia, red-headed, with a fine literary style — sat down in his room on the second floor of the little lodging house at the corner of Seventh and Market streets in Philadelphia, and in one half day, without looking at either pamphlet or book, wrote the Declaration of Independence — our great National Symbol.

He showed the draft to Benjamin Franklin and John Adams. Franklin made five amendments in it; Adams made two. Other members made no changes. Then a fair copy of the Declaration was made, and it was presented to Congress. Congress discussed it at considerable length. On the 2nd of July, Congress adopted the Resolution of Independence, declaring us free from European control. On the 3rd they discussed again the Declaration of Independence.

Thomas Jefferson winced at the long debate and squirmed as he saw one eloquent passage after another going out. Chiefly the passages that went out had to do with slavery, and were cut out under the whip of the southern constituency. The Declaration was finally adopted on July 4th.

Electrical and Epochal Movements.

The effect of the adoption of the Declaration of Independence was electrical and epochal. The effect upon the public mind is well illustrated by a narrative poem. It was in your school readers. Do you remember it?

"There was a tumult in the city
In the quaint old Quaker's town,
And the streets were rife with people
Passing restless up and down,—
People gathering at the corners
Where they whispered each to each;
And the sweat stood on their temples—
With the earnestness of speech."

ONLY BY DOING EACH HIS SHARE CAN WE RETAIN THE RIGHT TO CALL OURSELVES AMERICANS AND KEEP THE PROUD WORLD STATUS THAT IS OURS TODAY, MAYOR TOBIN TELLS AUDIENCE IN PATRIOTIC INDEPENDENCE DAY ADDRESS AT FANEUIL HALL — CALLS FOR EMULATION OF THE PIONEER FORBEARS.

The following is the address of Mayor Tobin at Faneuil Hall, on Independence Day, July 4:

Boston has two holidays that are peculiarly its own. They are June 17, the date of the Battle of Bunker Hill, and March 17, the date on which the British troops were forced to evacuate Boston.

Today we are observing Independence Day, greatest of all our national celebrations, and there are historians who are of the opinion that if Evacuation Day had not occurred we would not have been given Independence Day.

In other words, the success of Washington's little army in forcing the British garrison out of the besieged City of Boston gave the Continental Congress the courage to break the ties with the Mother Country and to announce, 165 years ago today, that America was a free and independent nation. So it may well be said that Boston gave to the country a third momentous date, to be commemorated through all time.

In all our history, this is without doubt the most important of Independence Day observances. Never has liberty meant more than at this moment, when much of the civilized world is in chains and dictator nations are striving to gain mastery over the entire earth.

And as we reflect on that terrible situation abroad, the thought arises of how America has advanced since 1776. From a sparsely-settled group of colonies it has grown to be the greatest nation in world history.

That is not the result of aggression — over-running some neighboring country, enslaving its people, looting it of its resources and dominating its every move and thought as it is added to the holdings of the gangster nation.

It is the glorious culmination of a great experiment, never before attempted, and which, in the minds of the rest of the world, was doomed to failure — that of amalgamating people of every race and from every clime into one body politic.

Contrast Other Nations.

That remarkable feat was accomplished because from the start we relied upon the principles set forth in the Declaration of Independence, principles that affirm that man is an individual with certain inalienable rights. The result is the more remarkable when we contrast the development of our own great Democracy with what has accurred among the nations of Europe. We have achieved greatness on the premise of belief in man's rights as a creature of God; they treat him as a vassal and a serf, a mere creature of the State.

What recurrent wars and the tyrannical discipline imposed by dictators have done to the common man of Europe, and what the future may hold as a result, are, I believe, well typified in a poem that has been spoken of as "the battle cry of the next thousand years." I refer to "The Man With the Hoe", by Edwin Markham, the American poet, and I quote the first and last stanzas:

Bowed by the weight of centuries he leans
Upon his hoe and gazes at the ground,
The emptiness of ages in his face,
And on his back the burden of the world.
Who made him dead to rapture and despair,
A thing that grieves not, and that never hopes,
Stolid and stunned, a brother to the ox?
Who loosened and let down this brutal jaw,
Whose was the hand that slanted back this brow?
Whose breath blew out the light within this brain?

Oh, masters, lords and rulers of all lands,
How will the future reckon with this man?
How answer his brute questions in that hour
When whirlwinds of rebellion shake all shores?
How will it be with kingdoms and with kings —
With those who shaped him to the thing he is —
When this dumb Terror shall rise to judge the world,
After the silence of the centuries?

And today, as civilization trembles under the shock of mortal combat, as spies and subversive elements work to undermine our Democracy, we should give earnest thought to the preservation of those principles that have made us great.

There are those of us who take our liberties and our privileges for granted. They, more than any others of us, should contrast their lot with that of the people of the conquered European nations, or of those countries that are now locked in battle.

Calls for Sacrifice.

Nothing under the sun that is worth obtaining can be obtained, or held, without labor and sacrifice. Our American way of life is ours because the Colonists, 165 years ago, were willing to suffer hardship and hunger and death to convince England that the Declaration of Independence was not merely a collection of words.

INDEPENDENCE DAY.

Then the poem goes on and tells of the old bellman who rang the bell in Independence Hall on important occasions. He had stationed himself where he could seize the rope to ring the bell, and he had put his little grandson at the door of the hall where Congress was sitting. If and when Congress adopted the Declaration, the grandson was to come and tell him. The little lad rushed forth, the breezes dallying with his hair, and with his hand uplifted, he shouted: "Ring, Grandpa; ring, Oh-o-o-o, ring for liberty!" The old bellman reached forward his hand, and made iron music throughout the land. Bonfires and torchlight parades lighted up the night's repose.

It made a new country; it drew a sharp line of demarcation between those who were loyal to the British Crown and those who were loyal to the newly established government. It filled the soldiers with a new and dauntless pride to plunge into the crimson sea of carnage. And from that day to this wherever the dictum of the Declaration of Independence has had opportunity to make itself felt, men have grasped at it like drowning men grasp straws.

Its phrases are high sounding and people sneer at its declaration that "all men are created free and equal." But that does not mean they are equal in mental ability or social prestige. It does mean that in a rightly ordered government, a government that derives its just powers from the consent of the governed, all men are equal before the law in obligation and in privilege.

It is rather striking that the adoption of the Declaration of Independence coincides almost exactly with the beginning of the great historic cycle of which we are a part. The historian of the future will recognize the period through which we are passing as one of the major cycles of human history, comparable to that cycle when the unit of government passed from the family to the tribe, and from the tribal organization to some form of national government, reaching its consummation in the reforms of Solon; or comparable to the breakdown of the elaborate feudal system of the Middle Ages.

The ceaseless, ubiquitous quest of humanity is for a better tomorrow. The classical illustration of such a quest is the Promised Land of the Israelites. How vivid the Negro play, "Green Pastures," made it! The Children of Israel toiling in Egypt, and hearing God say—and making Pharaoh hear God say—"Let My people go!" And then that trek to the Land of Promise—walking, walking, walking! Sometimes losing hope, sometimes wishing they had remained in Egypt, but always held to their ideal by a forceful leader. After they had wandered round Mount Seir some thirty-eight years they heard the Divine command, "You have marched long enough round these highlands; turn to the north."* They were to go north because that was where the Promised Land lay.

"The great transition" describes the present period as accurately as "the exodus" describes the departure of the Jews from Egypt long ago. We may not have heard the Divine command, "You have marched round the highland of the old economic system long enough; move on to the promised land of a better tomorrow; but humanity is on the march nevertheless.

* Deuteronomy 2:3, Moffatt's Translation.

TRANSITION PERIOD BEGUN.

The transition was started by the invention of invention about one hundred and fifty years ago. No, I did not misspeak myself: the discovery that machines could be invented to do man's work for him was a greater invention than the invention of any particular machine. If we desire a definite date for the inauguration of the great transition, 1767 is as good as any other; for it was in that year that Hargreaves invented his spinning "jenny" which displaced the old spinning wheel. A year later came Arkwright's improvement upon the "jenny" in the form of his throstle or thread machine. The next year James Watt introduced the element of power by the invention of the steam engine. Soon came Cartwright's power loom and Whitney's cotton gin. Thus began the turning of the great cycle of which we are a part.

Since the invention of invention (or, to link it up to the subject of the day, since the adoption of the Declaration of Independence) there has been greater change in our power to do work than in all the past seven thousand years of social history. To produce commodities to satisfy human needs of food, clothing and shelter, a certain amount of man power has always been required. For six or seven thousand years, up until one hundred or one hundred and fifty years ago, the man power required remained just about parallel with the necessary production. Thinking in graphic terms, imagine a line drawn horizontally with the floor extending for a distance which, drawn to scale, would represent the production of human labor through a period of seven thousand years. Then just above that line, and almost parallel with it, draw another of equal length which represents the man power required to produce what humanity needed in the way of food, clothing, shelter, and such luxuries as they could enjoy. For six or seven thousand years, I say, these lines ran almost parallel. Then suddenly, about one hundred and fifty years ago, the production line began to turn upward, gradually at first, but sharply during the past twenty-five or thirty years, while exactly at the same time the line representing the necessary man power began to turn down, likewise gradually at first, but precipitately in the past twenty-five or thirty years. That means that the amazing productivity of the machine creates more than human society uses, with a consequent surplus of goods and unemployment of man power.

An illustration or two will make clearer what I have said. A few years ago it was my privilege to visit Palestine. I saw there an old-fashioned grist mill, in which one great stone turned upon another, grinding the grain between them. I was told that that mill dated back (doubtless with repairs from time to time) to the beginnings of the Christian era. One man working a long day with that mill could grind one and one half barrels of flour. In one of our modern flour mills such as you will find in the northwest, fifty thousand barrels of flour are turned out in one day per man working in the mill.

At the time of ancient Rome's prosperity, some seventy-two hundred shoemakers belonged to the shoemakers' guild. It is asserted that it required five and one half days for one of those shoemakers to make a pair of shoes. Thus the seventy-two hundred shoemakers in ancient Rome would make seventy-two hundred pairs of shoes in five and one half days. It has been estimated that in our modern shoe factories, seventy-two hundred men will turn out four hundred and ninety-five thousand pairs of shoes in five and one half days.

Wonders crowd upon us so fast that we are in dreadful peril of losing the sense of wonder entirely. I was present at the "Century of Progress" World's Fair in Chicago on the evening of its formal opening, when my friend astronomer Fox officially turned on the lights. And how were the lights turned on? By the aid of telescopes equipped with photo-electric cells and amplifying devices, light from Arcturus was used to release the switch that turned on the electric current which, in turn, illuminated the entire Fair. Think of it. Light from the Biblical star of Arcturus, in the mysterious realms of the constellation Bootes, falling through illimitable space at the rate of one hundred and eighty-six thousand miles a second for forty years,—since the last World's Fair in Chicago was held in 1893,—was caught by the telescope in the photo-electric cell, and, amplified, turned the switch that lighted up the Fair.

UNAMAZED BY NEWS.

There was no apparent amazement over it. The crowd seemed to take it as a matter of course. We read in the newspapers that a man flies from New York to Russia in a few hours, and think nothing of it. Our radio waves traverse the twenty-five thousand miles of the earth's circumference in one seventh of a second, carrying the human voice to multiplied millions, and we accept it as a matter of course, just as we accept a dinner which has been fetched from the ends of the earth, or just as indifferently as we accept the fact that an automobile will now travel as far in twenty minutes as a Conestoga wagon used to travel in a long, laborious day.

Sharp contrasts characterize this period of transition. Everyone can make his own catalogue of contrasts between the old order and the new. It is a period of transition from handicraft method of production to the machine method; from muscle power to electric power; from family industry in the home to mass production in mill and factory; from tools plied by hand of man to automatic tools—even including automatic analysis; from unskilled labor working long hours to skilled labor working short hours; from small community interest and knowledge to world-mindedness; from simple education, where a well-educated person was supposed to know everything that was to be known about everything, to complex education, where the most that can be expected of the best educated person is that he will know almost everything about something and something about almost everything.

Throughout the period of this great transition, the United States of America has lived its life under the great political philosophy enunciated in the Declaration of Independence. America has marched forward, following the signposts erected by the Declaration. In this onward march we have become the most powerful nation on the planet. There are those who speak of the present as the greatest crisis in our history. This is not so,—or at least, need not be so. Nevertheless, we stand at the crossroads. It is for us to determine which way the nation shall go. One thing is certain: We must keep our heads! Let us not allow warmongers to stampede us. Let us see clearly every step of the way that we take, using the lamp of experience to light our pathway through the darkness of the future.

Each generation must determine the direction the nation goes. We have the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States, but their future is not guaranteed save as we guarantee it. The blessings secured by them are our inheritance. We can treat this heritage as any heritage is treated. We can squander it, we can fritter it away, we can waste it in riotous living, we can throw it into the ocean, or we can use it!

It is each new generation's responsibility to save the blessings vouchsafed by the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States. It is impossible to capitalize society so strongly that its accumulated moral strength will not subside and ultimately end in bankruptcy unless its strength is renewed with each new generation.

Therefore, as America comes to the crossroads, she must ask herself whether she will keep straight on the road that is marked by the public school and the cross on the church, or whether she will flounder in the mire and fumble her destiny. Every nation has to choose the way it will go as truly as does every man:

"To every man there openeth
A way, and ways, and a way,
And the high soul climbs the highway,
And the low soul gropes the low,
And in between, on the misty flats,
The rest drift to and fro.
But to every man there openeth
A high way, and a low,
And every man decideth
The way his soul shall go."

SUBVERSIVE DOCTRINES.

The old proverb is forever true: "Righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people." We are now in a frantic endeavor of preparation for national defense. That is good, but a nation's safety is never secured by military equipment alone. Its greatest security will forever be its citizens. A resisting ardor for the principles set forth in the Declaration of Independence is a better guarantee against subversive doctrines than explosive armaments can ever be. We get excited about subversive doctrines, fifth columnists, Communists, Fascists, and the rest, and then in our hysteria we do all sorts of un-American things.

The way to get rid of a bad doctrine is not by damning or jailing or shooting the person who holds it, but by driving it out with a sound doctrine of good Americanism. Let us hold steadfastly to the principles of the immortal Declaration: democracy—the idea that a government derives its just powers from the consent of the governed, and that it is never the master of the people, but their servant; complete absence of intolerance and bigotry and prejudice, whether of race or religion or any other type of discrimination; reverence for law, respect for law, obedience to law, recognizing that ours is a government by law and not by men; a firm dependence upon Almighty God. The Deity is invoked five times in the Declaration of Independence. As Benjamin Franklin declared, in the Constitutional Convention, that an empire cannot rise without the Heavenly Father's help, so I declare that we cannot be preserved as a nation unless we keep faith with the Divine power that made us a nation in the beginning. Poet Holland has expressed well the thought of the day:

"God give us men! A time like this demands
Strong minds, great hearts, true faith, and ready hands;
Men whom the lust of office does not kill;
Men whom the spoils of office cannot buy;
Men who possess opinions and a will;
Men who have honor,—men who will not lie;
Men who can stand before a demagogue,
And damn his treacherous flatteries without winking!
Tall men, sun-crowned, who live above the fog
In public duty, and in private thinking."

MAYOR TOBIN'S ADDRESS.

And the men and women who fared forth from Boston and the rest of Massachusetts to establish new homes and to do their part in carving new states out of the wilderness, and giving them to the Union, were willing to undergo great toil and greater hardship as the price to be paid for their new-found liberty and the right to live their own rights.

Those pioneers left a message for us, a message which probably has more meaning today than ever before. It is this—The price of liberty and freedom and equality for all is eternal vigilance. We must be vigilant in arming to resist aggression; in guarding against the termites that work from within to destroy our edifice of State, and against the feeling that there is no need of everybody inconveniencing themselves in order that the nation's great plan for maintaining its present proud world status shall succeed. Every man in the boat must pull his own weight and only by doing that can we retain the right to call ourselves real Americans.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 625.

Sergt. Patrick J. Mahoney, Division 14, having arrived at the age of sixty-six and three-twelfths years, and having performed faithful service in the Police Department for thirty-seven and eleven-twelfths years, it is hereby Ordered, His Honor the Mayor having approved the same, that the said Sergt. Patrick J. Mahoney be retired from active service and his name placed upon the department pension roll with pay at the rate of twelve hundred fifty (1,250) dollars per annum; said sum being one half of the amount of compensation received by him in the office from which he is retired.

This order to take effect at 7.45 o'clock a. m., Monday, July 7, 1941.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

JOSEPH F. TIMILTY,
Police Commissioner.

General Order No. 626.

The police officers hereinafter listed having arrived at the age of sixty-five years and more, and having performed faithful service in the Police Department for the number of years respectively stated, it is hereby Ordered, His Honor the Mayor having approved the same, that they be retired from active service and their names placed upon the department pension roll with pay at the rate set out; said sum being one half of the amount of compensation received by each in the office from which he is retired; effective at 7.45 o'clock a. m., Friday, July 25, 1941.

CAPTAINS.

(Amount of Pension, $2,000 Each Per Annum, Payable Monthly.)

John J. Mullen, Division 1, age, 65 10-12 years; length of service, 40 6-12 years.

Thomas F. Gleavy, Superintendent's Office, age, 66 3-12 years; length of service 40 6-12 years.

CAPT. JOHN J. MULLEN.

Appointed a reserveman December 27, 1900; patrolman, August 7, 1901; sergeant, February 1, 1912; lieutenant, November 5, 1920; and captain July 6, 1928.

CAPT. THOMAS F. GLEAVY.

Appointed a reserveman December 27, 1900; patrolman, August 7, 1901; sergeant, July 7, 1910; inspector, August 1, 1912 (change of title to Lieutenant-Inspector September 4, 1931); and captain, October 17, 1931.

After long years of service, beyond, ordinarily, the lot of policemen, Captains Mullen and Gleavy take leave of their duties in our midst.

Their work at the various units and divisions over which they have been in command has been marked by kindness and consideration of others, both policemen and the public.

The department has benefited by their training and experience as able executive officers. However, as by operation of law, retirement is obligatory in their cases, we are to be deprived of their services.

The commissioner and the superintendent are happy to speak in praise of the intelligence, ability and character of Captains Mullen and Gleavy.

Both have exemplified to their superiors loyalty and responsiveness, which have served as guidance for those over whom they have been placed as commanding officers.

All extend to both Captains Mullen and Gleavy continuation of good health and contentment—an expression of friendliness which will readily find acceptance in the rank and file of their brother officers.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

JOSEPH F. TIMILTY,
Police Commissioner.

† Mason work, D. Antonellis; sheet metal, Joseph A. Nelson Company; pipe covering, Standard Asbestos Company.

‡ Mason work, Joseph S. Burke; sheet metal, Joseph A. Nelson Company; pipe covering, Standard Asbestos Company.

§ Mason work, D. Antonellis; sheet metal, Joseph A. Nelson Company; pipe covering, Standard Asbestos Company.

Upon July 7 the Mayor approved a contract with contractors as indicated for furnishing and installing manhole and handhole gaskets and fusible plugs for boilers in various schools throughout the city. The following bids were received:

District 1.—Powers & Mehegan Company, $940; Joseph F. Dwyer, $972; James P. Sullivan Company, $960.

District 2.—Powers & Mehegan Company, $1,047; Joseph F. Dwyer, $982; James P. Sullivan Company, $999.

District 3.—Powers & Mehegan Company, $890; Joseph F. Dwyer, $908; James P. Sullivan Company, $825.

A contract for District 1 to the firm of Powers & Mehegan, in the sum of $940; for District 2 to Joseph F. Dwyer, in the sum of $982, and for District 3 to James P. Sullivan Company, in the sum of $825.

Public Works Department.

Upon July 7 the Mayor approved a contract with contractors as indicated for cleaning catch-basins:

To Baker & Co., 1335 Hyde Park avenue, Hyde Park, the lowest bidder, as follows: District 1, City Proper, at the rate of $1.41 per cubic yard; District 2, Roxbury North, at $1.41 per cubic yard; District 2A, Roxbury South, at $1.49 per cubic yard; District 3, South Boston, at $1.41 per cubic yard; District 4, Charlestown, East Boston and part of City Proper, at $1.59 per cubic yard; and District 7, Dorchester, at $1.39 per cubic yard.

Inasmuch as our invitation for bids calls for taking out and removing 3,325 cubic yards of material from 950 catch-basins in Districts 1, 2, 2A, 3, 4 and 7, and inasmuch as David W. Norton submitted bids for only two of these districts, 3 and 7, his proposal has not been considered.

The work to be done under this contract is to be completed December 31, 1941.

The following bids were received June 13, 1941, after advertising in the City Record June 7, 1941:

District 1. 420 Cubic Yards.

Baker & Co., $1.41 per cubic yard; total, $592.20; Anthony J. Ryan, Inc., $1.70 per cubic yard; total, $714.

Upon July 1 the Mayor approved a contract as indicated in the following communication:

BOSTON, June 30, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Attached please find list of bids on proposals for furnishing four 1½-ton flushing trucks, Fords, or equal, to the Sewer Division of the Public Works Department, which were publicly opened and read at this office under date of June 19, 1941.

The proposals containing prices submitted by the various bidders were submitted to the Public Works Commissioner for recommendation, and he has recommended that the bid of the Bowers Motor Sales, the lowest bidder on Ford trucks, be accepted. He believes that the standardization on Ford trucks, within certain limits, will be a distinct advantage to the city. I am attaching hereto copy of letter of recommendation from the Public Works Commissioner concerning this bid.

In concurring with the above recommendation, I would respectfully request that permission be granted me to award a contract to the Bowers Motor Sales for furnishing four 1½-ton flushing trucks, as per specifications, at a total price of $5,941.04, delivery to be made to the municipal garage, 624 Albany street.

Regarding the item on page two of the attached list of bids, calling for two half-ton new Standard Pick-up trucks, I would respectfully request that permission be granted me to award this item to the lowest bidder, the Cote Motor Company, for furnishing two half-ton Ford Pick-up trucks at a total net price of $1,145.

Respectfully yours,

CHARLES E. THORNTON,
Acting Superintendent of Supplies.

Upon July 1 the Mayor approved a contract as requested in the following letter:

BOSTON, June 30, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Attached please find list of bids on proposals for furnishing one fifteen hundred gallon streamlined street flusher, as per specifications, to the Sanitary Division of the Public Works Department, which bids were publicly opened and read under date of May 6, 1941.

The proposals of the various bidders containing prices and specifications were submitted to the Public Works Commissioner for recommendation, and I have received a communication from him in which he recommends that the bid of the White Motor Company, bidding on a Heil flusher, at a price of $6,698 be accepted.

His reasons for recommending this bid are based on his personal observations and examination of the various units upon which prices were submitted and also upon recommendations made to him by the department supervisor of motor transportation and the superintendent of the central garage, and from this investigation he feels that it would be to the best interests of the city to award this contract to the White Motor Company.

In view of the above, I would respectfully request that permission be granted me to award a contract to the White Motor Company for furnishing one streamlined street flusher, equipped with a Heil flusher, as per specifications in this office, to the Sanitary Division of the Public Works Department, 650 Albany street, Boston, at a price of $6,698. I am attaching hereto letter of recommendation from the Public Works Commissioner concerning this bid.

Respectfully yours,

CHARLES E. THORNTON,
Acting Superintendent of Supplies.

* Contract awarded.

Upon July 7 the Mayor approved a contract with the Warren Foundry and Pipe Corporation for furnishing approximately 200,000 pounds D iron castings (branches, curves, etc.) for the Water Service, as required, until December 31, at a price of 5.95 cents per pound. The approximate amount of the contract was $11,900. Bids, opened June 16, were as follows:

Approximately 200,000 Pounds D Iron Castings.—Warren Foundry and Pipe Corporation, 5.95 cents a pound; total, $11,900; castings will be made at Phillipsburg, N. J.

WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

Upon varying dates as indicated the Mayor approved contracts with firms and contractors for labor, supplies, etc. Communications from the heads of the several departments interested were as follows:

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR.

BOSTON, July 1, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

SIR,—Authority is requested to purchase, without advertising, fireworks displays from the New England Fireworks Company, 73 Tremont street, Boston, Mass., for the evening of July 4, 1941, at the following places, with the amount to be expended at each place listed here below:

Boston Common, $500; Smith Playground, $250; Fallon Field, $200; McConnell Field Park, $250; Columbus Park, $250; Franklin Park, $300; Jamaica Pond, $250; Healy Field, $250. Total, $2,250.

In view of the fact that these companies are concerns in the fireworks display business in Boston, the city will not gain by advertising, as concerns in this business everywhere have a set show for a certain price and these concerns located here are in a position to give a better show for the money to be expended.

Very truly yours,

LOUIS J. BREMS,
Director of Public Celebrations.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, June 12, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Your permission is respectfully requested to award a contract, without publicly advertising, to the C. J. McCarthy Company for furnishing the following:

One Ingersoll-Rand, Model GK-105, Standard air compressor, in accordance with specifications on file in this department, $1,955.50.

The Park Department has indicated that it prefers the Ingersoll-Rand type of air compressor as best suited to its needs. Inasmuch as identical bids were received from three companies and as similar equipment furnished in the past by the C. J. McCarthy Company has proved satisfactory, it is my considered opinion that no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising.

Respectfully yours,

CHARLES E. THORNTON,
Acting Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, June 30, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—I would respectfully request that permission be granted me to award a contract, without public advertisement, to the Elgin Sweeper Company for furnishing to the Public Works Department one mechanical street sweeper, Elgin, Junior, as per specifications, at a delivered price of $5,710, less a cash discount of two per cent for payment in ten days.

This price is the same as that submitted by this same company in a publicly advertised bid opened under date of April 8, 1941, and contract was awarded to the above-named company at that time. I feel that there would be no advantage in publicly advertising for bids as I feel that this sweeper, in so far as satisfactory performance is concerned, is the best purchase for the city.

I am in possession of a quotation from the Elgin Sweeper Company confirming the price stated above.

I am attaching hereto copy of a recommendation from the Commissioner of Public Works regarding this purchase.

Respectfully yours,

CHARLES E. THORNTON,
Acting Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, June 30, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Permission is respectfully requested to award a contract, without public advertisement, to the Hersey Manufacturing Company for furnishing two ten-inch detector meters to the Water Division of the Public Works Department.

The detector meters manufactured by the Hersey Manufacturing Company have been used by the Water Division for many years and have been regarded by this department as the most satisfactory meter of this type that can be obtained, and as the Hersey Manufacturing Company is the manufacturer, no advantage would accrue from public advertisement for bids.

Respectfully yours,

CHARLES E. THORNTON,
Acting Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, July 1, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Permission is respectfully requested to award a contract, without public advertisement, to the Perry Barker Engineering Company for furnishing to the City of Boston fuel engineering services consisting of preparation and revision of fuel specifications in the City of Boston contracts when requested; the examination of fuel proposals and rendering of reports relative to the comparative basis of proposals submitted; and the making of all necessary computations and certifications of adjustments relative to the prices to be paid under the contracts in accordance with the terms and specifications thereof.

The amount of this contract is approximately $1,900.

Respectfully yours,

CHARLES E. THORNTON,
Acting Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, July 2, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Permission is respectfully requested to award a contract, without public advertisement, to the New England Coal and Coke Company for the purchase of approximately 500 gross tons of nut and slack bituminous coal, to be delivered to the Institutions Department at Long Island, in the bins, at a price of $8.47 per gross ton.

Under date of June 18, 1941, a public bid was opened at this office on anthracite and semi-bituminous coal, covering the needs of all the city departments. This office was able to secure but one bid on deliveries to Long Island, and that bid contained a clause so prohibitive in character that we were unable to accept same.

As the Long Island station is in immediate need of coal, the various bidders were canvassed for prices for immediate needs, and the following were received:

Metropolitan Coal Company, price per gross ton alongside Chelsea Wharf, exclusive of cost of lighterage and weighing, $8.40.

City Fuel Company, price per gross ton delivered to Long Island, $8.81.

New England Coal and Coke Compan, price per gross ton delivered to Long Island, $8.47.

In view of the emergency nature of this purchase, I would respectfully request that the permission asked for above be granted.

Respectfully yours,

CHARLES E. THORNTON,
Acting Superintendent of Supplies.

SUFFOLK COUNTY COURT HOUSE.

BOSTON, July 1, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MAYOR TOBIN,—Your approval is hereby requested for awarding of a contract, without advertising, to the Otis Elevator Company for the complete maintenance and servicing of the ten signal control passenger elevators in the Suffolk County Court House, in service continuously during Court House hours, for the balance of the County fiscal year ending December 31, 1941, at a monthly charge of $770, which also includes the annual drop test and the replacement of all parts; and in addition to the complete servicing and maintenance of these ten elevators, provision for a monthly supervisory inspection of four intermittently operated passenger elevators at the Court House, and of the four electric book lifts, at an additional charge of $30 per month for the eight, including also the annual drop test for these.

All of the ten continuously operated signal control passenger elevators in the above recommendation for complete servicing, and the four other elevators used intermittently for passengers, and the four electric book lifts were manufactured and installed by the Otis Elevator Company, and the Court House Commission feels that nothing can be gained by advertising for the foregoing service, particularly with existing, and increasing, difficulties in procuring mechanical parts for repair and replacement to complicated mechanisms not already reserved or in stock by the manufacturer of such particular machines.

Under the circumstances the Suffolk County Court House Commission requests under the provisions of chapter 156 of the Acts of 1939 that you indicate your approval for awarding the foregoing elevator servicing without public advertising.

Very truly yours,

SUFFOLK COUNTY COURT HOUSE COMMISSION,
By CHARLES M. DAVENPORT,
Chairman.

REPORT OF FREDERICK J. GILLIS, ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT, ON ATTENDANCE AT NATIONAL NUTRITION CONFERENCE FOR DEFENSE, WASHINGTON, MAY 26 TO 28, 1941.

The following is a report on attendance at the National Nutrition Conference for Defense, by Frederick J. Gillis, Assistant Superintendent of Schools, at Washington:

The National Nutrition Conference for Defense called by President Roosevelt was held in Washington, D. C., May 26, 27, 28, 1941.

The conference assembled as a unit for the General Sessions and was divided into nine divisions for sectional meetings, discussing the following topics:

1. Research and National Nutrition Problems.
2. Economic Policy and Social Responsibility as Related to Nutrition.
3. Public Health and Medical Aspects of Nutrition.
   a. General Problems.
   b. Special Needs of Mothers and Children.
4. Nutrition for Workers in Defense.
5. Methods of Education in Nutrition.
   a. Developing Educational Programs that Grow Out of Needs.
   b. Determining What to Teach and How to Make it Effective.
   c. Mobilizing an Educational Personnel Adequate to do the Job.
   d. Providing, Evaluating and Using Educational Tools.
6. Professional Education in Nutrition.
7. Nutrition Problems in Distribution and Processing of Foods.
8. Community Planning for Nutrition.
   a. Urban Planning.
   b. Rural Planning.
9. Nutrition Problems in Group Food Service.

I was assigned to Section 9. In that section it was assumed as an aid in limiting discussion that:

1. The average market furnishes the essentials for a good diet.
2. In menu making, the factors affecting food purchase, such as the number and skill of employees, the amount and type of equipment, and season are taken into consideration.
3. The services legally provided by local and state departments of health are fully utilized.
4. Space provided for group feeding is adequate, properly ventilated and lighted.
5. Standards of sanitation, including cleanliness of space, equipment and personnel, and health examinations of personnel, are established and maintained.

The personnel of Section 9 turned their attention to the following questions:

1. What is being done to apply our knowledge of nutrition to group food service?
   a. What improvements are being made through menu planning and the purchasing of food?
   b. What is being done for better nutrition through proper handling and preparation of food?
   c. What contribution to improved nutrition is being made through "salesmanship" (that is, by education of patrons to demand or accept well-balanced meals)?
2. What can be done to improve nutrition through group food service?
3. What simplified materials on group food service are needed?
4. What plans can be made for better nutrition through group food service?

How can ways of meeting these problems be coordinated with the nutrition activities of other community groups and agencies working for better nutrition, such as:

   a. Community nutrition committee.
   b. Local defense councils.
   c. Local official agencies.
   d. Unofficial local agencies.

The General Sessions disclosed that 45,000,000 Americans today are undernourished, according to Mr. M. L. Wilson of the Agriculture Department.

Vice President Wallace, in his address, voiced a challenge to forces more dangerous to America than is Hitlerism itself. He set three goals toward which we must work. The first is the elimination of disease which results from dietary deficiency; pellagra is an example. The second is the reduction in the number of victims of those illnesses to which a lack of proper food contributes; one of them is tuberculosis. The third is the establishment of diet standards which will assure all Americans enough energy foods and body-building foods and vitamins.

"If America is to have the healthy people we need in this national emergency, we must improve our diets so that the people more nearly measure up to this yardstick for nutrition," said Dr. Russell M. Wilder of the Mayo Clinic and chairman of the food committee.

The minimum daily diet necessary to maintain national health should consist of one pint of milk for an adult and more for a child, at least one serving of meat, one egg or a suitable substitute, two green vegetables, two fruits rich in vitamin C, bread and cereal, butter or oleomargarine, and other foods to satisfy the appetite.

Dr. Thomas Farran, Surgeon-General of the United States Public Health Service and a member of the food committee, said the recommendation was the first authoritative national blueprint of the amounts and kinds of dietary essentials for good health.

With the exception of families in the lowest income groups, this yardstick can be attained now. There is no narrow list of foods from which to draw. Many diets do not reach these standards. This is a dangerous situation.

Not more than one family in four has sufficient income to provide a diet rated as good. Doctor Wilder said that malnutrition is the chief medical problem of the nation because it weakens the body to many diseases.

The gravity of this situation, however, is not an occasion for crepe-hanging and bemoaning our plight. The hopeful and challenging fact is that we have the scientific knowledge, the means and the national will to do something about it.

The Agriculture Department program for increasing dairy, meat, poultry and fresh vegetable production will solve the problem only if the Government assures wide distribution. The stamp plan was praised as amazingly successful.

We are mobilizing now for a military emergency, mobilizing on many fronts, said Doctor Wilder. "The outcome, if the war is prolonged, will be determined in a large measure by what we do with our foods."

President Roosevelt asked the conference to make recommendations for the best ways to put the nation on a nutritionally sound basis:

1. How much responsibility shall the Government assume, and what shall our national economic policy be with respect to nutrition?
2. What is the most effective way to solve the twin problems of undernutrition and farm surpluses?
3. How can we send to Britain the food she needs and at the same time give all American families a fairly good diet?
4. Can nutritionally adequate diets for all be achieved as a result of employment and wage increases expected this year and next?
5. Shall we attempt to promote inexpensive methods of distribution of all basic foods if it means displacing unneeded workers in the marketing system?

The final recommendations of the conference are expected to appear in book form.

FRED J. GILLIS,
Assistant Superintendent.

ASSESSMENTS CANCELED.

The Mayor has approved the following order of the Board of Street Commissioners:

Whereas, An order of the Board of Street Commissioners, approved by the Mayor June 14, 1939, and recorded in Suffolk Registry of Deeds June 16, 1939, Libro 5795, page 555, provided for the laying out and construction of an extension of Frankfort street, East Boston district, from Neptune road to Island street, as a highway; and

Whereas, The Public Works Department, under date of June 16, 1941, has informed this Board that said Frankfort street was not entered for construction within the two years specified by law; it is hereby Ordered, That the assessment liens created by said order of June 14, 1939, be, and the same hereby are, canceled.

TRAFFIC COMMISSION RULINGS.

Voted, That as urgently required by considerations of public safety and convenience, during the period of sewerage construction, estimated to be sixty (60) days, vehicles are excluded from the following street, effective July 7, 1941:

Eustis Street, Roxbury.

From Albany street to Dearborn street.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, June 30, 1941.

Regular meeting of the City Council in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at 2 p. m., President GALVIN in the chair. Absent, Coun. Chase.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the Flag.

ACTION ON LOAN ORDERS.

President GALVIN called up, under unfinished business, Nos. 2, 3 and 4 on the calender, viz.:

2. Ordered, That under the provisions of section one of chapter one hundred and seventy-eight of the Acts of nineteen hundred and thirty, and section five of chapter two hundred and twenty-four of the Acts of nineteen hundred and thirty-six, the sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) be, and the same is hereby, appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Commissioner of Public Works, for the construction of sewerage works, and that the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, upon request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount.

On June 13, 1941, the foregoing order was read once and passed, yeas 20, nays 1.

3. Ordered, That under the provisions of section 7 of chapter 44 of the General Laws, as amended by section 5 of chapter 224 of the Acts of 1936, the sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) be, and the same is hereby, appropriated, to be expended, under the direction of the Commissioner of Public Works, for the construction of bridges, and that the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, upon request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount.

On June 13, 1941, the foregoing order was read once and passed, yeas 20, nays 1.

4. Ordered, That under the provisions of section 7 of chapter 44 of the General Laws as amended by section 5 of chapter 224 of the Acts of 1936, and under the provisions of chapter 393 of the Acts of 1906, the sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) be, and the same is hereby, appropriated, to be expended for the construction of public ways or permanent pavement, and that the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, upon request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount.

On June 13, 1941, the foregoing order was read once and passed, yeas 20, nays 1.

The question came on giving the orders their second reading and passage. The orders were passed, yeas 19, nays 0.

ORDINANCE RE TAX TITLE PROPERTY.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 23, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—In 1935 an ordinance was adopted (chapter 3, Ordinance of 1935) for the purpose of dealing with the problem arising from the foreclosure of tax title property. The great increase in the amount of property so acquired and the complicated proceedings involved in disposing of it resulted in the enactment by the Legislature of chapter 358 of the Acts of 1938 providing for the appointment of a custodian of such real estate and for a simpler method of managing it and disposing of it.

A portion of the ordinance of 1935 is inconsistent with and is superseded by the legislation referred to, and in order to remove the inconsistency and to place the real estate division in a position more nearly conforming to the law, I recommend the passage of the accompanying ordinance.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

An Ordinance Concerning Tax Title Property.

Chapter twenty-five of the Revised Ordinances of 1925 is hereby amended by striking out section seven, as inserted by section three of chapter three of the Ordinances of 1935 and as amended by chapter two of the Ordinances of 1937, and by inserting in place thereof the following new section seven:

Section 7. The foreclosed real estate division is hereby established as a division of the public buildings department. The division shall be in charge of the person appointed as custodian of foreclosed real estate under the authority of, and who shall exercise the powers and perform the duties provided by, chapter three hundred and fifty-eight of the acts of 1938 as amended. The custodian may expend, in the performance of his duties, such sums as may be specified in the annual budget and the expenses so incurred shall be paid from the income of the division, exclusive of the proceeds from the sale of foreclosed property, or, if the income is insufficient, from such appropriations as may be made by the mayor and city council. In the discharge of his duties the custodian may obtain the assistance of employees of the public buildings department to the extent that may be approved by the superintendent. Any real estate acquired by the city through the foreclosure of tax titles which may be deemed valuable for any public purpose may be transferred, by order of the city council approved by the mayor, from the care, custody, management and control of the custodian to the care, custody, management and control of any city department.

Referred to Committee on Ordinances.

CONSULTATION WITH COUNCIL BY WHITE FUND TRUSTEES.

Coun. KELLY offered the following:
Ordered, That the trustees of the George Robert White Fund be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to consult the members of the City Council when play areas are being considered for their respective wards.

Coun. KELLY—Mr. President, my reason for introducing this order is that when the trustees of the White Fund start to put these play areas into the various wards, I think they should consult the councilors in various wards as to the location of the play areas. Why I say that is, because I feel that every councilor is familiar with his ward, and every councilor realizes what location in the ward the play areas will be best suited for.
The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

USE OF W. P. A. IN NATIONAL DEFENSE.

Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN, HURLEY and GOODE offered the following:
Resolved, That the Boston City Council hereby petitions the members of the Massachusetts Delegation in Congress to devise immediate plans for the establishment of W. P. A. projects which would be part of our National Defense Program thereby absorbing all persons recently dropped from W. P. A. rolls.

Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, I know that most of the members of this Body during the past week have been harassed by the pleas of that portion of the 24,000 persons who were dropped from the W. P. A. rolls in Boston. I think we were all of us more or less surprised to read in the Boston press and in the press throughout the state the statements of those who are in charge of the W. P. A. in Massachusetts and throughout the nation, that most of these people would be absorbed by defense work. I think that during the past week we have seen an absolute lack of proof of the statement made that these people would be absorbed in defense work. I think that the people we have seen who have been dropped from W. P. A. in the past, and the people who during the several previous months of defense work were engaged in work of such a nature that they could not be absorbed in the past by the defense work, are not being absorbed at the present time in defense work, and will not and cannot be absorbed in the future by defense work. I think that all of us have seen during the past week several instances of recipients, or possible recipients, of mothers' aid, who by reason of pride, I might say, have been working on W. P. A., feeling that they wanted to go out and earn a few dollars so that they might sustain their little flock of young ones. We see possible recipients of mothers' aid working on the W. P. A. and being lopped off without warning from the W. P. A.; we see the women who have been working on the sewing projects, who certainly will not be absorbed in the present defense work, lopped off without warning from the W. P. A.; we see women who have been doing the little household work which came along under the W. P. A., likewise lopped off without warning; we see women who have been engaged in cooking projects lopped off without warning from the W. P. A.; we have seen those engaged in municipal projects lopped off without warning from the W. P. A., and yet we know that these people can't be absorbed in the defense work, in the defense structure, that it is absolutely impossible. The defense work is taking care of everybody who is mechanically inclined. The defense work is taking care of those who are skilled in the trades. But the defense work is not taking care of these poor women who have been engaged in the sewing and cooking projects. Now, something must be done for these people or else the City of Boston, and every municipality throughout the state, is going to find itself financially embarrassed before the present year is over. There are 24,000 families dependent upon the wages of those people. If you lop those people off from the W. P. A. there is not any type of defense work in Massachusetts at the present hour which can absorb them. We are told by the defense heads right here in Boston that there are not gas masks for one-twentieth of the 750,000 population of the City of Boston. I think it is worthy of notice at least of the membership of the Massachusetts delegation in Congress, and worthy of notice of the entire delegation in Congress, that these people who have been summarily lopped off the W. P. A. without warning, who have not been absorbed and are not going to be absorbed unless some special jobs are created—that for these people some new defense work should be engaged in. Certainly, some new type of project, some new branch of defense work, should be provided for these people, some new project where they could make something useful, some new project, whether you call it W. P. A. or something else, where they might make gas masks, for instance, for use either at home or abroad, to be sold to the foreign nations or given away to the foreign nations, to whom we are giving so much. But we must take care of these people. We must take care of these people because we have a moral obligation to do so. And as far as the City of Boston is concerned, we must take care of them or else God help the City of Boston this year. So that I hope that this passes the Council today, and I hope that the members of the Massachusetts delegation in Congress will take note of it and avail themselves of the services of these deserving citizens who at the present hour are without any employment.

Coun. GOTTLIEB—Mr. President, I ask to be recorded in favor of Councilor Sullivan's resolution.

Coun. CAREY—Mr. President, I am in hearty sympathy with the purpose of this resolution, but I have listened to other resolutions and statements made in connection with aid on the floor of this Council in the last two or three weeks but with the exception of the retention of one project I understand that nothing has been done to safeguard the people such as stormed this Council Chamber here this morning, people who have been thrown out of work because of the drastic reduction in the W. P. A. quota. The sight we saw here this morning was most pitiful. Some of the people who were here were halt and lame, others were at that age of life where nobody even wants to give employment to them. I think the time has come when no further time should be lost, and I would very much like to see the Mayor take a trip to Washington to see if something cannot be done about this matter. For the past three weeks I, like every other councilor, have been seen by these people who have been dismissed from the W. P. A., asking us what we could do about it. I am getting sick of it. Complaints have come this morning from others who had been retained on the program but have now been discharged. As I said a moment ago, I think that enough time has been lost now and that these poor unfortunates have got to be taken care of. Action must be taken immediately, and I hope that the Mayor will find it possible to make a trip to Washington, because I am sure that by his personal efforts and through his personal influence something can be done. I shall vote for this resolution, but it is just another resolution, in a way, as a matter of record, and nothing will be done about it. I think it might be well if the Chair would appoint a committee to call on the Mayor this afternoon and see if he can't arrange to go to Washington to see if he can't have something done immediately to safeguard these poor people in the city who have been discharged in the last forty-eight hours.
The resolution was adopted under suspension of the rule.

REDISTRICTING PLAN.

Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN offered the following:
Resolved, That the Boston City Council, representing a substantial segment of the Massachusetts electorate, hereby enters a most vigorous protest against the redistricting plan now being contemplated by the majority group in the Massachusetts Legislature, which plan is grossly unfair, tending as it does to disfranchise a large number of Democratic voters in Greater Boston's Congressional districts.

Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, I speak here today at the suggestion of a large number of people from Ward 22. During the past several years that district has been a part of the Ninth Congressional District of Massachusetts. The people in that district are committed to the democratic form of government, and they recently sent to Congress that liberal young man, Tom Eliot of Cambridge. At the last election there was great resentment at the policies of his predecessor, Congressman Luce, and the people voted there for Tom Eliot on account of his interest in social legislation. He, incidentally, is the father of the Wage and Hour Law, and several other pieces of legislation which have been adopted by the United States Congress during the past eight years, and which have done much to benefit the laboring man in this state and throughout the nation. He is one of the intended victims up at the State House by the majority group. He is one of the young men like Congressman Healey who is referred to in the editorial in the Boston Post today, who are marked for the boiling pot so far as the Republican majority on Beacon Hill is concerned. I think it might be well for all here to know the indorsement given in the Boston Post this morning. In the summation of the article the editor states that the gentleman whom the Republican group on Beacon Hill are aiming to succeed Mr. Healey is Senator Goodwin, who neither has the personality nor the ability to fill the place as Congressman Healey has done it. There is probably no more outstanding Congressman in the United States than John McCormack, and I understand that on Beacon

Hill they consider him a geographical mistake and they can't possibly oust him. It must set pretty hard with the Republican bloc up there that they can't get rid of such a statesman as John McCormack. They are trying to get rid of him and also of such men as Congressmen Casey, Connery and Flaherty. I think there is every indication in the deliberations of that body up there that they are not only intent on ousting every Democrat from office, but in view of the publicity which has been given the matter they are intent on ousting such men as Congressman Flaherty, Connery, Casey, and every other Irish Catholic. So that every member of this Body, no matter what their political beliefs, whether Democrats or Republicans, will go on the basis of real democratic decency and see that the people of Massachusetts are not disfranchised in the various Congressional districts, and in view of the fact that one Congressman must be eliminated, and apparently in Massachusetts this is to be done by some arbitrary rule, I think it should be done so that neither party will suffer and that no religious or racial group will suffer. I think whoever is eliminated should be eliminated on the basis of mathematical percentage. It was suggested by Congressman Casey himself that up in the Worcester district they make one Congressional district out of it, which would mean that Congressman Casey would run against his Republican opponent, Congressman Pehr Holmes. I am not speaking here today as a matter of policy but, as I say, as a matter of democratic decency, that they should not gerrymander up there at the State House and start experimenting with decency in government, being guided by racial and religious and political policies.

The resolution was adopted under suspension of the rule.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ORDINANCES.

Coun. LYONS, for the Committee on Ordinances, submitted the following:

Report on ordinance (referred January 13) concerning builders' licenses—that same ought to pass.

Report accepted; said order passed.

RESTORATION OF FOOD ALLOWANCE.

Coun. D. F. SULLIVAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Overseers of the Public Welfare be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to restore the food allowance cut to those persons receiving old age assistance.

Coun. D. F. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, some few weeks ago I introduced an order requesting that the Overseers of Public Welfare increase the food allowance to those persons on Old Age Assistance, Mothers' Aid, and Dependent Aid. The answer now comes back from the Director of Public Welfare that they have received the order, and he then goes on: "May I state that on the question of food allowance Old Age Assistance budgets are refigured twice a year and Aid to Dependent Children budgets are figured four times a year on a diet and cost basis. Also, the department has, during the past few months been refiguring Dependent Aid budgets, especially those of larger families, on a basis which we feel will suffice." I want to say, Mr. President, that three weeks ago they did figure the budget for those persons on Old Age Assistance, and, according to them, they did quite a remarkable job in cutting those poor old souls in some cases as much as $3.50 and $6.50 a month. I introduced that order, Mr. President, because of the steady increase in food prices. They also have two different sets of prices for people living in the city. In the South End section of the city they had a cost for those persons on Old Age Assistance living in, who were cooking their own meals, of $4.21 a week. They reduced that down to $2.50 a week. Those persons on the old budget who were eating out in restaurants were allowed $5.21 a week, but under the new set-up those people who eat out in restaurants are allowed $3.50 a week. That is in the South End section of the city. Now we will go out into Roxbury and out through Dorchester and Jamaica Plain. Just to show you the different rates they have in the food allowance for the people on Old Age, the new budget in Roxbury for those persons living in is $10.85 a month, while the old budget was $13.65 a month, a reduction of about $3.50. Those persons in the outlying sections living in were allowed $15.50 a month. Those people in the outlying sections on the old budget, who lived out, were allowed $21.85 a month. Now, Mr. President, we go along in political life as it has gone since Old Age Assistance has been established, and both parties, both Republican and Democrat, have promised the old folks everything and given them nothing. I feel that this procedure is set up by the Federal Government and passed on through them to our Welfare Department. It is a small cost to the City of Boston for each case that they take on. And I am going to ask that this order be referred to the Public Welfare Committee so that we can have a hearing, to see if we can't get this custom as it is today taken away, and see if we can't give them a lot more money. I don't know how anyone can sit down and deal with anyone who is around the age of sixty-five and cut them down to a couple of dollars a week to live on for food. If you do that they will have damn little for medicine, damn little for clothing, and I don't know how they think that these people can live much longer after they get on the Old Age Assistance. We all know that the older folks, as they get along in life, have to have medicines. There is no way for them to get that medicine or to get their prescriptions from a doctor, but there are all sorts of laxatives and other types of medicine that they know they need and which they have to buy, and unless they can show a medical report from a doctor stating that they need additional medical care they will not get a medical increase in their allowance. I was talking to several of the visitors and they admitted themselves that the food budget is not right, and they say themselves that the people cannot live on the money they are getting but the food allowance budget is sent out from the main office at Hawkins street and they have to go by that food allowance. So that I ask, Mr. President, that this order be referred to the Public Welfare Committee.

Coun. LYONS—Mr. President, I think that Councilor Sullivan's order is a very good order. It is high time that not only Boston but every city in the country should take care of their own people. Today I went into five different departments and every department head was there. Relating to the Old Age Assistance, as he states, the food costs have increased during this war. I will agree that we should defend our country here and our people, and that only the surplus should be sent across to Europe. It has been going now for the last nine or ten months, and people are getting fed up on it. Talking about Maurice Sullivan's order, and also in conjunction with Daniel Sullivan's order on Welfare and the W. P. A., I don't know what is going to become of the country. This morning I had fifteen men between the ages of fifty-five and sixty, who were going around to find work, and they stated that they can't find work on the national defense. They know down deep in their hearts, and these people on W. P. A. here in Boston know, and they say it is all national defense. Some day we shall have to appoint a committee to go down and fight this matter out with the Mayor, because unless something is done the people are going to suffer. It is not especially Boston but it is country-wide. Some action must be taken on it. I don't know what the Congressmen in Washington are thinking of to let these conditions go by the board as they have. I hope you take action on this and have a committee appointed to go down and talk it over with the Mayor, and if necessary go down with the Mayor to Washington.

The order was referred to the Committee on Public Welfare.

THE NEXT MEETING.

President GALVIN moved that when the Council adjourns it be to meet on Monday, July 14, at 2 p. m. Passed.

On motion of Coun. ENGLERT the Council adjourned at 3.35 p. m., to meet on Monday, July 14, 1941, at 2 p. m.

(July 5-12.)

CITY OF BOSTON.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

PROPOSALS FOR BITUMINOUS CONCRETE PAVEMENT AND SEWERAGE WORKS IN JAEGER TERRACE, WARD 19, FROM POND STREET NORTH AND NORTHEASTERLY FOR ABOUT 329 FEET; RICKERHILL ROAD, WARD 20 (FORMERLY RICKER STREET), FROM MANTHORNE ROAD ABOUT 310 FEET NORTHEASTERLY; CHURCHILL ROAD, WARD 20, FROM ST. THERESA AVENUE ABOUT 441 FEET EASTERLY; WACHUSETT STREET, WARD 19, OVER AND INCLUDING WESTBOURNE ROAD, SOUTHBOURNE ROAD TO FLORENCE STREET EAST; PARTRIDGE STREET, WARD 20, FROM LA GRANGE STREET TO COWING STREET; AND BITUMINOUS CONCRETE PAVEMENT IN LEE STREET, WARD 11, FROM CAROLINA AVENUE TO MCBRIDE STREET; AUGUSTUS AVENUE, WARD 18, FROM METROPOLITAN AVENUE TO WHITFORD STREET.

The Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston, office 508 City Hall Annex, invites proposals from citizens of the United States and corporations or other legal associations wherein the controlling interest to the extent of at least over one half thereof is owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States, for bituminous concrete pavement, etc., in Jaeger terrace and other streets. A bond will be required for doing the work of a surety company approved by the Commissioner in the sum of 100 per cent of the amount of the contract, to secure the due performance of the contract and the full protection of the city. Forms of proposals may be obtained at Room 508, City Hall Annex. Each proposal should be inclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked "Proposal for Bituminous Concrete Pavement, etc., in Jaeger Terrace and Other Streets," and left at Room 508, fifth floor, City Hall Annex, before 12 m. of Tuesday, July 22, 1941, with a certified check for fifteen hundred (1,500) dollars, payable to and to become the property of the city if the proposal after acceptance is not carried out. The proposals will then and there be publicly opened and read. Proposals must be made in duplicate, the sealed duplicate, without check, to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the bids. There will be a charge of two dollars ($2) for each set of plans and specifications taken out. If the price of any item appears to the Commissioner to be abnormally high or low, or the bidder neglects to bid on each and every item, it may lead to the rejection of the proposal containing such price. The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which schedule is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained, without cost, upon application therefor at the office of the Commissioner of Public Works. The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Law so called) to all persons to be employed under this contract and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required prior to the award of said contract. The undersigned reserves the right to reject any or all proposals or to award the contract as he deems best.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

PROPOSALS FOR BITUMINOUS CONCRETE PAVEMENT IN WOOD AVENUE, WARD 18, FROM RIVER STREET TO CUMMINS HIGHWAY.

The Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston, office 508 City Hall Annex, invites proposals from citizens of the United States and corporations or other legal associations wherein the controlling interest to the extent of at least over one half thereof is owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States, for bituminous concrete pavement, in Wood avenue, Ward 18, from River street to Cummins Highway. A bond will be required for doing the work of a surety company approved by the Commissioner in the sum of 100 per cent of the amount of the contract, to secure the due performance of the contract and the full protection of the city. Forms of proposals may be obtained at Room 508, City Hall Annex. Each proposal should be inclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked "Proposal for Bituminous Concrete Pavement, in Wood Avenue, Ward 18, from River Street to Cummins Highway," and left at Room 508, fifth floor, City Hall Annex, before 12 m. of Thursday, July 24, 1941, with a certified check for three thousand five hundred (3,500) dollars, payable to and to become the property of the city if the proposal after acceptance is not carried out. The proposals will then and there be publicly opened and read. Proposals must be made in duplicate, the sealed duplicate, without check, to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the bids. There will be a charge of two dollars ($2) for each set of plans and specifications taken out. If the price of any item appears to the Commissioner to be abnormally high or low, or the bidder neglects to bid on each and every item, it may lead to the rejection of the proposal containing such price. The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which schedule is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained, without cost, upon application therefor at the office of the Commissioner of Public Works. The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Law so called) to all persons to be employed under this contract and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required prior to the award of said contract. CITY OF BOSTON.

SEALED PROPOSALS FOR $5,680,000 CITY OF BOSTON LOANS.

COUPON SERIAL BONDS.

BONDS EXEMPT FROM TAXATION IN MASSACHUSETTS AND FROM THE PRESENT FEDERAL INCOME TAX.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.
OFFICE OF THE CITY TREASURER.

CITY HALL, BOSTON, MASS., July 10, 1941.

In pursuance of the authority given by orders of the City Council of Boston and Acts of Massachusetts, the undersigned will receive proposals until 12 o'clock M., Eastern Daylight Saving Time, Wednesday, July 16, 1941, for the purchase of all but no part of the following described coupon serial bonds.

COUPON SERIAL BONDS.

Bidder to name one rate of interest for all of the following serial loans in multiples of 1-4 of 1 per cent: no bid to be less than par and accrued interest.

CITY OF BOSTON FUNDING LOAN, ACTS OF 1941, $2,000,000.

Order of the City Council of Boston of June 24, 1941. Payable $200,000 annually, August 1, 1942, to August 1, 1951, inclusive.

CITY OF BOSTON, MUNICIPAL RELIEF LOAN, ACT OF 1941, $3,680,000.

Orders of the City Council of Boston of April 29, 1941. Payable $368,000 annually, August 1, 1942, to August 1, 1951, inclusive.

All loans will be issued in Coupon Bond Certificates of $1,000 each, and will be paid on the dates specified for each loan, all with interest payable semi-annually on the first days of February and August in each year, at the office of the City Treasurer, Boston.

In comparing bids, preference will be given to the bidder whose bid provides for the lowest net interest cost to the City (total interest for the duration of the loan from August 1, 1941, less the amount of premium bid).

The bonds will be dated August 1, 1941, and will be ready for delivery and payment on or about August 1, 1941. Interest will begin August 1, 1941, and will cease on the dates on which the bonds are payable.

These bonds are exempt from taxation in Massachusetts and from the present Federal Income Tax.

Proposals must be sealed and addressed to James J. McCarthy, City Treasurer, Boston, Mass., endorsed "Proposals for Loans." Each proposal must be accompanied by a certified check on a Boston National Bank or Trust Company, or by cash, equal to one per cent of the amount of loans bid for, the check made payable to the City of Boston, James J. McCarthy, City Treasurer. The check or cash of any bidder to whom an award is made will be retained as part payment for the loans awarded. All other checks or cash will be returned.

Accrued interest from August 1, 1941, to date of delivery is to be paid by the purchaser.

All proposals will be opened in the office of the City Treasurer, Wednesday, July 16, 1941, at 12 o'clock M., Eastern Daylight Saving Time. The City Treasurer reserves the right to reject any or all bids or to accept such bid or bids as may seem to him to be the most advantageous to the City.

JAMES J. McCARTHY,
City Treasurer.

HEALTH AND HOSPITAL.

The plant and equipment of the Cincinnati General Hospital have been largely rehabilitated during the year 1939. As a result the operating officials of the Hospital will be able to do much better work in caring for the sick than heretofore.

The hospital treated 18,963 patients this year compared to 18,765 last year, and 24,929 individuals were cared for in the Out-Patient Dispensary against 24,701 in 1938. There was also an increase of approximately 10 per cent in the number of persons treated in the receiving ward, resulting in a total of 25,082. (From Annual Address of City Manager.)

RESTORATION OF SALARIES.

The Portland City Council has granted full restoration of salaries to all city employees, at an estimated cost (for the remaining six months of the year) of $162,430. This will put the city in the red at the end of the year unless additional revenue is obtained. Increases and adjustments of salaries for individuals will be considered as soon as finances permit.

CITY OF BOSTON PRINTING DEPARTMENT

CITY RECORD

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE OF BOSTON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

VOL. 33. SATURDAY, JULY 19, 1941. NO. 29

FINANCE COMMISSION PROPOSES LEGISLATIVE ACTION TO AID BOSTON IN SOLUTION OF PROBLEMS CREATED BY DECENTRALIZATION OF POPULATION — FINDS, AFTER EXHAUSTIVE STUDY, THAT CITY CARRIES BURDENS AND OBLIGATIONS THAT SHOULD BE SHARED MORE LIBERALLY BY ADJACENT METROPOLITAN COMMUNITIES—ASKS APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE TO STUDY AND MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS AT NEXT SESSION OF BIENNIUM.

In a report to the Governor and the Legislature the Boston Finance Commission has presented a study with recommendations, which aims to save Boston and her citizens from the effects of the decentralization movement in population found to be working such hardships on those who are bearing the greater share of the burden of taxation.

After discussing and reviewing all the circumstances that have brought about the conditions discussed the Commission suggests several possible remedies and calls for a committee of the Legislature to be named to study the entire problem and to bring before the next session of the biennium some concrete program for solving the problems. The report, which is to the Governor and the Legislature, is summarized in the following extract. Says the report:

The City of Boston is suffering today from an ailment which is common to every large city in the country — decentralization. At the moment, municipal experts all over the United States are viewing the trend with grave concern because it is working great hardship on our urban centers. Decentralization, the migration of population from the city to the suburbs, leaves behind a municipality fully serviced, but with increasingly fewer people to maintain it. A certain amount of retail shopping usually accompanies the migration and from time to time wholesale business and manufacturing follows. The results are far-reaching and raise serious problems for the areas affected.

The Finance Commission has made a study of certain of the effects of decentralization on Boston and some neighboring cities and towns, and offers this report for the purpose of presenting certain of the data obtained. It is hoped by this report to show the trend of decentralization in our Metropolitan area; to emphasize the obvious fact that an area and a population much larger than the City of Boston alone is being affected by it in the same way, and with the same result, as the city itself is being affected; to urge fair and unprejudiced consideration, and to stress the need, of a united and cooperative approach to the problem; and finally, to suggest one of many ways in which the problem may be attacked within the limits of existing statutory powers.

Eventually, if the present trend continues, important and far-reaching alterations of law must come to pass, and though the matter is not at present immediate, it may well happen that action will have to be taken at the next biennium. In the meantime, the situation should be faced and plans laid for meeting the situation before it forces too great dislocation of the economics of our Metropolitan area.

All our cities seem to have pursued a common historical pattern. In the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries and in the first two decades of the twentieth, they grew at the expense of the country. The tide slackened in the 1920's and following the depression began to ebb, slowly at first, but more recently with steadily increasing speed.

Extent and Direction of Population.

Boston is no exception to the general rule. The Federal census shows that it has lost population since 1930. This loss as yet is not great, amounting to 10,372, or 1.3 per cent of the 1930 population. It has been sufficient, however, to cause comment and suggestion of remedies on all sides. But most of this comment has concerned itself particularly with Boston, and has failed to envisage the fact that the problem is a Metropolitan one. It is not Boston's alone; it is a problem of the entire area and must be so considered.

The 1940 census, while it showed a decline in the population of Boston, also showed a decline in that of five other contiguous municipalities in the Metropolitan area.

CITIES.	1930 Population.	1940 Population.	Actual Decrease.	Percentage of 1930 Population Lost.
Boston	781,188	770,816	10,372	1.3
Cambridge	113,643	110,879	2,764	2.4
Somerville	103,908	102,177	1,731	1.7
Chelsea	45,816	41,259	4,557	9.9
Everett	48,424	46,784	1,640	3.4
Revere	35,680	34,405	1,275	3.6
Totals	1,128,659	1,106,320	22,339

It should be noted that the population loss of Boston is less in percentage than that of any of the other five municipalities.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"
From Boston Centennial Poem by
NATHAN HASKEL DOLE.

Upon July 7 the Mayor approved a contract with the Socony-Vacuum Oil Company, Inc., in accordance with the request contained in the following letter:

BOSTON, June 5, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Attached please find list of bids on proposals for furnishing gasoline to the various city departments for a period from July 15, 1941, to December 31, 1941, with the privilege of purchasing on the same terms and conditions extended to July 31, 1942. These bids were publicly opened and read in this office June 3, 1941.

The entire gasoline industry was canvassed for bids, but we were able to secure but one bidder, namely, the Socony-Vacuum Oil Company, Inc., which company was also awarded the contract for the period terminating July 15, 1941.

In view of the disturbing conditions prevailing in the gasoline trade, I would recommend that the contract be awarded to the Socony-Vacuum Oil Company, Inc., the only bidder, at the price quoted on the attached sheet, namely, one quarter of one cent under the seller's posted commercial consumer tank wagon price at the time of delivery.

The approximate amount of the contract was $84,500.

Respectfully yours,

CHARLES E. THORNTON,
Acting Superintendent of Supplies.

Seller's Posted Commercial Consumer Tank Wagon Price on Day of Opening of Bids, Per Gallon.—Socony-Vacuum Oil Company, Inc., 8.7 cents.

Differential From Seller's Posted Commercial Consumer Tank Wagon Price a

Time of Delivery, Minus Cents Per Gallon.—Socony-Vacuum Oil Company, Inc., .25 cent.

Net Price Per Gallon, Exclusive of All Federal and State Taxes, on Day of Opening of Bids.—Socony-Vacuum Oil Company, Inc., 8.45 cents.

Approximate Net Total.—Socony-Vacuum Oil Company, Inc., $84,500.

Trade Name or Brand of Gasoline.—Socony-Vacuum Oil Company, Inc., Mobilgas.

Upon July 7 the Mayor approved a contract for rubber coats for the Fire Department as requested in the following letter:

BOSTON, June 11, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Attached please find list of bids on four hundred rubber coats to be delivered to the Fire Department, which were publicly opened and read at this office under date of April 28, 1941.

These bids were to be in accordance with the sample coat furnished by the Fire Department, which had a strap arrangement on the sleeves in order to prevent the water running down the arm of the hoseman while operating the fire hose. After the bids had been received, Chief Glynn of the Fire Department notified this department that this strap arrangement, in his opinion, was not suitable for fire-fighting purposes, as the strap was apt to become unloosened and would then afford no protection to the hoseman. He suggested the substitution for the strap of pure gum cuffs which are attached to the inside of the sleeve and automatically prevent the flow of water from reaching the operator's shoulders and body.

The extra cost of this pure gum cuff would be thirty-five cents each, and in view of the recommendation of Chief Glynn I would respectfully ask that permission be granted me to award a contract, without further advertising, for three hundred and fifty Standard Fire Department rubber coats to the United States Rubber Company, the lowest bidder, at the prices stated herein, plus an extra charge of thirty-five cents each for the addition of the pure gum cuffs.

Regarding the remaining fifty coats, I would ask that permission be granted me to award an order to Hamblet & Hayes Company for furnishing these coats at a price of $6.05 each, as this coat is of a new construction in the firemen's rubber coat field, being of latex-sprayed material combining durability with light weight, and Chief Glynn is desirous of securing a few for the purpose of giving them a thorough test.

The approximate total awards were as follows:

United States Rubber Company, $1,950; Hamblet & Hayes Company, $302.50.

Respectfully yours,

CHARLES E. THORNTON,
Acting Superintendent of Supplies.

400 Standard Boston Fire Department Rubber Coats, Each.—Archer Rubber Company, $6.35, size 54; $6.10, size 52; $5.85, size 50; $5.60, size 48; $5.35, sizes 36 to 46, inclusive; Hamblet & Hayes Company, $6.05, sizes 38 to 46, inclusive; awarded fifty; $6.65, size 48; $7.55, sizes over 48; United States Rubber Company, $5.25; 25 cents extra per size above size 46; 35 cents extra for pure gum cuffs;

TO BUY FRUITS, ETC., DAILY.

The Mayor has approved the following request of the Acting Superintendent of Supplies:

BOSTON, July 1, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—For the past three years your Honor has approved the practice of this department in purchasing fruits and vegetables daily, and meats, poultry, butter, cheese and eggs weekly, instead of on a monthly basis as was the custom prior to 1938.

Inasmuch as the wisdom of this procedure has evidenced itself in better quality and increased economy, your permission is respectfully requested to continue the practice for the period of one year from this date.

Respectfully yours,
CHARLES E. THORNTON,
Acting Superintendent of Supplies.

FOR USE OF HEAD HOUSE AND CASTLE ISLAND.

The Mayor has approved the following request of Park Commissioner Long:

BOSTON, June 24, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—A committee headed by Captain McQuinn, representing the schoolship "Nantucket," has requested the use of the Recreation Pier at Castle Island for the mooring of the ship "Nantucket" from September 9 until some time in the spring.

I explained to them the difficulty of navigating a ship the size of the "Nantucket" in Pleasure Bay waters, but they assured me that General Hale of the State Public Works Department could do the necessary dredging under a project he has at the present time.

They also requested the use of the fort, but this is used at the present time by a unit from the Federal Government.

They then suggested the use of the Head House for school purposes. For a number of years vandalism has been rampant in the Head House. Specifications are being prepared at the present time to practically rebuild the inside of this house, and as it is not used during the winter months it would be continually guarded by the schoolship.

I have reached an agreement with them that they can use the building and moor the schoolship at Castle Island and in return they have agreed to guard our property. A watch will be kept on the island at all times and also in the Head House.

I respectfully recommend that I grant them a permit to tie up the "Nantucket" at the Recreation Pier, and also the use of the Head House during the winter months, at no expense to the city and to furnish a guard at all times in both properties.

Very respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. LONG,
Chairman.

FINANCE COMMISSION.

The population which has departed from the six municipalities has of necessity found homes elsewhere. That it has not wholly escaped from the Metropolitan area is evidenced by the fact that the total population of that area was greater in 1940 than it was in 1930 by some 32,253 persons. This means that the total population in the Metropolitan area, omitting the six municipalities which lost population, increased 54,592. Yet, to locate with any degree of accuracy where the migrants have settled is difficult, although examination of increases in population among the surrounding cities and towns shows certain belts and channels where obviously a large number of persons have established themselves. There is, for instance, a sharp growth in Brookline, Newton and Wellesley.

There is also a similar growth in Milton, and to a lesser extent in the towns to the south and southwest of Milton.

Another area which has enjoyed a substantial increase of population lies west and northwest of Cambridge. Of this group, Belmont is the most easterly and reports a very large increase, but Waltham and other towns to the west of Belmont have also shown large increases. For instance, Arlington has gained 10.8 per cent and Lexington, 39.2 per cent.

To the north of Boston there is no similar trend, though there are isolated instances of substantial increases of population. The statistics for the towns in this area do not differ materially from those for towns on the other sides of Boston, which are not mentioned above.

The geographical location of towns with large population increase as shown above is evidence that the diffusion from the center has been far from uniform. It brings out, moreover, that growth has followed along the Worcester and Concord pikes. It does not, however, bring out another element which is worth emphasizing, namely, that the peak of increase is about seven miles in a direct line from the State House — in almost any direction. This indicates that the wave of migration has not as yet gone very far out of the city, but has, as would naturally be expected, occupied the unfilled areas nearest to the center.

HOUSING CONDITIONS.

It is at present difficult to prophesy all the effects which the exodus of people from the densely populated central areas to the more lightly populated suburbs will have upon the economic and political futures of the areas whence the migration came. Much depends on the speed with which decentralization occurs, on the character of the migrants, and upon the extent of the migration. People will not move unless they believe that they will better themselves by so doing; one of the major elements to be considered, therefore, as an integral part of the problem is the housing situation.

MANUFACTURING AND COMMERCIAL ACTIVITIES.

The State Department of Labor and Industries (Division of Statistics) has also given a striking picture of decline in Boston in figures relating to manufacturing activities. These figures revealed that the number of manufacturing establishments in Boston decreased from 2,603 in 1928 to 2,255 in 1938; that the wages paid in manufacturing activity decreased from $104,865,000 in 1928 to $64,603,000 in 1938; that the average number of wage earners in manufacturing activities was 75,468 in 1928 and 54,160 in 1938; that the production value of manufacturing activities in 1928 was $586,050,000 and $367,366,000 in 1938.

The Federal Reserve Bank has shown that the net average annual sales of cooperating department stores in Boston, as expressed by index figures, decreased from 105.5 in 1929 to 70.0 in 1939.

Boston has already lost much industrial business to other parts of the country. Necessarily this has taken many residents away from Boston; but Boston has lost many residents to other nearby suburbs, people who are still in business or employment in Boston, and the business of supplying many of their needs has gone into the suburbs also.

The unchallengeable fact is the contemporaneousness of the phenomena, and their disruptive effect on the economy of the area in which they are manifesting themselves.

Taxation as a Cause of Decentralization.

Many have claimed that the high tax rate of Boston has been one of the primary causes of the decentralizing movement. It seems to the Finance Commission that it may be argued with equal force that the decentralizing movement is one of the primary causes of the high tax rate. It is well known that the total tax in dollars assessed upon real estate in 1940 was less than the total tax in dollars similarly assessed in 1930. As an example of this, an analysis of forty-three typical office buildings in Boston shows that the tax assessed against them in 1940 was $2,404,535 as against $2,758,674.40 in 1930 — a decrease of $354,139.40, or 12 per cent.

The argument, therefore, that high taxation in Boston is a major cause of migration from the city is apparently unwarranted. The high Boston rates are due to the decline in total assessable valuation within the city limits while public service, demanded by the people and established in more prosperous times, goes on unabated.

Even if it be granted that the great financial depression of a decade ago was an important factor in the generally depressed condition of the city, it does not account for much of the phenomena under discussion.

Conclusions and Remedies.

Concern should not be directed to the inevitability of a decentralizing movement; it is probably natural that population will eventually leave a city as soon as cheaper and more attractive living in the suburbs becomes available with the development of transportation. The important point is that the city still remains the hub of the Metropolitan wheel around which suburban life in the last analysis revolves, connected with it by the spokes of turnpikes and railroads, while the city with its terminals, its business and industrial sections, its institutions of culture and public welfare, remains the center without which the suburban areas could not continue.

Experience already accumulated here and elsewhere leads to the conclusion that there is nothing which can stop the centrifugal trend in Metropolitan Boston. Better highways and extension of highways into the open spaces of the surrounding communities actually encourage it rather than retard it. The housing developments along the Worcester turnpike and the Concord turnpike are sufficient evidence of this. Yet better highway connections between the heart of Boston and the outside communities are necessary to enable the central city to retain any of its former attraction as an industrial city and as a shopping and amusement center.

FINANCE COMMISSION.

One important feature which the newly developed communities cannot duplicate is Boston's great port and railroad terminal facilities. This advantage, the origin of important and extensive business, must continue to be readily available to the suburban communities about Boston, lest they might possibly be attracted to ports and terminals more easily accessible. Therefore, it is necessary that the port and terminal facilities of Boston, to say nothing of the shopping areas, be accessible by means of good highways to the consuming areas of the north, west and south of Boston.

It appears that the only attempt made to date in the direction of meeting the general problem of decentralization has been the sponsorship of the proposed circumferential highway by many organizations containing memberships from a wide area in and about Boston. However, even this one effort was stressed as a highway scheme more than as a deterrent to the decline of the areas surrounding Boston Harbor with its port and terminals.

Throughout the public discussion of this matter, a note of prejudice against Boston was clearly discernible. Those concerned with the development of the idea pointed to many substantial advantages to the whole Metropolitan area by such a project. However, to many who gave support, the controlling incentive was "that it does not cost Boston anything." This lukewarm basis of support suggested to representatives of other communities that if it was to cost Boston nothing, then it would be undertaken at their expense, and they therefore opposed it. This attitude is typical of the attitude of the communities outside Boston to any state aid to Boston.

The Finance Commission believes strongly that this prejudice against Boston and Boston's interests is short-sighted. The problem is not Boston's alone. It is equally applicable to five of the neighboring cities. The combined population of Boston and of these cities is over 1,100,000 persons. It is almost one half the population of the Metropolitan area and about one quarter of the population of the entire state. The plight of the municipalities which embrace such a large fraction of the people of the whole Commonwealth cannot be solved on a basis of prejudice. It is too important to all. It must be approached on a basis of an intelligent and open-minded appraisal of existing facts and future probabilities.

The Finance Commission is well aware of the unwillingness of all the surrounding cities and towns to throw in their lot with Boston. The reasons both economic and emotional are deepseated. They arouse resistance to every proposal which may result in or be construed into a closer union with Boston. Yet they must not be allowed to cloud or distort the problem which the Metropolitan area is facing. It is a problem of transferring to the shoulders of a large number of growing communities a portion of the burdens which cannot be borne alone by some six or seven large cities in the heart of the Metropolitan area. Cambridge and Somerville, Revere and Chelsea, are suffering from the same malady as Boston, and probably to a greater degree. Their problem is the same as the problem of Boston, and the same solution is as necessary for them as for Boston.

One of the first suggestions which might be made in approaching this solution involves the unifying of municipal services. How to remove this suggestion from the realm of wishful thinking and indicate ways and means of applying it is the next step.

The Boston Metropolitan area is not without experience in the field of metropolitanization and coordination of services. The story of agreements for cooperative effort of contiguous municipalities in fire fighting and police work, the transit pattern of the Boston Elevated, the servicing of the Metropolitan area by the Metropolitan District Commission in the fields of water, sewers and parks — these are too familiar to need recounting, yet they are precedents not to be ignored.

It is not the intention of this report to advocate specific examples of possible coordination in the Metropolitan area. There are many such possibilities, all within the limits of existing law; and, in addition, many more which would require legislative action. In this latter category, for instance, is the problem of public welfare. The Bureau of Municipal Research recently recommended that this problem be metropolitanized. A Metropolitan police force is another possibility. The City Hospital is almost Metropolitan in many of its functions, but is supported wholly by Boston taxpayers. And many other possibilities could be mentioned.

Nor is it the intention of the Finance Commission to suggest any form of cooperation by which the political stature of the City of Boston might be enhanced. The problem is too serious to permit the introduction of such considerations. Furthermore, it is not a problem where Boston alone is involved on one side as against the other cities and towns in the Metropolitan area on the other. What is true of Boston is true of Cambridge, Somerville, Everett, Chelsea and Revere. They have a common problem and Boston, as has previously been shown, is not suffering and probably will not suffer as badly as certain of these other municipalities. The common problem which they all have involves areas where almost one half of the entire population of the Metropolitan area resides. For the remaining cities and towns to fail to recognize the effect on them of the difficulties of these other areas is folly. To adopt a "holier than thou" attitude, and to "let them stew in their own juice" is equally foolish. And to let a fear of political ascendancy on the part of Boston interfere with a willingness to come to grips with the problem on the part of all officials of the cities and towns in the Metropolitan area is the height of shortsightedness.

In closing, the Finance Commission wishes to emphasize its confidence that the problem raised by decentralization can be satisfactorily solved. A migration from congested areas and antiquated quarters to new homes in suburban areas is a highly beneficial development for Metropolitan Boston. The disadvantages to the areas being deserted do not begin to balance the advantages to the whole community. These disadvantages will, however, become serious and will demand action. The Finance Commission believes that they can be solved in a spirit of cooperative effort, and urges the immediate initiation of such effort in such a spirit.

As a step in this direction, the Finance Commission believes it would be fitting for your Excellency to sponsor the creation of a recess legislative committee whose task would be a comprehensive study of the situation and the presentation of a report to the next Legislature containing suggestions for statutory authorization of, and directions for, coordinating public services in the Metropolitan area.

TRAFFIC COMMISSION RULINGS.

Voted, That as urgently required by considerations of public safety and convenience, during the period of bridge repairs, estimated to be two (2) months, Dover Street Bridge is one way from Albany street to Dorchester avenue, effective July 14, 1941.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 627.

Patrolmen Michael F. O'Brien, Michael J. McDonough and William J. Hogan, all of whom are attached to the Bureau of Criminal Investigation, are commended for their efficiency in effecting the arrests of two men who were recently convicted and sentenced to State Prison for the crimes of deriving support from prostitution, suffering females to be on the premises for prostitution and maintaining a house of ill fame.

The woman victim in the case was given a concoction which stupefied her senses and while in this condition was taken to a house in the Roxbury district and forced into a life of shame.

This is the first case of its kind for some time that has come to the attention of this department whereby a young woman was removed from the streets and forced to prostitute herself.

The commissioner is pleased to recognize the initiative and intelligence shown by these officers in their investigation as well as in the careful preparation and presentation of the evidence in this case which resulted in conviction. In addition, each officer is granted three days' additional vacation.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

JOSEPH F. TIMILTY,
Police Commissioner.

General Order No. 628.

Acting under provisions of chapter 521, Acts of 1922, as amended, creating the Contributory Retirement System, the Boston Retirement Board has notified this department that it has approved for retirement on account of accidental disability, Patrolman Harold V. Langlois of Division 17, a member of said Contributory Retirement System; such retirement to take effect at midnight, Thursday, July 31, 1941.

Wherefore, In view of this operation of law, the Police Commissioner states that on and after July 31, 1941, at the hour stated, the said Patrolman Harold V. Langlois shall no longer be an active member of this department, and it is hereby ordered that its records be so amended.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

JOSEPH F. TIMILTY,
Police Commissioner.

MAYOR PLANS DAY OFF IN SEVEN FOR HUB POLICE.

The Mayor has submitted the following proposal to the City Council:

BOSTON, July 14, 1941.

To the City Council.

GENTLEMEN,—The City Council, at a recent meeting, requested me to give consideration to the adoption of the act permitting a day off in seven for members of the Boston Police Force.

In connection with this order, I have most recently conferred with the Police Commissioner. As a result of this conference, an agreement has been reached between the Police Commissioner and me, whereby I shall submit to your Honorable Body in about ten weeks an order for the acceptance of chapter 122 of the Acts of 1938, the enabling act which permits the adoption of the day off in seven for policemen.

To adopt this act at the present moment, during the height of the vacation season, would entail considerable expense and inconvenience which can be averted, in great part, if the plan is put into effect at the time above mentioned. The enabling act is so worded that were it accepted at this time the Police Commissioner would forthwith be compelled to place the day off in seven in operation. For these reasons it has been decided to delay the actual acceptance of the act until on or about October 1 of this year.

I am thoroughly in agreement with the principle enunciated in the act, that is, that policemen be granted a day off in each seven working days. There is no justifiable reason, other than marked additional expense, to deny policemen a privilege which is commonly accepted by all as a right. As to the additional expense which may be involved, I am convinced that the act may be made effective with but slight additional cost to the Police Department and the City. Police Commissioner Timilty is wholeheartedly in favor of the present outlined plan and has expressed a desire to cooperate in every way for its economical adoption.

It has been my desire and purpose, for some time, that this act be adopted. I could not, however, in fairness to all our citizens initiate action in this respect until, first, I could be certain that our tax rate was not to be increased, and second, that the additional cost to the city would be at a bare minimum. With these uncertainties erased, I shall submit to your Honorable Body late in September an order requesting your approval and acceptance of the act providing for a day off in seven for the police of Boston.

Respectfully,

MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

TRAFFIC COMMISSION RULINGS.

Voted, That as urgently required by considerations of public safety and convenience, during the period of street construction, estimated to be sixty (60) days, vehicles are excluded from the following street, effective July 9, 1941:

Athens Street, South Boston.
From A street to B street.

Voted, That as urgently required by considerations of public safety and convenience, during the period of water main construction in Washington street, estimated to be two (2) weeks, the following streets are one way in the direction indicated, effective July 14, 1941:

Arborway, West Roxbury.
From Washington street to South street.

Morton Street, West Roxbury.
From St. Ann street to Washington street.

DAMAGES AWARDED.

The Mayor has approved the following votes of the Board of Street Commissioners:

Voted, That the order of the Street Commissioners and Mayor of August 9, 1938, as amended May 29, 1941, determining damages caused by the making of the public improvement consisting of the laying out of Glenham street, be, and the same hereby is, amended, by adding to said order the amount $150, as an award to Helen Deininger. That the amount $150 be, and the same hereby is, awarded to Helen Deininger for the damages so sustained.

Voted, That the order of the Street Commissioners and Mayor of July 21, 1939, determining that no person sustains damages by the making of the public improvement, consisting of the laying out of Daly street, be, and the same hereby is, amended, by striking out in the first and second lines of said order the words: "that no person sustains in his estate," and by striking out in the last line of said order the word: "no." That said order be further amended by adding thereto Eva Zabarowski, $97. That the amount $97 be, and the same hereby is, awarded to Eva Zabarowski for the damages sustained by the making of the said improvement.

CONSTRUCTION WORK.

The Mayor has approved the request of the Public Works Department for the following construction work:

A surface drain of 12-inch pipe in Stella road, between Harding road and Stony brook conduit, in the West Roxbury district, at an estimated cost of $1,000.

A surface drain of 10-inch and 12-inch pipe, four catch-basins and one manhole on old sewer, in Harding road, between Hadwin way and Stella road, in the West Roxbury district, at an estimated cost of $2,800.

LOCATION OF STREET.

The Mayor has approved the following vote of the Board of Street Commissioners:

Voted, That the location, direction, width and grade of the private way, in the Brighton district, designated as President terrace, leading southerly from Gardner street for a distance of approximately eighty feet, as shown on a plan approved in writing by the Board of Street Commissioners, and on file in the office of the Street Laying-Out Department, be, and the same hereby is, approved.

EXTENSION OF CONTRACT.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

The Prompt Contractors, Inc., have been granted an extension of the time of completion of the contract for building sewerage works in Beatrice street, between Paula road and Groveland street, Dorchester; Galty avenue, from 40 feet southeast of Mercier avenue 38 plus feet southeasterly; and Barna road, from Galty avenue 146 plus feet northeast, from June 22, 1941, to July 22, 1941—a period of thirty days. Work was started May 26, 1941.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 629.

Sergt. John F. Dunleavy, Patrolmen Frederick G. Kahler and Henry T. Doherty, all attached to Division 2, are commended for efficient police duty performed in connection with the arrest of a man whom they observed entering a downtown hotel and known to be a recent parolee from the Concord Reformatory.

The officers continued to observe the premises for several days, and on June 5, 1941, they saw the man enter the hotel carrying bundles. The officers followed him to his room where they found and seized a quantity of watches, jewelry, radios and various other articles.

Further investigation revealed that he was wanted by the Milton police for several house breaks in that town.

The commissioner is pleased to commend these officers for their initiative, keen observation and devotion to duty shown in performing this splendid police work.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

JOSEPH F. TIMILTY,
Police Commissioner.

TRAFFIC COMMISSION RULINGS.

Voted, That as urgently required by considerations of public safety and convenience, during the period of roadway resurfacing in the intersection of Kneeland street, Stuart street and Washington street, the following rules are effective from 10 p. m. Tuesday, July 15, 1941, to 7.30 a. m. Wednesday, July 16, 1941:

Vehicles are excluded from the following streets:

Kneeland Street.
From Harrison avenue to Washington street.

Stuart Street.
From Tremont street to Washington street.

Washington Street.
From Dore street to La Grange street.

The one-way rule in the following street is suspended and it is a two-way street:

Harrison Avenue.
From Beach street to Kneeland street.

The one-way rule in the following street is reversed and it is a one-way street in the direction now indicated:

Hollis Street.
From Washington street to Tremont street.

REVISED CONTRACT TOTALS.

The Mayor has approved the following request of the Acting Superintendent of Supplies:

BOSTON, June 11, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Under date of April 21, 1941, a letter was sent to your Honor asking for authority to award contracts for concrete mix for delivery to the various city departments, as required, until December 31, 1941, bids being publicly opened and read at this office under date of April 4, 1941. This letter was approved under date of May 1, 1941.

In the Charlestown district the item of 365 cubic yards of concrete mix with lampblack was erroneously awarded to the Boston Sand and Gravel Company as the lowest bidder, but on a re-check of the prices it was discovered that the Watertown Builders Supply Company was the lowest bidder on this item.

This change will make the revised totals of the contract awarded to the Boston Sand and Gravel Company $16,262.60 instead of $20,460; and the amount of the original contract awarded to the Watertown Builders Supply Company of $7,485 will be increased to $11,627.75.

Respectfully yours,

CHARLES E. THORNTON,
Acting Superintendent of Supplies.

PROCEEDINGS OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

June 16, 1941.

A regular meeting of the School Committee of the City of Boston was held in the Administration Building, 15 Beacon Street, at 9:39 p. m., the Chairman presiding.

Present: Messrs. Lee, McDevitt, Norton, and White.

AMENDMENT AND APPROVAL OF MINUTES

On motion, the minutes of May 12, 1941, were amended on page 99, to provide that the appointment of William F. Flaherty as temporary shop instructor in the Vocational High and Opportunity School, to take effect May 14, 1941, shall read "trade instructor."

The reading of the minutes of May 28, June 2 and 5, 1941, was omitted, the Committee approving them as printed, as amended.

APPROVAL OF STATE-AIDED CLASSES

A communication was received from Robert O. Small, Director, Division of Vocational Education, Department of Education, under date of June 13, 1941, reporting that the establishment of certain departments in the Boston Evening Distributive Occupations School has been approved in accordance with plans set forth and submitted in memoranda on file in that office.

Placed on file.

ACCEPTANCE OF NEW SCHOOL

A communication was received from the Superintendent of Construction, Department of School Buildings, under date of June 10, 1941, reporting that he has accepted as completed, as of June 7, 1941, the new elementary school in the Agassiz District, Moss Hill, Jamaica Plain.

Placed on file.

Mr. Norton: May I say for the purpose of the record that I think this Committee should be proud of this Moss Hill School undertaking. We have built a whole school at a cost of $11,000 a room at a time when prices are up. They tell me that in the past that school might have cost, when prices were lower, $18,000 a room. There we have a beautiful new school that has been built at a cost of about $11,000 a room. I think that is something to be proud of.

Chairman: And built without any added expense to taxpayers.

Mr. Norton: And built without adding one cent to the tax rate. It is also the first school that has been built in Boston off the main thoroughfares and away from traffic, so as to try to protect the school children, approximately 1,000 of whom are injured each year.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

The twelve orders laid over at the meeting of June 2, 1941 (see pp. 108-119), making changes in and additions to the Authorized List of Text Books, were taken up and passed collectively and unanimously.

Mr. Lee: I notice here on the unfinished business, Item C, under the heading of "Mayor, Recreational Set-up for City." I wonder if you would be good enough to give us a report on how that is progressing? We brought that up here a month ago, on the suggestion of the Committee that the Mayor set up a co-ordinating committee on recreation. What is the status of that now?

Chairman: We haven't had word of action taken by the Mayor as yet.

Mr. Lee: A letter has been received from the Mayor to you, asking you to designate two members. You have named them, and you have not heard from the Mayor?

Chairman: That is right—not two members of this Committee – two persons to serve on the proposed committee.

Mr. Norton: At numerous times during the year, we have had complaints made to the School Committee. When such complaints have been made, oftentimes the integrity of our school officials has been somewhat questioned. I wish to state for the purpose of the record that I am very proud of the fact that in my term of service on this Committee not once have we found from any one who thought that he had a complaint, one iota of evidence that our Superintendent or the Board of Superintendents has ever for one moment violated the strictest rule of integrity.

I think, since this Board gives every person who thinks he has a complaint an opportunity to be heard, and we have given a number during the past year, I am rather proud to be able to make that statement. And I congratulate you, Mr. Superintendent.

Superintendent: Thank you, Mr. Norton.

Chairman: May we add to that by saying, that after a thorough survey of the whole administration, not once have we found an appointment being recommended contrary to the prescribed Rules and Regulations.

Mr. Norton: Yes.

Mr. McDevitt: That opinion is unanimous.

Mr. Lee: May I interpolate that I almost see upon the forehead of the Chairman, the phrase—"Mens Aequa in arduis"?

Mr. Norton: I should like to suggest to the Board of Superintendents that they consider this summer, if they will, the advisability of having more high school students take up the subject of typewriting; also of turning out of our high schools students who can hold a sustained speed of at least 40 words a minute for five minutes, so that those students can qualify for typewriting jobs for which I understand they do not at the present time qualify.

If I had my way, every student in our high schools would have four years of typewriting, on the assumption that we are living in a mechanical age, and it matters not what occupation that particular student is going to follow in life, whether the career of laborer, or professor, or doctor, or dentist. The ability to typewrite is a skill that we all might use.

COURSE IN POPULAR OR PRACTICAL SCIENCE

Mr. Lee: I would like to bring before the Committee an idea which would be along the lines of giving a further boost in a field in which I think the Boston schools have pioneered, and that is in the field of popular science or practical science.

While we have touched to a good extent on the application of science in our homes I would like to see a little more instruction in technical and particular points. I would like to see material included in the course which would instruct the youngster as to the usual defects that come in connection with gas burners and typical makes of oil burners as well as defects pertaining to electric light switches—like pulling out the chain that turns the light on and off on certain fixtures—how to repair that sort of thing—with points on the popular makes of electric refrigerators, and the common things that go wrong with them and what you do about it.

I would also include in such a course particular ideas on how to repair a door hinge, where you get the right kind of a screw, what you do if the wood is splintered and broken and the wood will not hold together, as well as instruction on types of locks and a little about what controls the character and behavior of radiators.

Apart from the technical dexterity, which is of practical importance, I think a knowledge of such things has an important personality value, because nothing makes one feel more futile than to live in one's house and be floored and helpless when the faucet will not turn off, or the refrigerator, or the oil heater, or gas heater stops and, for want of knowing some little point about it, you are not able to fix it.

I would like to recommend that the Board of Superintendents look into expanding that particular aspect of our practical science course so as to be a benefit to the youngster in a practical way and also to give him more of a feeling of confidence in dealing with the world, most of which comes in a tin can and is outside of his control. With the Committee's consent, I would like to leave that suggestion with the Board of Superintendents. I think we have made a good beginning and that we can bring that along further.

TEMPORARY TEACHERS

Mr. Lee: Mr. Chairman, I would like to bring up another point that keeps coming to my mind and which perhaps will arise this present week, in connection with our salary schedule and more particularly with reference to the question of temporary teachers.

I believe we should make a complete readjustment of the schedule of temporary teachers, because they are no longer temmporary. Especially in the high schools, I believe they will go on until their retirement age, still being called temporary teachers.

There is an expedient that might facilitate taking care of a good many temporary women teachers. It would depend on the retirement or the voluntary resignation of some of the permanently appointed teachers.

If you were to ask the average person who comes to our shores from another country what it means to be an American, that person's answer will be "To have a small family." That stands out in the minds of those who come from other countries, and with it the thought of living in a little white house in the suburbs and, instead of the European family of six, seven, eight or nine, a family of two, or three, or four children.

I feel more and more disturbed at being a party, as a member of this Committee, to going that idea even one better and putting up a barricade—of which I have spoken before—against our 3000 teachers marrying. Of course any teacher is free to resign from our service and marry. Nevertheless, in effect we put a premium on remaining unmarried.

One of the few outstanding careers open to women is that of being a teacher, and if there is a rule of the School Committee which forbids teachers marrying while they teach, and if a young lady going through Teachers College more and more orients her mind to a career that prohibits marriage, I think it is a very bad emphasis. I feel as though I was sort of bribing a good many admirable women to shut their thoughts to the possibility of settling down and having a home.

I think it is extremely bad for the girl going through high school. I think the majority of our girl students come from homes where both parents have worked hard, where there are a goodly number of people, where life is made up of some pretty hard work, washing, scrubbing, cooking, and caring for youngsters: and that girl going through high school looks at a woman who is teaching her, dressed in the height of fashion enhancing native charm and graces, with a fine education, being paid more than her family ever saw or dreamt of. Whether she thinks it or not, that girl student tends to get her idealism directed along the line that the way to do is not to marry, but to get a good job, and then have a fine salary and plenty of money to spend on trips to Europe in the summer, and be able to eat in the best places and have the best clothes.

That idea radiating down through the growing population in our schools is, I think, a very bad example.

When I brought that up before, I quoted a letter from the superintendent of a large city school system where teachers are allowed to marry and still teach, and the conclusion of his report was that people would always argue, some on one side and some on the other, but as far as he could tell, and as far as the world in general could tell, you get about as good a teaching force where your teachers are married as you do where married teachers are not employed. I think that is where common sense would lead. There are some advantages that a woman has by having children of her own. There are obvious things she loses by the fact that she takes one year or ten years out of her teaching life while her family are still tots.

Bringing this back to the question of temporary teachers, I think if we relaxed that ban which—for no educationally sound reason—we have on our teachers getting married, I think out of 3,000 teachers perhaps one in six, or one in ten, would get married,—being relieved of the anxiety that marriage forever forbids their returning to a teaching salary. If that were so, a great majority of these married teachers would be settling down with a home of their own and would resign from teaching work. If we could have 300 vacancies about this time it would be a nice thing for our women temporary teachers who could be appointed to the jobs so left vacant.

Chairman: How are you working this out? Where are the 300 vacancies?

Mr. Lee: Out of 3,000 women teachers in our schools, if it were still possible to teach after marriage, I am inclined to believe that perhaps one out of ten teachers—in the course of three years—who otherwise would have stuck to their careers, would find themselves a little more open-minded to the possibility of married life. Therefore, if you had 300 marriages, I think the great majority of those would soon confine their time to their homes.

Chairman: They would be back teaching all the time.

Mr. Lee: If it is the experience in other school systems that a married teacher spends perhaps five years away from teaching, it would mean that perennially, as time went on, you would always have a certain proportion of your teaching staff who would be retiring or who over a period of five years would be absent.

Chairman: You would be giving temporary leaves of absence and using more temporary teachers and you would not provide any more permanent employment.

Mr. Lee; If we knew that every one of our teachers in the schools today would take five years out of her teaching career we would know that we could appoint one-fifth again as many teachers, because you are immediately taking out of actual teaching positions a certain fraction of your teaching force. Then you can safely go ahead and employ others to fill their places.

Furthermore, in certain cases the teacher would definitely retire and say she had no intention of coming back.

Chairman: The woman who wants to raise a family retires when she decides to get married. She does not stay in the school system after marriage.

Mr. Lee: In an uncertain economic age many a woman hesitates to leave a secure and fairly lucrative position with pension rights, to risk matrimony with a man who is not making too much money, with all the hazards of sickness and unemployment. If teachers did not have to make this absolute choice between teaching and marriage, I think many a teacher would marry and leave teaching. In other words, you set up a sort of a yes or no situation in the person's mind, where they must choose between marriage and a career, whereas if you do not make such a hard and fast distinction, many a teacher would be more prone to marry. I think it would be a fine thing to relax the bars.

It is bad enough in a private organization but it is particularly bad in a public body to provide that salaries shall cease the moment a woman gets married. I think it sets up a whole mechanism in the teacher's mind that if she wants security she must not get married.

Chairman: You think there would be a tendency toward a larger family if they had the right to continue teaching after marriage?

Mr. Lee: I think it would lead to more teachers getting married. Only 26 per cent of those who left Teachers College ten years ago have married, which, I think, is appalling.

To think of myself as one of five people offering such an incentive that it has the effect of persuading people to stay away from making a home, it seems to me is wrong.

Chairman: Do you think we pay them too much money, that we ought to pay them a smaller salary?

Mr. Lee: That may come into it. I think the main thing is not to force our young girls to turn their thoughts toward a career which excludes marriage. In our school system the teacher is on a rated list; she has to put other things out of her life. You condition an ambitious girl all through her years in Teachers College and her years as a substitute to concentrate and give her all to teaching. You cannot expect that young lady to be in the same frame of mind to settle down to married life.

Chairman: She does not feel such an obligation toward the school system that she will not get married?

Mr. Lee: Nevertheless it sets up an artificial barrier and a bad barrier and I do not think it is justified. I cannot find any body of opinion that can hold to the principle of that without contradiction. It is about 50-50 educationally. Other businesses seldom say that their women employees shall not marry.

Mr. Norton: What Mr. Lee is trying to say is that if a woman marries she should have the alternative of holding her position if she so desires.

Chairman: That is the basic suggestion.

Superintendent: Is Mr. Lee trying to prove that if we did not make marriage a barrier to teaching in the schools, more teachers would resign?

Mr. Lee: That teachers would look more kindly toward the prospect of marriage and would get married and would find themselves settling down and making homes.

Superintendent: It would be a hard proposition to prove.

Mr. Lee: It is hard for me to believe that 75 per cent of the women who have come out of Teachers College in the last ten years, some of whom must be 32 years old, have said "No" to the normal life of a home as a wife and a mother, unless there is a pretty strong economic inducement that heads their thoughts away from it.

The Committee adjourned.

CHARGE FOR POLICE RADIO SERVICE.

At least five cities and three states operating police radio systems charge for radio messages transmitted to police cars of other cities and suburbs which do not operate their own transmitters, the International City Managers' Association states. The cities are Cleveland, Detroit, Toledo, Akron and Providence; the states are Connecticut, Massachusetts and New Jersey.

Cleveland charges East Cleveland 42 cents for each call transmitted to East Cleveland police cars. East Detroit pays Detroit 35 cents a call; the sheriff's office of Lucas County, Ohio, pays Toledo 50 cents a call, with a minimum of $25 a month; and Akron charges 35 cents per message transmitted to Barberton, Cuyahoga Falls, and the sheriff's office of Summit County. Providence makes charges on calls to police cars of several surrounding communities.

Communities served by the Connecticut, Massachusetts and New Jersey state police radio systems are charged certain percentages of operating costs.—American City Magazine.

FELLOWSHIP STUDIES IN TRAFFIC CONTROL.

Fifteen graduate fellowships, each with a stipend of $1,200-plus up to $200 for travel and field investigation have been announced by the Bureau for Street Traffic Research of Harvard University. The regular annual tuition fee of $400 will be deducted from the fellowships, which have been made available through a gift to the University by the Automobile Manufacturers' Association. The officers of instruction are Miller McClintock, Director of the Bureau, and Maxwell Halsey, Assistant Director. Each of two full courses in street and highway traffic control consists of three one-hour periods a week, and additional problems, assignments and field work.

STATE VALUATIONS IN 1937.

Total assessed value of real estate on January 1, 1937, in the thirty-nine cities and 316 towns of Massachusetts, $5,742,161,541 ($18,194,654 less than on January 1, 1936), of which 65.62 per cent applied to buildings and 34.38 per cent to land; of personalty, $525,039,493; aggregate valuation, $6,267,201,034 (2.74 per cent decrease from 1936), on which the total tax was $222,184,422. To raise this amount of taxes on the property assessed at a uniform rate throughout the State would have required a tax rate of $35.45+ on $1,000 valuation. Boston's valuation, $1,590,544,700, equal to 25.38 per cent of total valuation in the State.

RECEIPTS OF MILK IN BOSTON BY RAIL. STATISTICS FOR YEAR 1937.

Total, 201,115,222 quarts (including 21,533,437 quarts of cream) or 190,884,037 by the Boston & Maine Railroad; 9,304,589 by New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad; 926,596 by Boston & Albany Railroad.

The said total exceeds that of 1936 by 2,233,863, but is 35,786,309 below the receipts in 1931 which was the highest on record.

The receipts in 1937 of the Boston & Albany Railroad are the lowest on record for that railroad.

The maximum receipts of milk and also of cream in 1937 were in August; the minimum in February.

SEWAGE TREATMENT PLANT CONSTRUCTION ON THE INCREASE.

Owing to the economic conditions prevailing during the past year, there was but a relatively small volume of sewage treatment plant construction. Within recent months, however, there has been a decided impetus to new construction of this type growing out of the Public Works Administration allotments. Nearly 700 cities have received allotments of funds from the P. W. A. for sewerage or sewage treatment, involving an aggregate expenditure of well over $200,000,000.

FOR AIDING BOYS.

In an effort to lend a helping hand to misfit and underprivileged boys and to stem the alarming flow of young men into penal institutions and lives of crime, Big Brother Bureaus are being organized by the police departments of various cities. The International Association of Chiefs of Police urges all police jurisdictions to join the Big Brother League.

NO COST CONTROL FOR REFUSE DISPOSAL.

American cities on the whole may be clean housekeepers, but they don't know how much it is costing them to be clean or whether they are spending too much. Only a few cities are able to report accurately the unit cost of removing garbage and other refuse and of cleaning streets, according to the Public Administration Service of Chicago, Ill., which further reports that at least 90 per cent of the cities in this country have no cost control over this service.

PITTSBURGH'S TRAFFIC SAFETY RECORD.

Pittsburgh has been adjudged the safest city in the United States in 1932, and the second safest in 1933 and 1934 among cities with populations over 500,000. Registrations in the city increased 4.4 per cent, gasoline consumption 7.7 per cent. In 1935, despite a 2.4 per cent decrease in traffic volume, adult fatalities increased 30 per cent, total fatalities 24 per cent, as compared with 1934.

MANY TYPES OF W. P. A. PROJECTS.

The Works Progress Administration has placed in operation a total of more than 300,000 projects. Except for the more pretentious types of construction, these projects have covered almost the whole field of American endeavor in meeting the primary objective of relieving unemployment. The American City.

Of 2,629 applications for licenses to carry loaded revolvers, 2,431 were granted.

Accidents from all causes in the streets, parks and squares caused death of 122 and injury to 7,289. Automobile accidents killed 76 and injured 4,431. The automobile fatalities were 62.3 per cent of the 122 deaths.

Annual salaries: Commissioner, $8,000; superintendent, $7,000; deputy superintendents, 4 at $4,500 each; captains, $4,000; lieutenants and lieutenant-inspectors, $2,700; sergeants, $2,500; patrolmen, $1,600 the first year, with $100 yearly increase until maximum of $2,100 is reached. The Traffic Division numbered a force of 211 in 1938.

In 1938, the Police Charitable Fund amounted to $207,550 and $7,900 was paid to 54 beneficiaries during said year.

METROPOLITAN DISTRICT, 1938.

Total valuation of the 43 cities and towns in the Metropolitan District in 1938 was $3,499,398,193 and the property tax on the same was $130,474,309. The average tax rate was $33.28. Strictly speaking, tax rates cannot be averaged. A rate of $37.28 would be required to raise $130,474,309 on a valuation of $3,499,398,198. Of the total valuation, 44.37 per cent applied to property in Boston.

The total valuation of the 13 cities in the district was $1,126,838,735 with a total property tax of $42,494,084, requiring a tax rate of $37.71.

Boston's tax rate of $41.30 was exceeded by Chelsea ($46.20), Revere ($47.00), Saugus ($46.00) and Somerville ($43.90).

REVENUE BOND ACTS.

The 1936 issue of the "Municipal Index" contains a detailed study of the revenue bond acts in the thirty-three states which have enabling acts, and reports of all forty-eight states, showing what advantage has been taken of these acts by cities to finance the construction, operation and maintenance of sewerage systems and sewage treatment plants by service charges.

The table shows the status of revenue bond acts and other enabling acts in the different states, the dates when the acts became effective, and whether or not cities have taken advantage of the opportunity offered for financing bonds by service charges. In the case of states with no enabling acts, the table shows whether cities are charging sewer rentals under some other authority.

A NEW POSITIVE WATER-METER TESTER.

The large majority of waterworks, particularly the smaller ones, seldom have accurate or positive means of testing their meters. Often when a meter is repaired, the man making the repairs simply blows through the meter to see if it runs, when it is again put into service with the assumption that it is accurate. Sometimes meters are hooked up in series with a new meter and water is run through to see if the readings check. This is better than the lung-power method, but still is far from accurate or dependable, in that the test meter may be in error by 2 per cent or even more. Several states have regulations governing water utilities, both municipal and private, and require a positive method of testing water meters in every meter shop.—American City Magazine.

BUDGETARY CONTROL.

Prior to installing the present system of budgetary control, effective as of January 1, 1939, the city of Newark had no centralized accounting control over its budget commitments. The city's general ledger contained accounts for the various budget appropriations, and reflected disbursements out of the appropriations. However, commitments for work and material were not recorded in the city's accounts until after bills submitted by the vendors had been approved for payment by the Board of Commissioners. Consequently, financial reports could only show the amount of appropriated moneys that had not been disbursed out of any account. No recognition could be given in these reports to the unpaid purchase commitments, since the amount was not known. The American City.

TAUNTON'S ASPHALT PLANT.

One of the functions of a city public works or street department is to operate as effectively as possible in the construction and maintenance of its streets and sidewalks and to produce the necessary materials for paving at the lowest possible cost. In some cities this is effected by the purchase of all paving materials in either the raw or the mixed stage. Taunton has used a city-owned 100-ton asphalt plant for street paving and maintenance and for sidewalk construction for ten years. Located in the city yard with the equipment repair shop and garage, the plant is housed in a 60 by 90 foot building with a 30 by 100 foot wing, which was formerly used as a foundry. The American City.

THE MUNICIPAL WATER-WORKS TREND.

In 1800 there was but one municipally-owned water-works plant in the United States. Now there are 7,853 municipally-owned installations, or 72.8 per cent of the entire number. In the United States there are ninety-four cities of over 100,000 population. All but eleven of these own their water works. Municipal plants serve 96.1 per cent of the population of the ninety-four cities, while private plants serve only 3.9 per cent.

PROPOSALS FOR BITUMINOUS CONCRETE PAVEMENT AND SEWERAGE WORKS IN ROSWELL STREET, WARD 8, FROM LANGDON STREET TO SHIRLEY STREET; AMORY AVENUE, WARD 11, FROM AMORY STREET NORTHWEST FOR 300 FEET; ROCKVALE CIRCLE, (FORMERLY REYEM CIRCLE), WARD 11, FROM WASHINGTON STREET SOUTHEAST FOR 600 FEET; AMORY STREET, WARD 11, WIDENING NORTHEAST CORNER OF GREEN STREET; AND BITUMINOUS CONCRETE PAVEMENT IN HARRISHOF STREET, WARD 12, FROM WALNUT AVENUE NORTHWEST FOR 675 FEET; ESTRELLA STREET, WARD 10, FROM CENTRE STREET TO PRIESING STREET; HALEY STREET, WARD 11, FROM DENNISON STREET TO HARRISHOF STREET; DIXWELL STREET, WARD 11, FROM COLUMBUS AVENUE TO SCHOOL STREET.

The Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston, office 508 City Hall Annex, invites proposals from citizens of the United States and corporations or other legal associations wherein the controlling interest to the extent of at least over one half thereof is owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States, for bituminous concrete pavement, etc., in Roswell street and other streets. A bond will be required for doing the work of a surety company approved by the Commissioner in the sum of 100 per cent of the amount of the contract, to secure the due performance of the contract and the full protection of the city. Forms of proposals may be obtained at Room 508, City Hall Annex. Each proposal should be inclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked, "Proposal for Bituminous Concrete Pavement, etc., in Roswell Street and Other Streets," and left at Room 508, fifth floor, City Hall Annex, before 12 m. of Wednesday, July 23, 1941, with a certified check for two thousand (2,000) dollars, payable to and to become the property of the city if the proposal after acceptance is not carried out. The proposals will then and there be publicly opened and read. Proposals must be made in duplicate, the sealed duplicate, without check, to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the bids. There will be a charge of two dollars ($2) for each set of plans and specifications taken out. If the price of any item appears to the Commissioner to be abnormally high or low, or the bidder neglects to bid on each and every item, it may lead to the rejection of the proposal containing such price. The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which schedule is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained, without cost, upon application therefor at the office of the Commissioner of Public Works. The successful bidder will be required to provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Law so called) to all persons to be employed under this contract and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required prior to the award of said contract. The undersigned reserves the right to reject any or all proposals or to award the contract as he deems best.

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE OF BOSTON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

VOL. 33. SATURDAY, JULY 26, 1941. NO. 30

BOSTON MAY SURRENDER EAST BOSTON AIRPORT TO STATE BY SALE — TRANSFER LIKELY TO BE CONSUMMATED IN AUGUST IF PLANS OF MAYOR TOBIN WORK OUT AS DESIGNED — CITY WILL BENEFIT BY BEING RELIEVED OF HUGE BURDEN YET BENEFIT GREATLY BOTH FINANCIALLY AND AESTHETICALLY — STATE WILL PAY TOTAL OF $1,026,800 FOR SITE AND MAKE IMPROVEMENTS TO PLACE IT ON PAR WITH BEST IN COUNTRY, WHILE CITY WILL BE ABLE TO BEAUTIFY AND EXPAND WOOD ISLAND PARK INTO GREAT BATHING BEACH — MATTER SUBMITTED TO COUNCIL FOR CONCURRENCE.

Should favorable concurrent action be taken by the City Council to proposals by Mayor Tobin, the East Boston Airport will be transferred to the State within a short period. Mayor Tobin has submitted to the City Council an order authorizing the transfer of the Airport to the Commonwealth. The Mayor's measure is to be acted upon as soon as a bill now pending in the Legislature is adopted and signed by the Governor.

On July 21 the Mayor submitted the following communications to the Council:

To the City Council.
